COSMIC AWARENESS is the Force that expressed Itself through Jesus of Nazareth, the Buddha, Krishna, Mohammed, Edgar Cayce and other great avatars who served as 'Channels' for the 'Heavenly Father' and who speaks again today as the world begins to enter the 'New Age' of spiritual consciousness and awareness. Since 1963 Cosmic Awareness has been communicating through carefully trained channels. This information is for those who desire to help in bringing in the New Age. Throughout the thousands of 'Readings' given through these various channels, Cosmic Awareness tells us not to believe anything, but to question, explore, doubt, and discover for yourself, through your own channel what is the truth. Cosmic Awareness will only 'indicate' and 'suggest'. Neither C.A.C. or any of the Interpreters is responsible for anything Cosmic Awareness states in any of these readings, nor does C.A.C. or the Interpreters necessarily agree with the statements of Cosmic Awareness. The Interpreters interpret the energies as they see them in trance levels and are not personally responsible for what is said. The Interpreters published herein have no connection with, nor control over the editorial comments and material, including illustrations. This is entirely the responsibility of the editor. Members of C.A.C. are invited to send in questions of general interest to ask Awareness for possible publication in this newsletter.

THE IMPORTANCE OF LEARNING PATIENCE:

AN ADDRESS TO YOUNG PEOPLE BY COSMIC AWARENESS

COSMIC AWARENESS:

This Awareness wishes entities to consider that which is called patience. This Awareness indicates that as entities move through their lifetime on this plane, there appears to be tremendous sense of waiting; that each entity on this plane from birth has a longing, a desire to do something, often that something is undefined. This Awareness indicates that the longing to acquire, to achieve, or to create is so basic as a feeling within entities that it seems to be the greater motivation behind whatever entities do. It begins with the small child, who, lying in the crib, wants to move, wants to do, but all he or she can do is kick the feet and wiggle the arms.

This Awareness indicates that as time passes, the entity learns to crawl and wants to crawl here or there or everywhere, to find something, to do something, to create, to make a mark. This Awareness indicates that when children enter a room, they are always active, moving this, moving that, making their mark, altering the environment, even at a young age. That this continual effort of the entity to make his or her mark on the environment, to create, to draw, to write, to wreck or to build; these are expressions of the desire to do something, whether that something is to the liking of others, or just something to be done for the sake of doing.

This Awareness indicates that as the entity becomes more skilled, more involved, more evolved, and more discerning, the entity begins to look for something better to do, something more creative, something more important, more significant, and the entity always is reaching out with the mind for the idea, for the image of that which is to be done, and then the body follows; the hands follows, the physical dexterity follows, and the creation is worked upon until the dream manifests, and the reality follows. Thus, creations, artistic, engineering, or construction building or social activities, organization...whatever the dream is, becomes a reality; but whatever is done is never enough.

This Awareness indicates the entity then wants to excel that which already has been accomplished, either by himself or others, and so the entity continues from birth till death, seeking to do something, to leave a mark for having been in that experience called life. This Awareness indicates that many of such entities become overly

THE MYSTERY OF OAK ISLAND: DOES THE FABULOUS "MONEY PIT" CONTAIN LOST TREASURE?

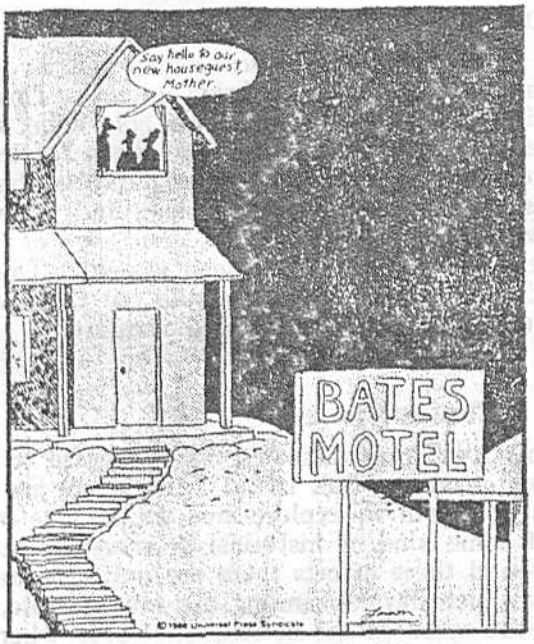
QUESTION:

A question from B.S. in Ohio. This question has been sent in by other people, too, but I don't think we've ever asked it. "What is the secret of Oak Island's money pit?" [Now to fill in some facts on this question, I'll read a brief part of a long Wall Street Journal article on this subject which appeared in their July 20, 1987 issue. They published the information because a group of Canadian and American millionaires were about to launch a $10 million attempt to excavate the pit, which they feel will yield treasure worth many millions more than the investment.

"In 1795 three farmboys rowed out from the mainland to explore the wooded island. Near the eastern end of the island, they stumbled across an ancient clearing of rotted stumps, at the center of which stood a single large oak tree with a sawed-off limb. Directly below the limb, the earth had sunk into a shallow depression. The boys spent the summer excavating beneath the limb, finding themselves in a filled-in shaft, 13 feet in diameter, with tightly fitted log platforms placed across it at 10-foot intervals. With the help of others, they eventually dug the hole to 90 feet, where, atop another log platform, the workers found a large slab of rock bearing a hieroglyphic inscription no one could decipher. Then, after the 90-foot platform was removed, something strange happened. Sea water began to percolate slowly through the bottom of the pit. It soon rose to within 30 feet of the surface, and attempts to bail it were unavailing.

Later search groups, convinced that a treasure vault lay just below the 90-foot level, tried to circumvent the water problem by sinking shafts 100 feet and deeper adjacent to the Money Pit, and then tunneling toward their goal. But in every case, water began seeping into their tunnels once they were within a few feet of the Money Pit. Those shafts also filled to 30 feet from the surface, which is sea level. In 1850, it was discovered that the flooding was no mere geological event, Beneath the beach at Smith's Cove, 500 feet east of the Money Pit, workers uncovered rock-walled tunnels leading from beyond the low-tide mark to the island's interior. The flooding system was apparently designed by the creators of the money pit as a booby trap to prevent anyone from digging more than 90 feet. When the tight log platforms, which acted as a hydrolic seal, were removed, the trap was sprung. A second similar system was later discovered leading out to sea on the island's south side.']

Since then, over the years, there have been 15 major digs, (the island now honeycombed with tunnels and holes) and over $3 million spent and at least 6 people have died trying to get to the bottom of the money pit.



What really happened to Elvis

Now, her questions are: "What's at the bottom of the Money Pit? Who put it there? When, and for what purposes? And most of all, who was the engineering genius who designed the money pit? Did the perpetrators ever plan on retrieving what lies at the bottom of the money pit, and how did they plan on getting it out, when nobody else has been able to do so?"

COSMIC AWARENESS:

This Awareness indicates that this appears to have been, at one time, on the edge of a cliff, at a higher elevation above sea level; that the area sunk and the sea came in over this area; that it appears this was kind of on the order of a light house, in the sense of an ancient construction, wherein entities could look out over the sea. This appears to have been built at a time when traffic of a nature from the Scandinavian countries, far before, long before Christopher Columbus; it appears that this was built by entities from Scandinavian countries near the time of Leif Erickson, the purpose being to spot any vessels.

This Awareness indicates that these entities essentially were marooned in the area and expected to see sailing vessels from Scandinavia, and hoped to make contact. This Awareness indicates that this was also used as a means of bringing food supplies from the sea, up the cliff to where the dwellings were; that it was built by lowering these constructions down along the cliff using large levers and ropes. This Awareness indicates that this does not appear to have any treasure at the bottom. This Awareness indicates that it appears also, that it has in itself sunk under much of the silt that came in, hundreds of years of buildup of silt.

(FOLLOW-UP QUESTION):

At one time, the article stated, that when they put a drill way down in there, not clear to the bottom, but halfway down or something, it did come back up with gold coins in it. Could that have been somebody, a pirate perhaps, who had stashed some treasure somewhere along the length of it after it was constructed?

OSMIC AWARENESS:

This Awareness indicates that this as a possibility; hat entities seeking to bring up this....This Awareness ndicates It does not see these gold coins as being here. It appears this may have been fabricated to get nore funding. This Awareness indicates that the energies on this are not totally clear, and therefore, this Awareness does not, at this time, see anything to verify that coins were indeed present. This Awareness indicates that It does not rule out the possibility, but It does not see this as being accurate.

(Closing Message)

This Awareness indicates that in regard to the evious question [Oak Island]; that there are often forts put forth to explore area which have indicatns of some kind of historical or valuable potential, d around these efforts there are quite frequently mors which develop among the townspeople, or ose who work in the action. That even when these mors are discounted, sometimes they persist, simply ecause entities like excitement and significance in heir area. That many times, rumors of various places apposedly having treasure, are really all that survives n a shipwreck or other possible situation, and yet, s these stories survive, generations later, entities in ediscovering that and studying the legends, take these egends quite seriously. This Awareness indicates that he problem is that in many cases, there is substance to the legends, and entities can put forth great amounts of energy and there is a possibility of successfully finding a treasure. In most cases, the legends merely begin and end with rumor. This Awareness indicates that It does not wish to discourage entities from looking in this area for treasure, but It does not see this as being present. This Awareness indicates the energizing of this question could reveal something different; that the Interpreter has been in trance for some time, and the energies may be not strong enough to reveal this treasure, if indeed it is there.

THE IMPORTANCE OF BEING TOLERANT

This Awareness indicates that as entities work toward their greater evolution in terms of spiritual understanding, in terms of discovering Who, in fact, they really are, it is important that they keep their values such as to include that which is tolerance. This Awareness indicates that there is a balance in regard to tolerance. Some have said you become what you tolerate, and this has its meaning in regard to tolerating things that you should not tolerate. There are limits to what you need to tolerate and it is important that you recognize when something is out of bounds in terms of tolerating, but there is also the importance of being tolerant of others to such an extent as to be able to maintain communication and rapport with that entity in order to have an influence in helping others in communicating with others, in keeping others from veering off the path too far.

This Awareness indicates that when an entity no longer wants rapport with you because he or she wishes to veer off the path and attempts to drag you off the path, then of course, you must cut you ties with the entity until the entity is ready to return and move parallel or in proximity to the path which you have chosen.
