CAC General Reading 2-20-07 Will Berlinghof Interpreter
(A Count of 12 & the Law of Love is given)

COSMIC AWARENESS:

This Awareness wishes to start by making a comment of Its appreciation. The Interpreter and the energizer are making regular times available to do this channeling work, channeling the information, and answering the questions. This Awareness wishes to pass on to the readers and to those who are seeking the information this Awareness has to share; this Awareness is aware that there is a learning curve involved in the channeling of Cosmic Awareness, to reach those deeper more profound levels that are available to the Interpreter with practice. That is why this Awareness is appreciative that regular sessions are now being held, so that both the Interpreter and the energizer can become even more familiar with the process, and lend themselves to channeling of Cosmic Awareness, of this Awareness. For this, this Awareness is appreciative.

It states now It is ready to commence with the questions for this session.

Stolen Records From Veterans Affair Org

(Will the Information Be Used Against Them?)

QUESTION:

We have 4 questions here from Allen Purcell, Youngstown , Ohio. He writes: (Question 1)

"I received a letter from the VA (Veteran's Affairs) saying some employee took home some 2.5 million records of GI's that contained names, social security numbers, and dates of birth, and it was "stolen" from his home. I would like to know if this info will be used by "our government" for the Mexicans that are invading our country. Will the government try to kill us off? Has Russia taken over the US?"

COSMIC AWARENESS:

This Awareness sees that there is some validity for concerns expressed by this individual, but that there is also creeping into it an element of paranoia over the use of the records and that government may have been perhaps taken over by a foreign government. This Awareness first wishes to affirm that there is the possibility that those records were not simply stolen arbitrarily by a thief who broke into the household and stole those records. There was some knowledge that those records for the two and a half million GI's would be in that house in the first place, so that this was not a random act. It was not a random break and entry, and even if it were, why would the thieves abscond with records that have no value to them in a monetary sense, as most crimes of this nature are done as a smash and grab: to get in, grab what they can that would translate into cash quickly, and then leave quickly.

There Was a Sinister Purpose Behind the Theft

No. There was a purpose behind this. This purpose was to obtain these identities of these individuals so that they could be used for other purposes. It is seen that some government agency was responsible for this. The records and the identities of the individuals are indeed what was sought in this crime. These identities then could be used for others, if need be. The individual's concern that perhaps they would be used for Mexicans is not totally unjustified, but this Awareness would like to state that this would not be for all Mexicans who are coming into your country, nor exclusively for Mexicans who are entering the United States illegally, but for a certain element; not only Mexicans, but other foreign nationals who the government would be bringing in for the purpose of dark ops, or operations that would require certain individuals to have certain records and information available that could be used to support their cover stories.

It is not a case of all the two and a half million files being used, but rather a selection of certain ones to meet certain individuals in terms of appearance, in terms of background, so that those individuals would have a workable and plausible cover story. This is seen as the reason why this secret organization stole these records in the first place. There seems to have been some duplicity involved with the individual who took these records home in the first place. He had been instructed to do so on some level, it seems, but this is not provable.

This Awareness does not wish to make any allegations that this is so. It simply senses that there was something more behind the story given. Why would this individual take two and a half million records home in the first place? Why remove them from a secure setting? But this was done, and there appears to have been a reason behind it. That is all this Awareness is willing to suggest at this time.

This Awareness needs also to speak on a certain degree of paranoia that came through in this individual's questions; paranoia, such as those individuals being killed off by the government. Many of the files that were stolen were already of individuals who have passed on, who are no longer on this earthly plane, and it is these ones in particular that these agents wanted to access. Records of those who have passed over were the ones that were used by the agents in this secret agency.

The individual need not concern himself about being knocked off just to cover the stolen identity of the person whose file was stolen. This is not seen as plausible or likely. Also, this Awareness wishes outright to state that the Russian government has not taken over the United States government. Others, agents and agencies have done this a long time ago, so the assumption that the American government, chosen by the people, for the people, is indeed a fallacy. There are powers that be that are truly behind the goverment that truly hold and pull the strings, make the plans, have everything set up for what they wish to accomplish, and the government is, in a sense, a puppet regime in this regard.

This Awareness outright states that the Russians have not somehow taken over the power from those powers that be, so this is also not plausible. This is also something that this Awareness cannot confirm, for it is not so. This Awareness is complete with this question and wishes to move on.

THE FEDERAL RESERVE BANK ETC. OUR FLAG INDICATES MARTIAL LAW

QUESTION:

There's several questions within a question. "Awareness has not said much about the American flag with the gold fringe around it in the common law courtrooms. The flag is a military flag and is not 'common law'…does this have something to do with 1-207, Without Prejudice UCC? What does this mean?

Why haven't "we the people" been told that the Federal US government was bankrupt in 1933 by the Federal Reserve Bank? Fraud, of course. How can a Federal note pay income taxes if they are not US dollars? A Fed note is worthless. Did the US Federal government give the Fed all the land of the US (fraud of course) to get out of bankruptcy? And all 164,000 tons of gold in the deep vault at Fort Knox?

COSMIC AWARENESS:

This Awareness will need to take these questions separately. It also asks if the individual asking these questions is the same Allen Purcell.

QUESTIONER:

Yes.

COSMIC AWARENESS:

Good.

This Awareness wishes to start at the beginning with the first questions about the American flag fringed in gold. As the entity Allen Purcell has suggested later in his letter, this gold fringe is indeed indicative of a state of martial law that exists in the United States at this time. This is also so for the country North of the United States, or Canada, which also has its flag fringed in gold in public buildings. The gold fringe around any flag of any nation indicates that that flag is under what is called Admiralty Law. It is indicative of a country that is at war, under martial law, where the rights of the individuals are suspended, do not exist, for it is as if that country is at war, and the needs of the government to be totally in control supersede the needs of the individual, and this is a way that the powers that be, that this Awareness mentioned a moment ago, can keep the country in total control.

You Aren't Supposed to Know What the Gold Fringe Means

Of course, these same agencies do not present it as if the country was truly under this martial law, for if it were to do so, there would be mass protests. People would rise up and demand that this be rescinded, and they achieve the rights that are theirs under the Constitution, or the Bill of Rights in Canada, and this is not the way that they wish it to be, so they keep this hidden. They put the flag up with the gold fringe, but do not tell the people what this gold fringe is all about. This is so that if a situation were to arise, they do not have to go through the trouble of going through Congress or going through Parliament to pass laws, to put the country under martial law, for it is already under martial law.

What is required however, is that the country declare a state of war against something or someone, against another country, or against a drug cartel; thus, in the past, there has been the War Against Drugs, and there are other precedence's that were so in the past, but at this time, in the year 2007, the United States of America is at war with terrorists and terrorism, and that has proven to be the Golden Fleece, for this as the President himself spoke early on, is a war that will not have an early conclusion, for the War on Terrorism will go on and on and on, as long as it is useful as a ploy to keep the country in a state of war. As long as there is something to be gained, the War on Terrorism will be prolonged as long as needs be.

The Yellow Fringe Indicates the Country is Under Martial Law

The yellow fringe around the flag indicates that the country is indeed under martial law, under Admiralty Law, and that the Constitution as such, even though ostensibly is given out as being valid, is indeed invalid, if the need be that all rights are immediately suspended. This could be done immediately, and without any need to go to Congress to make it so. This Awareness is complete with this portion of the question and asks to move on at this time.

What "Without Prejudice" Means?

QUESTION:

"Does this have something to do with 1-207, without prejudice UCC? What does this mean?"

COSMIC AWARENESS:

This Awareness does not see clearly what this is in reference to. What this Awareness does see is that 'Without Prejudice" simply states that all would be treated the same under Admiralty Law, under martial law, and that it is convenient to say "Without prejudice" as acts of intolerance and suppression are acted on all equally; that all fall under this ruling; all except those who are part of what is known as the Elite; those who are part of the ruling families that rule not only in the United States, but in the world. This of course, does not apply to them.

This Awareness does not have more information at this time about this, for It is not aware of this act or this law, or whatever the series of letters is in reference to. This Awareness wishes to move on.

Why Weren't we Told We're Bankrupt?

QUESTION:

Why haven't "we the people" been told that the Federal US government was bankrupted in 1933 by the Federal Reserve Bank?

COSMIC AWARENESS:

This Awareness suggests that the people have not been told because it was more important, it is indeed the plan of things, to keep the people ignorant; ignorant and unaware of what the truth is behind the government, and how the power structure truly is set up. This is all part of illusion; the illusion of power of the people being the true power. This Awareness also wishes to state that it is true that the people are the power, but this power is misdirected into areas where that power is dissipated and drained and misdirected. This power that the people could have if they indeed rose up, would bring even these powers that be to heel, would take away their powers and would rectify situations that are at this time intolerable situations indeed, but the people are dumbed down.

The people are fed bogus information. Their interests are misdirected into areas that take them away from any thought of standing up for themselves, of demanding that those powers that control their lives are actually truly answerable for what they do. Thus, it is seen that instead of truly giving out information that would allow the people to govern themselves in a way that was responsible for one and for all, instead are given information that misleads and misguides them, that prevents them from even developing interest.

Religious Brainwashing: "Obedience to God and Country!"

This is a process that starts right at the very earliest levels of schooling and of course, the religious teachings also have a lot to do with this, for a lot of the Fundamentalist teachings preach obedience at all costs, obedience to higher powers, government included, a great God above all; God and country: the two main themes that are stressed in the United States as the highest, and therefore, if the people are taught early on not to question, not to think about deeper issues, to truly only be in obedience to the concept of God and country, and never question whether the country is right and the leaders of that country are right, or to ever question if the God that they worship is right, or anything else, then indeed it is easy to mislead the people, to lead them down the wrong path; a path that will leader to enslavement and to a loss of liberty and freedom.

Anna Nicole Smith a Media Slight of Hand

It is easier to give football stars a role in the interest of the people; to give them mysteries that titillate and tantalize, like the death of the porn star. This is in reference to that celebrity who recently passed over: Anna Nicole Smith; and all the interest generated about her passing that daily takes away interests from much more pressing issues than the mysterious death of an ex-porn star; an ex-Playboy bunny, Playboy playmate, who had her pictures in the magazine Playboy, or who married an older man and now there is controversy about her daughter and the paternal rights of who owns that child, to get that money…all of this is illusionary. All of this is slight of hand, to take away the attention of the American people and put it into directions and areas that are misleading, misguiding, and that prevent questions from being asked.

If Only 10% of the People Stand Up for a Change

This Awareness has spoken of this before, and this Awareness again challenges people to wake up to this misconception that they hold that these are important matters. They are entertainments, and that is all; but those issues, those matters that truly count must start being focused on by many so that the illusionary powers that are wielded over the people can be shattered, and that the people can once again stand up for their rights. This Awareness suggests that it would not actually take 100% of the American people to stand up and demand changes. Indeed, it would not take 50% of the American people to stand up and to make change. It would take 20%! Even 10% of Americans aware, who stand up and speak out already causes the shift to happen. 20 % would demand change, and you would see change happening in the country and in the world.

North Americans Need to Wake Up!

This Awareness asks the 20% to wake up now, and to increase their voice so that it increases not only the 20%, but the 30%, and then 40%, and then 50% and more. This is the way that change will occur: when the people of the United States, the people of the world wake up. Unfortunately, this Awareness must state that at this time the people of North America are the most asleep of any people anywhere in the world, and that is because they have the most on the material level than any people anywhere other than the United States. The Europeans also have their own areas of blindness, yet they are not quite as dumbed down, especially in regards to the European Union and the true plans behind that organization. They too have a similar organization that has the power behind them, not in them, similar to the United States, but different.

The European mentality is different. For some reason the Americans: the Canadians, the North Americans generally are taken up with the need for material possessions and are unwilling to dig deeper. America is the worst in this manner. Europeans do have a different sense of the order of things, but as long as their needs are met, they too can be dumbed down. This Awareness suggests that at this time, things are changing. More questions are starting to be asked, and that people in American, in Canada, people in Europe are starting to ask the kind of questions, are starting to gain the kind of spiritual awareness that is necessary to effect deep and profound change.

This Awareness suggests that the 20% has already started to expand, and this Awareness sees this as positive indeed.

How Can a Fed Note Pay Income Taxes?

QUESTION:

How can a Fed note pay income taxes, if they are not US dollars?

COSMIC AWARENESS:

This Awareness simply states this is all part of the illusion. This is all part of the game of keeping the people ignorant to the truth of the situation, of what really is happening, so that the lie has been sold that Fed notes are somehow actually government notes; that they are the same thing; that a Fed note has the same legal weight and authority as a government issued note, but this Awareness states that a Fed note is of course issued by a private bank, by the Federal Reserve Bank, which is not a government bank at all, but a private bank, but that the government supports this and supports the illusion that the Fed note is a government issued note, and that is why these notes can pass.

The majority of people in the United States, in fact the world, think that a Fed note is indeed a government issued bank note. A Federal note is not a government issued bank note. It is a bank note that is issued by a private organization, which is why they can then charge interest on each and every Federal note that is issued, because as a private organization, they have the right to demand payment on the usury of their monies, of the notes that are issued, and that is exactly the con that the American government is pulling on the American people.

The "Deficit" is Really a Bogus Debt to Private Bankers

That which is known as the deficit is actually a bogus deficit, a bogus debt to private bankers who have for years been charging outrageous interest to the government of America so that their notes that they lend to the government actually pay them huge dividends, runaway dividends, all for the purpose of inflating the people of the Untied States of America. This situation also exists in that country Canada, the home of the Interpreter, and that he too is aware that this is the condition here in Canada. The Federal government in Canada also has an arrangement with the Bank of Canada, and it too supports the illusion that the Bank of Canada somehow is the Bank of the Government of Canada, and that it is not.

Illuminati Also Owns Bank of Canada

The Bank of Canada, as in the Federal Reserve Bank, is also a privately owned bank, owned by those same individuals who hold the power behind most of the governments of the world, on some level. The situation occurs also that the people of Canada are in deficit and often it is spoken that the deficit must be paid off, never explaining that the deficit is a bogus debt that the government pays to the private interests who own the bank. This is how it is done, not only in America, in Canada, but also in countries like England, Germany, France, Argentina, Brazil. The World Bank also being a collection of the private banks around the world; thus one can see that it too is run by private interests. This is why those who are in power try to keep the illusion that those banks that are considered to be owned by the government, and of the government, are never questioned, and that the information is never released that a Federal note or a Canadian dollar or any of the other currencies are actually private currencies and thus, control is held over the country and over the peoples of that country.

This Awareness wishes to proceed to the next question.

Did the Government Give the Fed All the Lands in the U.S. and all Ft. Knox Gold?

QUESTION:

"Did the US Federal government give the Fed all the lands of the US to get out of bankruptcy, and all 164,000 tons of gold in the deep vault at Fort Knox?"

COSMIC AWARENESS:

The quickest answer to this question is: yes. There is more to it. It was not just given. The American government did not just "give" it. It was all part of the arrangement of selling out the birthrights of the American people. The selling off of the lands of America were simply seen by those powers that be, those owners of the banks, those private interests, as buying this property; that it was their right to buy it for they were owed, and are owed so much money that the government could never truly pay it off. Indeed, it is seen that several generations could never pay it off. The birthright of the children and the children's children, and those children's children's children still could not pay off what is owed to these evil nefarious and dark-hearted individuals who own the United States of America.

The Only Way to Pay Off This Enormous Debt

Saying this, this Awareness wishes to point out that this is all based on illusion and a grand con, so that the best way, indeed perhaps the only way to ever pay off this horrendous deficit, this bogus debt, is for the many to rise up and say no to it, to throw out those who are in charge who have perpetuated this con of owing them these great amounts of money: trillions and trillions of dollars. When enough people understand the nature of the con, they will rise up and say no to it, and they will throw it out, or they will give one bogus check back to them and say "This is to pay off the debt, and it is done! There is no more debt!" The value of this one check would be the value of the piece of paper it was written on, for that is the actual debt that is owed.

In other words, this Awareness says that nothing is truly owed, so a piece of paper saying that the debt is paid off, is valid as a way of payment. Another way of issuing government bills would then be brought up, but for this to happen, those powers that be must be first overthrown, and that is something that still is in the making, that will still happen in times ahead, but for now, this Awareness simply wishes individuals to understand that there is indeed a grand con that is happening. The illusion is that these Federal notes are indeed valid, and as long as the system is held in place, then the birthright of the American people and their children, and their children's children is sold down the river, is handed down to those powers that be, who see it as "their" right to buy the lands of the United States, to own the gold in the banks and in the vaults of Fort Knox, and that this is simply not correct or right when one looks at the deeper issue involved.

There will be an accounting, and there will be retribution for that which has happened and the birthright of the American people will be restored to the American people. This Awareness sees this as down the road; not that far down the road, but down the road, and asks for patience, as well as a growing awareness of the issues, so that when it is time for the people to stand up and claim their rights back, that they will be ready to do so. This Awareness wishes to move on.

DID DAVID ROCKEFELLER HAVE A BODY TRANSPLANT?

QUESTION:

"Did David Rockefeller have a body transplant? How old is he now?"

COSMIC AWARENESS:

This opens a huge area of information. This Awareness first of all wishes to state that the body transplant that is mentioned in the question is seen to be a clone, a replacement body for that entity David Rockefeller. The clone body that the consciousness was transferred into was created for the individual David Rockefeller because his own body was deteriorating. This entity David Rockefeller is one of the ruling class, one of those that would be considered the powers that be, and this technology has long been available. This Awareness has spoken of these matters many years ago, and there were other individuals that intervened also and spoke of these matters; those individuals such as Dr. Beter. He also spoke of these matters in the Seventies.

They have been using clone technology for many many years. In recent times, the possibility of cloning was finally released to the public as a possibility, but indeed, this was something that was already taking place. Often that which is released into public awareness, public understanding, is at least ten years behind the times, behind the actuality of that being so, for it is already so. This Awareness sees that this is what occurred with David Rockefeller, for his body, through neglect and inappropriate behavior in regards to the health of that body, had deteriorated to such a point that it was easier to abandon the old vessel, the old body, and simply transfer the consciousness to a new body, a new vehicle.

The Rockefellers are Reptilian Shape-shifters

The other part that this Awareness wishes to make comment on is that the entity David Rockefeller and the Rockefellers, are actually from a different consciousness. These beings are Reptilian in nature and are that which are known as shape shifters. This Awareness wishes at this time to recommend the book by David Ickes known as "The Biggest Secret", where in this book he speaks of the reptilians and how they are fourth dimensional beings who can shape shift into physical reality, who can assume physical form, and in the assuming of physical form, present that form for public display, and the bodies that they use are simply masks to their true identity, their true form.

The Rockefellers, as well as many others of the elite are of reptilian nature and can transfer into physical bodies, use physical forms to create the illusion that they are human beings and not reptilian beings who are in charge, who are the powers that be. This Awareness suggests that the book "*The Biggest Secret be read to understand that, and other books by that individual David Ickes also be read to see that there is much more behind the scenes that what the powers that be would have you believe. This Awareness feels complete with this answer at this time and wishes to move on.

The Biggest Secret* is temporarily out of print but CAC does have in stock David Icke's 6 other books. This editor recommends "Children of the Matrix—How an interdimensional race has controlled the world for thousands of years—and still does." This book also goes into the reptilian shape-shifters etc. Its 459 pages and its price is $29.95 See our Book Catalog.

Are Aliens Manipulating Pres. Bush, the Banks or Groups Like the Bilderbergers?

QUESTION:

Last question from Allen. "Is there an alien group on our planet that is manipulating President Bush or the banks or the Bilderbergers/ CFR. (?)

COSMIC AWARENESS:

This Awareness wishes to say that this is so. This Awareness just spoke of this alien extraterrestrial faction: the Reptilians. It now wishes to include the Orions as the manipulative group that even is superior to the Reptilians. Many of the organizing and controlling families are of these alien backgrounds: the Reptilian or Orion backgrounds. The Bush family as part of that conspiracy, and this Awareness wishes to use that word: "conspiracy", for it is a conspiracy of those who are in charge against those they wish to enslave, and that would be humanity.

The Orion and Reptilian Hierarchy are "The Powers That Be"

The extraterrestrial faction is that which Awareness has referred to in the past as the 'powers that be.' There are different strata, even amongst the extraterrestrial hierarchy; the Reptilian hierarchy; the Orion hierarchy; and there are even factions that work for the freeing of humanity, for there are spiritual Reptilians also. There are those Reptilians that seek the Light, that seek themselves to be freed of oppression and the control and manipulation. Not all the Reptilians are necessarily evil, or have the intent of enslavement. There are those who would turn against those who plan to enslave humanity.

This Awareness indicates the banking system, and money and the use of money and capital as a way of controlling the peoples of the world. Even here it is seen that there are some revolutionary factors at work that are trying to change things so that the changes that this Awareness has suggested that are coming are not simply for those humans that are aware, but for many levels; for extraterrestrial strata also; extraterrestrial beings who are seeking change also. This is all in order. This is all part of the order of change that this Awareness has spoken of before; of the two planet earths that are ready to separate.

Many Aliens Plan to Ascend to Higher Spiritual Awareness

There is that Ascension Planet "A" that is ready to ascend to higher spiritual awareness, and many of these extraterrestrial beings that have understood this have been driven to it, and want to be part of this process, and it is seen on that planet, with time, that the extraterrestrial forces will come forward and no longer hide themselves behind the masks, bur rather will engage humanity in openness and honesty and present themselves openly, so that the planet will understand that it is part of a greater cosmos, and there are indeed those factors available that are not human but are still part of the Grand Design, and that this is part of the opening that this Awareness sees as the planet moves forward in consciousness.

However, the planet that descends: Planet "B" will continue to be below that understanding and therefore, the deceptions will continue as mankind; those who choose that experience, are dragged even deeper into that denseness of separation, that density of the third dimensional planetary influence, that third dimensional reality. This is all seen as part of a greater plan, a greater design. This Awareness is complete with these questions at this time and wishes to move on.

Will Energized Crystals and Coins Speed Up Greater Awareness?

QUESTION:

Okay. This is a question from Larry Kell, in Indiana. He asks: "Is it feasible to distribute energized crystals that will energize coins, so people and other coins they touch transfer the programming? This may be a way to speed greater awareness, harmony, love, and whatever positive information you want the world to focus on."

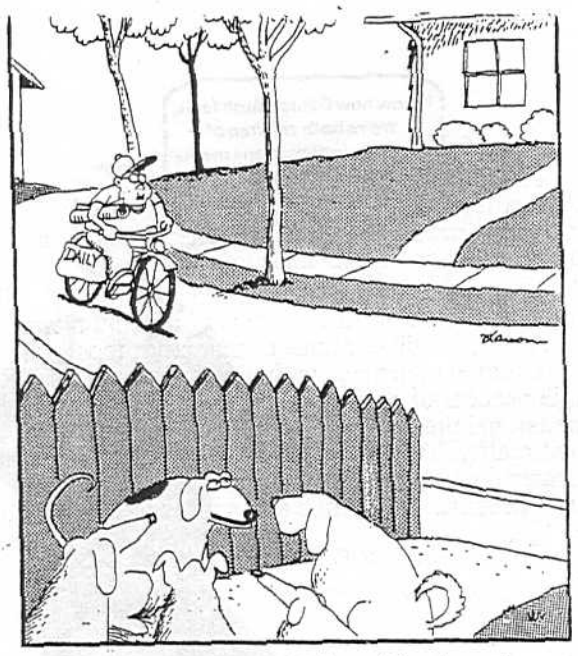
COSMIC AWARENESS:

This Awareness applauds the intent behind this but does not see it as the most effective way of doing this. Coins that are not made of pure materials, such as pure gold and pure silver, but are made of a composite of materials, do not have the capacity to hold the charge that this individual suggests could be planted into these coins, and therefore, it is not seen that this would be a particularly effective way of passing this information on to others. This Awareness sees it would be difficult to imbed that information into the coins. At the best, it would be seen that a marginal charge could be taken on by the coins, and this would soon wear off as the coins changed hands the first few times, and then there would be no charge left in these coins.

This is mainly due to the fact that these coins are composed of composite materials and the alloys used in them are not conducive to holding such a charge. A material such as gold or silver, which is a pure substance, would be able to hold such a charge much longer and would indeed pass that on to many more people. This could be done with gold and silver coins that are out there, but the chances of being passed along from hand to hand quickly are diminished by the fact that most people, when they buy pure gold coins, buy so for the purpose of retaining them, not passing them on, not distributing them, and that would be so with any silver coins. They are used for their financial value as a way of having money available if need be. The price of a gold coin will still remain relatively the same, even if the economy collapses, but by then it might be too late.

A Better Way to Use Energized Crystals

This Awareness does not see the plan that this individual is suggesting as particularly practical at this time. What would be more practical is charging up crystals and passing those crystals out, passing crystals on to many. It would not take large crystals. Many smaller crystals could be used and could be gifted from one individual to another, simply as small token,



"OK, this time Rex and Zeke will be the wolves, Fifi and Muffin will be the coyotes, and ... listen! ... Here comes the deer!"

a gift, a gesture, and the crystal could hold a charge that could translate itself into the awareness and consciousness of the individual receiving the crystal. Instructions could be made that when it is felt by the individual that they have received from that crystal all that they could, that they in turn also pass the crystal on. Even if it is retained by an individual, that awareness that is given to the individual through the handling of the crystal, through keeping it in one's pocket, would change the consciousness of the individual, at least to a degree that they might be open to discussing matters, talking about things, being open even more to newer understandings and awareness's. This is seen by this Awareness as a much more viable way of imbedding understanding and information into a medium that could be passed on to individuals and transferred; that which is held by that medium, in this case the crystals, to the individuals involved. This is seen by this Awareness as a far more effective way of accomplishing what this individual has suggested and asked about.

This Awareness is complete with the answer.

THE MYSTERIOUS DISAPPEARING BOATS AND PEOPLE

(Awareness Solves a Number of Mysteries)

QUESTION:

Q #3) Okay. We have quite a few questions here from what looks like JD, of New York. I will read each question at a time. The overall at the top reads: "Although rare, other such disappearances have been reported. Most notably within the so-called Bermuda Triangle. Please explain each of the following disappearances which occurred elsewhere.

June, 1872 The River Steamboat Iron Mountain

The first one: In June, 1872, the river steamboat Iron Mountain shoved off from Vicksburg bound for Louisville and beyond, pulling a line of barges loaded with 400 bales of cotton. She rounded the bend of the river and she and her crew and passengers were never seen again. The string of barges were found adrift. The tow-rope was cut; an action only taken in direst emergency. No sign of the ship or her on-deck cargo was ever found. What happened?

COSMIC AWARENESS:

This Awareness immediately wishes to state that this steamboat did not sink. It did not break up and sink. This Awareness sees this as an event where this particular vessel was lifted up, by that which is now known of course, as a UFO, an extraterrestrial vehicle. It indeed transported this vessel and all of the crew at that time on board. The incidents of connection and contact to extraterrestrial beings and their vessels, their UFOs is indeed something that has been occurring for a long long long time. There are historic records that indicate things in the sky, but at those times those individuals did not have an understanding of what they were seeing.

There are even biblical references to things in the sky; that which is seen by Ezekiel and described in terms that were not fully comprehended or understood, and that are not even understood now as descriptions of UFOs, and yet, that is exactly what they were. It has been a history for countless eons that has been part of mankind's history, and abductions have occurred repeatedly over many thousands of years. This is an example of such an abduction. The vessel was simply lifted up by what would be known as a Mother Ship, a ship large enough to contain the whole steamboat itself.

It was not the steamboat of course that was required. It was the individuals aboard the ship, and they were taken at that time to be used for the purposes that they were needed for. This Awareness is striving to see if they were misused, mistreated and It does not see this to be so. It sees it as more a curiosity of the individuals as samples of humanity at the time that were tested, to see what level mankind was at. They were not returned for the simple fact that at that time the technology was not quite there to completely erase their minds so that they would not be aware of what they had experienced. Many of them were not able to hold onto their sanity and lost their minds, so to speak, to the aliens, as they presented themselves in their truest forms, often forms that were incomprehensible to the individuals abducted.

They were allowed to live out the rest of their lives supported by the aliens in what could be seen as institutes, not on this planet, but on other planets. They were not deliberately mistreated, nor were experiments done as have often been reported of intrusions and implants into individuals, operations being performed on individuals. Those were not done on these individuals. They were simply taken up as a sample of the then available humans to see what level they had reached, what stage they were at. They simply were never returned, and were supported in institutes off-planet. This is what happened in this case. This Awareness wishes to move to the next case.

Dec. 14, 1928 The Danish Training Ship Cobenhaven Just Vanished

QUESTION:

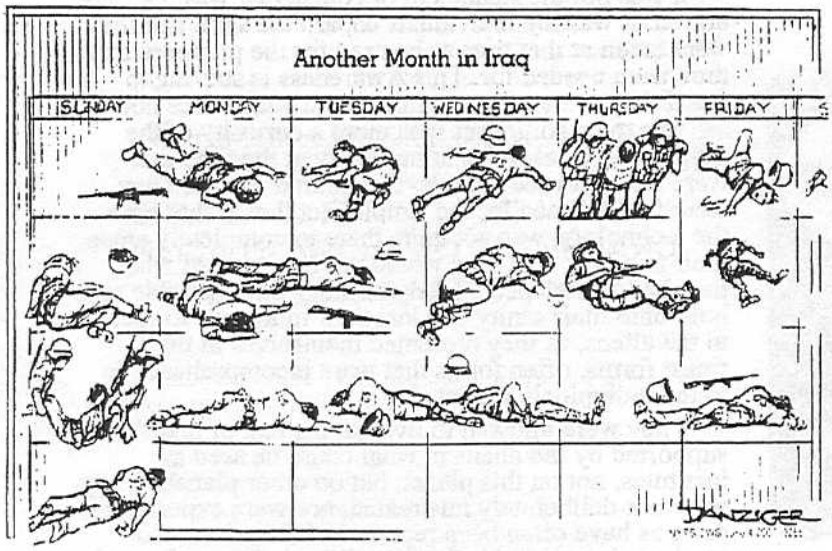
On December 14th, 1928, the Danish training ship, Cobenhaven, took on 50 cadets at Montevideo and steamed slowly out of the harbor, passed a few small fishing boats--and vanished. Incoming vessels, which ought to have sighted her, saw nary a trace. What happened?

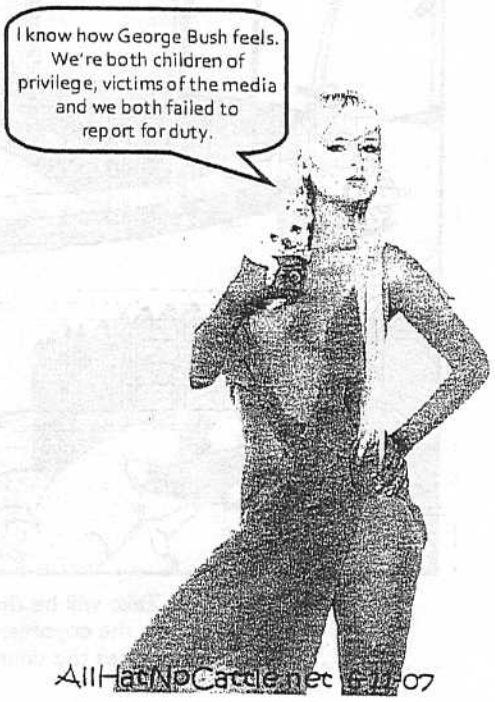
COSMIC AWARENESS:

This vessel, the Cobenhaven disappeared through a dimensional warp. Its disappearance was very specific to a smaller opening that was there for it at that particular moment. This opening literally only lasted a few minutes, and then was closed again. There seems to have been intent behind the opening of this warp, this portal that allowed this vessel to pass through to another dimension, another reality, and this is what happened to this vessel.

Such warps, such portals open up often and are available, but most individuals never experience such an opening, such a portal. Often they occur on water, especially with certain vortex energies underneath the water. There was a vortex underneath the place where the portal opened on the surface and the ship passed through that opening and emerged into another reality. The individuals all survived the transit, and lived out the rest of their lives on another dimensional reality.

No harm came to them as such, other than they were never able to return to their families and to their homeland, and for many, this was the deepest hardship of all. They passed into a parallel universe so that the ship still remained on water when it emerged on the other side of the portal. It is simply that it was a different world, and it took them a while to understand that, but there was a way for them to survive, which they indeed did. This is what happened to this vessel, the Copenhaven.





In 1850 Spain 4000 Troops Marched Into the Foothill and Disappeared

QUESTION:

Okay. During the Spanish War of Sucession, beside a small stream in the Pyrenees, 4,000 fully trained and equipped troops broke camp, formed ranks, marched into the foothills-- and vanished. What became of them?

COSMIC AWARENESS:

This Awareness sees again another abduction of these individuals; this by an alien factor that was not supportive of humanity, as the first example. These individuals were used to fight a war on another planet, because that was the need at that time. They were harvested, so to speak, for that purpose: a ready-made army. This Awareness sees that the battle they were meant to fight, the war they were meant to be involved in, was on a colony planet of those extraterrestrials, those aliens that abducted them.

This Awareness wishes to state at this time that the same extraterrestrials who are in charge of the planet at this time have other planets where they are also in charge, where they manipulate in similar manner to how they do it here, and it was needed at that time to provide a large force of individuals who could be a force to be used in the manner of an army. This is what happened to these individuals. They were abducted and taken to the colony planet and used to suppress an uprising that had started on that planet, and while they were abducted, they were also, in a many of speaking, brainwashed, so that they lost all memory of why they were being taken somewhere.

They literally had their minds erased and new programming installed, or downloaded, so that when they actually arrived at the planet where they were to be the mercenary force, they simply did the bidding of their masters as they had been programmed to do, and they did suppress the uprising and the situation was contained, as the alien masters wished it to be. This is seen as to be what occurred to these 4,000 individuals.

in this manner, both entities walk away from the conference table having won a friend, a confidant, a close communication with another.

This Awareness suggests if there are any areas that are unclear, these may be questioned.

QUESTION:

What about in the situation where one of the main areas of hostility with the other person is their tendency for intellectualized discussions that go on forever?

COSMIC AWARENESS:

This Awareness indicates that in such a situation that if their discussion is clear and is understood, the situation may be expressed that you understand what they are saying. In this action you then may state that you would like to add something more, and then may give your point of view. This Awareness suggests that if you prefer to avoid the discussion or to end the discussion and move the discussion from verbalization into emotional levels, this may be one way of expressing yourself through demonstration. This action generally shows that you do not quite have it clear what you are trying to say, or that you cannot find the words, and therefore, you must find a way of expressing yourself through some other form to let the other entity know that you are not satisfied.

This Awareness suggests that the intellectual computer continues to go on and on and on and on in order to win through talking - this as a situation that also needs to be looked at and can be dealt with in an objective manner through the clear communication and discussion, but that often the computer that goes on and on and on will simply wear out the patience and the energies of the listener. This Awareness indicates that when this occurs, the switch to emotional levels may be appropriate - that the action of demonstration may be a way of dealing with this level.

This Awareness suggests that there is a good likelihood that your verbalization is either not being listened to, is not heard, or you have not put enough energy into looking clearly to find the proper words, or there is the possibility that the computer, the intellectualized robot who continues speaking without let-up, does not care to hear your side for fear that he may lose his position. This Awareness suggests that in either case, the situation is caused by lack of receptivity - a desire to win, rather than a desire to listen and understand.

This Awareness suggests that communication cannot take place where there is no receptivity and no listening. All expression is not necessarily communication. Communication comes from the ability to receive that which has been sent. This Awareness indicates that wherein there is no communication, wherein one entity is expressing and the other is receiving, but wherein the energies cannot be exchanged and the receiver never is given a chance to express, and the one who expresses is incapable of receiving or listening, the communication is lacking and the action is such that the relationship is out of balance.

This Awareness indicates that the word 'communication' relates to coming into unity with another, and unity cannot occur when one dominates and the other must be receptive to that domination, unless they both agree to communicate in that manner. This Awareness indicates a healthy communication is a two-way street wherein both listen and both are given the opportunity to express themselves.

QUESTION:

Okay, if one then is in a situation where they're not able to really communicate with the other person involved, how do you handle the frustrations you feel at that time?

COSMIC AWARENESS:

This Awareness suggests that there are many ways of demonstrating the frustrations. This Awareness suggests that your action come short of any form of violence, but that if the other is to recognize there is a crisis and this crisis demands full attention - putting the other on the spot to have to stop and look and ask, "What's happening?" - this Awareness indicates when the question, "What's happening?" becomes strong enough in the mind of the other, the listening device may begin to kick in, and the entity may become receptive to that which is occurring.

This Awareness suggests, however, that entities recognize that this as that which can move into an area of control and manipulation, for one who feels himself being violated and not being able to express, often may simply be prejudiced to his or her own states, and his or her own feelings may be such that he or she feels victimized. This Awareness suggests you ask yourself whether this is true, or whether this is something that comes from a childhood programming, and whether this is something you feel quite often and have felt throughout many years of your life. This Awareness suggests if this is, in fact, a situation wherein you are being victimized, then speak forth and say you are feeling victimized.

This Awareness suggests that the story of getting the mule's attention so you can talk to it, by hitting it on the head with a two-by-four, is appropriate in this action.

This Awareness suggests that you do what is necessary to get the attention so that you can begin to communicate, but that you not use a device of manipulation in order to gain power and control over another to have your way.

This Awareness suggests that communication can only be of value when both parties are deeply interested in discovering the needs of one another and sharing their own needs with that other.

Is There a "Short People" Gene?
(Can Anything Stimulate a Child's Height?)

QUESTION:

A question from Marie Templeton. I don't have her address. She writes: "Is there such a thing as a short people gene? My son is 12 years old and short for his age. I feel responsible because of my Italian heritage. Most of the women in my family are short and I do not want my son to go through life handicapped. I have him on vitamins, the inversion bar for stretching purposes and saying the I AM affirmations before going to bed at night.

"I talked to a doctor and he said he was fine, and HGH Human Growth Hormone, would not be necessary. Is there anything else that can stimulate a child's growth and height?" she asks.

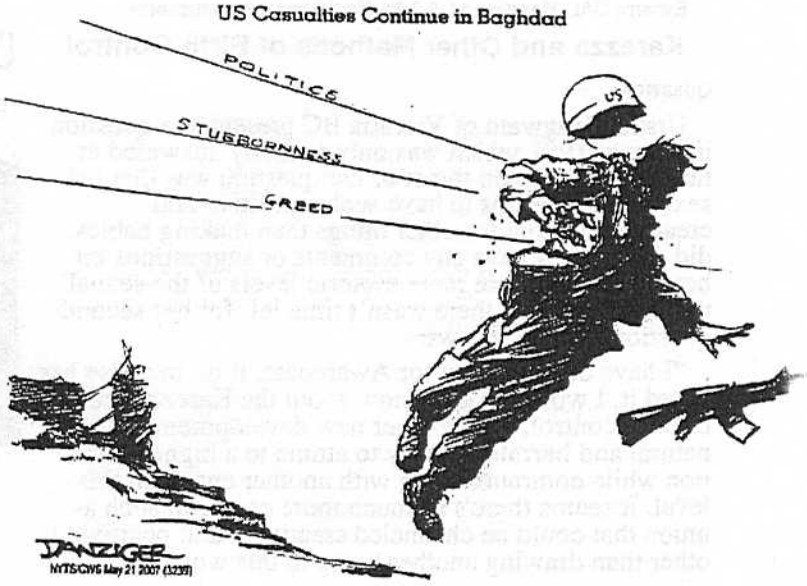
COSMIC AWARENESS:

This Awareness indicates that a goodly amount of calcium to help the bones grow, along with magnesium, approximately two parts magnesium to one part calcium would be sufficient; this could be helpful. This Awareness indicates that many of the oriental people whose families are relatively short in stature from using a rice diet and not having much in regard to dairy products, upon leaving Japan to live in the United States, found that when changing their diet to include dairy products high in calcium, the children grew to greater heights, more like those the size of American children.

This Awareness indicates that this would be one way to increase the height of the child somewhat. This Awareness indicates also, a good solid diet all the necessary nutrients so that the child is not lacking in any of the necessary nutrients; this would be helpful in assuring he reaches a maximum height for his particular genetic make-up.

The gene factor is an important influence and it is not likely that he will ever be a really tall person. This Awareness indicates however, you may, through diet, help him to become perhaps two or even three inches taller than he normally might achieve. This Awareness indicates there is a side-effect to an approach that is used in the CIA for entities who have been subjected to radiation; this in reference to nuclear radiation. That ingesting small amounts of diamond dust will help to rid the body of radiation effects.

US Casualties Continue in Baghdad



A side-effect of this treatment is that it can cause the entity to grow taller, as much as two or three inches taller, while being cured of the radiation. This Awareness indicates however, that it does not appear that you will find anyone who will give this treatment to your son at this time, unless you have some kind of special connections, and even then it is unlikely that anyone would wish to cooperate or take responsibility for such treatment.

This Awareness indicates also that the treatment may not be successful, lacking the radiation, which could also be extremely hazardous. This Awareness advises against this approach. It sees the best approach as being that of the visualization and the increase of calcium and magnesium in the entity's diet, along with other supplements to create a healthy diet.

This Awareness suggests that the stretching actions are also seen as beneficial. Exercise and stretching can be most helpful. Traction devices may also help, but it would take long periods of time to have any noticeable effect. This Awareness indicates you might also check with genetic engineers to determine if they have yet located the genes associated with taller persons and if so, when and whether this can ever be made available.

This Awareness indicates that the growth hormone appears to be one approach that might have some beneficial effects if it were made available. This Awareness indicates also that the use of pituitary gland substances from animals, which is available in some health food products through health food stores, could have some beneficial effect on his growing, particularly if he does not receive all of the nutrients needed in his own pituitary from the vitamins and minerals which he ingests through food and supplements.

Karezza and Other Methods of Birth Control

QUESTION:

Ursula Ringwald of Victoria BC presented a question in May of 1981 which was only partially answered at that time. The main thrust of her question was that the sexual union seems to have such a positive and creative potential for other things than making babies, did Awareness have any comments or suggestions on how to realize these more esoteric levels of the sexual union? It did. But there wasn't time left for her second question, which follows:

"I have one question for Awareness, if no one else has asked it. I would like to know about the Karezza method of birth control, or any other new developments that are natural and harmless, to try to attune to a higher vibration while communicating with another entity on this level. It seems there's so much more power in such a-union that could be channeled creatively and positively other than drawing another being to this world.

COSMIC AWARENESS:

This Awareness indicates that these various methods of mental control in terms of birth control--mental birth control systems--can be somewhat effective, but entities who are not willing to experience the potential consequence of a mistake, should avoid these. This Awareness indicates that also that of the rhythm system, that which also is somewhat of a gamble. This Awareness has previously mentioned the watch which is soon to be released within a few months, which will indicate the fertile periods of the female, so that the entity can avoid intercourse during these times. This Awareness indicates this watch as that which has a green light or a red light when a button is pushed; that this as being marketed within the year.

This Awareness indicates that there have been numerous methods of contraceptive techniques, birth control methods. There is a birth control pill being marketed for men. This Awareness indicates there is so much information available in regards to this topic that it does not need further elucidation from this Awareness until entities have checked out all of the information available. This Awareness suggests that these questions can be checked through various birth control centers whereby further information regarding various types of techniques are available or information leading to such can be further investigated.

(A Need to Think Better)

QUESTION:

I need to think better.

COSMIC AWARENESS:

This Awareness suggests the use of gotu kola, fo ti tieng, and ginseng, these being capable of assisting; that gotu kola can assist in restoring the brain; that deep breathing as also beneficial to you. This Awareness suggests that you practice breathing deeper and more oxygen will enter the brain and assist it in helping to restore the brain, for oxygen is that which is needed in the brain. This Awareness suggests also that you be careful not to over-oxygenate yourself through deep breathing to where you become dizzy.

This Awareness suggests that the use of pantothenic acid, that folic acid, zinc, nucleic acid, magnesium, niacin, vitamin C, vitamin A and D, the entire B complex vitamins, and pangamic acid. This Awareness suggests that a good vitamin and mineral supplement, particularly of natural sources, the organic sources, this can supply you with most of the needed vitamins; that this will be of great benefit to your psyche and your thinking processes.

This Awareness suggests you avoid any use of alcoholic beverages and drugs which affect your consciousness. This Awareness suggests that you use gotu kola, fo ti tieng, ginseng, and folic acid, nucleic acid, pangamic acid, and pantothenic acid. That the other vitamins and minerals may also be added; that you be sure of getting those mentioned. This Awareness especially stresses the use of gotu kola, the herb which shall be available through most herbal sources.
