COSMIC AWARENESS:)

This Awareness is ready to resume the series of questions that are available at this time.

That Ominous Bulge Beneath Yellowstone Park

QUESTION (TAMI):

These are all articles send by Avaton requesting a comment. The first one is called "Yellowstone Bulge: Geothermal Activity Focus of USGS Study. Billings, Montana: A newly discovered surface bulge in Yellowstone National Park might be responsible for some unexpected geothermal activity in recent years, according to a study by US Geological Survey Scientists. The bulge, about 25 miles across, rose five inches from 1997 to 2003, and might have triggered some thermal unrest in Norris Geyser Basin, including a sudden rise in temperatures, new steam vents and the awakening of steamboat geyser.

The findings are part of a paper published Thursday in the journal Nature. Charles Wicks, one of the USGS scientists who worked on the study, said much of what happened beneath the park's surface remains a mystery, but more is being learned about the Yellowstone caldera, the huge bowl-shaped collapsed volcano in the middle of the park that last erupted 640,000 years ago.

Geologists discovered the dome in the North rim of the caldera several years ago, and Wicks and others used satellite images and other tools to track its swelling.

Wicks and his colleagues theorize that molten rock moved out of the caldera and beneath the area of the inflating dome, which has been named the North Rim Uplift Anomaly. The floor of the caldera sank as the molten rock left. About the same time some unusual activity began occurring in and around Norris Geyser Basin according to the USGS findings.

Steamboat Geyser erupted in May, 2000, after nine years of dormancy, and they erupted five more times between 2002 and 2003. The nearby Porkchop Geyser also sprang to life after 14 years of dormancy.

Ground temperatures at Norris, the hottest and most unstable geyser area in the park, rose so high in 2003 that Yellowstone officials closed some boardwalks out of fear that visitors might be burned, and just north of Norris, near Nymph Lake, a series of steam vents churned and emitted white clouds of gas. Scientists studying the shore of Yellowstone Lake found that the caldera has been rising and falling for at least 15,000 years, sometimes swinging more than 10 feet.

Henry Heasler, Yellowstone's lead geologist said research about the heaving caldera could play a role in predicting volcanic activity and help ensure the public safety.

"We've known that the caldera breathes" Hessler said. "Now we're starting to get a much better idea of those respirations." Comment please.

COSMIC AWARENESS:

This Awareness sees that the area known as Yellowstone Park is indeed a highly active geological area for geothermal activity. The caldera underneath the park is as described. To a large scale, this article is very accurate in its descriptions, and this Awareness does not have a lot to add to that description of the events that are occurring. It wishes to point out that the caldera under Yellowstone Park has been around for an awful long time, and this anomaly that is described where the ground lifts up as the earth itself breathes is also an accurate description of the process.

This Awareness wishes to add this to the description given of the events. This is a way for built-up energies to be siphoned off of the main caldera, thus allowing for a release of pressure, especially through the geysers that erupt, releasing immense pressure in the form of the super-heated waters that are expelled from the surface through the geyser's activities. When the basin fills, it is a kind of overflow area that allows the built-up magma to escape from the caldera proper into this overflow basin which then allows the heating of waters in that area which are then released as the geyser activity.

This process is indeed what is preventing the giant caldera underneath Yellowstone Park from building to such a point that an explosion of cataclysmic proportions would occur. It prevents this situation from taking place, so that in many ways, the lift and fall of the lands in the area described are really indicative of the safe release of the pressures in that area. This Awareness likens this area unto the area described in the Northern California/Southern Oregon region, where there is another caldera, another buildup of magma under the surface.

Of the two, this Awareness sees that the Oregon/California caldera is by far the more volatile one, and has the greater risk of being released in a cataclysmic event, but there is a connection to the activity in Yellowstone Park, so that if one shifts and explodes, the other may also be released, but to a far lesser degree, or the release may be subterranean, seeing large flows of lava leaving that area. As the caldera in the Oregon/California is released, the caldera in the Yellowstone region will be somehow drained.

The cataclysmic event around that would actually be the falling of the lands into a big pit, a big hole that is created as the caldera under Yellowstone National Park drains fairly quickly, and the land would subside quite rapidly into that hole that is vacated underneath the land. In the geological process of things, with hundreds of years, that basin would fill again and the lying lands rise again, but that would take millions of years, certainly hundreds of thousands of years, as the last great explosion in that region was some 650,000 years ago, and while this figure sounds like a long time ago, in geological terms, in the terms of Mother Earth's age, this is an event that happened fairly recently in her own history of things.

Underground Tunnels Used by Aliens Run Beneath Yellowstone (They Have Means to Release Built-up Pressures)

This Awareness now wishes to talk about something else that It sees in this region that is quite unrelated to the events described in the article. This Awareness has spoken before of the underground passageways, the underground tunnels that have been bored out by certain extraterrestrial beings who have been in cahoots with the government, and the government has allowed them to build these tunnels through the various regions, and they indeed crisscross the United States and up into Canada and down into Mexico. One of the primary passageways passes very closely through to the Yellowstone area. It does pass through it, and therefore, some of the activities that are caused in the Yellowstone Caldera are results of some of the activities of these extraterrestrial Greys and Reptilians.

This is not seen as primary event, but is somewhat associated with the release of the energies in the Yellowstone region, so that their efforts and their tunnels are not destroyed in a cataclysmic event, but these beings do have the technology available to safely vent off energies and pressures as they build up in the area that would have an adverse effect on their own tunnels and underground transit systems. It is seen by this Awareness that the releasing of some of the overflow from the main Caldera of Yellowstone park into this uplift anomaly are caused by the extraterrestrials themselves, who released the buildup of pressure because it was becoming crucial to their operation, and then they further allowed that pressure to be siphoned off and released into underground streams of magma and lava, and released also in the superheated waters that form the geyser system of Yellowstone National Park.

This Awareness adds this to the picture at this time to help the readership to understand that there are forces available that can indeed dissipate the buildup of volcanic activities and pressures under the ground and are doing so at this time if it is of benefit to them to do so. They do not do so at this time to alleviate any situations that could occur that would have adverse effects on the human population on the surface, but should it be required and should an agreement be made with the proper authorities, this is another way that those energies could be dissipated. Alternatively, they can also trigger these events to occur, and if that was their agenda and if that was their need, they might do this instead, which is why the government tries to keep on even terms with their alien partners who they have entered into contracts with, those whom they have made treaties with.

The governments still do not have the same technology, and are not at a level of technology that the aliens known as the Greys possess. This activity has seemingly been dormant for a long while now, but there is still activity happening both below the surface and above the surface. It is not seen by this Awareness that there will be any particular venting of those volcanic energies, nor any particular deliberate release of those same volcanic energies by the extraterrestrials, who seem to be more involved in a neutral position at this time. This is a good thing, but it is something that could shift and change, especially as the approaching agenda has it that alien contact is something that is on the books for times ahead. This is another matter, another question, another story, and this Awareness is complete with the answering and comments on the articles presented.

SILICON IMPLANTS TESTED IN OHIO

(The Mark of the Beast Makes Its Public Debut)

QUESTION:

The next article is called " Mark of the Beast Makes US Debut: Are You Next?" An Ohio company has imbedded silicon chips in two of its employees; the first known case in which US workers have been tagged electronically as a way of identifying them. Citywatcher.com, a privately video surveillance company said it was testing the technology as a way of controlling access to a room where it holds security video footage for government agencies and the police. Imbedding slivers of silicone in workers is likely to add to the controversy over RFID technology, widely seen as one of the next big growth industries.

RFID chips, inexpensive radio transmitters that give off a unique identifying signal, have been implanted to pets or attached to goods so that they can be tracked in transit. "There are very serious privacy and civil liberty issues of having people permanently numbered," said Liz Macintyre, who campaigns against the use of identification technology. And what the US media is saying about this story; quoting the AP: "Tiny silicone chips are imbedded into two workers who volunteered to help test the tagging technology at a surveillance equipment company, an official said Monday, February 13th.

"The Mexico Attorney General's office implanted the so-called RFID's, or Radio Frequency Identification Chips, in some employees in 2004 to restrict access to security areas. Implanting them in the workers at city.com is believed to be the first use of technology in living humans in the United States. Sean Darks (sp), Chief Executive of the company also had one of the chips imbedded."

Please comment.

COSMIC AWARENESS:

This Awareness does see this as part of the overall scenario that the powers that be, the elite, have for the human race. This is indeed part of the enslavement of humanity, the enslavement at least of those who would survive the mass-depopulation plans that are also part of the scenario. It has long been seen and held, that the powers that be feel that there are too many extra individuals on this planet who are simply using up their precious resources and taking up space that they request and require for themselves. This is known, and this Awareness has spoken of this many times, and there are many sources of information that address this issue and talk on it in great length.

This Awareness does not wish at this time to simply go on and on and on about this matter, but wishes instead to refocus attentions here. There are choices to be made now at this time of division, at this time of separation. This Awareness has spoken at length recently about the division of the two planets: Planet A and Planet B, as It chooses to call them now; the Ascension Planet, and the Planet Below Ascension. It is a time of choice for many many individuals, both consciously and unconsciously, as to the direction that they wish to take, both as individuals and as a collective.

The Process of Awakening is Accelerating Rapidly (Oprah Winfrey and the Release of "The Secret")

The collective is also in various levels and degrees; there is the family collective, there is the community collective; there could be a city collective, a regional collective, a country collective, a collective of the whole planet. These are all levels of consciousness of the masses. There has been started a process of awakening that is accelerating rapidly, but this Awareness sees this process as an event that recently started up and has a lot of do with the release of information at a mass-level through that show known as Oprah Winfrey. The release of information around the DVD movie "The Secret" has gone out to the mass-public, and the public is starting to become aware, is starting to open up to another way of thinking.

The response to the original show that Oprah Winfrey ran was so great that she returned several of the guests the following week, thus indicating and showing that the interest is indeed out there to radically challenge the perceived conceptions held for so long by so many, that it is possible to create everything that you want and need in your life, but this is a radical concept for most, and one that is a threat to the powers that be, one that the powers that be would rather crush and choke off rather than allow to happen, to emerge in the consciousness of the collective, at whatever level of the collective.

The most important level to start with is that of the individual, and each individual now must choose which direction they wish to go, how they wish to create and what they wish to create in terms of their lives and their reality. This Awareness, through previous Interpreters spoke that It was not willing to energize the negative, to give any strength or power to those who would manipulate and control and use the collective, the masses. It still does not wish to empower them, but It does wish to elucidate, It does wish to enlighten the readership, to add Its voice to the voice that is growing, that voice that is speaking out against the control and the manipulation of those powers that would enslave the planet, and would murder off many innocent ones.

It's Time to Choose a New Alternative, Create Another Reality

This Awareness wishes all to understand that this is a time to focus not on the strength of those that are in power. It is a time to recognize it, but to choose other alternatives, to create another reality, a reality that will be enhanced, as more and more people open up to this new reality. That is why the events of recent days with the information being released on the Oprah Winfrey show is so significant, so powerful, that many are now speaking of this who did not previously speak of it.

This Awareness, through the Interpreter, sees an event that happened to a friend in the United States, who said to the Interpreter recently, that she was the only one in her small town in Iowa who knew of "The Secret" and had no one to talk to about it, no one to share this information with, no one seemingly interested in it, and yet, just the other day as she was walking along with her sister, overheard two elderly women talking about "The Secret" talking about getting it and watching it because they had seen it on the Oprah Winfrey show. Such is the power and the impact of this exposure, and the positiveness of it, to releasing this information on a mass-societal scale that will accelerate quickly and become a real voice against the powers that be, and that the reality of this happening will be in alignment with the A Planet's energies.

Already those who are aware of these events are themselves aligned to the energies of the A Planet, the Ascension Planet, and those who are not, who are still ignorant to all this information, this new way of thinking, are exhibiting the understanding of those who choose to stay below and behind. Those who choose to stay focus and lift their own awareness upwards and to start seeing things differently, and start creating differently, will experience a drifting away from those who hold things to be different, who do not accept this new reality, this new truth, and they will start to fall away as friends and associates and colleagues.

As the Two Levels of Consciousness Become More Extreme

Even members of families who do not hold this as their truth will start to fall away, and as the process accelerates, the dropping away will become more pronounced, although as the energies shift and change substantially, and the separation between the two planets, the two levels of consciousness, becomes more extreme, it will start to feel like many just cease to be part of one's life. Even the memories of others who were once part of their life will start to fall away and a seamless continuity will be created that doesn't even see that there used to be many who did not believe as they did, and that those who are around them are all those who share this new belief, this new concept, whether it is that of the Ascension Planet, or that of the planet that stays below Ascension, behind Ascension, who do not choose to rise up, but who choose to go deeper into the densities of consciousness, of separation, of materialism.

Both Sides Will Become Unaware of Others Who had Been in their Lives Previously

Both sides will become unaware of others who had been in their lives previously. It's as if they simply went away, and are not thought of anymore. There's no significance to them anymore. There's even no real need to think of them anymore. This is how that process will proceed in the next few years, and that is why it is so important for many to start awakening, to start asking questions, to start making choices. While this Awareness on one level supports the sharing of such information so that we become aware of it ("we" being the collective), that they choose not to go in that direction, they choose not to focus on that energy and instead, once such information is heard, rather than to go into a fear state or even an anger state against those who would do such things, that instead, the attentions and energies be refocused to holding a space where such things will not materialize in their reality.

This is not a way of denying it, or of being in denial. It is a choice to see consciousness expanding, awareness increasing, and with that increase in awareness, the vibrations will also increase, or visa versa, the vibrations increase which cause a greater awareness to open up. One way to do it is when one hears such reports, to visualize such things being exposed for what they are, and that people become aware of these plots and say no to them, and in this process, those who are behind it, will start to lose their power, for the people will say no.

Politicians Notice When Enough Stand Up and Say "NO!"

This Awareness spoke the other day of how when a small percentage stand up and say "No!, politicians do start to take notice, and when more and more say "No!", the politicians will join the bandwagon, so to speak, and support the popular movement, the masses.

This is indeed where the masses have power, if they awaken to it, and this awakening is part of the unfolding of events that is occurring on that planet that is choosing Ascension, and those who are involved in that Ascension process, both individually and on a planetary level. It is all right to gain information of the conspiratorial type, to know who was behind the bombings of the World Trade Center buildings or the subway train in England, or the train in Madrid, or even several years ago: the social club that was bombed in Bali, the Disco bar. It is okay to have such information of such events, but it is not okay to simply attribute it to the actions of that power elite, although they may be behind it.

It is now important that each individual who becomes aware of such information, who is understanding of such, see the greater picture, and understand that even these types are working for a greater result than they themselves even understand or know, and that each individual choose the highest experience, choose to strive for the Light, and to illuminate the events and circumstances to whatever degree they can, but to choose also to experience a new reality, a new truth.

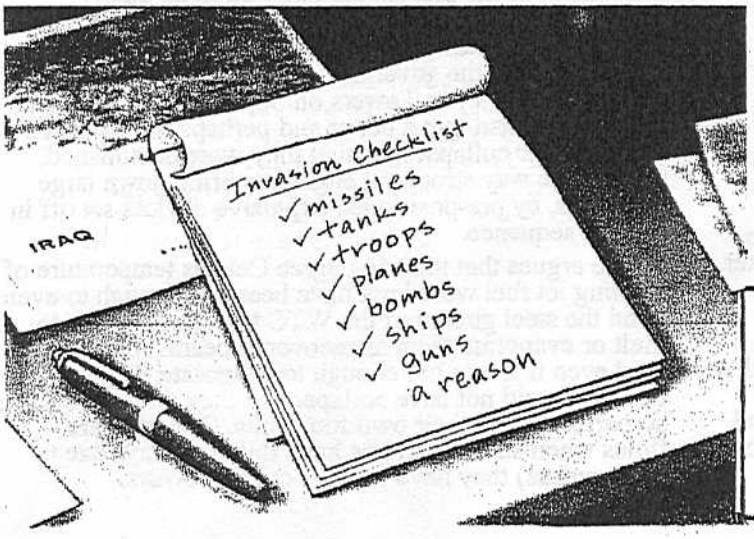
As Creator Beings It's Time to Create the New Reality

This Awareness says that you are Creator Beings, and as Creator Beings it is time now for you to begin to truly create the reality that is in alignment with True Spirit, that is Your True Alignment. While information as presented in this article are important to see and understand and be aware of, this information must also be put in context to the greater picture and to the individual choices that each and every one of the readership much make and each and every human being must make at this time, either on a consciousness level or at an unconscious level. That is what this Awareness wishes to emphasize at this time.

This Awareness is complete with this article and Its comments towards it.

WHAT IS COSMIC AWARENESS?

COSMIC AWARENESS is the Force that expressed Itself through Jesus of Nazareth, the Buddha, Krishna, Mohammed, Edgar Cayce and other great avatars who served as 'Channels' for the 'Heavenly Father' and who speaks again today as the world begins to enter the 'New Age' of spiritual consciousness and awareness. Since 1963 CosmicAwareness has been communicating through carefully trained channels. This information is for those who desire to help in bringing in the New Age. Throughout the thousands of 'Readings' given through these various channels, Cosmic Awareness tells us not to believe anything, but to question, explore, doubt, and discover for yourself, through your own channel what is the truth. Cosmic Awareness will only 'indicate' and 'suggest' . Neither C.A.C. or any of the Interpreters is responsible for anything Cosmic Awareness states in any of these readings, nor does C.A.C. or the Interpreters necessarily agree with the statements of Cosmic Awareness. The Interpreters interpret the energies as they see them in trance levels and are not personally responsible for what is said. The Interpreters published herein have no connection with, nor control over the editorial comments and material, including illustrations. This is entirely the responsibility of the editor. Members of C.A.C. are invited to send in questions of general interest to ask Awareness for possible publication in this newsletter.



Health Hints from Personal Readings

(About alcoholic beverages)

This Awareness suggests that this be avoided by you for some time. That the use of alcohol in your system weakens your aura, makes holes in your aura and allows alien forces to invade and cause trouble to you. This Awareness suggests that you be very cautious in relation to being around others who are involved in the use of alcoholic beverages, that as much as is possible for a period of at least one year, you will benefit greatly, your life shall become much more meaningful and prosperous if you move away from any contact with alcohol as a beverage or those who are involved in this. This Awareness indicates this does not mean that you must condemn those who are using this, but rather that you would be more benefited by avoiding contact with any form of alcoholic influences. Those Deteriorating Missiles in Old Silos

(Something Needs to be Done NOW!)

QUESTION:

A question from Laura DeNardo, Phoenix, Arizona: "I have a question for Awareness. I don't think it has been asked. This concerns the missiles contained in silos in the U.S.A. Some people I know have become worried about them, because they have started corroding. They have not been inspected since they were put in their silos. If an inspection were conducted, the problem would be found and could be corrected. If something isn't done, some of these missiles could accidentally fire. This would cause the atmosphere above the United States to catch fire and burn, destroying all life. Can't something be done?" she asks.

COSMIC AWARENESS:

This Awareness indicates that entities can write their concerns to their representatives in Congress, and ask this question of them, and continually repeat the question in various places, such as newspapers in the editorial page, to keep the question out in the public, so that the missiles in the silos are not simply forgotten because the Cold War appears to be over. That although this is not seen as a great cause of concern at the present, there is seen the need eventually to attend to this problem, before the scenario mentioned by the questioner does in fact come to be.

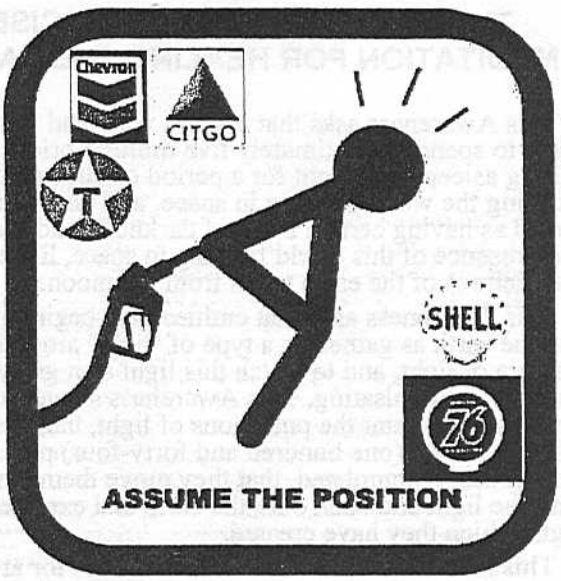
FOLLOW-UP QUESTION:

Does Awareness see the approximate number of years before this reaches a crisis point?

COSMIC AWARENESS:

This Awareness indicates that it will depend largely on whether these are being tended, in a sense of dampness or the corrosion factors of the metal and the wiring, and the dampness of the atmosphere. It will of course be different in accordance to the locations of different ones, and the different areas involved.

New Universal Sign for Gasoline



This Awareness indicates that it sees that within the next decade there could be a minimal problem; that within two decades this could become an issue of greater concern. But within two decades there is a probability of considerable problems, if not attended to.

This Awareness indicates that these should be checked even presently for corrosion and for the potential of moisture accumulating to speed up corrosion.

Did U.S. Bomb Japan to Destroy Aliens?

QUESTION:

Larry Kell sent us a tape which we didn't play. He says, "This tape was full of really strange stuff. The main question I have for Awareness is did the United States really use nuclear bombs on Japan to destroy tunnels full of alien-made equipment, UFO's and so forth? We took what we wanted and then destroyed the leftovers, according to this tape. This is a copy of Tape #26 from the Extraterrestrial Communications Network out of Scottsdale, Arizona. Is there any truth to that information?"

COSMIC AWARENESS:

This Awareness indicates this is in the negative.
