She Is Experiencing the Higher Energies

(How Dark Energies are Being Absorbed by the Light Energies)

QUESTION:

Sandy Medine of White Castle, LA sent in a rather long letter, which does contain some questions, but in order to get the question I'll need to read the letter. So, she writes: "I want to share my reality a bit with you, for to do more, I would have to write a book. I'm still in a period of physical transformation and I'm looking forward to explain it.

"The one major change happened some time ago. Here's the story. I was lying on my bed, and a friend, Karen, had entered my home without my knowledge. She had walked here from the bar down the road. As she entered my bedroom I felt a strong thrust of energy come through my body. This was the first time I've had such an experience and I wasn't quite sure what had happened.

"I know it sounds crazy but I know she was carrying darkness in some form in her field, and whatever she was carrying could not be in my presence. I am protected and all I do is breathe. Since that experience I have had an almost daily experience of energy coming through my body in one way or another.

"I now believe that whatever darkness that comes near me is automatically transmuted to a higher level. I do know my body is handling enormous volumes of Divine Energy. I am really not sure what happens to the darkness, but it has to go. It cannot stay where I am. Of course I could invite it, but that would be insane.

"I am experiencing and witnessing Divine Grace in action. I know I am not the only one in human form doing this. As I raise my vibrations along with others, the earth is, so to speak, being pulled closer and closer to the 5th Dimension.

"I have experienced energies coming through me and know other people are being influenced in different ways. For example, they speak and do things with Divine Guidance. Since I cannot possibly read the probabilities or energies in motion, the God in me can, and handles it all.

" Just like the negative beings utilize our neurological synapses of our brains to generate negative behavior, the God In Me uses my body to communicate to others and it produces peace and harmony, and every day more of us humans are allowing these energies to come through our bodies.

"I've also had the experience of seeing the golden electrons in the air around me. My vision is being altered to see interdimensionally. I can see beings who are walking with me, but as of now, I still don't have the brain to communicate with them except visually.

" I believe I'm in the process of opening a third portion of my brain that humans haven't ever opened, and I am not the only one doing this.

"There is a probable world in the future where our universe is enslaved. I believe I came from the future to this "now" to help dissolve that possibility. The idea of separation is a complete idea in my reality in this now. I know I am also carrying light in the different alien forms, and I keep seeing a Reptilian face I love. Sounds crazy! I just have no rhyme or reason to it!

" I'm also in a Zeta Grey body and know I have nothing to fear from me. I really do live in a safe world. I would like Awareness to please let the readers know that the Forces of Light are greatly underestimated on this planet. If the forces that believe they are in control really understand what was happening, people like me would be done away with, but if we focus on love and allow ourselves to walk in peace, all Light Beings will wake up and there is no power like the power of love."

It goes on, but at this point, would Awareness comment on this narrative so far? (After I turn the tape over).

COSMIC AWARENESS:

This Awareness indicates the entity is experiencing that effect of having vibrations that are of a higher frequency than normal, whereby her frequency is capable of absorbing, dissolving or reflecting away any of the lower vibrations. It creates a kind of shield against those lower vibrations.

It can also, if choosing, absorb the lower vibrations and make them vibrate to a higher frequency. This Awareness indicates, of course, higher frequency vibrations have power over those of lower frequencies and this is likened unto superseding energy that surpasses the effects of lower and less good frequencies.

This Awareness indicates the lower vibrations may carry negative intentions or motives or energies, but upon contact with higher Light, they can only recoil or change in vibration to adjust to the higher frequencies. This Awareness indicates it is likened unto the attitude that: "Anyone is included if they can live up to our standards. Anyone is included if their frequencies can match the higher frequency levels that are set for our group activities."

This Awareness indicates that the Higher Forces do not exclude anyone, but entities can exclude themselves by failing to raise their motivation, their intent, their vibrations, to match the rest of the Higher Frequencies of entities in these more spiritual levels.

The Dark Forces Can be Absorbed Into the Higher Forces

This Awareness indicates the entity can, with her Higher Frequencies, attune to the Darker Forces and absorb them into Higher Frequency Levels. It is likened unto the Vibration of God being capable of looking at Satan and saying: "Come Satan, merge with me in these vibrations of Light and learn to vibrate in the Highest." This Awareness indicates it does not contaminate God, but it does alter Satan in this hypothetical scenario.

This Awareness indicates that the fire, burning a log, wherein the log is burning very slowly with a dark red glow, is at a certain vibratory rate. If it is put into a fire of a higher vibratory rate, such as that of a white-hot furnace or even blue hot furnace, that red log cannot maintain itself. It burns also at a higher and higher frequency because the frequency of the white-hot fire is so much higher than the frequency of the red log, and the red log burns more quickly and turns white hot, and the white-hot flame is not diminished by the red log.

In other words, the vibrations of the white-hot flame become much more powerful in the mixture with the red log and its cooler flame. Rather than cooling down the white-hot flame, the white-hot flame heats up the cooler red log flame. This Awareness indicates it is the same with the higher vibrations that entities carry when coming into contact with those of lower vibrations.

This Awareness also reminds you that your higher vibrations achieve this through the surrender of self to the Divine; the Divine being the vibration of love in its highest form.

THE NEW DIMENSION IS EMERGING OUT OF CONSCIOUSNESS

QUESTION CONTINUES:(IBID)

Her letter continues. "Something else I'd like Awareness to comment on is the fact that our First Cause is not everyone's First Cause. Darkness has been granted permission to incarnate and have souls. In this free will world we live in there are humans who chose to be born to support darkness, as you know.

If I feel sad as I write this letter because I know that I don't have the vocabulary to explain my truth in a meaningful way. We are safe, we are loved, we are victorious. I now understand that the earth is the nucleus in a cell in something else. The earth cloned herself around last November. The new nucleus has all the love, joy, peace and happiness.

"The old nucleus has fear, and hate, anger, sickness; everything we don't want. In March, the two nucleuses began to separate, thus, the energies began to polarize more and more. This will continue. The new nucleus is lacking in will to live, will to love unconditionally. If we do not provide this will to live and love, when the two nucleuses separate, the new nucleus will be a stillbirth, and another cycle will have to be repeated .

"We are here to ensure that this does not happen, each in our own way." Could Awareness comment on that, please?

COSMIC AWARENESS:

This Awareness indicates the entity is referring here to certain vibratory energies that are transpiring on the earth plane in its aura in terms of frequencies and vibrations that are now on the earth plane. This Awareness has mentioned previously the concept of a new dimension emerging out of this consciousness of the present and past dimension and that this new dimension will have completed itself by the year 2012 or thereabout.

The New Frequency and the Old Frequency are Now Parallel

This Awareness indicates that the new frequency and the old frequency at present are paralleling each other and more or less occupying the same space, with some slight offset occurring, so that a polarization appears to be happening. The polarization became emphasized, particularly strong in the election, and part of that polarization clings to old ways and part to new unestablished and uncertain directions.

The Astrological Influence at This Time

It is also exemplified through astrological influences with the planets Uranus and Neptune in conjunction and Saturn shortly ahead in the sign of Aquarius. The Uranus/ Neptune conjunction is bringing about a kind of flimsy new world in a nebulous frequency level, while Saturn in Aquarius at this time exemplifies the old order clinging to the New Age and its modern wonders and technologies, but being held by the old crystalline factors, and these two, the old materialistic approach in modern times, coupled or offset slightly by an energy growing out of Pluto/ Uranus in Capricorn, Capricorn meaning the structure of the historical past; Uranus and Neptune both being of a somewhat unusual and mystical nature, are developing a new dimension for the earth.

These vibrations are likened unto two wheels or planes overlapping, but separated slightly so that they are not in complete alignment and this separation shall continue to increase throughout the Winter and Spring of this coming year. This Awareness indicates by late Spring time, the polarities will have strengthened greatly and many entities will still be clinging to the old ways and doing things as have been done through the old ways (this in terms of intents and motivation) and other entities will feel a new spiritual resurrection and see themselves being beyond material existence.

This Awareness indicates from a more precise point of view, it will appear to some entities that they are spiritual being inhabiting physical bodies while the older approach that follows the Saturnian energies will feel that they are physical bodies reaching for spiritual development or evolution. The latter approach of course never finds what they seek, because they are identified with the material body, trying to become something they see themselves as not.

Those Who See Themselves as Spiritual Beings

Those who see themselves as spiritual entities playing in a field of matter, and entering into the matter as one enters water, they will see themselves in bodies of matter, but will always be spirit working through matter and not the other way around. But those who are in matter, who see themselves playing with spirit, will be able to talk about God , talk about religion, talk about spirit, and have names and methods and words to describe these religious and spiritual things and they will create dogmas and philosophies which they will promote and believe in and try to recruit others to believe in, but they will remain material, peddling spirit, while those who are spiritual beings will remain spiritual beings and they will play with the matter, play with material things as spirits.

They will have their material body in which they can enter or leave and they will appear just like other material bodies. They will appear like those who are material, who are trying to grasp and understand and promote their understanding of the spirit, but they will actually be spirit, playing with material things, including their own material body.

This Awareness indicates this will be the beginning of the changes that separate the two dimensions and this separation of the two dimensions will have completed itself in approximately 20 years.

Are There Really Reasons to Have Fear?

QUESTION CONTINUES: (IBID)

I'll finish her letter with one more question, I believe. She writes: "I believe the information about the aliens needs to continue to be published. Please do not stop. The material can be presented on an integrated level, and I believe this is being done more and more. I thank Awareness consistently for being patient with our fears and ignorances.

"We did not create the idea of separation, but we did agree to participate in it and we do have permission to change our minds. We can make changes in the way we choose to think and act and all we have to do is want to. We forget that we thought our way into this reality and we have to think our way out. It's just that simple.

"Since most CAC readers are Wanderers, it is time for everyone to quit sitting on the fence between fear and love. The energies coming in are quite unconditional and we will walk through the dramas of our beliefs until we have balanced our being. The book, The God of Jane, a Seth book, gives an explanation I enjoyed, that while All That Is is unconditional, the creators of this idea are not.

"Nothing can happen unless it is for the highest good of the Whole Idea. Fear is a catalyst for consciousness to grow at the fastest speed ever, and I believe it is working. I have jumped around from one thing to another because I want to be sure this is energized as best as I can do it. In no way am I meaning to make your jobs more difficult or annoying. I realize we are many pieces to a puzzle.

One last question for Awareness. I believe Dark Energies have planted disinformation for people to discover with the intent of keeping fear alive and well on this planet. While I realize all ideas are valued while held in consciousness, could Awareness explain if this is being done to keep our focus on fear and separation?"

She adds: "I love you for the Grand Gods you are." And that's the end of her letter.

COSMIC AWARENESS:

This Awareness asks the questioner to rephrase her last question in his own words.

(AVATON)

I believe what she's asking is that Dark energies have been, and are planting disinformation for people to discover, with the intent of keeping fear alive on this planet, and she asks: Can Awareness explain if this is being done to keep our focus on fear and separation? or is there some other reason?

Is that clear?

COSMIC AWARENESS:

This Awareness indicates that It sees that there are many forces in action which create reasons for entities to fear. There is great violence across the land which many entities become victim to and others become fearful of, and these are not just for the purpose of promoting fear; these energies are often for the purpose of violating others and the fear results from this violation.

This Awareness indicates that the one hopeful thing that appears to be emerging is that entities will become so aware of this violence that they begin to look to each other and insist that something be done to alleviate the violence, and when that action of getting rid of the excessive violence occurs, then the fear will also diminish.

Fear Is Rampant In the Public Schools

This Awareness indicates that the fear is a natural outgrowth of the great violence that has so increased itself across this land. This Awareness indicates it is particularly difficult for children to go to public school, especially in certain areas, for their lives are very much like children in a war zone. For parents to go to work knowing their children are tucked away in some public school is no longer a feeling of safety. It is not a feeling of comfort.

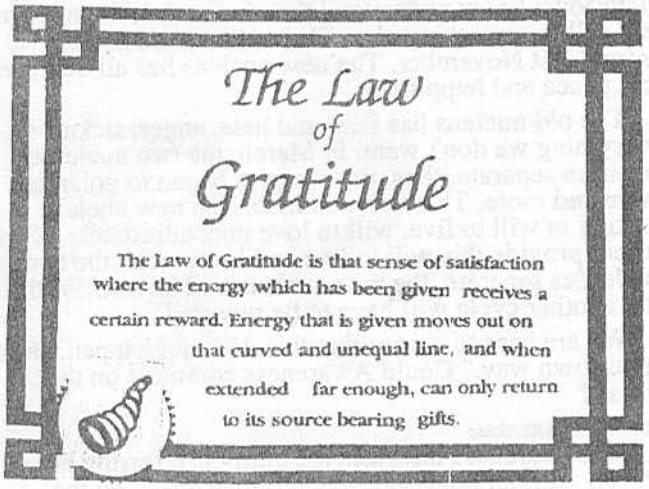
These public schools are filled with children who carry guns, knives, or who desire nothing more than to beat up on a smaller person in front of their peers to make them seem bigger. This Awareness indicates that there was a time when large kids, beating up on small children was viewed with contempt, and the larger child was referred to as a bully, and to be called a bully was a very insulting thing. It was something you did not long for or desire.

But today, big kids beating up on little kids makes for the big kid, the appearance of some kind of hero among his peers. This Awareness indicates that these little children in the schools growing up in such an environment learn to behave the same way so that when next year rolls around, their gangs will be walking around in the same way, looking for newcomers, new little children in the first grade, that they too can initiate into fisticuffs or karate kicks or other violent actions.

This Awareness indicates that the school grounds are but the reflection of society, and society has reached a point wherein there are not many areas that are truly safe. Perhaps a few small towns or certain areas of town are relatively safe for a period of time. This Awareness indicates that these concerns are real. They are not simply misinformation. They are real, and entities know they are real, but entities generally tend to be brave enough and hope to get through without getting scathed or shot or stabbed or mutilated.

And just as children in war zones learn to cope with their situation, these children in cities, in public schools also learn to cope with their situations, even if it leads to psychological scars and traumatic experiences which may never be forgotten.

This Awareness indicates that the best hope for ridding oneself of fear is to find a way to get rid of the cause for the fear.



As witnesses later recalled, two small dogs just waltzed into the place, grabbed the cat, and waltzed out.

CAC General Reading # 4-7 4-21-93 Paul Shockley Interpreter

Is the Val Thor Story by Frank Stranges True?

QUESTION:

A question from JD, Judith Jones, in New York. "I recently read two rather awful books. Both have been around for awhile and seem to have good reputations, and after hearing of them repeatedly, I obtained them. First is My Friend From Beyond Earth by Dr. Frank Stranges, who is rather a fixture at UFO conferences, which is why I assumed he spoke incredibly.

"I am now waiting for his other volume Stranger At The Pentagon. In December of 1959, so the story goes, the local police picked up one Val Thor, fourteen miles from the pentagon and brought him there, where he remained as a guest for some three years, associating with military men and with the author Stranges.

"The book includes photos of the purported alien Val Thor. Stranges is a fundamentalist Christian minister and he attributes all sorts of Christian theological BS to this Val Thor. The most far-fetched has Jesus being the Be All of the whole universe, rather than a recent vehicle of the Christ, relative to this planet only.

"In short, is there any truth to the Val Thor story? If so, why is Dr. Stranges mucking it all up with his theological blather?"

COSMIC AWARENESS:

This Awareness indicates that this was a book which came out in the Fifties and created quite a stir among UFO researchers; that the book was given considerable credibility by many of these entities. This Awareness indicates that because of the credibility given, it has become a kind of UFO mythological reality for many. There are quite a number of UFO researchers who believe it contains some substance.

This Awareness indicates that It does not see any real validity to this. It does appear the entity Frank Stranges met someone and believed him to have extraterrestrial origins and wrote the book, embellished the story and believed his story to be generally true. This Awareness does not see any real substance to the story. This entity Val Thor is not seen as being who he is alleged to be.

This Awareness indicates the many stories attributed to him or written about him after the Stranges book was released appear to be nothing more than furthering the myth. This Awareness indicates within the context of the myth there have been many forms of speculation and certain references whereby entities will sometimes speak of Val Thor, but this is likened unto speaking of Darth Vader or Luke Skywalker.

The historical substance was never a fact other than in myth. This Awareness indicates that there was, of course, an entity whom Frank Stranges met and wrote about, but much of his writing was based on his own speculation and misinformation that he received.

FOLLOW-UP QUESTION:

Well, was this book My Friend From Beyond Earth, which he wrote, did he deliberately write that knowing it was fiction, but trying to pass it off as fact, or did he believe this was basically true from information given elsewhere?

COSMIC AWARENESS:

This Awareness indicates that it appears this was more of a story written with the knowledge that it was not based on fact, but written as a fictional story masquerading as reality, much in the manner of Orson Welles' War Of The Worlds, although in the Orson Welles' War Of The Worlds program, it was announced that it was simply a Mercury Theatre Production and not a real event. This Awareness indicates, however, that it was presented so realistically that most people thought it was real.

In this particular instance it was presented in a way that was not clarified as to its fictional base and entities reading it were left to accept it as fact or reject it as fantasy. The author did not clarify that it was fiction.

Who is This Man Called "Rael?"

(Did He Really Meet With The Elohim?)

QUESTION:

JD's other question: "The other book is by Rael of the Raelian Movement, which appears to have offices in lots of countries. Claude Vonihon, who goes by the name of Rael, states that he was called to a series of meetings with extraterrestrials who call themselves the Elohim, and are depicted as the Creators of humanity, with liberal Biblical references to such an event.

"The bottom line seems to be that since they supposedly created us, they presume to dictate to us how we should live, replete with enough "Thou Shalt" and "Thou Shalt Nots" to write half a dozen more Bibles. If you request one, I'll be glad to send you my copy of either or both of these items.

"The question is: Who is this guy Rael?, who wrote "The message given to me by extraterrestrial s " and "They took me to their planet." He declares that what they told him is the truth. In any case, the upshot is that he seems to have quite a number of followers who are supporting him in fine style in lovely estate in France."

She'd like Awareness to comment on this book and this man Rael.

COSMIC AWARENESS:

This Awareness indicates that it is amazing how many entities will become followers of someone who claims to be of great importance. The entity David Karesh, the entity Jim Jones; these entities also had followers who supported them in style, but this did not make them the people they claimed to be. This entity's claims are as fictitious as are the claims of the others mentioned.

This entity Rael has no basis for the claims. Any actual experience, even remotely connected, would be nothing more than imaginary, as he dreamed up the story which he told as fact. This Awareness indicates it is not seen as something to be concerned about or to accept as having a reality, but if entities enjoy being misled or experiencing fantasies, especially other people's fantasies, then this would be perhaps an interesting excursion for a short period of time.

The Elohim are Energies Not Individual Beings

This Awareness indicates the Elohim do not operate in such a manner as to speak through or work with a particular entity who is operating in such a way as this entity operates. The Elohim are essentially energies rather than individual beings from another planet. These energies are energies within the universe that serve as forces of creation, not as people who pick up earthlings and take them to their planet.

This entity may have hallucinated the experience, but it is not seen as having any substance in reality.

THE BOOK: "WE THE ARCTURIANS"

(More on Crop Circles and the Coming Density Change)

QUESTION:

A couple questions by David LeVasseur, of Fair Oaks, California. He writes: "I would like to submit two more questions if I may. I recently viewed a tape of part of a seminar called The Unifying Hunch Conference, in Marion, Massachusetts, on February 16th, 1992. The tape was called "The 5th Dimension; Earth Changing Reality," given by author Dr. Norma Milandvicit. One of her books is titled: We The Arcturians, and would Awareness please comment on the following:

"Regarding the nature and purpose of the crop circles. Sol-Tek speaking for the Tribunal Council of the Galactic Command says the circles, created throughout the earth by the Command, are there to test soils and radionic energies that appear in the surface of the earth. The shape of each image left on the surface of the planet creates a radionic surge that penetrates the earth with such magnitude that it allows all of us to get a sensor reading of the stability of the planet's electromagnetic structure.

"These tests are critical at this time, for earth's electromagnetic flux is unstable. This instability not only affects the planet's present axis position, but also its ability to support life with its crops and food products it provides. Earth provides food to its inhabitants by creating paramagnetic vortices which attract radionic energies from the cosmic forces, which penetrate the soil and terrain.

"In so doing, these forces combine with the electrolytic fields of earth to provide currents of life as we call them, to support and sustain photosynthesis. Earth is slowly losing its capacity to provide paramagnetic forces that unite cosmic energies with energies on earth, therefore, they are creating these designs on the planet's surface for us.

The purpose is two-fold: 1) By conducting experiments, especially in England, to determine if our efforts can affect the planet's ability to produce greater paramagnetic forces that will support more plant life. 2) Trying to produce a raised harmonic condition for this planet by applying chosen selected shapes placed on the planet's surface. Something to do with Pythagorean concepts of the music of the spheres, bringing the harmonics back in balance, which is the reason for the locations being close to Stonehenge, because of the primary vortex of that location, which has a worldly effect. And changing the electromagnetic quality has to do with the preparation for the changing of vibrations, due approximately 2012."

Would Awareness comment on the information given thus far?

COSMIC AWARENESS:

This Awareness indicates that there appears to be a small amount of substance and reality to this information, but the majority of the information is blown out of proportion to reality. The shapes indeed can have effects, but it does not appear that these crop circle shapes are of any great significance in terms of affecting earth vibrations and frequencies.

The crop circles, for one thing, are only temporary, as the season in passing erases the shape. This Awareness indicates that it is seen as possible that certain readings might be achieved from a brief existence of a crop circle for some kind of testing of the shapes or frequencies in the particular area, the magnetic currents and so forth.

This Awareness indicates that it appears that these entities have used the crop circles with their various shapes as a kind of signature to let others know of their having been in the area and having already tested certain vibrations and frequencies in that area. The signatures of each crop circle being such as to convey messages to those who may follow.

The Book: "We The Arcturians" Has Value

This Awareness indicates in a general sense, the book We The Arcturians as being of considerable value in explaining some of the culture of the Arcturians. There is some questionable information, some information in this book that is questionable, but most of the information is of value. This Awareness has not discussed much in regard to the Arcturians, partly because this entity has channeled so much information on these entities already, that to do so would simply be duplicating her work.

This Awareness indicates in summary, the crop circles are used mostly for leaving a message to others who follow, partly for reading energies based on the patterns of the crop circles, and creating a kind of signature in nature on earth that can be used. This Awareness indicates this is extremely difficult to explain, because it is of a totally different type of technology.

It is likened unto the computer chip in a computer which is capable of carrying information and much of the chip is created in certain shapes or holds certain magnetic fields and energies in a way that is turned on and off in such patterns as to hold information. These crop circle designs also hold certain information for those who follow, to read and to understand.

They also convey energies according to the shapes and patterns, the geometrical configuration. This Awareness indicates that these shapes and configurations can be read from high in the atmosphere from hundreds of miles high, and convey certain energies along with information.

A Great Pyramid to be Built in Colorado?

(It's Supposed to Help Entities Transcend Dimensions)

QUESTION:

His other question. "Also mentioned on this tape is a soon to be constructed large pyramid somewhere in Colorado, by the year 2000, which is named the Templar project. It is said that as people walk through this structure it will set up the matrix within the cellular level of the physical body altering the DNA molecules that will make the transition into the next vibratory level an easier transition for those capable of doing so."

Will Awareness comment on that please?

COSMIC AWARENESS:

This Awareness indicates that It does not see this as being built at this time. It does not see this as being built on the physical plane in the near future. This Awareness indicates that this may be something that is planned by extraterrestrial forces, or maybe something that is to be created on a different vibratory rate, or level of reality.

This Awareness is not saying it doesn't or won't exist, It is simply saying that it does not appear in reality at this time. The question implies a reality which this Awareness does not see. This Awareness suggests that if anyone witnesses the construction of such a pyramid that they should write to CAC so that CAC can inform other members of the situation.

This Awareness indicates that It is referring to a pyramid of considerable size that would allow entities to walk through it, in the manner described. This Awareness indicates that of course, a small pyramid of one or two stories in height may be constructed in Colorado between now and the time indicated. Even a larger pyramid could be so constructed.

The question is vague in regard to the size of the pyramid. The question tends to imply a gigantic pyramid such as those found in Egypt. That is what the images convey. However, if this was not the meaning, and the question simply referred to a smaller pyramid of short size and within the confines of a few stories in height, then indeed, this could be quite a possibility, between now and the time designated,, but such a pyramid is not seen as being likely to have the power to change entities' cellular structures from one vibration into another, to allow them to transcend dimensions.

entities simply shift into higher or lower frequencies to dwell on their respective planets, even though the space and time may be still in the same spot.

The experiences on the different dimensions will be extremely different.

Will the Split Happen Slowly or Quickly?

QUESTION:

I think Awareness has answered JD's last question on this: "Will it happen in a sudden "critical-mass twinkling" or will it be a gradual fade-out? What is the duration?"

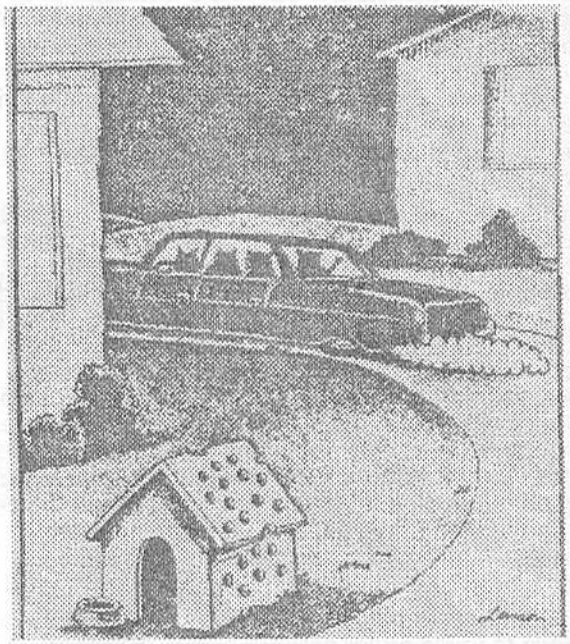
COSMIC AWARENESS:

This Awareness indicates that it appears it will be a gradual thing that occurs over a number of years; that by the year 2013, entities will know that something really major has changed. In looking back at the previous century, it will seem to have either become more gross since then or more etheric since then and those entities who are now in the more etheric states will hardly even be able to fathom the grossness that other entities may be experiencing in the same time and space on the more gross frequency levels.

There will be a breaking away of communication between these levels. It will be as difficult to cross as it would be for entities to cross psychically from their normal reality into Hades by meditating and returning to Hades. This Awareness indicates that even though Hades may exist in the same location that you presently are standing, you have an inkling of its presence because you are in a different frequency or vibration or dimension. This Awareness indicates it will be much the same as this schism comes about.

Some Entities May Shift Back and Forth at First

Under certain circumstances, some entities will be able to slip into the opposite, the lower frequencies, perhaps for moments. It is not likely they would remain there. And some entities from the lower realms may have brief moments of slipping into the higher frequencies, but it is not likely that they would remain there. During the initial shift entities may shift back and forth before settling into one or the other.



Prayer for Balance

Start your day and end your day by saying the following aloud:

I AM ONE WITH ALL THAT IS!

Thank you God

WISDOM OF AWARENESS --- On Concepts:

This Awareness indicates that concepts are of no greater spiritual value than are material goods, for material goods do also have their purposes. This Awareness indicates that an entity who is starving cannot eat a concept, but would do well with a sandwich. This Awareness indicates that entities can be idealistic about possessions, but when an entity begins using his fingernails for a screwdriver, idealisms fly away.

Excerpt /CAC Reading # 7-8 7-16-93 Paul Shockley Interpreter

MORTAL COMBAT BETWEEN THE VATICAN AND THE BRITISH EMPIRE FOR CONTROL OF THE WORLD

QUESTION:

There's a company called A-Albionics Consulting and Research, out of Ferndale, Michigan (PO Box 20273), that sells conspiracy books and courses on this subject, and on their letterhead the following two lines are printed: "The overt and covert organs of the Vatican and British Empires are locked in mortal combat for control of the world."

If that's true, could Awareness elucidate a little on that subject, please?

COSMIC AWARENESS:

This Awareness indicates that the information is based on the recognition of the conflict between Fascism and Judaism or the Leftist groups such as Communism. The belief being that the Catholic church represents a Fascist segment of society and the Leftist organizations are tied with the Jewish side of society.

This Awareness indicates that essentially it is much the same as saying the Rothschild forces versus the Fascist forces and the activity being to assign any group according to its qualities into one side or the other in a way that it seems to fit best. Thus, you can put the Rockefellers on the Fascist side, the Roman Catholic church on the Fascist side, and you can put the Rothschilds and all other left wing organizations on the side of that which is Leftist or Communist.

This Awareness indicates that it is just another way of labeling and trying to show that there is a polarity and it is widespread. This Awareness indicates this is an action the mind seeks to accomplish wherein everything is categorized and in its place. This Awareness indicates that the problem with this kind of duality thinking is that when you accept everything as being right or left, good or bad, evil or holy, right or wrong, you have to put everything on one side or another, and just as Yin and Yang, not everything fits totally in one side or totally in the other.

The Yin may contain some Yang and the Yang may contain some Yin. The individual may be pretty good, but having some pretty bad qualities or vice versa. This Awareness indicates one can be Leftist in some areas and Rightist in other areas so that you have a person who is somewhat Fascist and somewhat Leftist in their attitudes.

This Awareness suggests that the statement be repeated, please.

QUESTIONER REPEATS STATEMENT:

"The overt and covert organs of the Vatican and British Empires are locked in mortal combat for control of the world."

COSMIC AWARENESS:

This Awareness indicates the so-called British Empire being that which represents the Rothschild powers, which generally have controlled the British Empire since the Napoleonic wars, and the Fascist or Rightist activities represented by the Catholic Church as symbolizing the Capitalists and Rockefeller and Nazi and Republican governments and all those groups and organizations that tend to be closer to Fascism.

This Awareness indicates that this is an entity's most condensed version of the conflicts of the world, whereby he reduces all conflicts to that most simple equation of calling it a conflict between the Catholic Church and the British Empire. This Awareness indicates that this can be traced in part back to the time when the British broke off from the Catholic Church, whereby the king separated from the rules of the Catholic Church and proclaimed himself a divine representative of god.

This Awareness indicates that there has long since been a conflict between Rome and Britain and this has endured in various ways and in various degrees down through history from that time. This Awareness indicates that it is not absolutely correct, but it is likened unto saying that a car which is brownish red is having a paint job war between the colors brown and red, wherein one could argue that red is predominant and proper for the car and another could argue that brown is the predominant color for the car, and either arguing party would have a certain amount of right to their claims, or if you wish to view it more accurately, you could see that there is a blend of these colors, just as there is a blend of Fascism and Leftist expression or British expression in the politics of life, in the control over human affairs on earth.

This Awareness indicates to simplify or to present a simple argument that the Catholic Church and Great Britain are basically at war is not a precise evaluation, even though it has a degree of truth if one understands the generalities involved.

This Awareness indicates the entity who wrote the book Pawns In The Game, a Canadian intelligence officer named Commander Carr, pointed out that the Illuminati had divided the world when it commissioned Karl Marx to write the Communist manifesto and Karl Ritter to write the Fascist Manifesto, which was later the guide for Nazi Germany, and this entity Karl Marx argued that only the Catholic Church stood between the conquest of Communism over the rest of the world and freedom that the world and the people sought.

This Awareness indicates that he saw the Catholic Church as representing that particular side that had been defined in part by Karl Ritter after the Nazi movement had been stopped and that the Catholic Church actually prevented Communism from taking over the rest of the world.

This Awareness indicates that there are some who would argue that the Catholic Church had helped Communism considerably. There are Catholics in books written on such topics. This Awareness indicates that much of this is a matter of interpretation for entities can take a position, and whatever position they take, they can look around and if they look hard enough and twist the facts somewhat, they can find evidence for their argument, and make it sound as though it is based on reality or facts.

This Awareness indicates that you could also equally argue something that is totally absurd and have some sense of conviction in your argument. You could say, for example, that all of the world's conflicts have to do with the war of the sexes, between man and woman, and that there is a great conspiracy in the religions of the West to make man the more powerful and to enslave women, or you could argue equally well, that women have control by their ability to nurture, to manipulate, to get men to do what they want, and that they have greater demands and wants than men, and that they can get men to fight against each other for their wishes, and therefore, by manipulating man against man, they can stimulate wars and violence, whereby men kill each other.

This Awareness indicates that you could present evidence to argue either of these points, especially if you could leave out other evidence that would disagree with your argument. This Awareness suggests you not put too much faith in platitudes or statements that sound like they're saying something significant, because many times these statements that are rhetorically impressive actually are not reflective of truth and their simplicity is simply that: simplicity, and may not have much to do with reality.

Women Who Were Burned at the Stake

QUESTION:

A question from Joyce Williams. She writes: "I have heard from reliable sources 6 million women were burned at the stake in Europe during the Dark Ages. Some villages had no women left. Others, only a few. (She's got a number of questions that follow) What can you tell us about the motives behind this action and the legacy that exists today? Perhaps this memory in the collective unconscious of Europeans and American women has made them more cautious, keeping talent hidden.

"What would be the carry-over into this life by a woman who was burned for being a witch?"

COSMIC AWARENESS:

This Awareness indicates that It does not see this statement as having any substance. This Awareness indicates that 6 million women being burned at the stake would require an enormous amount of wood, would require an enormous number of fires going all over Europe for many, many years.

This Awareness indicates that there would be significant records of these events. It would not simply be some story that surfaced some several hundred years later. It would be as well known as the Black Plague, in which several million people perished . This Awareness indicates it appears that the story was based on fabrication and exaggeration.

This Awareness indicates there were the Inquisitions and there were numbers of entities burned for alleged witchcraft or heresy. This Awareness indicates this included both male and female entities. This Awareness suggests however, that in all, the figure would be closer to 600,000 than 6 million and it appears much less than 600,000 in the entire centuries of the so-called Inquisition period.

FOLLOW-UP QUESTION:

Suppose the questioner Joyce had been burned or tortured for being a witch. What effects would it have on her today, if any?

COSMIC AWARENESS:

This Awareness indicates this would possibly cause her to mistrust authorities, particularly related to the church. It could affect her attitude toward men and particularly men of the priesthood or of religious leanings. It will depend entirely on how she herself would view these things.

This Awareness indicates that the Interpreter as having been burnt at the stake and his reaction is one that tends to have made him somewhat rebellious to some of the more sanctimonious religious piousness that he has encountered during his life in this sojourn.

Each individual might have a different reaction, according to their own particular make-up. This Awareness indicates that in the case of Joyce Williams, she is a relatively strong-willed person and would not likely care to be under the domination of anyone who had any kind of qualities that reminded her of the Inquisition priests or those who oppressed entities for their spiritual expression.

FOLLOW-UP QUESTION:

Is, as she implied in her question, the memory; if there is such a thing, in the collective unconscious of European and American women, made them more cautious, keeping talents hidden?

COSMIC AWARENESS:

This Awareness indicates that it appears this for some entities who may have been involved in having been burned at the stake, it could make them somewhat more intimidated in regard to the church, in regard to religion, in regard to the oppressions of men. It does not appear that their expression of personal talent would necessarily be inhibited, but their expression of activities or beliefs that might threaten or cause negative reactions from others could well be felt and have an inhibiting effect.

WISDOM OF AWARENESS: On Who You Really Are

This Awareness indicates that each of you in your true identity as beings of Awareness, are part of this Awareness and each of you is each of each other. That there is no true separation of this Awareness between one part and another part; for each of you is this Awareness and each of you is the other entity whom you look toward, whom you speak to.

This Awareness indicates that each of you, in forming your identifications, in playing with matter, in creating stars and galaxies, in working in harmony with each other, created that which is called the Universe.

This Awareness indicates that each of you, as one body of consciousness, did indeed manifest the separation of light and darkness

This Awareness indicates that each of you is God. That each of you is this Awareness. That each of you is an example of the Christ Consciousness.

This Awareness indicates that many of you have forgotten Who, in Fact, You Really Are. This Awareness wishes again to call to your attention the truth of your own being. This Awareness wishes to call to your attention the fact of your own reality as a divine being. This Awareness wishes to call to your attention that when you pray to God, when you pray to those divine forces, that indeed you are simply talking to that within yourself which is in direct communication with your higher being, your divine being—this Awareness.

ALL ABOUT "SECURITY"

(Is There a Universal Law of Security?)

Robert Hanzel, Tucson, AZ. wrote me. I'll read some of what he says here. There is more than one question here.

He writes: "Avaton, if you get a chance, please ask Cosmic Awareness if there is a Universal Law of Security. It seems to be a favorite word these days, i.e., Health Security Act, crime bills to make us feel more secure, et cetera. It is even mentioned along with the word "freedom."

Of freedom and security, the true purpose of government to guarantee and provide such, of which there is a Universal Law, i.e., the Law of Freedom. The emphasis these days on "security" reminds me of the early Gathering Storm days, i.e., "This Awareness indicates that the Beast is likened unto a dark shadow that covers this plane, and the tongue of the Beast attempts to lure entities into believing in him, and into falling asleep and giving up all rights to individual freedoms.

This Awareness indicates its strongest argument is its promise to give security. This Awareness wishes to remind entities that maximum security is found in the most unpleasant places, in prison control systems.

"As defined by Webster," Robert goes on, "security is basically the state of being or feeling secure; freedom from fear, anxiety, danger, doubt et cetera. A state or sense of safety or certainty. I guess the question would be: At what point does security become slavery to some and a god to others?"

COSMIC AWARENESS:

This Awareness indicates at the point wherein the slavery prevents your expression that you really want to make. This Awareness indicates that It has previously used, and likes to use the analogy of a diving board.

That Sense of Security: The Diving Board Analogy

You can have a diving board that is very flexible. You can walk out on that diving board and feel it going down the further out you get, and you can feel a little shaky if you have not been on that diving board before.

You wonder why it bends so far. There is a sense of insecurity. This Awareness indicates that the person who has already been on the diving board, who knows the diving board well, knows that it will only bend so far, and that it is this bending property that allows it to work best as a diving board. The entity goes out and jumps up and down on the diving board and feels it go down toward the water, but also knows that it will only go so far and will then bounce up and let him gain a greater bounce in his jumping so that his dive can be a much greater dive than if he just walked out on a brick path and dove off.

This Awareness indicates the brick path will be much more secure, but will not allow the diver as much expression in his dive. This Awareness indicates that when the entity's expression is hindered by security or security concerns, the action becomes a trade-off. Do you want to be secure? Or do you want to express yourself freely? One entity may say, "I want security!" Another may say, "I want to express myself freely!"

Some Want Freedom and Not Security

One entity may take off in the airplane and dive out and do skydiving on the way down and think it's great fun and great expression. Another my say, "I am not leaving the ground for anything! And I do not wish to have such expression! I want my security!" Thus, one entity will settle for security and not concern himself with expression and freedom of expression. The other will want more freedom of expression and not concern himself with security.

It is a matter of personal choice. The problem comes when someone decides to impose security on others, or when someone attempts to express themselves at the expense of another's security. Thus, the one entity in seeking freedom, may go overboard and want so much freedom that he is allowed, or thinks he is allowed to violate others in their need for security or freedom.

Still, a government may step in and say: "No! We will not allow anyone to go skydiving anymore because it just looks too dangerous to us! There is a matter of national security involved. We want all of our people to be secure, not necessarily expressive in their freedom!"

This Awareness indicates the question is a matter of balance and a matter of who is dictating what is to be made secure and what is to be allowed in terms of expression. The ideal is an expression of freedom being allowed so long as it does not infringe on others' rights to also have their expression, or to be secure, according to their needs.

This Awareness indicates that in making such a system or situation where entities have those rights of expression within certain limits, there may need to be some kind of security or fences or rules to enforce to protect the entity in his or her pursuit of expression, but also the limits of that expression that it does not infringe on the rights of others for their mixture of security and freedom.

This Awareness indicates, for example, if an entity says, "I've seen enough of this! There are too many people standing around on the ground! They are not asserting themselves and their freedom enough! I order them all to get aboard the plane and get up there and start jumping out!"

Now, this entity might think that he or she has an obligation to the masses to rid them of their security or fear for security, and to give them greater personal expression because he values personal expression and he thinks skydiving is the best thing that could happen to people.

The Right to Choose Must be Protected

This Awareness indicates but another person might not agree, and to consider a truly healthy society, one would have to allow entities to have a choice in the matter and to protect their right to the choice. The protection of their right to choose whether to skydive or whether to be secure, whether to express or whether to be made secure; these are areas in which a society must deal, and then the question is, "How much security should we impose?" and, "How much expression should we allow?"

This Awareness indicates that it is not for society to dictate these things. It is for the people of this society to agree upon so that they themselves can have a say in what the rules are, so that they themselves can determine what kind of security they need and what kind of expression they need, and the courts of law then, in a society, generally determine whether an entity is imposing on someone else's rights; their right to security or their right of expression, and this becomes a matter of delicacy, wherein individuals' rights need to be defined and the activities that affect those rights need to be determined in a trial or in a discussion so that the entities involved can have justice in their search for expression or security.

WISDOM OF AWARENESS --- On the Big Question:
How many have you served and how well?

Awareness Defines The Law of Security

This Awareness indicates that basically, the Law of Security is that law which provides a foundation upon which an entity stands, whereby the entity can select a form of expression that allows his or her best performance without infringing on the security or expression of others, who have the same rights.

This Awareness suggests that when governments dictate security or the amount of security or try to impose security on entities without their consent, there is danger of oppression. And when governments fail to provide for the entities who seek reasonable security, there is a danger of chaos and anarchy. It is a delicate balance that all must contribute to in order for it to be defined properly.

The entities involved are as important to finding that balance as are the governments who are authorized by those people to find that balance.

Does a Universal Law of Security Exist?

QUESTION:

Is there such a thing as a "Universal" Law of Security?

COSMIC AWARENESS:

This Awareness indicates that the question is: Is there a rule, a Universal Rule of Security?, because a law is simply a rule, or: Is there a principle of security?, for a law is a principle. This Awareness indicates to define a principle of security, one simply defines security because it is in itself a principle. This Awareness indicates there is difficulty in understanding what is sought by the term "Universal Law of security."

It is not something that simply gets rattled off as a rule or a principle, because security itself is a concept, and the very definition of the concept becomes the principle of security. This Awareness has discussed security as a concept. It is not something that can be put into a similar refrain as the Law of Love. There are many principles and definitions and words that do not lend themselves to refrains such as the Law of Love, or the Law of Mercy, if that is what is being sought.*

This Awareness suggests if this is required, the Law of Security is that law which requires a state or foundation from which entities can express themselves without fear of being hindered or blocked in that expression, so long as the expression does not prevent others from having their own similar security and rightful expression.

*Ed's Note: I have the feeling Robert was fishing for another Cosmic Law to be delivered by Awareness. However, Awareness has indicated it has already given all the Cosmic Laws of any importance. For this reason we are not including this new "Law of Security" in our booklet of genuine Cosmic Laws given by Awareness. If you feel otherwise, let us know as we do plan a revised version of the Cosmic Laws one of these days.

"WHADDAYA KNOW... AS IT TURNS OUT, WE DO COME WITH AN INSTRUCTION MANUAL!"

THE MOVIES: "SLIDING DOORS" AND "FREQUENCY"—ARE THEY VALID?

QUESTION:

A question from Lloyd Klapperich. He writes: " I recently saw two movies which provoked some thoughts and questions for Awareness. The first movie was "Sliding Doors" and the story dealt with a woman whose life took two different directions. The first was the result of her missing a subway train by seconds, and the second when she made it onto the subway just in time.

In the first case, she failed to catch her boyfriend at her apartment with another woman, and in the second, where she did catch him. The consequences which followed led to a quite different series of circumstances that play out against each other throughout the movie.

The second movie was titled "Frequency" and came out just recently. It dealt with a bizarre set of atmospheric conditions which allowed a son to make contact with his deceased father through an old 'ham' radio his father had left behind when he died 30 years earlier. The two of them begin to alter a series of incidents designed to avoid the father's untimely death and also catch a serial killer, and eventually create an entirely different and better life for both father and son as well as their respective families and friends.

My question to Awareness is: "Do the themes of these two movies have validity in the world of metaphysics? In other words, in the first case, do we enjoy the freedom of living out innumerable lives on different levels of consciousness based on choices we make in our ongoing existence in the physical? Also, do we also have the capability to go into the past and alter circumstances to bring us to a better present state should we wish to do so?

I am presuming that the potential is here for both, as it is a universal precept that what we can perceive, we can achieve, and that free will is a universal gift. However, I would be most interested in Awareness's comments."

COSMIC AWARENESS:

This Awareness suggests that the presumptions are in the affirmative. This Awareness suggests that both the films are elegant examples of a shift within mass-consciousness, whereas interest in such formerly esoteric concepts as alternate probable existences and manipulations within the space/time continuum have become mainstream to the degrees that they are reached by a broad audience.

This Awareness suggests that the first film entitled "Sliding Doors" highlights the power of choice as each moment being the point of power; to divert from one probability to the next, to the next, to the next, to the next. This Awareness suggests that although the public at large did not embrace perhaps the depth of information intuitively implied, that the general message of personal choice and happenstance events can dramatically alter a life course was a message that did indeed hit home.

This Awareness suggests, however, that to the astute participant and observer, such as Lloyd, that the deeper meanings and potentials within humanity to create from an entire realm of unlimited probable existences, those specific experiences desired by the personality in alignment with the desires of the entity.

This Awareness suggests that this is where the first film intersects with the next film discussed entitled "Frequency" wherein the space/time continuum is breached through a unique set of technological and natural circumstances. This Awareness suggests that this was an excellent metaphor for communication outside of space/time between the personality, who is personified by the son, and the entity beyond space/time who is personified by the father communicating via the radio disturbances.

This Awareness suggests that indeed, just as the radio signals, however magical, exchanged between the physical and the non-physical, between the past and the future, is indeed exactly the type of communication established between the personality and the entity as communicated through emotional sensory signals. This Awareness suggests that the happy ending to the tale, in which the son and the father exchanged information, the guidance from the father affected the choices of the son to the degree that the experience and life of both was affected to the positive.

This Awareness suggests that this is indeed the type of situation and desirable outcome between when the creative impetus energy/information sent forth by the entity and received by the personality through creative inspirations, clearly marked with emotional tones of joyous discovery, indeed guide the willful creation, the choices of belief structures and strategies and behaviors which materialize the experiences desirous of the spirit.

This Awareness suggests that when entities recognize that no magical equipment is necessary, that no specific weather conditions are necessary, that indeed the signal is exchanged between entity and personality continuously through a cycle of feedback wherein the entity's suggestions are received and acted upon by the personality who then receives specific feedback by positive or negative emotional signals which validate how well the reception and creation of the original transmission has been.

This Awareness suggests that although the stories on the surface level were entertaining, they struck specific chords and intuitive pathways have been opened which can specifically heighten certain intuitive perceptions and plant the seeds for broader and less limited belief structures. This Awareness suggests that many such artistic expressions in many forms at this particular time on the planet are the culmination of the efforts of many entities and many higher gestalts of consciousness within All That Is to bring about the enlightenment which is now at hand.

IS INTUITION ALSO A "FEELING"?

QUESTION:

One last question from Jack Manuel. He asks "Is intuition a kind of feeling? And if we should listen to our intuitions or hunches as we listen to our feelings and the emotional messages that they carry from the Universal Divine or the All That Is?"

COSMIC AWARENESS:

This Awareness suggests that this is in the affirmative. The entity is quite astute in recognizing the subtle difference between intuition, thought and feeling, as well as recognizing the entanglement of the three concepts. This Awareness suggests that oftentimes, as people become focused upon and puzzling about their emotional system, that they think many things about feelings and thoughts without having separated and distinguished exactly what each is, from the next, and ultimately how they do blend together in symbolic and instantaneous insights with the feeling component. This Awareness suggests that to the body, the feelings essentially are good and bad states of fulfillment or deficit. They are painful or they are pleasurable.

To the mind, feelings take on a more thoughtful long-term component and more subtle shades of flavor as the many belief systems begin to color them and specifically tie to them, whereas in the realm of spirit, the mind also has access through instantaneous intuitions and energy from All That is, which also carry a distinct resonance and pleasing Divinity experienced as an inspirational joyous feeling, wherein the spiritual language speaks various complexities and frequencies and brings unique messages to each aspect of self, as indeed it is an information flow between and within All That Is.

In terms of the entity, the information flows between mind and body, and in terms of the individuals, the information flows between one entity and another, and in terms of humanity, the information is exchanged continuously throughout each and every entity, carrying the experiences back upon the path from whence it came in the expansion of All That Is and returning with the wisdom of how best to orient along the most rewarding and fulfilling Destiny Path.

HOW TO PARTICIPATE IN WORLD WAR III

CLOSING MESSAGE?

This Awareness suggests that as entities pick up their daily newspapers each day and recognize that the decisions of some can affect the destiny and life situation of all, shall recognize that at such moments, they can examine through the feelings which arise, their own belief structures, and what their individual participation might be to the energies involved.

This Awareness suggests that as entities pick up their newspapers and read the headlines about the possibility of World War III, that to create a vivid scenario such as that and empower it with fear energy is indeed to participate in that particular kind of direction and energy and that individuals are far from powerless.

Instead, to pick up the paper and see this situation as the natural unfolding of the global interconnection and yet one more step in the unfolding/understanding of structures, necessary throughout the world, to facilitate freedom and opportunity for each and every entity; that such can bring a smile to the face, and the energy can be generated wherein it can be sent forth to create the image of the unified, free and global interconnected situation of humanity that each spirit resonates in complete and utter knowledge that is the Divine Way.

This Awareness suggests that every entity who participates, whether knowingly or not, through conjuring an image driven by fear versus an image driven by faith and in spirit, is indeed participating on the front lines far more than they might know. This Awareness suggests that entities in this particular community, interested in enlightenment can garner and direct a profound amount of energy in the positive optimal direction at this juncture in particular, and this is a suggested activity.
