

Of the Letter Heh by Frank Salt

OF THE LETTER HEH.

HEH (pronounced Hay), "WINDOW", numerical value, 5, the first of the Twelve Simple Letters, signifies "LIFE - the abstract idea of BEING" (Key-words). The two upper lesser squares contain a long letter YOD, linked to earth by a thin vertical line down the outer edge of the right side of the Great Square, but across the top of both upper lesser squares, while the lower left lesser square contains a vertical letter YOD, with a gap between the the small vertical YOD and the long horizontal one. This gap is important symbolically and to avoid confusion with both the letters CHETH and TAU. Traditionally interpreted "window", it is not the word so used in the Old Testament. Spelled either "HIH" or "HVH", at length, the meaning is similar, "BEING", "BREATH". In sound it is "H", breathing, as breath is the evidence of Life. At the beginning of a word it is usually translated "The" as the definite article. The Divine Name I H'V' H is composed of three of the Simple Letters, the HEH being duplicated. The obvious inference is that this Name concerns EXISTENCE, LIFE, but here no more may be said. One gradually discovers how to intuit the Holy Essence of this ineffable Name.. We return to BETH, House, we have observed DALETH, its DOOR, now we have HEH, its window, allowing fresh AIR, BREATH, to flow through. Air is always associated with the Soul. The Greek pneuma is so associated "The WIND bloweth where it listeth", the Soul goes its own way.

The definite article "the" can only be used to indicate something real, or it could not be definite, but the Letter HEH can also refer to The Infinite as singular.

"HEH", LIFE, the in-dwelling and animating factor on the physical Plane. In a sense the Twelve Simple Letters relate rather to physical life, the Seven Double Letters to the Soul, and the Three Mother Letters to the Spirit. The Twelve Tribes, the Twelve Apostles, the Twelve Signs of the Zodiac all carry the idea of something working out in incarnation, on the human and physical Plane. HEH is related to ARIES, YOD to Virgo, VAU, the next Letter to Taurus, in the worldly sense. Life inspires Matter with the Breath of Life, thus does Spirit incarnate, and HEH is the evidence of Life incarnate. Consider well the term "LIFE, the abstract idea of BEING". More can be found intuitively than orally.

Having come thus far, take now the two Simple Letters YOD - HEH, translated "JAH" in psalm 68, v.4. Combining them in your mind, try to sense the spirit of this word.
