

COSMIC AWARENESS is the force that expressed itself through Edgar Cayce, Jesus of Nazareth, the Buddha, Krishna, Mohammed, and other great avatars who served as 'Channels' for the 'Heavenly Father', and who speaks again today as the world begins to enter the New Age of spiritual consciousness and awareness. Since 1963 Cosmic Awareness has been communicating through certain carefully trained channels. The information contained herein was received from deep trance states and 'interpreted' by an entity affiliated with C.A.C. This information is for those who inherit the New Age. Awareness tells you not to believe anything, but to question, explore, doubt and discover for yourself what is the truth. Cosmic Awareness only indicates and suggests.

RESPONSIBILITY.....

BY THOSE IN POSITIONS OF LEADERSHIP AND AUTHORITY

Question:

Would Awareness please explain responsibility in relation to positions of leadership and authority?

COSMIC AWARENESS:

This Awareness indicates that for many thousands of years entities have used positions of power, have used positions of authority, have used positions of leadership to justify their response, their action and their particular way of relating to others.

Many of these positions of power, of authority, of leadership, have had the effect of directing hundreds, thousands, and millions of entities into lives of suffering, tragedy, sorrow, loneliness and death. Yet the positions of leadership, the positions of power, the positions of authority justified themselves and justified the system which made such positions by saying that there must be a leader, there must be someone in charge; and the positions remained to be filled by whoever could grab that seat of power and hold on to that seat of power. The positions were created and the entities sought to fill those positions of power.

This Awareness indicates that there is a difference between responsibility based on a position and responsibility based on awareness of what is.

This Awareness indicates that responsibility based on duties of one's position tend to be limited in viewpoint to the maintenance of that particular position in reference to the duty of the position and maintaining that position, or the structure which holds the position, the particular stone of the pyramid, the particular office of the structure or society, the duty of the entity in that position to carry on his work of maintaining the position and the structure of the society through his duties and responsibilities.

This Awareness indicates this has been seen as a desired end of many entities, to move into such positions of leadership and responsibility upon the pyramid of the society, the government, the bureaucracy, or the corporation levels.

This Awareness wishes entities to look at a new kind of responsibility which is occurring upon this plane: the ability to respond to that which is urgent on a moment-to-moment basis in your own proximity, in your own time and space continuum, in the here and now; the ability to respond to that which is occurring in a manner that is necessary and appropriate from a point of view that integrates all of that which is occurring with the forces which are of the highest and best possible in such a situation, so that a reconciliation occurs and harmony results.

This Awareness suggests that response-ability, the ability to respond, may be likened unto the movement of spontaneous energy bringing into balance and harmony that which has moved off to the left or right as error.

This Awareness indicates this as likened unto driving an automobile on an icy road wherein the wheels begin to slip and the automobile turns sideways: the response occurring by turning the wheel, not with thought, not with ideals, not with planning, not with training of the intellect for such events; but with a spontaneous correction that occurs from a feeling level quicker than one can even think to determine what to do.

This Awareness indicates this as in relation to the action of being totally integrated with what is happening, rather than thinking in terms of, "It is my duty as a driver of the vehicle to turn the steering wheel to the left in a situation such as this".

This Awareness indicates that many entities during World War II, particularly those of Nazi Germany, used their position and their duties given in those positions, used their authority and their responsibility to those authorities above themselves, to justify the actions of violation toward others, even though they, themselves, admitted that it was against their own principles to create such violations.

This Awareness indicates this kind of thinking is not limited to Nazi Germany. It occurs within your own nations of today. It occurs within the hearts and minds of entities today. It occurs within the consciousness of nearly every entity upon this plane: "I have a job to do, and though I do not completely agree with the principles of my job, I must do my duty".

This Awareness indicates that the hypocrisy of position, the position of being a parent, the position of being a leader, the position of being a teacher, the position of being an expert in this or that area, an authority of this or that concept: these positions tend to direct and control the behavior of the one sitting in the seat, sitting in the position. The action of being a leader tends to force the entity into behaving as something other than a human being which he might be were it not for the role he is playing as a leader.

This Awareness suggests that during the coming age, entities shall move into positions of responsibilities, positions of authority in a system, by their ability to respond to what is needed in terms of serving their fellow human beings, in terms of serving the areas which the position was created for, rather than holding a position by means of force, holding a structure, a government, a civilization by means of leadership. And these entities moving into positions of responsibility, being able to respond, shall only be in such positions as long as they are responsive for that which they have been designated in terms of serving.*

This Awareness suggests that there is a vast difference between the public servant and the leader, the authority of the past. The entity who can be of service may still need certain areas of protection to allow himself or herself the freedom and the room to perform the activities and duties necessary to implement that service. They may still need to have a special housing, special types of protection, but the actions shall be those which give service and which are responsive to others who would like to usurp their power and take over the position.

This Awareness indicates that when an entity has a position of responsibility and others are envious of that position, and the entity finds it difficult to maintain that position because of jealousy from the masses, there is something 'not quite proper' in that kind of situation. The proper situation would be that wherein an entity is responsive and responsible to others, and others rely on that entity, and wherein another wishes to perform an activity of equal responsibility, that another office, another position may be created which allows that entity the opportunity also to be of service.

This Awareness indicates there needs be no king of the royal mountain, that is the heights of all power, who must be knocked off in order for another king to sit upon the throne. There does need to be opportunities for entities to be of service to one another, to be responsive to one another; and wherein these urgencies and needs call for responsive entities, there needs to be some form of adjustment that can allow a system, a society, to create those duties and jobs and positions to allow entities the ability to serve, to respond to those needs and urgencies.

This Awareness indicates this in reference on all levels, whether a government, a society, a tribe, a corporation or a family.

ED'S NOTE: The Unified States of Awareness, the government of the New Age, is based upon this principle. The power is on the bottom of the pyramid, the upper levels are only advisories, are only able to give suggestion, recommendations, and make requests for the good of the society. If those on the lower tier do not like the suggestions or recommendations given, they have the power to simply remove that person from the upper tier and replace him with someone else.

For more information on how this operates, please refer to the Akashic Record booklet, and Revelations of Awareness issues 77-17, 77-18, 77-19, 77-22, 77-23.
