THE ILLUMINATI CONSPIRACY (Continued) (1976 Reading)

Paul Shockley
Trance-Interpreter

EDITOR'S NOTE: Because of the urgency that more entities become aware of the situation of the Illuminati conspiracy, we are reprinting some of the earlier readings so that our many new C.A.C. members might understand more clearly the origin and cosmic significance of this ancient drama, whose final act is about to be staged upon this plane unless we all do something about it, immediately.

QUESTION: Awareness, some of the groups communicating with A.W.'s USA Communications have suddenly become upset with Cosmic Awareness messages that have warned of attempts and conspiracies to set up a world dictatorship and bring about that computer control by the bankers which Awareness calls the "Mark of the Beast Movement". There was one particular message in which Awareness mentioned the names of the Rockefellers and the Rothschilds and their banking systems as being key members of this conspiracy against the people of the earth. Some of the groups feel this kind of information is more political than spiritual and should be withheld. Would Awareness comment on this?

COSMIC AWARENESS:

This Awareness indicates that wherein the spiritual life is being threatened, wherein life itself is being threatened with extinction upon this plane, wherein thousands already are threatened with death and suffering from plutonium poisoning and radiation which has escaped from improper deeds and storing in Fort Knox, and which tragedies will be attributed to swine flu in an effort to cover up the misdeeds that led to the plutonium storage and leakage, wherein souls of entities are being captured and tormented and threatened with degradation and slavery in servitude to the Beast, wherein forces are in control upon this plane which manipulate not only the economies, the physical health, the emotional health and the mental health of entities through programs that are designed to create nations of zombie slaves of the greater percentage of humanity, wherein this kind of energy is at work, the situation moves beyond political concerns into spiritual urgencies, and the fact that certain parts of these forces have gained an amount of control in political levels does not have anything to do with nulifying the spiritual reality of what is happening on this plane.

This Awareness indicates It does not take sides in any dispute, for all entities are part of the body of this Awareness; all souls are cells within this Universe, and this Awareness recognizes all crime, regardless of the magnitude of the crime, as being but a type of illness. This Awareness would heal the afflicted parts of Its body, and would not cast out any part of Itself in order to save the healthy parts, for this Awareness does not exclude anyone from the feast of life.

This Awareness indicates that in order to heal any affliction, the first step is to look deeply enough to recognize that there is actually an affliction that needs to be healed. This Awareness is having difficulty in getting entities to look closely at this affliction, for most would prefer to continue pursuing their own particular 'hustle', their own particular means of bettering themselves in their narrow personal view of the world. This as likened unto entities on a sinking ship arguing over who gets to drink the last martini, or who gets to sleep in the upper bunk.

This Awareness indicates that those who fear to look at what is happening on this plane at this time are as irresponsible as the man who, being told of a cancerous condition in his wife's body, simply turns from the doctor and says, "If you can't say something nice, don't say anything".

This Awareness indicates there is much good awaiting every entity on this plane, including the Rockefellers and the Rothschilds and their associates; for these are also children of this Awareness and are loved as deeply as any other child of this Awareness; but there are certain problems, certain illnesses which must be looked at and healed before any of these blessings can be enjoyed, and it is premature to even consider planning a more beautiful world until the present situation is seen in its reality.

This Awareness does not wish to see any more suffering upon this plane, for this Awareness has watched this dreary tragedy of war, sickness, sorrow, hostility, loneliness, loss, frustration, unbearable agonies and tragedies leading unto death and beyond into continued re-runs of the same old dreary show, with each new setting, each new generation; and this Awareness has watched this insipid story for eons of time and has grown weary of the cries of agony, the tears of sorrow, the wails of the dying; and this Awareness comes now to ask that entities live in a new way, with a new script worthy of the dignity of the children of gods, from whom you all descended.

This Awareness will not prevent entities from continuing to suffer and to tolerate the suffering of others if this is your determined will, yet this Awareness shall show those who have eyes to see, and ears to hear beyond the ordinary senses, how this may be avoided. And this Awareness suggests that even those who harm others would prefer not to live in that manner, and would prefer to be cast in a different role or lifestyle if only they knew how to make the change from one reality to another.

This Awareness would, if entities were to surrender their own separateness and personal games, move all entities back to their source as co-creative members of the Divine Creator, but can only do so as entities surrender into this Awareness and learn to respond to the needs of one another.

This Awareness asks that you serve one another, for this Awareness needs no service, no praise, no glorifying, no sacrifices; yet there are those upon your plane who do need your services and your assistance in understanding how they may help themselves and heal themselves.

This Awareness indicates there is a great force moving upon your plane that is little understood by entities and may be likened unto a storm in consciousness, blown in from the psychic sea of the Fourth Dimension, that transcends time and space and moves in from ancient times of Atlantis and into the present moment. It is ready to be calmed, if that is allowed by the collective consciousness of entities upon this plane, or is ready to reek havoc if that is what it takes to complete its action.

This Awareness indicates this force, this programming, is likened unto a type of linear programming that has reached through thousands of years, by which entities were polarized as programmed parts of an incredibly complex and massive computer system called "Civilization", wherein the script was written thousands of years ago, and historians of today are only as reporters and reviewers of that play, that dramatic epic that has played for thousands of years upon this stage called earth.

How the Programming Began

This programming which began with that ancient priestcraft in Atlantis, was designed to create divisions in consciousness, to create divisions of superior and inferior levels of rank and hierarchy. The rank of the priestcraft being programmed in a manner to allow them to retain power over the masses as they progress from one generation to another, from one incarnation to another. This action, wherein six million entities were mummified and strategically placed in certain areas of the earth to create a maximum of polarity within the earth's forces, in an attempt to create that division of consciousness on many levels, in an attempt to create certain wave length and a hierarchy system of vibrations, in an attempt to create layers upon layers of different vibrations which could be managed by these priestcraft rulers, in their control and understanding of consciousness and power, allowed them to manipulate masses for eons of time upon your plane. These were the followers of Baal, and were representative of Rhyee, that force which was the original separateness, and which has more recently been called by the name of Lucifer.

These priestcraft rulers understood the action of the mind and its structuring mechanisms so well, that they not only structured civilizations and societies patterned after the mind, but even perfected the mechanisms whereby they could project these patterns down the corridors of time, creating civilizations and events even unto the present era.

This Awareness indicates this action which began some sixty thousand years ago, reached its height of power about twenty-five thousand years ago and began to lose its power approximately ten thousand years B.C. after Ra-Ta set about a counter-action, a counter-force of greater power to reverse the trend toward the previous accumulations of power. This occurred at the beginning of the Virgo age as the forces of anti-matter began to wane during the approaching dark cycle which has dominated the earth for these past 12,000 years.

This Awareness indicates the action of Ra-Ta and the builders of the Pyramid and Sphinx in ancient Egypt were designed to offer a greater attraction, a greater power than those of the Atlantean priests, and once the seekers of power were caught up in the Egyptian power, they were led along a path that brought them not only to power, but that enlightenment and realization that power was not the answer to the cravings of the appetite. In this action, many followers of Baal, of Lucifer, were brought back into the Law of One.

How Ra-Ta (Edgar Cayce) Opened the Floodgates

This Awareness indicates that Edgar Cayce, the reincarnated spirit of Ra-Ta, opened the doors for the flood of consciousness upon this plane, to allow that force to begin moving from that Fourth Dimension into this present time. In this action, the Lucifer, the Rhyee, the personification of that first separateness, was given an opportunity to tap into this ancient power that began in Egypt, and in so doing, was drawn unwittingly into states of Awareness that led back to the Law of One, and this Awareness.

This Awareness indicates that force known as Lucifer is now being drawn out of consciousness and moving into Essence. The Head of the Beast, the original separateness, has already returned to Essence. Only the organs and body of this remains upon your plane, and this must, in time, follow also into the return to Essence.

This Awareness indicates all present attempts to pursue and maintain power and control over others are but creating structures that will inevitably be converted into systems designed to serve the people rather than to enslave them; yet, it is a matter of when this will occur, rather than whether it will occur. It is for this purpose that this Awareness communicates with entities at this time, and it is for this purpose that entities need to look closely at what is occurring on their plane, for these energies are a potential force that may be used for good or ill at this time, even as a wind may be harnessed for service, or may reek havoc.

This Awareness indicates any good computer programmer can understand the programming system used in Atlantis and Egypt if they are also capable of comprehending the nature of psychic forces, and can comprehend the Pyramid and Sphinx as being likened unto the pituitary and pineal of the collective consciousness upon this plane, and the mummified corpses may be understood as human transmitters, capacitors, transistors or other psycho-electro-magnetic components.

This Awareness indicates this action created great suffering for many millions of entities upon this plane, and that action from Atlantis was initiated for the glory and the power of the followers of Baal, the followers of Lucifer, the followers of the mind,

The Illuminati -- the Dark Force

This Awareness indicates the Illuminati that began in Atlantis, may be seen as the Dark Force that sought power through deception, control and manipulation; and that Illuminati from the Ra-Ta actions of Egypt was designed to create a power trap that led to enlightenment and a return to the Law of One.

This Awareness indicates that these mummies, serving as frozen consciousness, holding symbolic patterns and programs in their frozen psyches, allowed that energy, those patterns and symbols to be released slowly into consciousness at precise intervals as their mummified bodies decayed.

The entity serving as a channel for this message (Paul Shockley) was such a mummified component of that psychic computer system, and carried within his being the symbol of an onion, that allowed an opening up, one layer at a time, one after another, in such a manner that an awakening would occur at certain times in the appropriate lifetime in accordance with the script written and composed in the Land of Nubia, while Ra-Ta and his associates were in exile there, prior to the construction of the Great Pyramid and the Sphinx.

This Awareness indicates the action of the Egyptian Force was designed to speed up evolution, by creating intensities and collective power and forces that would bring entities together during a dark side of the cycle that began with the Age of Virgo and ended with the Age of Pisces, a time when entities would ordinarily be driven away from one another by forces of self-concern, created by the greater magnetic waves during this dark cycle. This Awareness indicates the Egyptian action brought entities together in order to have a greater power in numbers, to create greater unity against the group or nation which would oppose them. This led to the formation of civilizations, nations and societies.

This Awareness indicates the programming of certain images and events, energy fields, and the release of concepts into consciousness created historical landmarks and cultural changes through the subsequent history of Egypt, Babylonia, Chaldea, Israel and other nations, and up into the various civilizations of the present time. This was all pre-written in general outline, likened unto a plot of a play, a story, or a script. This Awareness indicates the script, having been prewritten, can continue to be played as it was intended by these forces, wherein the Computer Beast does set up its controls and powers over the masses, and wherein entities do suffer through the "Tribulations" as has been prophesied in the Book of Revelations, and wherein the entities after great suffering, eventually are freed as the Beast and the followers of the Beast are moved into predetermined destruction.

This script may continue and may occur in this manner if entities do insist in having it happen in this manner, due to programmed attitudes and belief patterns in their consciousness.

However, this Awareness has come at this time, likened unto a thief in the night, and offers that opportunity, that alternative action, that new script, which entities may claim for their own, as a rapture and an escape from the greater tribulations that lie ahead on the path of the present programming.

Rothschilds & Rockefellers Unwitting Victims

This Awareness wishes no ill to come to any entity, does not wish that they should perish, but that all should inherit eternal life, eternal joy, and eternal peace. This Awareness indicates the Rothschilds and the Rockefellers also are but unwitting victims of the programming from these ancient script-writers, and are simply playing the roles that are being forced upon them.

This Awareness offers entities on this plane an opportunity to change the ending of the script, to allow all entities to be free of these ancient forces whose originators are now no longer in control of these forces, and are not even aware of their own involvement in having started the movement of these forces. This Awareness indicates the forces may be defused, may be stopped, but it is only through the changing of consciousness that this may occur, and consciousness cannot be changed until entities look at what is happening from a new viewpoint, a new perspective.

A Call to Awaken Entities Upon this Plane

This Awareness wishes to call attention to what is happening on this plane, not in order to set one force against another, not to condemn nor judge anyone, but to awaken entities on this plane so that millions need not suffer needlessly.

This Awareness suggests that once the attention is called to the problem of the money-systems, and the works of the money-changers, it becomes necessary to awake the masses to the realization that the Rockefellers and the Rothschilds are being controlled and programmed also and have had little or no choice in their lives, and are being forced to play the roles which they are playing.

This Awareness wishes entities to understand that it is not necessary to continue this drama; that this drama, the entire scene, the entire final act is unnecessary and inappropriate and need not climax the play on human life upon this earth.

This Awareness indicates that entities need only look totally once at that which is happening upon this plane, and when this is done completely, wherein there is no fear or flinching, wherein enough of consciousness sees clearly what is happening, then entities may look away and never again to look at this unworthy scene. Wherein this is seen clearly enough, that entities never again will be trapped and seduced by the money-changers, the old drama may be transcended, and a new drama may begin, which will free entities from economic and hypnotic bondage to the money-changers, and will free the money-changers from fear and terror of the masses that force them to deceive and to seek greater power to avoid confrontation with the masses.

This Awareness indicates that every human face is every other human face, and in every human face there is seen the need for love, peace, harmony, respect and dignity. This Awareness wishes to awaken entities to that peace, dignity, respect, love, and that life of harmony, whereby each entity looks out for the welfare of each other entity, and thereby avoiding that tragedy, sorrow, violence; and that which has been called the "Battle of Armageddon" need not occur on the outer plane.

There is a Fire Raging in Your Home

This Awareness indicates there are many entities who do not wish to be awakened from their slumber and their illusion of security to hear of a fire raging in their home, for this is disturbing information. There are many entities who prefer to hear spiritual messages that soothe, lull, and hypnotize with beautiful words and concepts, and sounds, and rituals, and images to adore, and saints and angels to praise and glorify; yet, this Awareness indicates these are but the trappings of spiritual living and are not the spiritual life: they are but the reminders, the garments of the life. And this Awareness indicates many teachers, priests and spiritual leaders spout forth the beautiful words and lulling tones and claim association with those angels and saints of old, but are simply selling the trappings of spiritual life to their followers, and indeed many of these even take special precautions to keep their followers ignorant of certain truths which give these spiritual leaders an advantage over their followers. This Awareness indicates it is only natural that these so-called 'spiritual leaders' would object to messages from this Awareness which might threaten the 'hustle' they have going for themselves.

This Awareness suggests many of the churches, religious organizations and groups promoting spiritual teachings are spouting the proper words that appeal to the seeker of truth, yet are leading their followers down the trail, following the Beast toward the Bottomless Pit, all because they, themselves, are out to make a buck or two on the wave of spiritual energy that is blowing across this earth. These entities and their followers, who trail obediently behind the Beast and its commands, shall find that indeed they have reaped the whirlwind.

Believe Nothing, but Open Your Eyes

This Awareness asks entities not to believe anything, but to look carefully at everything, and to discern carefully what appears to be, yet to make up their minds about nothing, but to continue to search, to remain open to discovery, to remain in that state of "I don't know"; for in that state, you cannot be closed to further learning, and you will remain open to discovery without pre-judging anything.

This Awareness indicates there are many truths found in many of the spiritual teachings and groups, and these may be likened unto pearls of great price, yet this Awareness indicates it takes more than beautiful words and flowers to make a wedding and marriage that is lasting, healthy and fulfilling; and it takes more than ritual, beautiful words, names of deities and saints, advice, and soft lulling tones to lead to spiritual understanding and expression.

This Awareness indicates there is also a need to see the tragedy, the suffering, the sorrow that exists upon this plane, and to look so deeply at this that the feeling of compassion becomes so unbearable, so overwhelmingly painful, that its very urgency becomes the motivation that moves you into action which can reconcile the polarities that cause such suffering.

This Awareness indicates that in looking at a stereotyped ideal of what a spiritual life should be, is but a form of escape from reality, and has never yet been instrumental in helping to relieve the suffering on this plane, and in fact has led entities to battle and to kill over such ideals.

This Awareness indicates that to heal another, one must look carefully at the illness, and then begin to raise the vibrations from that which is, to that which is imaged as desirable in the next moment. And step by step, moment by moment, image by image, the situation, the vibration of the situation, can be raised. This must start from what is, not from what should be, or what would be nice to observe.

In dealing with illness of power within individuals, or in the earth, the need is to look clearly at what is, then to start raising the vibration from there. Entities have it within their power to change the world, to change the course of events, and to bring a heaven to earth. The future is never fixed, and becomes changed as consciousness changes.

This Awareness wishes entities to understand consciousness can only change when entities no longer judge themselves or others, when entities no longer seek to be higher or further out, greater or more powerful than another, or than themselves. When entities can accept themselves as they are, then they can move on to other ways of being. For this Awareness is not concerned with whether entities are materialistic, spiritual, right or wrong, higher or lower, ascended or descended, but whether entities love one another and whether entities love themselves, and are responsive to the needs of one another.

This Awareness asks not for sacrifice, but for service. This Awareness asks not for praise, but for service and love toward your fellow creatures. For this Awareness needs not service, nor does it need sacrifice or praise, but needs only to experience a rest and relief from watching this dreary tragedy on your plane, as the world turns round and around and around.

ED'S NOTE: Readers are requested to read the Akashic Record, the outline of the Unified States of Awareness, the government of the New Age, and participate in this action which will end this ancient play before the final act need occur.
