of money necessary to buy properties at high prices, therefore, the time may come when many of the natives of the United States, the American citizens will find themselves being priced out of a market that is dominated by foreign investors, foreign buyers, so that the lands, the homes, the buildings are beyond their reach.

If this occurs, then it will be a time of much resentment and much disappointment for the masses of this nation. The situation does not appear to have, at present, any easy solution, but time has a way of changing things so that a problem in one decade may be totally missing in another decade, for one cannot say that Japan's economy will always be on top, nor can one say that America's economy will remain in its second place or in a subordinate state. It depends much on what happens, but there is no easy solution at present time. If entities wish to purchase land, purchase a home, it would be worthwhile to do so while such is still at reasonable cost.

JAPANESE BANKS--GOLIATHS OF FINANCE - WILL THEY DULL THE TEETH OF THE BEAST?

(MAFIA-LIKE SECRET SOCIETY IS IN CONTROL)

QUESTION:

E.L. of Mesa, Arizona, writes: "In today's Mesa Tribune is an article headed: "Japanese banks have Yen to Sweep America." Subheading says: "Top Ten in the World Eye U.S. in 1991," and it starts out with: "Japanese banks, goliaths of international finance, are growing even bigger, leaving their U.S. counterparts in the dust as they keep an eye on deregulation." Her question is: Does Awareness see this as possibly drawing off some of the power of the world banking system? Could it possibly dull the teeth of the Beast? Can it help us in the U.S. to redirect money energy to a more peaceful energy source, and if so, how can we help?"

COSMIC AWARENESS:

This Awareness indicates that it does not appear that this is having the implied effects as suggested in the question; that it should be understood that it was the Rockefeller brothers who began building the Japanese economy after World War 2; that this as being likened unto an extension of the Rockefeller empire. However, this has grown beyond their control, and these entities themselves have essentially passed out of the picture, either through death or through the loss of their power, but that the power that is growing in Japan as the economic goliath of the world as that which has essentially created dwarfs of the Manhattan banking systems to some extent, especially when viewed in comparison; that the Japanese banking systems have their power throughout the world and are involved heavily in all countries having an influence in the commerce and business affairs of all of the major nations and that this in many ways, has caused a shift in regard to the banking controls.

It remains to be seen whether this shift will be that which is more of a benevolent nature to humanity, or [illegible] itself become likened unto a new monsters being confronted by a third monster, without having any understanding of what the larger monster might do. This Awareness indicates this Japanese banking system has grown up from a defeated nation, just 40 some years ago, to become the most powerful economic system in the world at this time, and it has with it the ability to inflict great damage on other systems, or it has with it the ability to enhance the growth and development of the economies of other nations throughout the world.

This Awareness indicates that there are elements within the Japanese banking system that evolved out of a secret society; the name appears to be 'Tong'...there appears to be a secret society much likened unto the Mafia of Italy, that has long been underground in the Japanese empire, that has great hidden hand-type controls, and is in part operating through the banking system of Japan; that this can play a major role in the future of the Japanese expression of its new wealth.

THE WAVES COME IN AND WAVES GO OUT

(BE ALERT BUT DON'T LOOK BACK)

(Closing Message)

This Awareness indicates the changes in political, social, national and international affairs can be viewed almost likened unto the waves of the ocean; a wave comes in which may be titled 'Communism' and entities say: "Ahh! The wave of the future!", or a wave comes in that may be called 'Democracy' or it may have some religious name, or it may have some political name, or perhaps one individual claims the wave as its own, but these waves crash and everything remains as water, as life, and the life reforms into new waves, and the new waves express themselves by moving up to present time, building into peaks and great heights and crash down, and entities often remember what a great wave that was, but long before they have forgotten, they are overwhelmed by the next wave that comes, and while they may be clinging to the old wave, they are confronted by the new, and while they are still warning others about that last wave, others are looking toward the new one, and entities must always look to the new wave, for the last wave has gone, and does not return except in the form of a new wave.

This Awareness indicates that entities cannot live forever in the past, even though that may have been where their greater experiences were. Entities must always look to the present and to the future and to be by which they are approached by new waves of energies. This Awareness indicates these new energies that come crashing in on entities from the future, these are those things which allow entities to discover more about themselves and more about the world in which they live and to enjoy or to fear, to benefit or to be harmed, and therefore, entities must be alert and watchful as to the nature of each coming wave.

(The Law of Gratitude is given)

SOME POSSIBLE EFFECTS OF THE COSMIC MOMENT: LOOMING DEPRESSION MAY BE AVOIDED OR GREATLY LESSENED; AN UPDATE ON CURRENT EVENTS

(Opening Message, C.A.C. General Reading)
November 15, 1989

COSMIC AWARENESS:

This Awareness indicates that the enormous changes that are occurring on this plane at this time as that which moves in relation to the influences of energies that have been building for some time; that these working in regard to the reconciliation of yes and no, in regard to the gradual awakening of humanity and the breaking away of certain fears in such a manner as to create an environment for new expression. This Awareness indicates that the movement in the Communist bloc nations toward that which is democracy as that which is evidence of the power of individuality over the concept of a republic in which the 'wise' leaders control and direct the masses.

That while there are still many who desire direction and who need regimentation, as entities awaken to their higher potential, these needs become diminished and the need for self-expression, responsible expression begins to overtake those needs for protection. It is much like that of children who need parental guidance, but only until they themselves reach levels in which they can manage themselves, discipline themselves and responsibly handle their expression. Thus, it is the same with masses in nations; that as the masses become more evolved, they cannot tolerate the lack of freedom of expression.

This Awareness indicates that this is creating a totally new face in humanity, for the situations that have prevailed over the past century in which nations have always held enemies as part of their own way of viewing their world, for now these nations are finding the enemies fewer and farther between, and that those who were once enemies, are now seeking friendship and association. That this is creating a new climate, a new reality, wherein paranoia has a hard time finding roots, wherein friendship and cooperative gestures and motions, actions and behavior begin to overtake defensiveness, fear and paranoia. This essentially opens the door for new realities in terms of commerce, in terms of the sharing of philosophy, ideas, communication, culture, economics, marketplaces and productivity between the nations of East and West.

This Awareness indicates that it is a time of great change, historic change. It is a time taking place in a cosmic moment. It is sudden. It is a reversal. It is from the influence of Uranus in its motion, in a time of great change. That this is also a time of great opportunity, opportunity for those who seek expansion, particularly for those in the Eastern Communist bloc nations. It is likewise a time of opportunity for those in Western nations, wherein a new marketplace opens. It is now possible that productivity in the Western world, having a new marketplace can also begin to increase and find an outlet for the goods that are available in the West, for there is great lack in the East, particularly in Eastern Europe and Russia.

It will not be long before China also becomes ready for civilized relationships with the West. That this creates a possibility in which good times in the sense of economic times will continue or will improve through the global networking of goods and services between countries that have heretofore been unapproachable in a commercial sense. It is fortunate that this is occurring at this time, for without such a new opening, a new marketplace, the certainty of depression in the Western world looms heavily. This Awareness indicates that except for this potential of this new market, entities could expect a depression, an economic depression equal to or greater than that of the early 30s. Even with this marketplace, the potential and danger of this depression still looms, however, providing the marketplace remains open and situations continue to move in the direction of present course, the possibility of avoiding such depression increases day by day. That essentially, the depression has already started and would increase or will increase not so much with a sudden event, as with a series of jerks or events that deepen and worsen the economic situation within this country and with its relationship to other countries. There is seen a time in December in which economic crises or events occur that could further disrupt the balance of the economy, along with continuing events throughout the coming year.

This Awareness indicates however, because of the opening of the marketplace in Eastern Europe and Russia, this economic crisis that has long been predicted by many, which is already underway, is not as likely to deepen to the extent expected, and is not as likely to be as devastating as would otherwise have occurred, for as things begin to decline in certain areas, this new marketplace will begin opening its doors through different economic maneuvers, to allow more production. The United States, if it is astute and aware of the opportunity, should be able to acquire a piece of the action within that marketplace. If the United States is not ready, willing and able to respond, other countries will benefit and the United States will suffer economically.

This Awareness indicates that the remainder of this year and the coming year will play a great influence on the realities of this nation for many years to come. If this nation is responsive, it can have new breath, new hope, new life, a new revitalization. If not, other countries in the European bloc and in the Asiatic bloc of nations will benefit from these new marketplaces, and the United States will become a Third World nation. That indeed, without such a response to this new market place, the United States will become a Third World nation. It has been moving in that direction for the past decade.

This Awareness indicates this largely due to the excessive spending of the Reagan Administration; that there are also other causes that have left this nation wanting and moving toward greater debt and economic recession. This Awareness indicates that the opportunities presented by this breakdown of Communism and the new marketplace that is being created are enormous. Itis a great opportunity for this nation to help through cooperative actions, to help direct, redirect and revitalize those Eastern bloc nations, while gaining benefits to this nation in a win/win scenario.

This Awareness foresees this as being the more likely option; that even with this option however, entities can expect some slowdown in the economy during the coming year, for these actions of opening new inroads into new marketplaces do not have immediate benefits to this nation, may require considerable investments and outlay of currency during which time the machinery, the economic machinery is being set up which will later benefit those in this country. That It sees also that the European bloc of nations as that which will be most benefitted for they will respond more quickly and being closer to the Eastern European nations, will have better opportunity for response in supplying these countries with goods and services in an interchange of commerce.

This Awareness indicates that even so, the United States must consider the importance of this new marketplace for its own commercial benefits in the future. That you may recall sometime several years ago, this Awareness indicated that the way to diminish the potential for nuclear war was through commercial interchange between businesses in the marketplace between Russia and the United States, for when business is invested in a so-called enemy country, these businessmen have great influence in their respective countries, and this can help to prevent the warring attitude and atmosphere. This is essentially what is happening at this time The potential for war as that which has diminished so greatly during this year of 1989 that it now appears almost unthinkable, whereas but a few years prior, many believed it to be almost inevitable. This Awareness indicates it is amazing what a few short cosmic moments can do to a situation when enough entities alter their consciousness toward greater levels of awareness.

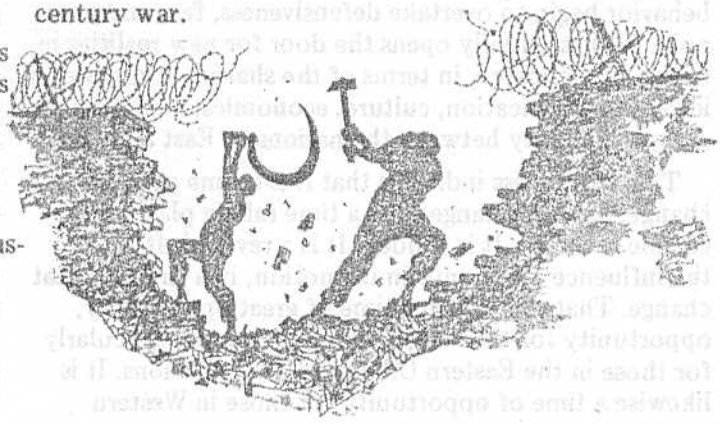
From a Near Nuclear Strike--a 180 Degree Turnaround

This Awareness indicates that in 1983, with the playing of the movie The Day After, this change in consciousness began to take place. With the advent of Mikhail Gorbachev and the changes which he brought to the Soviet Union, the changes began to accelerate. This Awareness indicates that this decade of the 1980s has seen a complete 180 degree turnaround from the time Ronald Reagan spoke of the "Evil Empire," and wherein there were plots for secret nuclear strikes as described by Dr. Beter in his Audio Tapes, just prior to his death, wherein the nuclear strike seemed to be the only option; wherein the Soviets, to protect themselves from nuclear strike, shut down all of their telephone systems in order to prevent anyone having an interest in being able to monitor the success of the nuclear strike, wherein they also destroyed certain satellites that would have been necessary to monitor the success of the nuclear strike, and thus, in so doing, helped to discourage the actual nuclear strike.

Changes in Russia Will Come Slowly

All of this, within the last decade, moving from that extreme polarity to what is occurring today at this time, in which the Eastern bloc nations are turning quickly to embrace democratic values, to open their doors to commerce and to political freedom; that it is a great complexity for these countries at this time, and cannot be an easy matter. It will be solved slowly. The problems encountered, for example in the Soviet Union, the Soviet States, as that which is complex to such a degree as to be quite different from those things in your nation, the United States, for the Soviet State is composed of many countries, Russia being just one, and each of the countries is composed of many nations, not counties, as in your nation. In the United States, it is one nation, composed of states which are in turn composed of counties. In the Soviet Union, it is one state composed of countries, which in turn are composed of nations. Each of these nations within each country is such as to require visas or papers for the citizens to travel from one nation to another, even within the same country, and these countries then being linked and joined as the members of the Soviet State; thus, the system of government cannot easily adopt the exact type of governing as you are used to in the United States, for rules, even pertaining to the various nations within the countries comprising the Soviet State must be rewritten, altered, changed.

This Awareness indicates that all of these things will take time, but the movements have begun and are irreversible and the movement toward a unified people around the globe, allowing entities to travel, to meet to share, to be free for commerce and cultural exchange as that which will dominate this next century; that these past few weeks will long be seen as a great historical moment. It may even rival the end of World War II in history books, in that it is a breaking down of the walls between nations involved in a near 50-year or half century war.



This Awareness indicates that it is important that entities recognize the significance of these things, not only in looking back from some future time, but even at the time these things are occurring. It is a time of great rejoicing for many people, and for those who do not recognize this, it is an indication that you are not fully aware of the rest of life outside your own interests. This Awareness wishes entities to become more aware of the plight of others and of their joys and successes when they occur.

WILL GERMANY BE REUNIFIED SOON?

(HOW NAZI MOVEMENT COULD HAVE BEEN PREVENTED)

(FOLLOW-UP QUESTION):

There's considerable talk in Europe that the reunification of Germany is imminent in the coming years anyway, but many of the countries are against this. They're paranoid and rightly so, after studying the history of Germany. Does Awareness see East and West Germany getting reunited, and if so, will it ever become a superpower built up for war like it was under Hitler?

COSMIC AWARENESS:

This Awareness indicates this is in the negative; that the likelihood of Germany becoming reunited in this century is almost nil; that in the next century, there is some greater possibility of a greater reuniting, but it appears that by that time, the two nations will have solidified their own individualities sufficiently as to remain separate with unified pacts and agreements that allow them to interchange commercially and culturally with complete freedom, but whereby they maintain separate governing systems. That this appears almost as two states or countries having similar systems but wherein there is some difference.

This Awareness indicates that it appears it will be more like that of Canada and the United States in the sense of two countries having common bonds without having the same governing bodies. However, the potential is there for possible reuniting at some time in the future, but even if this were to occur, the danger of warlike reemergence is not present as had been in this century. This Awareness wishes to remind you that the Nazi movement could never had occurred had Germany, after World War I, been given sufficient economic assistance as to reestablish its economy to where it would be able to support its own people. That the allies, after World War I, rather than assisting Germany to become rehabilitated in terms of its national essence, left it to flounder economically and it created a climate for such an entity as Hitler and the Nazi party to take root and grow because of the great dissatisfaction which most Germans felt after World War I, during the 20s and 30s. That at this time, West Germany as economically sound; East Germany as being in economic need, but the likelihood and indications are that the West German government and Western Europe in general will help to bring about a more economic foundation for these Eastern European countries so that they too will have a base of stability.

Entities who understand human psychology should also understand that national psychology works much the same. An individual who is under great distress, who is threatened in terms of survival, whose security is undermined, whose economic livelihood is in distress, will risk more, become more radical in behavior, take greater chances and lean toward antisocial actions, or create crimes against humanity, moreso than one who is economically stable, has too much to lose by being radical, and the more conservative they are in their behavior.

Likewise, with nations. When entities' nations are solvent and stable, they do not like to risk losing that stability by radical behavior. Germany, after World War I had little to lose, and radical behavior was appropriate for that nation. Thus, a radical leader was inspiring to its people. This Awareness indicates that this does not appear to be on the horizon for East or West Germany at this time, and that the likelihood of a military national movement of radical nature emerging from such an environment is unthinkable under present circumstances, or under likely circumstances, unless of course major changes were to occur at some time in the next century, leaving these countries financially destitute or desperate.

WILL FOOD SHORTAGES BRING DOWN MR. GORBACHEV?

QUESTION:

There are stories out now about an intense food crisis in Russia that is so bad, that they predict there will be millions that may even be starving this winter, and some are saying that this will bring down Mr. Gorbachev. Does Awareness see any solution to that food problem in Russia and the possibility that Mr. Gorbachev will be removed?

COSMIC AWARENESS:

This Awareness indicates that this could be a great problem for this entity and for the Russian people. That were this entity to be removed at this time because of such an issue, it would create havoc in that nation, for radical elements would then rise and bring on greater problems than before. The more likely expression or outcome of this situation appears to be in the making, in regard to the meeting between this entity and President Bush; that this appears to be such as to help begin a greater commercial trade between the United States and Russia as well as between Western Europe and Russia. That there is seen more food sales coming into play wherein a new marketplace opens for the sale of foods from the United States; that this can be most helpful to many of the farmers in the United States, and also it can help Russia have the agricultural technology of the United States to help the Russian agricultural society to improve the food-raising situations in those areas. That it can have a somewhat adverse effect in raising the price of foods in the United States when such a marketplace allows so much of the excess food in the United States to be shipped to these Eastern countries. This Awareness indicates that It sees that this is one of the major concerns of Gorbachev and his reason for working more closely with the West.

THE EFFECTS OF RUSSIA'S "WEATHER WAR"

QUESTION:

I have read several places that the Russian weather modification techniques they started some years back, using what is believed were Tesla's inventions, was not to start a so-called weather war, as Dr. Beter and others called it, but was to alter the jet stream in such a manner that the Tundra and Taiga regions of Russia, which heretofore had permafrost or something that kept them from being able to farm those regions, that these experiments were designed to try to change the weather so that these vast lands could be opened up for farming. Evidently, this did not work. Does Awareness see any new farming capabilities because of that?

COSMIC AWARENESS:

This Awareness indicates that this is in the affirmative; that this was the intention, and that the negative effects on the United States' weather, although not intended, was welcomed by the Russians during some of those early years of the 1980s, partly because it was during that time that the Cold War rhetoric became so heated and threats were strong. That to some degree this helped Russia's agricultural efforts, but the efforts to maintain a warmer climate were not enough on a permanent basis and too costly to continue. The effects did not produce the desired results.

This Awareness indicates that there is now greater interest in using genetic engineering to reduce frost; that this is an approach used by genetic engineers in the United States. Russia sees this as being a way by which to grow stronger crops that are frost-resistant as well as ways of creating crops that do not allow frost to form. Russia also sees that the United States has developed certain technologies other than genetic engineering, such as in the electronic field, which are essential for their progress in the next decade, and this too is seen as essential and important if they are to continue as an advanced society.

That it appears there will be efforts by the Russian or Soviet groups to exchange hi-tech information, ranging from genetic engineering to medical, electronic, and economic sciences with the United States in hopes that both countries can benefit from such exchange. This appears to be a common thread that will become more and more beneficial to both countries throughout the 1990s decade. This interchange of technology between these countries may in fact become the greater benefit of the new relationship; that of course apart from the benefits of elimination of nuclear threat or war between the nations.

This Awareness indicates that in regard to the weather war, this as never having fully been mastered, and that there are ramifications from some of these efforts and influences that have had considerable effect in different time periods throughout this decade. That some of the effects ranging from the intensification of storms to earthquakes that have occurred; that much has been learned in regard to these effects but that total control as not yet made possible because there are so many other elements involved in natural movements of weather patterns and earthquakes and so-forth so that these things are not fully understood by those who have attempted to use this. This Awareness indicates however, that the Russians have indeed put more into studying the control of weather patterns and the creation of earthquakes than has been done in the United States.

WAS THE RECENT SAN FRANCISCO EARTHQUAKE CAUSED BY COBALT BOMBS?

FOLLOW-UP QUESTION:

Speaking of earthquakes, R.K. writes in: (I think this is a silly question these days, but I'll ask it). He writes: "A 6.9 Richter scale earthquake in San Francisco, epicenter in a state park outside Santa Cruz, California, on the Pacific coast? Doesn't this sound like the play script of another human-caused earthquake as described by Dr. Beter? I realize that our physical earth is constantly experiencing change, but still, if you and Avaton receive word that the recent San Francisco quake was an intentionally human-caused nuclear explosion or so forth, please let me know." There's nothing to that is there, anymore? Earthquakes as described by Dr. Beter --caused by bombs placed in strategic places by the Russians?

COSMIC AWARENESS:

This Awareness indicates that it does not appear that this particular one was placed there by these cobalt bombs or by any Russian device. That it does appear that the earthquake triggered in Mexico City as having been triggered by a Soviet device. It also appears that the device triggered in the Soviet Union, which caused that earthquake in Armenia, as having been from a Soviet device.

(FOLLOW-UP QUESTION):

For what reason would they detonate devices like that?

COSMIC AWARENESS:

This Awareness indicates that this appears in the Soviet Union as to have served as a diversion from the efforts of entities in that region who were protesting and seeking more freedom for their country against the Soviet control. This Awareness indicates the device in Mexico City as appearing to have been an attempt to prevent or intimidate the Mexican government from developing its oil resources; that the Soviet Union as having wanted to have greater influence on the oil market and had some fear of the Mexican oil market potential; that this appears to have been related to competition in regard to the marketing of oil.

Secret Factions Within Soviet Union Do Mischief

This Awareness indicates that it does appear that there are certain factions withing the Soviet Union who carry out actions without authorization from the higher authorities, these entities having special interests. This as being a sub-social group or inner social society working within the structure, much as if one were a mole in a secret organization carrying out purposes for vested interests; that this was not, does not appear to have been perpetrated by the government of the Soviet Union, but by some group within the bureaucracy, working in regard to special interests for certain concerns which they held to be of great importance to their concerns. That to put this another way, the leader of the Soviet Union was not aware of any involvement in either of these earthquakes as having been caused by their own weapons.

BIG NEW OIL FIELD DISCOVERED BY MEXICO

(FOLLOW-UP QUESTION):

There was an article I read, just yesterday, that Mexico had hit oil off of the gulf somewhere, 90 miles from Cuba or somewhere like that. They claim that from one of their floating oil rigs they tapped into an oil reserve that could rival the huge Middle East Oil deposits. I wonder if that had anything to do with what the Russians were trying to prevent?

COSMIC AWARENESS:

This Awareness indicates that this as not known at the time of that earthquake; that this as being a subsequent event and discovery, and that it can cause further concern. This Awareness does see that this may become an issue for rivalry in the future as to who gains control of such area and further discoveries in the area.

ED's Note: Bizarre as this information might appear to new readers, nine years ago the cobalt bombs were a real threat, according to Dr. Beter and confirmed by Awareness. For more information, please refer to "Revelations of Awareness" issues No. 80-33 (Help Save Manhattan From Destruction); 81-19 (Cobalt Bombs Around Manhattan--Hogwash, says a military bomb expert); both $3.00 from C.A.C.

ISRAEL IS VIOLATING TREATIES: WHY SHOULD WE GIVE THEM SUPER-COMPUTERS TO WAGE NUCLEAR WAR?

(A REVUE OF THE BOLSHEVIKS & SKOPTSIS)

QUESTION:

In relation to the diminishing potential for war, it was recently disclosed that Israel, in a violation of treaties and agreements, has been secretly supplying to South Africa's government, secrets on building hydrogen bombs and so forth, in exchange for uranium, I think it was, and as a result, the United States says it is considering withholding three super-computers that Israel evidently needs to be totally capable of atomic warfare. Why, when the world is defusing itself, is Israel getting on like this, and why would we give them a super computer anyway, that we know they intend to use for warfare?

COSMIC AWARENESS:

This Awareness wishes to have you reflect back on the scenario as given by the entity Dr. Beter during the past decade, particularly in the early tapes. This Awareness reminds you that this entity spoke of two factions: the Skoptsis and the Bolsheviks in Russia, and spoke of the Bolsheviks as having had control of Russia for 60-some years, from the time of the Russian Communist revolution up to the late 1970s decade or early 1980s decade, when the Skoptsis began to take over; that the Skoptsis as then moving the Bolsheviks out. That this entity suggested these entities were moved to the United States or went to the United States and to Israel. This Awareness has previously suggested that the term 'Bolshevik' as having been another word describing 'Zionism'--that Zionism as not a word describing Judaism, but as describing a political system; that there are millions of Jews who are not Zionists and that there are approximately 200,000 Zionists as political entities seeking a world political base and power. This Awareness reminds you also that in the Dr. Beter scenario, he described the Rockefeller camp and the Bolshevik camp. This entity did not use the term 'Zionism'; that these Bolsheviks as in the United States; and for this question, this Awareness will use the term Bolshevik, but the Bolsheviks in the United States in the Rockefeller camp as having been in competition for control of this country also. The Rockefellers and the Skoptsis joining, forming a pact against the Bolsheviks, seeking to control the situation in the countries, has led to this more recent detente or alliance of Russia and the United States.

Prior to this, in the early part of this decade of 1980, the Bolsheviks had greater control in the United States, and it was during this time that President Reagan made his remark about Russia being an 'evil empire,' after the KAL 007 plane was shot down, during this spy flight over Russia. That there is now a book out describing how this was indeed a spy plane and how its mission was covered up and how it flew off course in order to conduct its spying purposes.*

*ED's Note:"Shootdown: Flight 007 And The American Connection," by R.W. Johnson, published by Penguin Books, 40 W. 23 St., N.Y., N.Y. 10010. (Now available in paperback in bookstores.(ISBN 0 14 00.94741).

This Awareness indicates that during this time, the Bolsheviks had greater control. The meeting in Reykjavik, Iceland, between Mikhail Gorbachev and Ronald Reagan was such that upon leaving, Mr. Reagan was amiable to future meetings and spoke of certain further disarmament alliances or agreements. Upon his return to Washington, Don Regan countered that statement and indicated that the President did not mean that he was planning to diminish the armaments in Europe and that a Summit was not likely.

This Awareness indicates that within approximately a week, Don Regan was fired, and James Baker was put in his place. That the entity James Baker as long having been a person in the Rockefeller camp, and shortly thereafter, Gorbachev proposed another meeting between himself and the President and this was quickly accepted. You will notice that at this time, the energies began to change. Certain entities were moved out of the President's influence and new energies were brought in, and the beginning of agreements and alliances between the United States and the Soviet Union were set in motion.

This Awareness indicates that the movement leading to the present warming and alliances of these two superpowers, and from that time you will notice also that the great relationship between the United States and Israel has suffered certain rocky and even turbulent experiences, compared to the relationship prior to this new setting with James Baker and other Rockefeller forces involved in influencing the White House; that there has been more of a critical approach to some of the Israeli actions, proposals, and behaviors. The PLO and the Arab people have been given greater television coverage than before. The press has been more inclined toward a balancing of both sides.

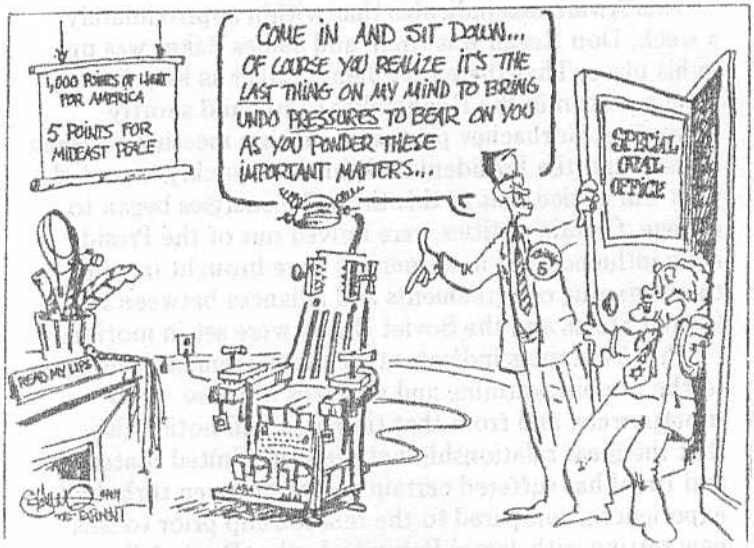
This Awareness indicates that it is essentially that the relationship between Israel and South Africa and the United States in this question was asked, reflects this change that has occurred,--this change in regard to the attitude of the adminstration to the Bolshevik or Zionist movement. This Awareness indicates that the Khomeini forces in Iran as having been installed from Zionist influences; that this as having been disrupted; that there are further areas in which these Zionist influences are being hindered as compared to their holding or special treatment some ten years previously.

This Awareness indicates that this is still a highly powerful force; that they have considerable needs to remain powerful and to enhance their power base because of much persecution in the past, and therefore, the paranoia and fear, (some of the fear being legitimate, some being paranoia), as that which drives them somewhat to seek greater power for self-preservation. That all people of all persuasions in terms of political or nationalities must eventually learn to accept each other's differences and to gradually lower their armaments in mutual response to each other's lowering of their arms. When this occurs, the new game to take the place of war will be economic games, games of commerce, trade and interchange, wherein cooperation takes on greater meaning and competition diminishes in the relationships of countries and people; wherein skin, color, eye color, shapes and features are no longer looked upon as good or evil, but are simply defining individuality, wherein all are acceptable for what they are, and not for what they look like or what features they may have.

This Awareness indicates that as entities on all levels move toward greater and greater levels of awareness, regardless of their background, their religion, their philosophies, --as entities become more aware, that awareness begins to spill over into other religions, othr philosophies, other cultures, so that entities of one religion, entities of another religion, entities of another culture have more to share in their levels of higher awareness than their own narrow philosophies, and in that greater sharing, have more in common with each other so that these narrow things: the color of one's skin or eyes, the shape of nose or lips, the stature, the expression, the philosophy, religion, beliefs or nationalities, so that none of these things are nearly so important as the greater awareness that they share mutually together.



The Jewish press view of Shamir's visit with President Bush.

The New Being Will Prevail

When this occurs, the New Being will have then taken over and this New Being, consummately spreading itself throughout all cultures, throughout all religions, throughout all races, will be the binding of humanity, bringing all together in such a way that differences serve only to identify entities and not to cause problems, for the ultimate and greater reality will lie in their mutual sharing of higher levels of awareness. It is as though humanity will eventually become as one mind with subdivisions, carrying culture, religions and philosophies that are distinquished from one another, but subservient to that one mind which they all share in common.

WILL THE NEW WAVE OF POLITICAL FREEDOM EXTEND SOON TO SOUTH AMERICA?

QUESTION:

The sweeping changes that are occurring in Eastern Europe are not extending down to our own hemisphere. For example, Vikki and I saw a movie last night put out by the Olympia Film Society called Romero, which is the name of an Archbishop in El Salvador who was appointed as a lackey by those people that were in power, thinking that he would stay in the middle of the road and teach the hungry peasants from trying to get some land of their own, and changing their form of government. This entity was murdered, approximately 10 years ago, by these forces, while he was in the middle of doing a mass for his people, and I read in the paper today, 10 years later, that the slaughter is still going on. Many priests, many humanitarian type entities are still being killed. There's been some 90,000 killed in that little country which is not much bigger than Massachusetts. That these same forces, a small handful of feudal lords who have taken it upon themselves to claim the lands of that country and keep these people living like serfs are still in power, financed by American taxpapers, and this bloody revolution is still going on and the government claims it's not really a big threat and nothing is going to happen. Does Awareness see anything of the nature that's occurring in Europe coming the way of these countries in South America that are being enslaved and put down by these handfuls of people, for all these many centuries?

COSMIC AWARENESS:

This Awareness indicates that this does not appear to be close at hand; that there is still great corruption, much of it stemming or coming from sources within your own nation. That there are many vested interests within corporations which act as nations which, through corporate interests and money controls can foment wars and violence within a nation for its own purposes, for the purposes of the corporation that is. That until these corporate actions become better known and are brought out into consciousness, the likelihood of change in these actions of corporations operating in foreign countries to exploit the masses, is not likely to occur.

It does appear that as this has gone on for some several hundred years, but especially within the last hundred years that there are more and more people becoming aware of the power of corporations to manipulate nations and countries, causing or reconciling war situations; that only when more and more people awaken to this reality is there likely to be a significant change. This appears to come about through boycotts and public attention being drawn to those corporations that are involved in such exploitation.

Irony of El Salvador's Newest Violence

The irony of what is occurring at this time in regard to this country, El Salvador, is that the Contras, who have been fighting against those Sandinistas in Nicaragua, supplied by arms from sources within the United States, having much of their funds recently cut off, have subsidized themselves by selling their weapons to the rebels in El Salvador; the rebels being referred to as 'communists', to which the Contras have been labelled as anti-communists in their fight against the Sandinistas ; thus, the United States in fighting against Communism in Nicaragua, has supplied the Contras with arms which are now being sold by the Contras to the so-called communist rebels in El Salvador. It is this influx of new arms and weapons that has led to this recent outbreak of violence in El Salvador.

ROMERO AND LIBERATION THEOLOGY

(FOLLOW-UP QUESTION):

This Archbishop Romero, who was a middle-of-the-road priest until he saw what was actually happening; his priests in the small villages were being killed and so forth, that he became an outspoken entity preaching what I think they call 'Liberation Theology', and as far as I know, the priests down there are still doing this, and there's a lot of people that say the church has no business involving itself in 'politics'. Does Awareness agree with that?

COSMIC AWARENESS:

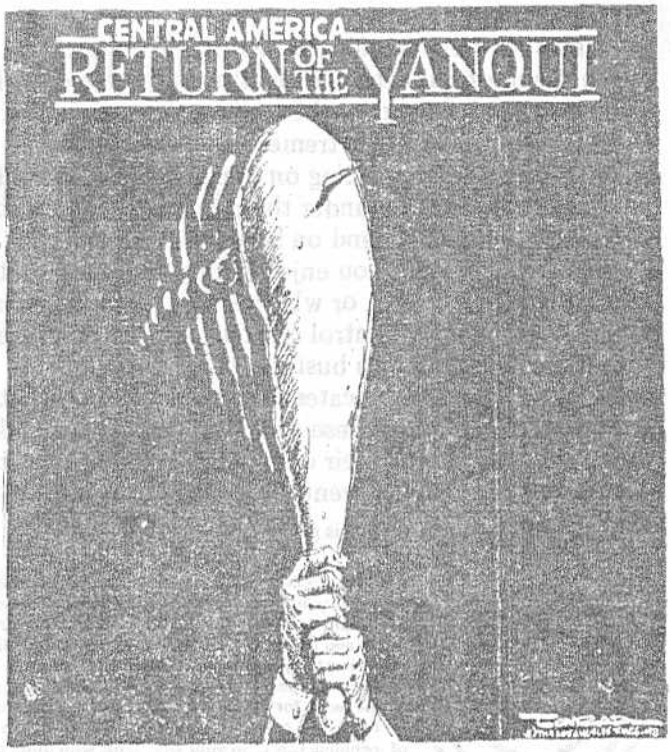
This Awareness indicates that any entity, priest or not, has an inherant right to prevent violence and to promote justice. Whether an entity chooses to exercise that right depends on his courage and wisdom.

ED's Note: Since this reading was given, the atrocities in El Salvador continue. Gunmen, whom the Catholic Church claim were government soldiers, and an eye witness to this has fled to the U.S. confirms this charge, murdered 6 priests and several nuns at a Jesuit-run university, where such ideas as human rights and freedom were suspected to have originated. Tens of thousands of El Salvador citizens have fled in terror to the countryside. President Bush, in a TV interview, was shown to mockingly state, laughing, "I'm happy the Salvadorian government is dealing with the rebels. The United States will continue to support them." The common excuse is that El Salvador had a "free election" and the people overwhelmingly voted to keep their dictator and supressors in power. If you believe this horse manure, I urge you to see, or rent the video, of the movie "Romero" which is a true re-enactment of what is really going on there in El Salvador. You will see how the government troops were ordered to turn back the peasants, millions of them, some walking miles to the polls to vote. Buses carrying these peasants were machine gunned, when the peasants got out and tried to walk to town to cast their ballots, they were gunned down. As a result, the "free election" Bush gushes about, was a farce, and he knows it.

"Romero" is a 1989 movie you probably will never see at the box office, due to obvious reasons, but you can find it at movie festivals and maybe it can be rented. It stars Raul Julia in an incredible performance as father Romero and the movie depicts the struggle as it was happening, and is still happening 10 years later. This is the story they didn't show us on the TV news. It is time we let our politicians know we do not want our tax money going to support this kind of slaughter and enslavement of people because of the greed and power of certain multinational U.S. corporations. It is bad karma for all of us, if you can't think of any other reason.

There are organizations such as CISPES (Committee in Solidarity with the People of El Salvador), and CAAC (Central America Action Committee), with grass roots branches in most U.S. cities. If you would like to donate money or some of your time and energy to these groups you will be doing a great service in helping to alleviate the sorrow, suffering and tragedy your taxes are paying to create in El Salvador for the millions who suffer because of this funding. Check your phone book for local listings.

(For more than 10 years, CAC has supported these two organizations when funds permitted, but we have not been able to do this for the past 2 years).



STOCK FOOD AND HAVE AN ALTERNATE OCCUPATION

(It's Time to Start a Business of Your Own)

(Closing Message)

This Awareness indicates that it is important that entities be prepared for potential difficulties on the economic level; that you have sufficient food stored in the event of a crisis such as might occur were you to lose your job for some several months or in the event that disruptions to supplies might occur, or prices and shortages might occur, particularly if large shipments are sent to other countries.

This Awareness indicates that it is important to alternate occupations in the event you are in an occupation that is not needed in the near future; that if the situation arises, you consider what business you could go into on your own to earn your livelihood, in the event your company should fail, depending of course on whether your company produces products that are needed or which may become unneeded in the near future, for it is likely that there will be some downturn in the economy, even in the best of circumstances, this during the next year.

This Awareness indicates that minorities, which includes blacks, Indians, many foreigners, orientals, in fact, almost everyone but white males, which includes also all women, have an opportunity to seek Federal grants to start businesses of their own, and this is something which some entities may wish to consider. That it can become an opportunity to break out of the workplace, and into the area of the entrepreneur to begin your own business of earning through your own creative propriatorship. That these things, using your own special skills or skills that you can develop, working not for someone else, but for your self, can be highly rewarding, although it may require more effort and more time.

This Awareness indicates that it will certainly require more thought, imagination and research as to how to produce and market your service or product. However, one can gain tremendous experience and satisfaction from working on one's own, for oneself, rather than working under the domination of another. It will of course depend on how your personality functions; whether you enjoy taking directions and depending on others, or whether you prefer to be in charge and taking control of your own life and responsibilities for running a business of your own.

This Awareness indicates that it is important that entities think about these things sufficiently to make proper decision for their own satisfaction, in relationship to the changing events that may occur in their lives.

(The Law or Gratitude is given).
