THE MAITREYA WORLD TEACHER

(He's Back Again. Now What Is He Up To?)

QUESTION:

The first question is from Ted Helinski. He writes by e-mail, "I'm forwarding this e-mail I received because I'm starting to see more and more of this Maitreya stuff. I think something big is being planned to bring in the New World Order religion using Project Bluebeam technology. I remember reading years ago that this Maitreya dude said that he would only make his appearance to the world at large after the world's economy had gone belly-up. You might want to ask Cosmic Awareness about this."

This is his question: He's referred to as the Star of Hope. " Who is the World Teacher? Who are the Masters of Wisdom? Maitreya, the World Teacher has not come alone, but with a group of enlightened teachers who have for millennia guided humanity from behind the scenes. They are returning now to the everyday world to help us solve our most critical global problems.

Maitreya is not a religious leader, but an educator in the broadest sense. He has not come to create followers, but is here to inspire us to create a new era based on sharing and justice, so that all may have the basic necessities of life: food, clothing, shelter, healthcare, and education. His open mission in the world is about to begin. As Maitreya himself said, "Soon now, very soon, you will see My Face and hear My Words!" And he's referred to as the Star of Hope. Any comments on this please?

COSMIC AWARENESS:

This Awareness has made a comment on the phenomenon that is Lord Maitreya, the World Teacher. It has spoken that this is a manipulation by the Elite, those New World Order advocates, to control the religious mind and temperament of humanity. The prophecy is that he will truly come forward at a time of great need and despondency, a time when humanity will be in great turmoil with the collapse of their economic system as well as other dilemmas that will be and are about to be released on humanity. It is all part of the overall plan that is afoot, the plan that has been worked on for very many years now.

The Partial Collapse of the World Economy Has Already Occurred

The total collapse of the world economy has not yet occurred, but the partial collapse has already been achieved. It is for this reason that the entity Maitreya has made his appearance more and more of late, as he has been around for several years already. It is this that the entity Ted Helinski is becoming observant of and noticing. This is all part of the escalation of this alleged Ascended Master so that when the masses are at a point of absolute terror, confusion and turmoil, he can appear in a miraculous manner, surrounded by those blue ray miracles, the miracles of technology.

The Alleged Crosses Etched Into Window Glass

The miracle that is most associated with the presence of Maitreya at this time is the alleged cross that is engraved and etched into the window glass of individuals in their homes; a light cross suddenly appears in the glass, and this lighted cross is evidence of the presence of Maitreya or the visitation of Maitreya, and these crosses are available and held by certain groups of followers of Maitreya. This is a miracle of a technological nature. Much of this is based on extraterrestrial technologies that are available to those who are behind the phenomenon of Maitreya.

There are many who wish to totally believe in Ascended Masters who will present themselves through the world leaders and the World Teacher Maitreya who will come and "save" humanity, who will make things right. Their message will be a message of hope and well-being, and of course this will be a powerful message and a powerful narcotic of hope to those who are in fear, those who have lost hope. This Awareness is not talking against Ascended Masters, for there are those who are true Ascended Masters. The New World Order regime knows this to be so, and it is their plan to manipulate those authentic Ascended Masters and to present them in a way that will give others, the masses, a new religious leadership in which to put their faith and trust.

This will be for many the new religion and the new way forward. It is seen however, that this particular cult of religious dogma and belief that will be presented is to be controlled and manipulated by those who have been scheming and plotting and planning for the collapse of mankind and the enslavement of mankind, for not merely decades, but rather hundreds and hundreds of years. All is coming to a culmination at this time as that time of Ascension shift is rapidly approaching. It must be that Maitreya appears in the not too distant future for him to have any effect at the time of Ascension when many will be in a position to choose for themselves which way to proceed.

Questions to Ask Maitreya When He Appears

The more that are entrapped by the teachings of Maitreya and his group, the more that will not choose to Ascend, the more that will be mislead and misguided into the false belief that Maitreya and those who are his disciples have the truth and all the answers. This Awareness suggests as It always suggests, that when the presentation is made of Maitreya and he becomes much more visible, that those who are drawn to him ask the questions that need to be asked. Ask whether this is the True Messiah or a false prophet.

This Awareness suggests that the time ahead is the time to find the Prophet Within, the Messiah Within, the Truth Within, and while one may be open to the encouraging messages of such an entity that one does not abdicate their personal power to such a being or such a group for then they become followers versus the leader of their own life, the trailblazer of their own life.

Maitreya's Message Will Be Of Hope—But Hope With a Cost

There is to be seen some merit in the teachings of this World Teacher, but those teachings are universally available and have been available for many decades, and hundreds of years. The messages that will be given by Maitreya and his disciples are messages of hope, but hope with a cost, for it will be recommended that one give over to Maitreya and become a follower of Maitreya to find hope and redemption. This would be giving in to the false prophet, the false god. Therefore, this Awareness does have a red flag to wave around this entity, and around the purported miracles of Maitreya, both those that have already been observed, and those that will come.

His "Miracles" Will Be Based on Extraterrestrial Technology

These 'miracles' will be based on extraterrestrial technologies that are available to the Powers That Be, to the Elite, and they will be used to create the illusion that this being, this World Teacher is indeed a god. Many will be seeking a god for their sense of hopelessness and despair will be so great that the arrival of a being who proclaims himself as an enlightened being would be enough to cause them to blindly follow without questioning. This Awareness of course always asks that one question the information that is provided one, and that one always asks the question of what is to be gained by this individual if those who are followers indeed do follow. Even if the individual him or herself chooses to follow, what would be gained by both of the individuals themselves as well as to the cult or to the leader of the cult?

These are all questions that must be asked. This Awareness asks all to be clear in themselves when such a leader presents itself. These beings are being placed in the path of humanity to mislead and misguide, and to take one away from the true process of Ascension, for it is always easier to be the victim. It is always easier to abdicate one's power in favor of another, to blindly follow the edicts of a leader such as Maitreya, or a political leader such as the President of the United States or even the leadership of those in one's own life, anything but to accept the responsibility for one's life and to make the judgments that are necessary for one to make in order to be truthful and empowered in one's life.

The way of many is still the way of the victim, the way of powerlessness in favor of security that is being offered by those who proclaim to have the power and the answers and the truth. This Awareness suggests that in these coming times of challenge to one's own sense of power, that those who are truly ascending will understand the need to always ask the questions while those who are not ready to ascend will freely and easily give away their power. This is as it is, and it is this that must be looked at and understood as one sees those who are close to one following such an individual as Maitreya or any other false prophets that present themselves.

The Only True Prophet Is YOU

Ultimately the only true prophet, as this Awareness has said, is the Prophet From Within, the High Self, and one's own spiritual hierarchy of consciousness. These will be interesting times, even to the degree of such powerful beings as Maitreya and others presenting themselves for the masses to be impressed with and to follow. There will no doubt be more questions on this individual and others, but this Awareness feels complete with this question at this time. It asks the energizer if she has any further questions on this matter.

QUESTIONER:

I was wondering, who is this guy and where did he come from, or is it a guy?

COSMIC AWARENESS:

It is indeed a masculine individual, a male that is being presented, for this is a continuance of the Reptilian hierarchical order, where the masculine power structure will continue forward. There is no reason why a World Teacher could not be a woman, a Goddess, but the presentation of the masculine leadership is an indicator of the continuance of the Reptilian hierarchical structure and order. There would be more sense to an androgynous being presenting itself in the time ahead, a blending of the male and female versus simply a masculine leader once again presenting itself.

This is one way that you will be able to judge those who come forward, because if they hold those attributes of the Reptilian structure and order, they will be highly emphasized in the teachings that are being presented.

QUESTIONER:

(I see) Was he born in the Middle East or China or Europe?

COSMIC AWARENESS:

It is seen that this individual has more of a Middle East background, but this is all irrelevant. This is all part of the image that is to be presented. This is a constructed individual who will simply be what is needed. A miraculous history will be provided, but again, this Awareness simply suggests that all be questioned, including the background of the individual.

It is seen at this time that the individual Maitreya is said to be residing in a church in London, England, but that he has been moving around.

QUESTIONER:

So it is the Families or Powers That Be that are sponsoring him, is that correct?

COSMIC AWARENESS:

Indeed it is so, although it is not seen as a direct sponsoring, more of an indirect supporting of this individual. The individual will claim not to have any ties with political parties in existence at this time. He will present himself as independent to the political leadership of all nations, and yet he has a strong connection to the powers that lie behind the governments, for they are the same who control the governments who will be behind this particular individual. They will give to him the technologies that they have as a result of the extraterrestrial connections that they have had over the many decades and the technology that has been acquired through the contact with the Orion/Reptilian faction.

QUESTIONER:

Is this chap human, or is he a clone, or otherwise?

COSMIC AWARENESS:

This individual is seen as a hybrid human who will present himself as more than simply human. He is presenting himself as an Ascended Being, a High Level Consciousness, who is inhabiting a physical body in order to lead the people back into their highest nature. The words and the message will be highly provocative, highly entertaining, highly evocative of an order beyond that which has been the accepted order up until now. It will be reminiscent of much that those of higher spiritual consciousness have been saying, those who have presented to humanity a different template, a different understanding of consciousness.

A Religious Disinformation Packet Will be Presented

There will be much truth in that which the entity Maitreya speaks of, but it will be truth that will hook the individual and then be twisted and parlayed into something that will capture the individual follower and then mislead and misguide them. It is a religious disinformational packet that will be presented to ensnare the many who have a need to have a guru, a leader, a god to follow that will take away all of the problems and provide them all the answers without themselves really doing any of the deeper inner work that is required of a seeker.

QUESTIONER:

(Wow! That's something to think about!

COSMIC AWARENESS:

It is indeed something to think about. Always think, but understand how one's beliefs shape reality. Therefore, if it is presented to them that all that is needed is to follow someone like Maitreya and to give up and abdicate one's power and one's capacity to ask questions and to find inner answers, to simply believe in that which is accepted from Maitreya or from any other representative of the higher spiritual consciousness, the belief will of course bind them into the following of such a leader. Again, one must be very careful in what they believe and always be willing to question their own beliefs or the beliefs that are presented to them through such a world educator, a world leader.

It is not being said by this Awareness that one cannot hear the words of Maitreya and put weight on them, one must always be open to what one believes as a result of hearing such words, and yet in the abdication of their own power and responsibility the altering of belief occurs, then one must also ask why they were so ready to change the beliefs to encompass the truth or the reality that is being presented to them by such a one as Maitreya.

QUESTIONER:

Is it possible he's going to make his grand appearance before the end of the year, or is this tied in with the November scenario?

COSMIC AWARENESS:

Maitreya's Appearance is Imminent

It is seen that his appearance is imminent, but many factors will determine his actual world appearance. It is not seen that he will be truly on the world stage for a few months yet, but more and more are becoming aware of him, and his miracles will become more obvious and more broadcasted. In other words, the media will start to discover him, start to present him and broadcast the miracles that he is alleged to have caused, and then to start to present him to the public more and more over the next year.

QUESTIONER:

The miracles that are made by ET technology, is that correct?

COSMIC AWARENESS:

This is so. It is reminded that because of the advanced technology, many of the things that he will be capable of will indeed seem truly miraculous, but so did the actions of those who had superior technology in the war seem to be miracles and acts of gods to natives on islands that the Americans visited, and they were held as gods to these primitive people because they had airplanes and could ascend into the heavens. They had jeeps and technology, and the primitive natives were flabbergasted. In many ways this is how the masses are held: as ignorant primitives who are to be hoodwinked, who are to be bedazzled by these miracles.

Holographic Images Will Be Much Used

The miracles have a technological basis, but many will not understand this. They will simply be seen as miraculous. The use of holographic imagery will be very much used by Maitreya, to provide the illusion that there are beings that can come and go, who can literally disappear in front of one, but this is based on the technologies that this Awareness has spoken of.

QUESTIONER:

Very interesting! I hope the membership will submit questions on this particular person.

COSMIC AWARENESS:

And this Awareness would invite questions on any other beings or Enlightened Masters that allegedly have the answers and know the way.

Ed's Note: Maitreya Has been promoted for many years by Benjaman Crème and his Tara Center. Back in 1980 we published "The Second Coming of Christ" in issue 80-30 which created quite a controversy among some of our readers who were "Ascended Master" followers of hustlers such as Clare Prophet. Over the years we kept track of this Maitreya character and for those who may need more info here are a few of the issues you can check out: 80-30, 81-15, 82-13, 85-8, 89-14, 90-16, 91-17, 97-4, 99-11, 2000-12, 2001-2, 2003-6, 2005-8. 2006-4.

SOME QUESTIONS ABOUT CLONES

(Some Celebrities Who Are and Some Who Aren't)

QUESTION:

(Thank you) In the politics folder, we have actually three questions about clones, and they are written by three different people. The first one was mine. There's actually 5 questions.

"The topic of clones was previously discussed in issue 2008-9, the September issue, in which Hillary Clinton was indicated as not being a clone as of the time of the reading. Has this changed and if not, is this scheduled for the future?"

COSMIC AWARENESS:

It is not seen that the individual as of this time is cloned. It is the original entity known as Hillary Clinton.

WHY WAS GEORGE BUSH CLONED?

QUESTION:

Good. Thank you. The next one is from Jon Locke, in Chattanooga, Tennessee. He writes, "In the last issue of CAC it mentions Bush being a clone. Could you ask what the circumstances were? Where, when and for what reason was he killed? And who did it? Thank you very much."

COSMIC AWARENESS:

It is seen that the entity George W. Bush was killed approximately a year and a half before the ending of his political presidency. It is seen that he was not supported by some of the factions. It was seen that he appeared to be wavering and making too many mistakes, and that he was no longer truly needed. It had already been determined that the Republican Party would not win the election. He was considered redundant and was eliminated and replaced by clones of the former president as has so often occurred. This was a much more youthful president than the one that had power. It was as if he could be controlled better.

The problem had become that the former president had become too arrogant and cocky, even to those who were his handlers, and it was simply decided that he was of no further use to them, especially as he was what is known as a Lame Duck President. It was also decided that it was not needed that there be an exposing of the truth because of the faults of this individual. Furthermore, it was seen that there was an impeachment procedure against this individual, and by removing the real president and having a clone, there could not be a true impeachment of this individual, for it was not the real individual any longer.

No True Freedoms as U.S. is Under Martial Law

This has to do with the peculiar game that those who have power play. It is a game that is based on their sense of arrogance, their implied superiority, and the impression that is held about them, the understanding that they are clever and they can fool anyone at any time. Thus it is that there are always clues as to the truth of the situation, clues such as the yellow fringe around the flag of the United States of America, indicating that the country is under martial law, admiralty law, and there are no true rights, no true freedoms, for as the nation is under martial law, anything can occur to those individuthere are losses. However, this does not mean that what should be developed is an automatic control system that will take over completely, landing the plane, driving the car, and not allowing the operator of the vehicle to have his or her say in the matter, not allowing the operator participation.

This would be a form of automation, and as the journey into consciousness is about taking charge, taking control, learning, growing, developing a standing, such an automotive process would not be satisfactory to these principles and these purposes. Thus, at some point, the individual must be freed up so that they can align themselves to higher powers that would guide them, but still allow them the freedom of making choices, the free will that humanity has been granted. The down side is that choices will be made that lead not into the expansion of consciousness, but into the manipulation and control of consciousness, will lead one to try to assert power over others for their own gratification or for their own glorification and reward.

This is one of the possibilities and one of the consequences of giving free will and free choice. The other possibility is that choices will be made that lead the individual back into the truer understanding of their higher nature and character. In some ways, the control of consciousness through automated protocols and templates of consciousness has helped mankind proceed along the way, but now a point has been reached that each and every human is being given the choice to awaken. These are the times of awakening, both on an individual level and on a collective level.

The mummification is helping to disconnect that which was the automated control of consciousness to bring it back to a point where cruise control is being removed, and autopilot is being disengaged and many will awaken for the first time in their lives, for the first time in many lifetimes. Many will not like this or enjoy this or wish it, and would rather be asleep, just as the individual in the movie The Matrix chose to be reinstated back into the Matrix, but many more will choose to move forward, to learn how to truly be in charge of their own vessel, their own vehicle, their own lives, and as this occurs, that which is Ascension will take them to the next level, the next stage of their own growth and development in consciousness.

This Awareness is complete with Its commentary and is open for further questions or to continue with the commentary itself.

Will the Mummy Consciousness be Released in 2009?

Thank you. Just a couple of short ones… Will the consciousness of all of the Ra-Ta mummies be released by the end of this year, and if so, will they remember their experiences of being mummified?

COSMIC AWARENESS:

It is not seen that all of the Ra-Ta consciousness will be released by the end of this year. The third wave will happen in the year 2011- 2012. It seems around the Christmas to New Year period of 2011 to 2012. Many will remember, but not all, but it is not necessary for all to remember. All have the potential to remember if it is brought to their attention, or they go through that which is known as past life regression. The memories are not deeply buried and can be easily retrieved if that is the wish or the desire, however not all will have this wish or desire to do so.

QUESTIONER:

Would this have affected them in any way?

COSMIC AWARENESS:

It is not seen that it would have affected them for it was by agreement and design that they volunteered. Many other lifetimes were lived, but lifetimes that were not as whole or complete because the portion of their consciousness that was given to the mummification project was missing. This will be returned to many. Many will wake up to their more true and developed nature and it will simply be accepted that it is now done and complete, and they will move on with their lives and their advancement in consciousness.

QUESTIONER:

Thank you) In light of the many CAC issues this topic has been presented in, we do, on behalf of mankind, appreciate all of the previous assistance offered and extended to us by these mummies over the years.

COSMIC AWARENESS:

This Awareness would then ask that you thank yourself, for you too, as the Interpreter and many of the CAC members, were part of this program and process, and you as well as all others are waking up to the memory of what was and why you chose to do this for the benefit and advancement of humanity.

QUESTIONER:

Thank you) That's very interesting! The members will also be surprised.

COSMIC AWARENESS:

One of the factors that distinguishes one who was known as a Wanderer was their participation in that experiment, that program that was known as the Ra-Ta mummification project.

QUESTIONER:

Is there a closing message?

YOU ARE ALICE IN WONDERLAND!

COSMIC AWARENESS:

This Awareness wishes it to be understood that the times ahead are equivalent to the analogy of the rabbit going down the rabbit hole in the story of Alice in Wonderland. The entity Alice chose to follow the rabbit down the rabbit hole and was introduced to the most amazing and fanciful world, a world beyond her comprehension until she went down the rabbit hole. The fact that it was not normal reality does not deny the actual reality of Wonderland, and that she was privy to a new level of awareness, understanding and consciousness. For many, the events that are unfolding at this time are equivalent to going down the rabbit hole.

Many things will open up that challenge the individual, but with patience, trust and faith, those who have an awareness of the changing realities will see that that which is being now presented, even as incredible as it may be, is still reality, a reality much different than that which has been the norm for so long, but nonetheless a reality that can become the norm. The adventure must be always considered as this: an adventure that will take one into wild and unknown spaces and places, an adventure that will magnify both the hopes and the fears of individuals as they become aware of their true natures, their deeper natures, as they become aware that perhaps they themselves are the Creators of the realities that they are experiencing.

In the end it is hoped that all will begin to understand that they are in Wonderland, and that the Wonderland of their own creation can be a wondrous adventure indeed, or a true descent into hell. This is the nature of the power of each and every Creator Being and it is why this information is being presented at this time, to help one and all understand the power of their own creative nature and their own expanded being. This Awareness is complete. (The Law of Gratitude is given)

CAC General Reading 7-2-09 (July 2, 2009) Will Berlinghof Interpreter, Joan Mills Energizer & Questioner

MICHAEL JACKSON ASSASSINATED BY CIA?

(Some of Russia's Sorcha Faal Reports are Examined)

QUESTION:

The first question is from JL. No location is given. He writes, "Has Cosmic Awareness ever mentioned Sorcha Faal? Seems like It has but my memory is not too good. Anyway, here is a URL I want you to check out and asks Awareness about...."

COSMIC AWARENESS:

This Awareness wishes to jump in immediately by stating that It has no recollection or remembrance of ever making comment on this particular source: Sorcha Faal. Please proceed.

QUESTIONER:

(Thank you)...."and ask is Sorcha Faal a good source?" That's his question.

There are three sample reports that Sorcha has published. The first one is: Russia's FSB Reports Pop Icon Michael Jackson Assassinated by CIA. The commentary is that: "American pop icon Michael Jackson was "most assuredly" assassinated by the US Central Intelligence Agency (CIA) after an examination of data transmitted by a Russian Military's Kosmos 2450 satellite show "conclusively" that immediately prior to the music star's death in Los Angeles, an electromagnetic pulse consistent in pattern to EMR weapons, looted from the former Soviet Union by the United States, was employed at the "exact coordinates" of the rock star's home."

Do you have a comment on this particular one please?

COSMIC AWARENESS:

This Awareness does not wish to get deeply into the discussion of Michael Jackson or his death at this moment, but this Awareness does have further information and will give it at a later date about this event. What this Awareness would say is that there is much more behind his death than is currently being speculated on, and that yes, there was some plot that was initiated that saw to his death occurring. There were certain agencies that were ordered to kill this entity off for certain reasons. This Awareness will elaborate on this matter at a later date.

This Awareness will also suggest that the report that a pulse weapon was used at the moment of Michael's death is not exactly correct. It is not here that this Awareness sees that there was CIA involvement through the use of a pulse weapon. Therefore, this Awareness does not agree entirely with this report, although there is substance behind the allegation that Michael Jackson was killed off.

U.S. PLANES SPREADING SWINE FLU CHEMTRAILS SHOT DOWN IN INDIA/NIGERIA

(Sorcha Faal Discloses Secret U.S. Operations)

QUESTION:

(Thank you) The next report is: "US Reported in "Panic" After Chemtrail Planes Forced Down in India, Nigeria." The commentary is: "Russian military analysts are reporting in the Kremlin that US military forces are "panicked" over the forced landings ordered by Indian and Nigerian Air Forces of two Ukrainian AN-124 aircraft operated by the United States Air Force and based at their gigantic but secretive, Diego Garcia Air Base located in the Indian Ocean. According to these reports, China's People's Liberation Army Air Force (PLAAF) notified both India and Nigerian intelligence officials about the presence of these US operated Ukrainian aircraft over their growing concerns of the US spreading of biological agents throughout our earth's atmosphere, and which some Chinese officials are warning is an American-European attempt to conduct mass genocide via the spread of H1N1 swine flu virus which has put the entire global population at risk."

There's more, but based on this is there any comment please?

COSMIC AWARENESS:

This Awareness does confirm that there were several planes under the authority of the US Air Force that were shot down while on a mission to lay down chemtrails. The Indian and Nigerian authorities shot these planes down, well within their rights to shoot down an enemy aircraft that threatens their people. This Awareness does not see that the US military is in a blind panic over this. It has simply accepted that these planes were shot down and the intent is to send more at a later date. The use of the chemtrails is not, strictly speaking, that which is authorized by the US military, but rather by those who have control of the US military, those who issue the orders.

Therefore, it is not the US military, strictly speaking, who is engaging in this operation, but those who are behind the military, who sanction the actions and activities of the military. These are the ones who are concerned that they have finally been called to task, so to speak, with the shooting down of their planes, for they have engaged in the laying down of chemtrails with complete impunity in North America, but they are now operating outside of the reaches of their influence in that the nations mentioned, India and Nigeria, are not strict in their conformance to the Power Elite. It is easier to lay down chemtrail in European lands where there is more compliance to those who have control and power than in third world nations, although India is now beginning to challenge that designation.

The countries India and Nigeria chose to oppose this covert action by justifiably shooting down these aircraft that to them were attacking their peoples and their lands. The report is correct in this matter. It is not correct that there is a panic amongst the US military or even those who are in charge of these activities and who have sanctioned these actions. It is more that they are concerned, but they have been so used to getting their way, that they will continue to launch further attacks on these countries as well as other third world countries, for it must be remembered that their purpose is global genocide, and not simply regional genocide. They have done much experimenting with regional genocide in the past and now they are prepared to go the distance and lay down chemtrails with the various viral infections and contaminants that they have been spreading for years and years already. In this the report is correct.

SWINE FLU LINKED TO GE POTATOES

(Sorcha Faal Says Fast-Food French Fries Are Designed to Kill)

QUESTION:

(Thank you) The last report that I have is entitled: Russian Scientists Warn of Genetically Modified Fast Food Link to Pandemic Flu, and the report here reads, "Scientists from Russia's Ministry of Health are warning in a secret report to Prime Minister Putin that they have discovered a "critical link" between the H1N1 influenza virus and genetically modified amylopectin potatoes that are consumed in massive quantities nearly exclusively by Westerners and sold in fast food restaurants as French Fries. Evidence confirming these dire findings by top Russian scientists is also supported by the World Health Organization who in their reporting on the current influenza pandemic clearly shows that the H1N1 virus is nearly totally confined to those Western nations allowing their citizens to consume these genetically modified potatoes, and which include: the United States, with over 17,000 cases being reported with 45 deaths; Canada with 2,978 cases; the United Kingdom with 1,226 cases; and Australia with 1,823 cases."

It carries on an on. Your comment please?

COSMIC AWARENESS:

All this proves is that which this Awareness has been speaking on for many years, that there is a plan to reduce the world's populace and this plan of action is multi-pronged. It has many prongs to use to ensure the eradication of large amounts of individuals. The biogenetic alteration of foods in the nations mentioned as well as other processes such as irradiation of foods have been sanctioned for many years now, even with the approval of the Federal Agencies of the nations involved. The FDA has long supported such actions and has of course been the rubber stamp that has apparently given validation to foods that are currently consumed in the United States, and drugs that are used in the United States for the supposition is that the FDA is there for the consumer's protection, but this is of course erroneous.

Genetically engineered foods are not limited to fast foods, to the French Fries sold in fast food outlets, but is across the board and applied to many products. There are popular food products that are sold, that are foisted as good foods that are anything but. This Awareness reminds one and all of the controversy around butter, a few years ago, where butter was presented as something that should be avoided and margarine instead be used in place of butter. Several years later it was then reported that butter is not that bad, and that margarine may be more harmful for the trans-fats, for the way of processing oils so that they would stay in a solid state. Margarine is but one chemical step away from being literally a product of plastic.

Deadly Aspartame and NutraSweet Still Being Used

This again is but one example. There are many examples available. There are many different ingredients put into many products that have never been tested for multiple effects of the chemicals used in the product. Aspartame and NutraSweet and other artificial sweeteners are still being used in large amounts. There are even now products that are to give water that crystal taste, that flavor that many are turning to. These products have Aspartame in them. This is a concerted effort on many fronts. The use of chemtrails was to help break down the immune systems of the people that it was released upon. The altered genetically engineered foods were for the same purpose, to break down the immune system, in other words to create unhealthy people, obesity being an example of their success.

Why Swine Flu Mainly Attacks the Young

Furthermore, the target range was specific to a younger populace that often consumed fast foods, and prepared meals that simply had to be heated, a populace that grew up with chemicals as part of their diet, never questioning, never thinking, never imagining that what is added to the foods they eat may be detrimental to them. Thus it is that the health issues suffered by the young have been on the increase. Thus it is that the H1N1 virus affects mainly younger individuals, those who have become addicted to their fast foods and their prepared meals, those who do not know how to take natural organic vegetables and products and make meals from them.

Food of the Third World is Much Healthier

Everything is designed towards speed and expediency in the Western world, especially in the North America, especially in the United States of America. Ironically enough, the third world countries are far less affected for their people do not use fast foods to the degree that they are consumed in North America. While they may have a lesser amount of food to actually consume, that which they have is still far purer in nature than any of the genetically altered crops that are now available in Western countries. Thus, when there is an invasion of their nation, there is resilience to this invasion of culture. Thus it is that those countries still do not have the McDonald's, The Wendy's, the Tim Horton's, and the many fast food outlets that are so common in North America for example.

Thus it is that when chemtrails are laid down, that these governments that are not quite under the control to the same degree as the more advanced First World nations are, or so it is alleged, will take measures to shoot down those planes that would be laying down the chemtrails. In other words, the report is correct to a degree, but it does not go far enough. It is pointing the link out between fast foods, especially genetically altered French Fries, and this is accurate to the degree of the report, but does not go far enough into investigating the full picture.

IPods and Computers are Also Part of the Plot

When one adds to this scenario the introduction of the youth in the Western civilized world to computers and computer programs and Ipods as well as the many electronic distractions that are now available to the young people, which of course takes them away from a more active lifestyle, where once they would have been outside running and playing, but instead now they sit in front of a computer or a screen for long hours, this is also part of the overall plan of reducing the health and well-being of the populace. These are all part of a more overall insidious plot that has been long underway by those Powers That Be, those who have control and are in charge, those who have for so long had their way.

This Awareness is complete with this question.

DISCREDITING SORCHA FAAL BY DAVID BOOTH
(Are They the Same Person?)

QUESTIONER:

(Thank you). Concerning Sorcha, an Internet search revealed that she was discredited by David Booth in the abovetopsecret.com site, yet some additional information written by another person indicate that David Booth and Sorcha Faal are one and the same person. Is that true?

COSMIC AWARENESS:

First of all, this Awareness does not see the latter part of the statement as true or accurate. They are not the same source or individual. As far as the discrediting of Sorcha Faal by David Booth, this Awareness does not see David Booth as highly sincere or to be completely trusted himself. The Sorcha Faal information is largely being presented to the former Soviet Union bloc countries and others who are not, strictly speaking, part of the cabal of the Western world, yet who still are somewhat involved as is evidenced by their own actions against their own peoples. They too are part of the global New World Order, but there is still far greater freedom in those nations to report information that is completely censored in the Western world.

This does not mean that Sorcha Faal is always completely correct either, or that there isn't a predisposition to attack the West because of former Communist temperaments and opinions. In other words, many of the reports feed that previous way of thinking that was held by those of the Soviet Union against their Western enemies. This does not mean that the reports do not have validity, as has been seen in the three examples that have been presented today. It is simple enough that this Awareness is suggesting that even though there is truth in these reports, there is still bias in the reports.

The Best Way to Disinform People

The entity David Booth is a source of disinformation as well as information. Often that which he reports is not entirely true or accurate, and yet there are those other reports that do have high validity and truth to them. The best way to disinform a people is by giving them the truth and then slipping in that which is erroneous, that which is deceitful, that which is meant to misguide. The individuals reading the truthful reports will not then question that which is not the truth, and it is through this procedure that many are led astray. Thinking that they know the truth of the matter, they then present this truth to others, some of whom are taken in, some who reject the truth, but the important matter here is to understand that this information is best achieved and best served when there are elements of truth in reports that will mislead and misguide.

This individual David Booth is seen to be someone who is a source of disinformation and is not entirely accurate in his own reporting. Therefore, to suggest that Sorcha Faal is inaccurate is more a way of distracting individuals who may be reading reports by her on the Internet, a way to misguide and mislead, for if those who read David Booth trust him implicitly, they will also trust that what he says about the individual Sorcha Faal must also be true and correct. This is simply not so. Does this answer the question?

QUESTIONER:

It does to a point. If her information…I understand it is a group of people, so that just one person is not involved in this.

COSMIC AWARENESS:

This is so.

QUESTIONER:

If the majority of her information is correct and yet, as the Soviet Union/Russia, some of the information is biased toward them, is the information that is not correct, is that what a person should be looking for?

COSMIC AWARENESS:

What this Awareness would suggest is the following: An individual always question any report. There is first and foremost a presumption that the information reported may not be correct, no matter what source it comes from, no matter whether it is from David Booth, Sorcha Faal, or even from this Awareness. When one has such a philosophy, then one will not quickly fall under anyone's spell, will not quickly abdicate their own ability to reason and sort and figure out. The greater problem here is that there is always a tendency to believe the sources that provide the information, and this gullibility runs across the board for all humans.

This is especially so when they value the source of the information and do not question its validity. Thus it is that many hold as completely valid information presented by the governments, their own government always being preferred to foreign governments, which are more suspect. There are those in Iran in these very troubled times who still believe the hard line they are being given, although this is obvious to those who are observers of the event that there is deceit and there are lies, yet it is not as easy for someone in the United States to see the same in the reports that they read in their papers, or see being reported on the television.

Much Internet News is Misinformation

There is not that same willingness to question their own information sources, for it is assumed that they would not lie or misrepresent the truth, and yet this is exactly what does occur all of the time. Then there are those who go to the Internet to find that which is the underground news, the news that comes from beyond the controlled press. Ironically, there is still a similar action that occurs here also. Those who are seekers of the truth often still presume that simply because they have read this or that report from a source that they may consider as credible for in the past the truth has been reported and has been shown to be valid. Their assumption is that all truth, all reports from that source will always be valid.

The discernment that is needed and is absolutely necessary often fails to be carried out. This causes that disinformation, that belief in those reports that are false and accurate that lead those individuals astray. It is not a matter of whether or not the entity and organization of David Booth is more accurate than the entity and organization of Sorcha Faal. It is that these are sources of information available to those who seek this information out, and that neither is 100% without bias, neither is 100% true and accurate. Indeed, this Awareness will say that no source available at this time that purports to send out information that goes beyond controlled information, controlled news, is 100% accurate or correct.

This leaves the reader and recipient of such information in a position that they must always question. They must always discern. They must always recognize that there are certain biases that are held by those who report the information. Much of the information that is reported does not contain a spiritual perspective or an idea that this may all be part of a greater picture, a greater reason and purpose for being. This must also be part of the analysis of any report: What is the greater purpose here? What is the Greater Picture here? All of these factors taken together will allow the individual who is receiving such information to make up his or her own mind.

Ultimately it is the responsibility of the reader, of the recipient of such information to walk the straight and narrow, to determine the truth as well as they can. This does not mean they will always be successful in doing so. It simply means that they will be less likely to be duped if they seek out alternative sources, if they seek to confirm the information even from within themselves and to feel it out and to sense that which is the greater truth that comes from within in regards to much of this information. If this occurs, then it is less likely that an individual will be duped by any single person or source that claims to be speaking the truth.

Does this help explain this matter to the energizer?
