INTRODUCTION

There is a miracle-working power in the universe which you may tap, and it can bring you the fulfillment of your every dream.

This cosmic power is a universal intelligence that flows in invisible wavelengths among all the elements of creation. Just as wavelengths exist which bring us radio and television sounds and pictures, so too, this cosmic intelligence works throughout the universe, producing its miracles of creation.

I have named this cosmic intelligence Telecosmic Power, from the two words, Tele, from Telepathy, and Cosmic, from the Greek word Cosmos, meaning the totality of the universe.

This Telecosmic Power speaks to the slumbering earth in the springtime, and each seed stirs with creative energy. All creation blooms with beauty and fragrance. The Telecosmic command to the sleeping seed is, "Awaken!" and through a miraculous telepathic communication between God and His creation, all life springs into instant awareness.

This Telecosmic Power speaks to the acorn and says, "Draw cosmic life and energy from the soil and become a giant oak tree!" Upon receiving this Telecosmic command, the acorn instantly becomes a center of magnetism, drawing to itself all the chemicals it needs to become an oak tree.

The caterpillar crawling in the dust hears the Telecosmic command which says, "Stop crawling in the dust of your mortality and become a golden-winged butterfly." And instantly, the crawling creature obeys this imperious cosmic command. It lies down to mortal sleep in its earth-blown cocoon, and awakens in the springtime, a glorious flying creature, bedecked in splendid colors like an iridescent cosmic jewel.

This universal secret of Telecosmic Power works in all of Nature to evolve it to its ultimate perfection. It also works for you, when you once learn how to invoke the Telecosmic Power that can bring you the destiny you desire.

HOW I DISCOVERED TELECOSMIC POWER

I spent 25 years doing research in psychic phenomena, including all its branches; mental telepathy, clairvoyance, clairaudience, precognition, telekinesis, teleport, automatic writing and speaking, and intuition. In all these experiments with literally thousands of people who came to my lectures in world-famous Carnegie Hall, I discovered that this higher cosmic intelligence can be programmed to transmit amazing information to any person who wants to use it.

By training people to use Telecosmic Power, I saw them literally perform miracles in their lives. They were able to request money, houses, land, jewels, cars, and other material things and this Telecosmic Power guided them to the achievement of the things they asked for.

Telecosmic Power was used by these people to command the rich and famous in high places to help them achieve their high goals, and they responded instantly.

Telecosmic Power was used by others to help them solve their problems, to overcome fear and worry, to heal sick bodies and make them well. Still others used Telecosmic Power to guide them to fame and fortune. As the advisor to the Hollywood stars for many years, I saw unknown clerks, elevator operators, lumberjacks, and waiters suddenly become movie stars! Out of 17 of the richest men and women in Hollywood, worth from fifty-to a hundred-million dollars, seven of them received my secret of Telecosmic Power early in their careers!

Now, for the first time in book form, I am releasing this universal secret of Telecosmic Power, so you may invoke its aid to help you achieve your high goals in life.

See how it has worked its miracles for some of my students: A woman needed $1,000 desperately to keep her from losing her business. I showed her how to use Telecosmic Power to reach a rich uncle who lived in Indianapolis. Within 24 hours, her uncle wired her the $1,000 she needed! There was no communication between them physically; she merely tuned in on universal wavelengths of mind, and was able to project a Telecosmogram to this uncle who instantly responded!

Another woman in our lecture work in New York saw a beautiful jewel she wanted in a store window. She projected a Telecosmogram that she wanted this gem. Within a few days a man she knew bought the jewel for her! When he presented it to her he said, "When I saw this in the window I kept seeing your face before me and I had to get it for you." Later, this same woman married this man! She had projected to this higher power the mental image of her perfect soul mate and this man proposed to her shortly after presenting her with his gift.

A farmer, who came to New York city from Iowa to take my course of lessons, returned to his farm later and used Telecosmic Power to perform a miracle. He and his brother wanted to buy ten acres of land adjoining their farm but the family that owned it had refused for years to sell any of their land. This man began to use Telecosmic Power, as he had learned it from me, and within two weeks this family put the ten acres on the market and they were able to buy it!

YOU CAN USE TELECOSMIC POWER TO WORK MIRACLES

Telecosmic power can work miracles for your life also. This cosmic intelligence is waiting for your commands. When you learn a few simple words, called Telecosmograms, and project them to this higher cosmic intelligence, you will attract, with effortless ease, what you have subconsciously programmed.

You can program your higher mind centers, just as we do a modern computer, with anything you want Telecosmic Power to bring you and it will carry out your commands automatically.

It cannot refuse your requests, for it is an automatic intelligence that works for anyone who knows how to use it.

Study this book carefully. Use the Telecosmograms and Telecosmographs given here for a period of two or three weeks, repeating the Telecosmograms silently, as many times a day as you can. When you have programmed the entire Telecosmogram into your subconscious and super-conscious minds by reading it two or three times, you can merely repeat the short, two-word Telecosmogram and it will instantly release the entire command that you have programmed into your higher mind.

Whenever you want to repeat the entire Telecosmogram, you merely say the two words that are the keys to the particular command you have programmed, and it will begin to work for you with effortless ease.

Now you are ready to embark on one of the greatest mystical experiences of your life! Use this book as a source of inspiration and instruction, to guide you to the use of the right Telecosmograms for health, happiness, prosperity, riches and abundance, love fulfillment, money and property, gifts and talents, friends and social recognition.

HOW TO RELEASE TELECOSMIC POWER TO BRING YOU EVERYTHING YOU DESIRE

A secret and mysterious cosmic power exists in the universe which you may tap, and it will bring you everything that you desire in life.

* Telecosmic Power is the mysterious intelligence that flows throughout the universe, working under cosmic laws. It molds and shapes the entire universe, and you have the power to imprint your own mental commands on this invisible protoplasm and create anything that you desire.

For the first time in history, science has proved the existence of subtle wavelengths that issue from man's higher mind centers. These thought forms can be projected out in space to contact other minds and influence them to do their bidding. You can tune your mind, like a radio or television set, to receive thoughts and inspirations from other minds. You can also program these higher mind centers with certain words and phrases which I call Telecosmograms, and these are relayed to the higher cosmic mind, which can bring you the things you ask for.

Not only are mental telepathy and psychic phenomena now provable in the laboratory, but scientists have discovered that when your thought forms contact the invisible universal intelligence, they are able to imprint it with your desires and bring all your dreams into fulfillment.

This Telecosmic Power extends beyond the limited range of man's own conscious mind. It flows in a vast tidal wave of cosmic intelligence to everything that exists in the universe.

Telecosmic Power flows through the soil and magnetizes the seed causing it to attract the elements it needs for its perfect growth.

Telecosmic Power flows through a chicken's egg and causes it to know perfectly how to create feathers, eyes, lungs, beak, and skin from a tiny microscopic cell that is cosmically programmed with the picture of a perfect baby chick. This same Telecosmic Power even sets a cosmic timeclock that tells the chick to be born within 21 days.

THE MIRACLES PERFORMED BY TELECOSMIC POWER

This Telecosmic Power permeates all time and space. It works more readily for you, when you summon its mighty force, than it does for a flower or a baby chick. In this chapter we shall learn how you may tap the universal secret of Telecosmic Power and command it to bring you everything that you desire for your complete life experience.

Here are some of the miracles that Telecosmic Power will perform for you:

1. You can direct this universal force to bring you money from unexpected sources and it will, suddenly and without effort on your part, produce sums of money anywhere from $100 to $1,000, depending on your needs. With more use of Telecosmic Power it can bring you large sums such as $10,000 to $100,000, as it has to many of my students who have used this miracle power.
2. You can command Telecosmic Power to bring you your true soul mate, and no matter how many times you have been disappointed in love, the person you choose for love and marriage will come to you, as though hypnotized!
3. You can direct Telecosmic Power to heal you of an illness that may not yield to medical knowledge, and this power will begin to heal your body perfectly!
4. With Telecosmic Power you can break negative habits such as smoking, drinking, gambling or other destructive habits.
5. You can tune in on another person's thought waves and know if he is honest and what his thoughts are in regard to you.

6. You can reach out with Telecosmic Power and contact the minds of wealthy and important persons and bid them to give you work, to help you advance your interests, and even to give you large sums of money!
7. With Telecosmic Power you can attract houses, lands, stocks, jewels, cars, and other possessions which you will never lose.
8. You will have the power to sway the minds of your friends and magnetize them with your mind so they will form a charmed circle of close friendship that will remain forever.
9. Telecosmic Power improves your memory and gives you the ability to retain facts, names, and dates and summon them up at will.
10. Besides all these material and physical things, Telecosmic Power can bring you peace of mind and peace of soul so that you can live in a troubled world, free of all anxieties and pressures, in perfect serenity.

So you will have greater faith in this miracle power which you are now going to invoke in your life, let us examine some of the miracles that Telecosmic Power performs and which you see in your own life.

Your brain and your body have been genetically programmed so that you are different from every other human being. Telecosmic Power printed in the invisible genes of your brain and body a cosmic blueprint that was passed on to you by your human mother and father. This higher intelligence programmed the color hair, eyes, and skin you would have. It determined how tall you would be. It structured the nervous system, the heart, the brain, and other body organs so they would function perfectly. In other words—it created the miracle which you are!

You can use this same Telecosmic Power to program your destiny, to release thought forms that go out and shape your brain children from the invisible protoplasm that fills all space.

See how this Telecosmic Power creates millions of trees, flowers, fruits, and vegetables from the same invisible protoplasm. It has created billions of stars, sent them spinning out in space, and directs them to revolve in their orbits under the great law of magnetism or gravity.

You possess this same power of magnetism in your mind; you can direct Telecosmic Power to produce anything you desire, and it must obey your commands.

A Woman Projected Telecosmic Power for a Husband

A woman, 40 years of age, learned about this Telecosmic Power. She wanted to marry again, as her husband had been killed in an accident. Everyone told her no man would marry a 40-year-old woman.

This woman began to project Telecosmic commands, which I call Telecosmograms, to her higher mind so that she would attract her true soul mate.

One day she went into an optometrist's shop to buy a pair of sun glasses. The doctor who waited on her was a tall, handsome man, just the ideal she had pictured and projected as being the type she would like to marry!

As though he were hypnotized, this doctor came instantly under this woman's magnetic spell. He took her name and address for his records, and as the woman left the shop, she projected the Telecosmogram, You will call me in three days! Exactly on the third day, this doctor telephoned her, asked for a date, and told her that in his 20 years of practice he had never once become intimate with a client! Within three months, this man, who was a bachelor, proposed marriage!

How Telecosmic Power Works for You

This same Telecosmic Power will work for you when you once learn how to project Telecosmograms to the higher mind that rules the universe. This power, working through your own subconscious and superconscious minds, can bring you anything that you desire when you once invoke the Telecosmic Power.

REGIMEN FOR USING TELECOSMIC POWER

1. To begin the flow of Telecosmic Power in your own life you must use key words and sentences, which I have named Telecosmograms. These key words flash a message to your subconscious mind of the things you want it to do for you. The subconscious mind is then programmed to contact the higher cosmic mind, which is everywhere in the universe, and unites its power with this universal intelligence to shape the things you have asked for.

First, decide what it is that you want this higher power to bring you.

Then sit quietly in meditation, and use the Telecosmogram I Unite. You do not need to memorize the following Telecosmogram that you are now going to flash to the higher cosmic mind. All you need do is remember the two words: I Unite, and whenever you want to use this power, you will repeat the words I Unite seven times, releasing the following Telecosmograms to your higher mind and the cosmic intelligence which rules the universe.

I Unite: My conscious mind now unites perfectly with the subconscious and superconscious minds that perform miracles for me. I unite my mind with the cosmic intelligence that rules the universe. I invoke its aid now to bring me instant guidance. I wish to have my right work, my right income, the perfect love and marriage, the larger sums of money to achieve financial independence. I wish to have my problems solved and to create the perfect destiny which I desire.

2. After you have read the above Telecosmograms over at least seven times, they will become deeply imprinted on your subconscious and superconscious minds. You have now become programmed to the key words I Unite, just as a computer is programmed with certain data. You are now programmed so that whenever you punch the key of your mental computer with the key words I Unite, they will instantly trigger the automatic action of your higher mind centers. Your superconscious mind will then flash the entire mental programming to the higher cosmic intelligence that rules the universe. Your Telecosmograms are then put into the vast computer-like cosmic system that produces everything in the universe. It begins, through a kind of telepathic communication, to guide you to do the things that will bring you the fulfillment of your every wish.

How a Woman Overcame Marital Problems with the Telecosmogram "I Unite"

A woman had been married five years when she and her husband began to have violent disagreements and his ardor cooled. She loved her husband and did not want to lose him. She learned in our classes about projecting Telecosmic Power, so she instantly began to project the key words I Unite, with the Telecosmogram:

Unity shall prevail in my life. Confusion shall end. I shall have harmony in my home, my work and my environment.

Everytime she thought of it she kept repeating the key words I Unite. This instantly triggered the Telecosmograms she had put into her subconscious mind about unity in her home. The third day, when she served her husband breakfast, he remarked that she looked different. She smiled, with the secret knowledge of what that difference was. When he left for work, he kissed her!; something he had not done for weeks. All during the next few days, she kept repeating the key words I Unite and she told me it even worked like magic in the office where she worked with several people who were always quarreling. She began to speak in a calmer tone of voice; her co-workers began to respond with more unity and restraint. The confusion and discord seemed to end mysteriously! She and her husband began to have better relations and to this day they are happily married.

Use the key words I Unite, whenever you want Telecosmic Power to bring you peace of mind, better relations with your mate, your children, your co-workers. Use it when you feel that your subconscious mind is not bringing you the happiness and prosperity you desire.

3. If it is something physical or material that you want Telecosmic Power to bring you, use the key words I Receive. Read the following Telecosmogram seven times, and then repeat the key words I Receive several times a day. The following Telecosmogram will be automatically released in your life:

I Receive: I wish to receive from Telecosmic Power the sum of $1,000 so I may pay my bills. I wish to receive more money in my work or from unexpected sources at once, so I may have freedom from financial worries and burdens.

A woman who came to our classes reported to me that she decided to test Telecosmic Power with a small sum first. She projected the key words I Receive with the above Telecosmogram. The next night, she was on her way home from work when she was caught in a heavy rainstorm that flooded the streets. She stood at the curb waiting for a cab when she looked down into the street, and there she saw something green that looked like money floating in the water. She reached down and picked it up. It was a $50 bill!

The next day a letter came that contained a check for $50! Her $100 had come to her mysteriously, in two days. She then had more faith in the power and asked that her husband, who was a recording artist, would have a successful record. In two weeks time, he had a contract with a big record company and recorded a song that became a hit!

4. If you wish to receive recognition in your work, if you want to advance your interests, or to earn more money, use the following three Telecosmograms:

I Progress

I Advance

I Earn

Use these key words to trigger the following Telecosmograms.

I Progress: I am eager to progress in my work, to win promotion, and bigger pay. I wish to be in work where I shall be independent; to earn $50,000 a year, or more, in work that is pleasant as well as profitable.

I Advance: I ask that my interests be advanced. That I be shown how I can rise to the highest levels of income in a future business that will bring me a new home, a beautiful Cadillac, and the furnishings I shall require for the new home.

I Earn: I wish to find a new line of work where I shall earn $50,000 a year, that this work shall take me traveling and bring me before the public in some way, through sales or representing some big firm.

A young woman in our work in California, who was only 26 years of age, learned about Telecosmic Power. She began to use the above three key words and Telecosmograms. She was working in an office as a typist and did not like her work and the small salary she received.

Within two weeks, by using the above key words at least 20 times a day, she was guided to a large cosmetic firm that needed representatives to go through the country demonstrating the product before large groups of women.

This young woman got the job and kept projecting her Telecosmograms every night, just before retiring, and several times a day.

She reported to me that the first year in her new work she earned $25,000! The second year, it soared to $50,000. Then she decided that with this success she would really test her Telecosmic power. She projected the Telecosmogram that she wanted the following things:

1. To live in a beautiful home in the Hollywood hills.
2. A pink Cadillac.
3. Her soul mate.

Within a few weeks time, she was guided to a mansion in the Hollywood hills, in a section where homes were priced from $100,000 to $250,000. She found the exact house she wanted but it was priced at $125,000—too much for her present bank balance. She projected the Telecosmogram that she would get it for $95,000, with a smaller down payment. When she met the sales representative of the property, he fell under her spell and agreed to let her have the house for $95,000, with the exact down payment she could afford! She moved in and within a few weeks she had the exact furniture she had projected, and in her driveway was the pink Cadillac she had asked for!

Now this young lady is well on her way to the $100,000 a year income she is projecting through Telecosmic Power! Her soul mate has not yet arrived, but with her beautiful background, and her newly awakened powers, this should come to her in a short space of time.

5. When you have practiced using Telecosmic Power for a few days, keep track of the things that you want it to produce for you. Then sit quietly in meditation and write them down on a piece of paper. This becomes your Cosmic Worksheet. Read this paper over every morning when you arise, and every night just before going to sleep. Put on that paper the things you want in your future. Do not be afraid to ask for big, seemingly impossible things. Telecosmic Power can release a miracle force in your life that can attract anything you desire.

Label this page you are going to use: MY COSMIC
To project the Telecosmograms given here on your worksheet, use the key words I Desire. This will unlock the hidden power of your subconscious mind and communicate your messages direct to the cosmic intelligence which creates all things. They are then set into motion in the cosmic computer that works throughout the realm of nature, bringing you the requests on your Cosmic Worksheet.

I Desire: My right work and the release of the mental gifts and talents that will fit me for that work. I wish to become a writer (or here insert whatever it is you would like as a mental gift; an artist, a composer, an inventor, a lawyer, a doctor, a scientist, a teacher, a politician, a business industrialist, an actor, singer or dancer, an explorer, a photographer, and so on).

I Desire: A beautiful home (or apartment) for my family and myself. It shall be tastefully decorated and in a peaceful, quiet neighborhood. I wish to own my home and be able to meet all payments successfully.

I Desire: A car (name the make and model and color) and ask that it be materialized easily and in the next two months.

I Desire: An education for my children in a university where they shall be prepared to become a success in their future careers.

I Desire: Peace of mind and happiness in my home, my office and work.

I Desire: My true romance and soul mate so I may become fulfilled in love and marriage and have my own family.

I Desire: Beautiful clothes, jewelry and other possessions (here name these articles you desire.)

I Desire: That I shall take a trip to Europe for my vacation this year, and that the extra money will come from an unexpected source to pay all expenses.

I Desire: Intellectual growth and wisdom, to read the right books, to study the courses in evening school that will most benefit me and prepare me for my glorious new life adventure.

6. Whenever you want to trigger your mental and cosmic computer to bring you the things you have written on your cosmic worksheet, punch the mental key with the words: I Desire. As you have already programmed the entire list of things you desire in your subconscious mind by writing them down and reading them over, you are automatically programmed to this list of events. Now all you need to do each day is to read this list over twice a day, or more, if you have time. Then several times a day use the mental key words, I Desire. Say this to yourself at least ten times a day.

A young man who made out his Cosmic Worksheet in Los Angeles, had written down that he wanted to become a motion picture producer. The only difficulty he told me one day at one of my lectures, was that he didn't have a cent in the bank, and didn't know how to get money. He ushered for me at my lectures to earn extra money and exposed himself to the Telecosmic Power we use in our work.

Within three months time, this young man obtained the rights to a novel called The Cup and the Sword, for $500. As he had no money, he gave the author a contract to pay later. He took this novel to Universal Studios and they bought it, making him the producer of the picture named "This Earth Is Mine" with Rock Hudson as the star. In fact, he had already programmed the fact that he wanted Rock Hudson and Jean Simmons to star in his first picture!

7. In using your Cosmic Worksheet to program your higher mind with the key words I Desire, you can scratch out the various things that come to you and each week prepare a new worksheet, putting down other things you want Telecosmic Power to do for you.

Obviously, for larger sums like $50,000 or $100,000 it may take longer than for smaller sums or events. But do not doubt that this power can work miracles for you as it has for thousands of other people who have used it.

A young man in our lecture work in New York City put down $100,000 on his worksheet, and had a dream one night of a winning combination of numbers for the Lottery. When the numbers were drawn he won the $100,000!

Another woman put down that she wanted $100,000 through a lottery, after I told this story at a lecture. She drew the winning number for $5,000. It was only one-twentieth of what she asked for, but she gave thanks and kept on using her Cosmic Worksheet for other sums and they may come in hundreds or even thousands over a period of time.

Still another member of our lecture work wrote down she wanted a color TV set. The one she had priced was nearly a thousand dollars. She didn't have that much in the bank, but she projected the key words I desire and her Telecosmogram of the RCA TV set she desired. In two weeks time, a friend who owned a TV color set of that make moved and gave her the TV set for $100!

In other chapters, I shall give literally dozens of key words and Telecosmograms which you may use for specific purposes. If you do not find the ones you need for your special desires, you can invent your own and write them down, using the key words that you will find in other chapters of this book.

What are your secret dreams and desires?

What would you like to have more than anything else in the world?

It is vitally important that you know exactly what you want Telecosmic Power to bring. When you and your subconscious minds are fully agreed on the things you want, you can use the right Telecosmograms to flash the message to your higher mind centers. Then you will receive telepathic guidance to the things you want.

In this chapter, we shall explore the 11 elements of success and show you the method by which you can achieve them through the use of Telecosmic Power.

1. Your Right Work

In every person, there is an instinctive urge to create something good through his thoughts and labor. This creative effort becomes the compelling motivation that drives man to goal fulfillment.

When you are in work that you dislike, it is an affront to your higher mind. Your subconscious and superconscious minds are actually spiritual twins to your conscious mind and they share your every life experience. If you do work that is beneath your mental potentials, you rob your spiritual twins of their rightful heritage of success and abundance.

Program in your subconscious mind the key words I Desire, and the Telecosmogram;

I shall attract my right work, which I shall enjoy, and I shall be a great success in my chosen field.

If you are in work that does not suit you now, keep on programming the key words I Desire, and renewing the Telecosmogram each day until it is indelibly written on your subconscious mind. Then, mysteriously, automatically, with little effort on your part, your higher mind will guide you to the exact type of work you are best suited to.

A Young Man Who Used Telecosmic Power to Change His Work

A young man of 28 came to me once for guidance as to his right work. He worked in his father's butcher shop but hated his job. He told me how he had always wanted to be a landscape gardener. I gave him this regime for programming his right work through the use of Telecosmic Power, with the key words I Desire, and the Telecosmogram;

I want to find my right work in the field of landscape gardening.

This young man reported to me a few weeks later. He said a man bought a large supply of meat from his father's shop. The delivery man was sick that day, so the young man decided to deliver it himself. The man he delivered it to had a large nursery and landscape gardening business on Long Island. He hired ten men to work for him on big estates for rich clients. Through this contact, the young butcher was offered a job as a landscape gardener! He now is programming that one day he will own a similar business and become a big success.

2. Money or Adequate Rewards and Remuneration

You can use Telecosmic Power to increase your income. You can program sums of money from $1,000 to $1,000,000. You must have faith in this power of your higher mind to bring you the money you feel you deserve.

Start programming your mind first with smaller sums of money like $100 and $500 before graduating to larger sums. This helps build your confidence in the power that can bring you the larger sums of money.

Use the key words I Desire, with the following Telecosmogram:

I Desire the sum of $500 for immediate expenses, and the larger sums of $1,000 and $5,000 for travel and luxuries. I also program the sum of $100,000 for future financial security for my family and myself.

This Telecosmic Power often works in a mysterious way to bring money from unexpected sources.

A young woman needed money desperately. Her father had died and she and her mother were left penniless. She began to project the Telecosmograms for immediate money.

Something impelled her to telephone her uncle, who lived in a distant city. He told her that his brother, some years before, had left a package with him, which he was to send his family if he should die.

When the girl received the package, she found stock certificates her father had bought for a few cents a share years before. She took them to a stock broker and found they were for an oil company in Canada. They had discovered an oil field that made the stocks now worth $47,000!

3. Love Fulfillment, Marriage and the Rearing of a Family

Surely one of life's greatest treasures is love fulfillment and the rearing of a family. This priceless privilege brings into focus the divine emotion of love on all planes of creative expression.

You can program love fulfillment into your subconscious mind with the key words I Desire, and the Telecosmograms that we shall later learn how to release to the higher mind centers. No matter who it is, love happiness is vitally important to perfect living.

Love happiness however is not limited to the young, nor to procreative love alone. After your family has been reared and you are past the age where physical love and procreative love matter, there is still the expression of love on other planes of creativity.

Some of the world's greatest art, music, poetry, literature, invention, scientific discoveries, and industrial achievements have been inspired by this noble emotion. You can attract your true soul mate through Telecosmic Power. You can attract friends and win their love and esteem. You can use the key words I Desire to trigger reactions in your higher mind that automatically direct you to the type of love expression you need to fit your particular age bracket.

4. Friends and Social Reciprocity

No man lives for himself alone. Perfect living requires that you have the right type of friends. Every person has an innate desire to be wanted, admired, respected, and enjoyed by his friends. The Telecosmic Power recognizes your need for friendship and can intuitively guide you to the right places where you may meet people who have similar interests to yourself.

A young woman of 20 had trouble making friends. She felt inferior and insecure socially. When she learned how to project Telecosmograms using the key words I Desire, for the right type of friends, she was impelled to join an amateur dramatic group in her neighborhood. She became so engrossed in the joys of her new-found avocation that she completely lost herself in her work. Soon she was attracting young men and women friends who had the same interests and her life was changed from one of loneliness to glorious fulfillment.

The qualities to program Telecosmically into your subconscious mind for attracting friends are: sharing your good with others; joyous radiance; optimism; a desire to make others happy; tolerance of others' faults; the ability to praise people rather than criticize them; a happy smile instead of a perpetual frown. Emerson said it in one sentence: "To have a friend, be a friend."

5. Creative Gifts and Talents

Have you dreamed of being able to paint beautiful pictures, write poetry or stories, compose songs, or invent some useful object?

Deep within every human psyche is the creative urge to give expression to some form of beauty. Many times your work may not be satisfactory and for some reason you may not want to change it, owing to retirement benefits or pensions, but you have a deep soul urge to release some higher creative gifts and talents.

Telecosmic Power can reveal to you what higher octaves of creativity your mind is capable of releasing. By using the key words I Desire, and the Telecosmograms that you will learn soon, you can release a steady flow of creative power that can bring you satisfaction and enjoyment.

A man who used Telecosmic Power to change his life, was a house painter. He liked his work, but it did not give him the creative satisfaction he desired. After hearing one lecture on how he could program new creative gifts through Telecosmic Power, he began to use the key words, I Desire, with the Telecosmograms that he could become an artist. He was soon painting original oil paintings that won favorable criticism in a one-man show. He sold every one of his paintings and from that time his hobby became a source of extra income as well as soul satisfaction to him.

A woman worked in a television studio as a reception clerk in Hollywood, California. She learned about Telecosmic Power and decided she should be in front of the cameras not behind them. She took a short course in acting with a noted coach, and within two months time she was playing the second lead in a daytime serial that brought her in a big income as well as satisfying her innate desire to use higher creative gifts and talents.

6. Health and Youthful Energy

Perfect living is never possible without this greatest of all life's treasures; good health and the youthful vitality to make life a joy instead of a pain-filled, sick experience. The physical body responds to the promptings of your higher subconscious mind, when it is programmed with the Telecosmograms that are triggered with the words: I Desire.

7. Peace of Mind and Peace of Soul

Many millionaires do not have peace of mind and peace of soul. They often spend all their time, like Hetty Green, the famous miser worth one hundred million dollars, in accumulating material riches, but they are mentally and spiritually impoverished. In recent years, five multi-millionaires in America committed suicide because they did not know how to program peace of mind and peace of soul.

You can have money and all the good things of life and still have peace of mind and peace of soul if you use Telccosmic Power to elevate your mind to higher levels of creative and spiritual action.

You will program into your higher cosmic mind centers the desire for peace. You will live under the mental, moral, ethical, and spiritual laws that program your mind to honesty, goodness, morality, charity, faith, and prayer.

8. Intellectual Riches

Many people live one-dimensional lives in which their work and making money take precedence over everything else. These people often miss out on the greatest treasures in the universe; the beauty of art and music; the priceless riches of great and inspiring thoughts from the minds of geniuses, in literature and poetry. The ability to perceive and appreciate the beauty in nature, the changing of seasons, the blooming of flowers, the incandescent glory of a sunrise or sunset, the wonder of a moonlit night, with the billions of stars testifying to the cosmic splendor that has been created for your enjoyment.

Man is more than an eating, drinking, sleeping animal; he partakes of a spark of divinity, which we call the soul. It is this soul awareness that you can program through Telccosmic Power and you will add to the expanded dimensions of consciousness that will give you the intellectual capacity to enjoy the perfect living you will program.

9. Self-Development

Perfect living should include the constant evolvment of yourself as an individual, through a self-development program that you can institute through Telccosmic Power. Each day, you should program into your subconscious mind Telccosmograms of wisdom and knowledge from the immortals. You should refine your manners, polish your personality, work on achieving a better voice, more perfect diction, a more magnetic and commanding presence. You should add great thoughts to your mental storehouse of riches so you can weather the storms of life.

Self-development should be a constant growth and expansion which you can trigger with the key words, I Desire, and the Telecosmograms which you will find at the end of this chapter.

A young lady who was a maid for a very rich woman on Park Avenue, in New York city, came into my lectures in Carnegie Hall and, for the first time, learned of how she could use Telecosmic Power to improve her lot in life. She had faith that she could become something more than an overworked, underpaid maid, as this was back in 1942 when salaries were not very high for that type of work.

This girl began to use the Telecosmic Power, triggered by the key words, I Desire, every night just before going to bed. She did this for one week when suddenly she was walking by a high school she had passed many times, and she saw a sign that said, "Adult classes evenings." She made inquiries and found out she could enroll in any one of dozens of courses and improve herself. Without knowing why, she chose typing. She soon became a rapid typist, although she could see no possible use she would have for it in the future.

When she had completed her course, her subconscious mind guided her through Telecosmic Power to look in the newspaper under PERSONALS, and there she saw an ad asking for a young woman, who could typewrite, to be traveling companion and social secretary to a very famous woman author! She applied and got the excellent job, and gave thanks to her spiritual twin for the Telecosmic guidance to perfect living.

10. Happiness and Pleasure

Perfect living should include as one of its goals, pleasurable experiences that bring one radiant and perpetual happiness. Man was not born into misery and discontent. We create our own unhappiness when we fight against the natural, inborn cosmic urge to be joyous creatures of light, peace, and beauty.

You can use Telecosmic Power to align your higher psychic mind centers with patterns of daily experiences that bring you happiness and furnish you with pleasurable experiences.

To program this state of consciousness, use the key words, I Desire, with the Telecosmograms that you will read later and then daily program into your mind centers the happy remembrances of past events that gave you pleasure.

Avoid dwelling on the negative experiences of life. Stop reviewing the past disappointments and defeats and discouragements. Each night, before going to sleep, program your mind with the most joyous experiences of the past; the first Christmas when you discovered Santa Claus; your first visit to a circus; your first remembrance of snow; the first visit to the seashore, all these memories are indelibly etched upon the sensitive subconscious mind, which is attuned to joy, and by recreating these past soul's remembrances, you will create the magnetic attraction once more to other happy life experiences.

11. Spiritual Riches and Love of God

Telecosmic power works through a higher spiritual channel which man calls God. This intelligence knows how to create your destiny perfectly. You trusted your life to this invisible power when you embarked upon this mystical journey through time and space. When your soul is attuned to the higher wavelengths of spiritual power, you will receive automatic guidance to your every move in life. Nothing will be too early or too late. You will prosper and succeed beyond your wildest dreams, for your higher superconscious mind, the so-called God Mind, relays to your subconscious mind and your conscious mind all the information they need to keep you functioning as a healthy, happy and creative human being.

You can use the key words, I Desire, with the Telecosmograms we shall now study, and you will automatically communicate with the highest available source of spiritual intelligence and energy that man may tap.

How to Program the "I Desire" Telecosmograms into Your Subconscious Mind for Successful Living

I DESIRE: Say this key Telecosmogram seven times, until you feel a strong emotional reaction of Desire within your mind and body. Desire is an emotion which awakens the slumbering giant of mental power within your subconscious mind. It is the Magic Genie that will carry out your every wish and command. Preface the following Telecosmograms with this powerful subconscious motivator and you will then let it unlock all channels for achieving the things you desire.

I Desire: I now program my subconscious and super-conscious minds with the 11 essentials for successful living.

1. My right work.
2. Money or adequate rewards and remuneration.
3. Love fulfillment, marriage and rearing of a family.
4. Friends and social reciprocity.
5. Creative gifts and talents.
6. Health and youthful energy.
7. Peace of mind and peace of soul.
8. Intellectual riches.
9. Self-development.
10. Happiness and pleasure.
11. Spiritual riches and love of God.

I ask my higher mind to guide me to the fulfillment of each of the above essentials for successful living. I wish to discover my hidden potentials of greatness and to rise above mediocrity into the realms of great achievement. Desire now becomes the cosmic emotion that elevates my consciousness and causes my subconscious mind to rise to new heights of greatness.

In order to trigger any of the above 11 elements for successful living, which have now been programmed into your subconscious mind, read the above Telecosmogram at least seven times, then, when you want to release its potent power from your subconscious mind, sit quietly and meditate on the key words, I Desire, and all the related thoughts you have programmed into the computer of your higher mind will be automatically released.

Hidden within your higher mind centers is God's perfect dream for your future life. This dream is one of ultimate perfection for all forms of creation.

You have been given the power to achieve every dream and desire that God has put into your mind, heart, and soul. Do you long for love happiness? You can achieve it. Do you dream of being independently rich? It is possible for you to become successful and rich. Do you want friends, a business of your own, gifts, and talents? These things can be achieved through the use of Telecosmic Power that will cause you to reach your highest goals in life.

You can invoke the supreme power of Telecosmic forces to elevate your consciousness to the super-realms of great achievement that has always been attained by the immortals.

The secret Telecosmogram that you can flash to your subconscious and superconscious minds when you aspire to great achievement is: I Achieve.

You have the power to rise above your own limited situations in life and grow wings of the imagination, which can help you rise above poverty, lack, limitation, sickness, sadness, suffering, misery, loneliness, and discontent.

The secret Telecosmogram that geniuses have always used to rise above the ignorance and limitations of their times was encompassed in the words: I Achieve.

Pericles, who conceived the magnificent blueprint for, and built, the Parthenon in ancient Athens, Græce, was inspired by this desire to achieve a building so perfect that it has been called one of the world's most perfect creations for over twenty-five hundred years!

Michelangelo, considered one of the greatest geniuses who ever lived, undoubtedly tapped Telecosmic Power in his desire to achieve perfection in his sculptures and his masterpieces.

When he was 74, he came out of retirement to paint his heroic masterpiece in the Sistine Chapel in the Vatican at Rome. He lay on a scaffold for 12 to 14 hours a day, painting on the chapel's ceiling his gigantic masterpiece of the Creation of the Universe by God. In that scene, he shows Adam and Eve in the Garden of Eden, and the gigantic figure of God reaching out through the cosmos touching the finger of Adam, inspiring him with creative life.

This desire to achieve greatness is in every human being when he is touched by the finger of God. Through Telecosmic Power, the cosmic mind can touch and inspire your creative imagination and arouse the latent desire within your mind to make of your life a magnificent masterpiece.

THERE'S AN ANGEL IN THAT STONE

A story is told of Michelangelo that as he walked one day past an artist's studio, he found a discarded weather-stained piece of marble in his backyard. The great artist took the heavy marble up onto his shoulders and was struggling toward his studio with it. An artist friend of his passed him on the street and said, "Michelangelo, what in heaven's name are you planning to do with that weather-stained old piece of marble?"

The great genius, with a flash of creative fire in his eyes, replied, "There's an angel in that stone, and I must get it out."

With that dream of perfect achievement, Michelangelo carved from that weather-stained, discarded block of marble one of the most delicate and perfect statues of an angel that the world has ever seen!

THE ANGEL THAT SLUMBERS WITHIN YOUR SOUL

An angel slumbers within your own immortal soul. Telecosmic Power is the keen chisel that can carve from the obdurate block or marble, which is your life, the most delicate, beautiful, and perfect statue which shall become an imperishable memorial to your greatness.

Great artists, musicians, composers, inventors, scientists, reformers, mystics, seers, and prophets, have all had this magnificent dream imprisoned within their souls; and their life mission was to release the slumbering angel of beauty, glory, and ultimate perfection.

Beethoven and Chopin used this Telecosmic Power to create their soaring musical compositions.

Rembrandt, Raphael, and Titian caught the dream supreme of cosmic beauty, in their glorious artistic achievements.

Socrates, Plato, and Aristotle comprehended the mystery of Telecosmic Power in their brilliant philosophies.

Shakespeare, Byron, Keats, and Shelley, measured Telecosmic rhythm and cadence in iridescent jewels of poetry and literature that have set high standards for generations.

Washington and Lincoln, used Telecosmic Power to weld a young nation into bonds of unity and freedom.

Pasteur and Newton each unlocked Telecosmic Power within their higher subconscious minds that told them secrets of the invisible world, in their discoveries of germs, and the power of gravity or magnetism, that holds our earth and moon in space by an invisible hand, causing them to spin around the sun.

Einstein and Edison both used this creative intelligence to achieve their great discoveries through Telecosmic Power.

But genius is not limited to the distant past; in our own age, Telecosmic Power is still being channeled and used to create greatness.

In modern music, Bacharach, Berlin, and Gershwin have brought our age the pulsebeat of the modern generations.

In drama, Tennessee Williams, Edward Albee, and Arthur Miller have produced great works through the Telecosmogram, I Achieve.

In our modern age, William Faulkner, Thomas Wolfe, and other great authors have created literature that will survive.

A Former Student of Telecosmic Power Rebuilt the London Bridge

A man came into our lecture work in Los Angeles, and absorbed the principles of Telecosmic Power. He had a desire to achieve something great. He asked his higher mind to give him a creative idea that would bring pleasure to millions of people.

One day, on a trip to London, he observed the London Bridge. This triggered some kind of subconscious reaction that fitted his desire to achieve. He made inquiries and found that the famous historic bridge was being torn down. He offered to buy it and transport it intact to his home town of Havesu City, in Arizona, on the banks of the Colorado River, where he had it completely restored as a sight-seeing spectacle. Now each year, hundreds of thousands of tourists are able to see and walk upon the historic London Bridge! This idea that came through Telecosmic Power, has not only brought this man enduring fame, but has made him a fortune!

HOW TO USE THE TELECOSMOGRAMS OF "I ACHIEVE" TO ATTAIN LIFE'S HIGHEST GOALS

1. Sit quietly and concentrate your mind on the Telecosmogram I Achieve. Let it flow into your subconscious mind with several repetitions of these key words. You will feel a gentle flow of power that vibrates through your higher mind centers.

2. After you have triggered your subconscious mind with these key words, read the following Telecosmograms, which you will now feed into your higher mind centers. Then after reading them, let them go, knowing they are indelibly imprinted on your sensitive subconscious and super-conscious minds, ready for instant action when triggered with the key words I Achieve.

I Achieve: My higher mind centers are now programmed with the awareness that I am striving for life's highest goals. I am no longer content with an ordinary destiny. I wish to achieve the greatest, create the most beautiful, and aspire to the highest goals possible of attainment.

I am now inspired by the lofty ideals that have motivated geniuses of the past. I duplicate their deeds; I emulate their patterns of thoughts. My mind becomes the receiving center for high and noble thoughts.

I long for fame and success; I desire recognition, money, and other rewards from life. I wish for popularity and the respect of my friends. I want to own my own business, do something creative and outstanding. I wish to live in a beautiful home that is tastefully and comfortably furnished.

I long for money in the bank with which to meet all my needs. I desire travel, cultural benefits and new experiences that will give me a broader outlook on life. I desire intellectual achievement that will bring my fullest mental potentials into full focus.

3. When you have fed the above list of Telecosmograms into your subconscious mind, triggered by the key words I Achieve, select the particular field in which you wish to excel and then consciously project the following Telecosmographs, which are cosmic thought forms, of the various fields of endeavor in which you wish to excel.

I WISH TO ACHIEVE SUCCESS AS AN ARTIST

4. Sit quietly and let your mind absorb the full import of the key achievement you desire. Visualize, as you close your eyes, the most beautiful landscapes and seascapes you have ever seen. Let your mind dwell on scenes from nature; towering mountain ranges in the distance, with a purple haze softening their outlines, against a cerulean blue sky. Soft, lazy white clouds sailing in the skies above, and vast expanses of land between the mountain ranges.

Mentally stand beside the ocean's edge at sunset, and see the silhouettes of fishing boats in the distance; see the flaming incandescent crimson and gold staining the western horizon, and the deep blue water extending out to infinity.

As you mentally absorb the joy and beauty of all creation, you are automatically triggering your subconscious mind with an intense desire to capture this flaming beauty and recreate it for the entire world to share with you and enjoy.

How a Housewife Used Telecosmic Powers to Become a Great Artist

A woman of 50, who came to my lectures in Los Angeles, told me she was a widow, without children, living alone on a pension she had earned as a public school teacher. She said, "I do not need more money, nor do I want to marry again. I had a wonderful husband and that memory is sufficient. But," she added wistfully, "I have a sense of loneliness; not knowing what to do with my life, where to go from here."

This lady lived at the beach, in a little home near the water, and her house was surrounded by beautiful eucalyptus trees. She was comfortable but felt a sense of uselessness, which often overtakes people who have no future goal to achieve.

Her appearance was neat, with subdued clothing, but showing a sense of the artistic and creative. Something made me suggest that she take up painting as a hobby. She instantly grasped at the idea. "It's strange that you should say that. A friend of mine is taking an art course and has been urging I do the same thing, but I did not feel I had any talent."

Then I told her if she really wished to develop a talent for painting, or anything else, she should begin at once to program her subconscious mind with the Telecosmogram I Achieve, or I Create. I gave her the particular cosmic programming I thought she needed and asked her to report to me regularly on her progress.

I won't dwell at length on this woman's amazing achievements in art, but suffice it to say she did enroll in the course in landscape painting. She kept at it for two years, coming regularly to my classes from time to time. She soon was painting charming scenes of eucalyptus trees with glimpses of the shimmering, viridian sea shining through the branches; little beach houses with gardens and the sea forming a beautiful background. She joined a woman's art group the next year, had her first chance to be exhibited and won praise from all the other members. Within three years, this woman became one of Southern California's most outstanding woman artists with orders for more canvases than she could paint. She truly achieved the high goal she humbly set out to attain!

I WISH TO BECOME A SUCCESSFUL COMPOSER

5. If you love beautiful music and wish to make a success in this highly competitive field, first select the field in which you wish to achieve success. Is it to be the classical field of concert or opera? Is it to be musical comedy for stage, TV, or screen? Do you wish to go into the rock-and-roll field and write for popular recording artists? Do you long to write ballads with a love theme?

When you have selected the field of music you wish to enter, be certain first that you have an adequate musical background and if you do not have, you can enroll in classes in music and composition in evening high schools, or in special schools to be found in most good-sized towns and cities.

A Young Pianist Achieved His Great Dream

In my many years of lecturing at Carnegie Hall, I often had young, beginning pianists who appeared with my programs. There was one young man who played at our lectures and classes. He began to project Telecosmograms that he would achieve great success as a composer. He worked part time in a health food store, but he did not make enough to care for his wife and two children, so he needed a bigger income, as well as to express his desire to achieve the creation of beauty for others.

One day, Ted Mossman, for that was his name, got an inspiration to write a beautiful ballad called, "Till The End Of Time." It became a best seller of his time, and from that one song he received an offer from Hollywood to write movie themes for the studios. He moved to a beautiful home in the San Fernando Valley and achieved the perfect living that he programmed into his subconscious mind.

I Create: I instruct my higher mind to program a career for me in which I shall become a famous composer of popular songs. I absorb all beautiful sounds in nature; I attune my mind to glorious music of every type.

I respond to the sounds of nature; the sighing of the wind through the tree tops; the splashing of waves, as they gently kiss the sands at the seashore. I am in tune with the falling rains that wash clean the face of all the earth and cause flowers to bloom. I am aware of the magic sounds of crickets at eventide, which proclaim the end of day, and in the bright aura of sunrise, I am attuned to the songs of meadow larks and nightingales, as they echo the joys of a newborn day.

TELECOSMOGRAMS TO USE FOR BECOMING AN ACTOR, SINGER, DANCER, OR PUBLIC SPEAKER

All the creative arts are allied and by using the key words I Achieve or I Create, you can usually set into motion the tremendous creative intelligence of your subconscious mind to release whatever form of creative talent you desire.

I Achieve or I Create: I now project to my subconscious mind the desire to create high and inspiring ideas to project through my voice, my personality and my thoughts. I wish to charm and enchant people through my magnetism. I wish to sway public opinion through my thoughts and ideals. I desire to entertain, instruct, inspire, uplift, and ennoble millions of people through my own creative efforts.

I project the rhythm, motion, and grace of my body, my voice, and my presence, in patterns of light and beauty, bringing relaxation, enjoyment, and inspiration to audiences all over the world. I choose the medium of the public stage, TV, motion pictures, radio, and concert halls to project my talents for public acclaim. I emulate the highest standards in my field, and I perfect myself so I shall be worthy of the rich rewards that are commensurate with the effort expended.

I recall a beautiful, red-haired young actress who was under contract to RKO studios in the days when I was the advisor to the movie stars of Hollywood. We were being photographed together for a movie magazine and later we had lunch in the commissary. She was a little downcast as we ate, for she told me she had just received notice her contract was being terminated that day.

I told her not to worry, for I would give her my famous

Magic Circle, and show her how to become a great success. After about an hour, in which I programmed her higher mind with Telecosmic Power, showing her how to release magnetism from her higher mind centers, she seemed to feel better at once. When I was getting ready to go, she laughed and said, "Now, Norvell, with your Magic Circle I shall become a big star, and do you know what I'm going to do? Someday I'm coming back to RKO, buy the studio and fire everyone who just fired me!"

We both laughed at her joke and before leaving her, I said, "Would you please give me your name. I want to keep track of your future career."

The bright red-head replied, "Sure. My name's Lucille Ball."

Exactly 15 years later, Lucille Ball returned and bought RKO studios for a reputed $15,000,000 and true to her word, she fired everyone on the lot and went on to the greatest success on TV that any star has ever known!

You can literally perform miracles with Telecosmic Power when you release the hidden, magic power that resides in your mind.

You can use the key words I Create or I Achieve for any of the following professions: Lawyer, doctor, designer, architect, engineer, photographer, politician, businessman, inventor, explorer, investment broker, real estate operator, aviation, electronics, industrialist. The key words I Achieve or I Create will work their magic for you in any field you choose. Select the special work in which you wish to excel, then sit quietly each day for 15 minutes, for at least two or three weeks, feeding your subconscious mind the key words, I Achieve or I Create, with the following Telecosmograms and Telecosmographs.

I Achieve or I Create: I wish to express my creative talents in business and industry, and wish to achieve the highest goals possible of attainment.

I am a channel for the reception of brilliant ideas which I shall use in my field of endeavor. I ask that my subconscious mind now release a stream of golden ideas that will be converted into monetary success, public recognition, fame, and glory.

I ask that my subconscious mind release to me the creative ideas, the inventions, the business methods, the secret formulas, the skills, and other elements I shall require to make me reach the highest pinnacles of success in my chosen field.

When you have triggered the automatic reactions of your higher mind centers with these Telecosmograms, use the following Telecosmographs to project the cosmic pictures to your higher mind centers, of the actual fulfillment in your field of endeavor.

Sit each day and visualize quietly, your career in all its details. See your office, with your name plate on the door. Visualize the secretary sitting at the desk answering the telephone, taking orders for your goods or services. See the store you want to own, with clerks waiting on people; see the cash pouring into the cash register; visualize yourself banking it and drawing checks for the things you want.

If you want to become a lawyer, visualize yourself in court, pleading cases before a judge and jury. See yourself receiving the favorable verdict you desire for your client.

If you wish to become a successful doctor or nurse, or radiologist, or chiropractor, or to be in any of the healing arts, project the Telecosmographs of the sick people being healed, of your office being crowded with people who need your services. Visualize the hospital where you want to work, the location of your office.

If you want to become an inventor of some special object, project the mental pictures of yourself discovering a new method for using some old object, or creating something new. See yourself obtaining the patent, visualize a manufacturer buying it and producing it for mass consumption.

If you wish to become an explorer or traveler, get maps and brochures from travel agencies of the places you wish to go to, and see yourself making discoveries, taking films for showing on TV and in theaters; visualize yourself writing a book about your experiences, showing your films before large audiences.

How a Former Student of Mine Became a Famous Explorer

Some years ago, when I was lecturing in Carnegie Hall, a young man came to me for a personal interview. He wanted me to advise him on his future career. A psychic flash told me he was the type who could become a success as an explorer in foreign lands. I told him of this intuitive feeling, but he assured me that this was the furthest thing from his mind, as his background and training had not been in that direction. However, the mental seed had been planted and he left my office, telling me he would let me know how things turned out.

A few months later I heard from him, and Lewis Cotlow, for that was his name, told me that a most surprising thing had happened. He had an opportunity to go to South Africa on a safari, but not with guns, for killing animals, but with cameras, to do a motion picture of the primitive life of the pygmies and other tribes in the deepest jungles!

Months later, Lewis Cotlow returned with a fabulous motion picture in technicolor, showing these primitive tribes, and his picture was shown in theaters throughout the country and on television! But the biggest surprise came later, when he wrote a most successful book detailing his exciting adventures in darkest Africa. Since that time, he has explored the Amazon Basin in South America, New Guinea, and the Aborigines in Australia, being the first white man to bring back pictures of these fascinating, little-known tribes. His subconscious mind never forgot the mental programming I had given it years before!

USE A COSMIC SCRAPBOOK OF DESTINY FOR YOUR TELECOSMOGRAPHS

To make your Telecosmographs more impressive, so that they will be more forcibly imprinted on your subconscious mind, paste pictures, which you cut out of newspapers and magazines, into a Scrapbook of Destiny. Then review these pictures each day when you do your mental work.

If you wish to become a famous architect, or interior decorator, cut pictures out of magazines of beautiful homes, different styles of architecture, rooms furnished in various styles and colors.

If you want to design cars or other industrial objects, cut out pictures of beautiful modern cars, airplanes, and motorboats, and paste them in your Scrapbook of Destiny. Look at these daily, projecting these Telecosmographs to your higher consciousness, with the Telecosmographs that you wish to do similar work. These will then become programmed into your subconscious mind and you will be guided to methods for achieving this desirable goal.

If you want to become a stock broker, or an investment specialist, form Telecosmographs of the investment field by reading The Wall Street Journal, Fortune, Forbes, or other periodicals that specialize in investment news. Learn the stories back of the lives of rich men, such as J.P. Morgan, Vanderbilt, Rockefeller, Paul Getty, Howard Hughes, Aristotle Onassis, W. Clement Stone, Mr. Hunt, of Texas, Bernard Baruch, Woolworth, and other great industrialists and businessmen.

Study the lives of famous men and women who have achieved greatness in their particular fields. Try to learn of their mistakes, so you may avoid them; emulate their thoughts, follow their guiding inspirations, be aware of the guiding light back of their careers; a sweetheart, mother or wife, who inspired them, or the love of some person that acted as a subconscious spur to their careers. Then try to guide your own subconscious mind to duplicate the same inspiring forces to guide you to great achievement in your field.

How a Former Student of Mine Became a Successful Publisher

A young man named Melvin Powers came to my lectures and classes in Carnegie Hall and learned of the secrets that can be achieved through Telecosmic Power. He began working to evolve as a writer, with the idea that one day he might become a prominent publisher.

His subconscious mind led him to investigate everything in the field of publishing and writing. Finally he was inspired to write a book called, Dynamic Thinking. Then later, he was directed by his subconscious mind to start his own publishing firm, which he called, Wilshire Publishing. His work succeeded and only recently he was offered four million dollars for his successful business, which he rejected!

HOW TO AVOID LIFE'S PROBLEMS AND HAVE PERPETUAL GOOD LUCK WITH TELECOSMIC PROGRAMMING

What keeps man from enjoying life and having perfect living at all times?

Why cannot we duplicate the joyous events we have had forever, and be in a good luck cycle that never ends?

The answer to the first question is: Man's disturbing problems cloud his vision and keep him from enjoying the good life that is all about him.

The answer to the second question is: We can, through Telecosmic Power, perpetually duplicate our joyous events of the past and, by projecting them into the future, with certain key Telecosmograms and Telecosmographs, we can continue swinging the pendulum of good luck, happy experiences, and beautiful remembrances forever in the direction of the Perfect Life we desire.

There are basic problems that people have in common. Over the centuries, they have been mentally programmed to believe certain things about themselves. They become used to thinking in terms of these limitations and each succeeding generation takes on the same burdens and perpetuates the myth that God intended man to suffer as some kind of punishment for his sins!

THERE IS ONLY ONE SIN!

In a study of cosmic laws and spiritual phenomena, we learn that there is only one sin. This is the sin against your own, higher subconscious mind, when you negate its power, diminish its glory, weaken its strength, and dim its glorious vision for your future.

A Woman Believed in Bad Luck, So She Had It!

As an example of how negative programming works, even to create bad luck cycles, a woman once came into our work in New York City, complaining that the whole world seemed to be against her. She believed it was because she was born under an unlucky star. Some astrologer had told her she was born in the sign of Capricorn, between December 21 and January 20, and was ruled by the evil planet Saturn.

She wailed, at her first interview with me, "I have been cursed ever since I was born! It must be the evil influence of Saturn. My parents died when I was five; I was put into an orphanage. Every other child was adopted by fairly well-to-do foster parents, but I remained in the orphanage for years. When I was finally adopted, it was as a maid in someone's home!"

Then she went on and told me of how she had been mistreated by life. She worked as a maid and never had a high school education, so could not improve her lot in life. She married when she was nineteen so she could get out of working so hard. Her husband turned out to be a woman-chaser and an alcoholic! She had one child and then divorced this man. Every step of the way, she told me, had been difficult and harsh, exactly what a typical Saturn person would expect from his stars!

I instantly corrected this woman's thinking about the evil influences of Saturn, or having been born in the sign of Capricorn, by telling her that some of our greatest men and women have been born in Capricorn, and that Saturn, instead of being a planet of evil, could be transmuted into one of good, by self-discipline and refusing to give in to life's problems.

I told her some of the richest men were born in Capricorn, including Howard Hughes, Aristotle Onassis, and even President Nixon, who had overcome utter defeat at one time in his career to become President of the United States twice!

I gave this woman a complete re-programming of her subconscious mind with the key words I Negate, I Declare, I Adjust, I Remove, and I Conquer, showing her how to use them with the appropriate Telecosmograms to her subconscious mind, and then asked her to report to me within one month's time.

She began her new regime of using Teleccsmic Power and at the end of the month I wish you could have seen the amazing change in this woman!

She told me that after only one week's time, things began to change for her. When her old problems began to rise, such as difficulties with her boss, or arguments with her landlady or misunderstandings with her son, she would trigger the automatic subconscious mind with the key words I Declare; and the entire Telecosmogram that she had programmed within her subconscious would seem to flash before her eyes, as a drowning man's life is said to flash before his eyes.

I Declare: Peace in my mind and my environment. I am not subjected to the misfortunes and problems of the outer world. I withdraw within my citadel of spirit and strength and conquer my mind, my tongue and my temper.

Then, for other situations that proved troublesome, such as friction with store clerks and grocery clerks, waiters, and people in her office, she would flash to her subconscious mind the key words I Remove; and all the Telecosmograms attached would bubble to the surface of her consciousness.

I Remove: All obstacles and obstructions are now instantly removed. I am the center of peace and calm. No outer force has power to disturb my inner tranquillity. I remove friction, I remove opposition; I remove discord and anger and dwell in a core of inner stillness in which all my problems are instantly dissolved by the light of truth and justice.

She had often had trouble with office machinery, such as the copying machine and typewriter, and one day she had the usual problems arise, when she had a deadline and had to have copy out at a certain time. The machine stuck, and normally she would have flown into a rage and stormed and ranted to everyone in the office. On this day, she told me, she invoked the key words I Conquer; and the Telecosmograms flooded into her subconscious mind for those two words.

I Conquer: All persons, conditions and objects in my environment are subject to a higher law than the material and physical. I invoke that law in this moment. I conquer my temper and tongue; I conquer time and space. I Remove all obstructions and impediments and see only the perfect flow of the stream of consciousness removing every negative force from my mind, body and environment.

Soon the machine was humming once again and she finished her work well under the deadline. She ended her days at the office fresh and unruffled. Then this power began to work in her relationships with other people. She had never been able to get along with an aunt, who was always criticizing her. She invoked the key words I Adjust with the Telecosmograms:

That which I cannot change I shall adjust to. I am now in harmony with all people and direct love, understanding, and forgiveness to them. I adjust to change, I adjust to discord by holding thoughts of harmony within myself.

She told me that her aunt stopped ranting and railing against her and actually seemed more agreeable and kindly!

This woman had even changed the bad luck symbols for the sign of Capricorn into good luck ones. She told me with a radiant smile, "I've even added another key word to program my subconscious mind with good luck for Saturn and Capricorn. It is I Transmute, and I project the Telecosmogram:

I Transmute the planet Saturn into good luck and happy experiences. I gain from being born under this lucky star, for I become disciplined, cautious, and fearless. It gives me power to change my life and gives me the patience and forbearance to put up with that which I cannot change.

THE WAY TO DISSOLVE PROBLEMS AND HAVE PERPETUAL GOOD LUCK WITH TELECOSMIC POWER

1. Romantic and Marriage Problems

Most romantic and marriage problems may be avoided if you learn how to anticipate them and then side-step them.

Clashes of will often occur, in which you want to do one thing and the love partner has an opposing desire.

Invoke these key words I Co-operate and the Telecosmogram:

There are two sides to everything. I recognize each person's right to his private opinion. I shall not force my opinion nor my will on my love partner. We are united in bonds of mutual love and respect for each other. I co-operate fully to establish harmony and unity in our relationship.

Very often problems arise in a marriage that are not the fault of either partner. These can be due to illness, business or financial problems, or other matters which cast a shadow over the marriage. Use the key words: I Dissolve and flash the Telecosmograms:

I Dissolve: All problems that now afflict my life are here and now dissolved by the light of truth. I know that the means are at hand to overcome all negative conditions of every kind in my marriage. We are united in bonds of love and no external force can intrude itself in our lives. This problem is now dissolving and will not return again to cloud our love happiness.

How a Young Married Couple Overcame Marital Problems

One young couple who came to me for counseling, had been married only one year and were constantly having quarrels. She claimed he was unjustly jealous; he claimed that she was overly-possessive, never praised his efforts and was under the control of a dominating mother.

How could this couple resolve their serious differences? Neither would give in or admit he or she was in the wrong.

I discussed the problem thoroughly and pointed out that they both had right on their side and both were in the wrong, in some ways. I then counseled them to stop blaming each other and to use Telecosmic Power, which had brought them together in the first place. This cosmic intelligence certainly must have believed they were soul mates, and they must not let any trivial matters stand in the way of their fulfillment in love and marriage.

The first key words I gave them were I Trust. They were to write this down in big block letters on a piece of paper where they could both read it whenever they shaved, made up, arose in the morning or retired at night. Then they were to trigger the following Telecosmograms with these key words:

I Trust: We are bound together in mutual trust, love, and respect. It is demeaning to be suspicious and jealous and shows pettiness that is not worthy of our great love.

To overcome the problem of over-possessiveness, I gave them the key words I Release, to be used with the following Telecosmograms:

I Release: My mind is now released from all sense of possessiveness. Love must be freely given and freely taken and I cannot hold that which is not mine. I now release my mate, having full trust that he will want to share every joyous experience with me fully.

To conquer the tendency on his wife's part not to praise him and his efforts to succeed, which bothered this young man, I gave them the key words I Praise with the following Telecosmograms:

I Praise: I recognize the need for giving credit when it is deserved and I now praise my mate for his efforts to make a success in his work.

Of course the key words in any romantic problem or marital difficulty, which both persons should use every day, are I Love with the Telecosmograms:

I Love: We are united in bonds of love and our union is sanctioned by God and Man. Together we can overcome all problems. Love requires mutual respect, tolerance, and a sense of freedom. We recognize we are, first, individuals with different tastes and opinions. In the bonds of love we share our mutual experiences but do not demand complete subjugation of the other's personality or life. Love conquers all things and we are permanently united in love that will endure forever.

This young couple practiced these Telecosmograms for a few weeks and then reported to me that most of their differences were responding to Telecosmic Power treatment and that they were getting along better than ever before.

2. Financial Problems, Lack of Money, Wrong Work, and Restrictions on Income

Do you suffer from constant lack of money? Do your bills keep mounting up while income dwindles? Are you constantly at a financial crisis in your life?

Most people suffer from lack of money; even millionaires often need an extra million or two to keep them from feeling poor! I remember once at a party at my home, the noted hotel man, Conrad Hilton, was talking to someone nearby who was complaining that he was in desperate need of money as he owed at that moment $30,000. Hilton laughed and said, "Is that all you owe? You're lucky! I owe $80,000,000 right this moment. The more you owe the richer you are."

To handle financial problems, realize that your subconscious mind knows how to materialize money for your every need. You have lived up to this moment and all your needs have been met. If you can program your higher mind to bring you a steady flow of money to fulfill your every wish it will remove this problem from your mind forever.

The key words I Increase should be used to start your subconscious mind working to bring you more money. Use these key words with the following Telecosmograms for money:

I Increase: My flow of money now obeys the impulses of my subconscious mind and begins to come to me from unexpected, as well as expected sources. There is enormous wealth in the universe and I now claim my share of money, goods, houses, lands, possessions of every kind. Money, or the equivalent of money, now flow into my pockets and into my bank accounts. I am blessed with abundance and riches to meet my every need.

A young woman was having severe financial problems, owing to heavy hospital expenses that had drained her savings. Her mother was severely ill and there seemed no way out of their extreme financial crisis. The father had died some years before and mother and daughter were alone.

This young woman came into our work and learned about how she could begin the flow of money into her life by using Telecosmic Power. She started programming the key words I Increase, each day for two weeks, with the above Telecosmograms. She couldn't possibly see where this money would come from, but she had faith that, somehow, her mother's and her needs would be met.

In exactly one month, they received a letter from an attorney in Indianapolis telling them that an uncle had died leaving a will in which he had left $65,000 to his only relative—his brother! The brother happened to be this girl's father, and her mother's husband. Her uncle had come from Greece, 40 years ago, and opened a small restaurant in Indianapolis, gradually expanding until he had a bigger place. His estate was now worth close to $200,000 and he had left his brother a sizable portion of it. The girl and her mother received the cash in a short time, and their financial problems were solved.

One woman in our lecture work in New York was always trying to win contests to get extra money. She had little luck until she began to program her subconscious mind with the key words I Win and the Telecosmograms:

I Win: I shall have good luck in everything I attempt. I wish to win money from contests and on TV games. I program my higher mind with success in these competitive games and I know that I am in a winning cycle.

She kept projecting these Telecosmograms, and with them, each day, she projected the Telecosmographs that she would win large sums of money and achieve financial independence.

She entered a newspaper contest giving away $10,000 as first prize in a big Wheel-Of-Fortune, contest depending on lucky birthdates. The second prize was $5,000. She cut out the rules of the contest and pasted them on a wall where she could project them with Telecosmographs, each day, that she would win the money; she projected how she would spend it; the gifts she would buy; the things she would do.

When the winners were announced, she found she had won second prize!

She kept up her mental programming with the key words I Win; and on the next TV show she won the right to compete in a game where she had the right to choose a smaller prize or a hidden one. She chose the hidden one and it turned out to be an automobile worth $4,000!

Another person who tried this system for winning money through gambling, also tried his luck in Las Vegas. He put $5.00 down on number 26 in roulette and just before the ball fell something told him to change it to number 28. Number 28 came up paying him $35. for each $1. He went on projecting the Telecosmogram I Win, until he had accumulated the sum of $850. He told me that on four visits to Las Vegas, he won from $350 to $500 each time, and after that he no longer played. He lived in Los Angeles and the trip to Las Vegas was a short one, so he drove there several times with friends.

However, let me give a warning, that this system is not to be encouraged for gambling, when it comes to absolute dependence on it as a source of income. It is to be used for fun, or when one can afford to risk a little money without fear of being impoverished.

However this same system of invoking the I Win, key words and the Telecosmograms for winning given above, can be used for making money in the stock market, or for investing in real estate or other ventures.

One man invoked the key words I Win, and had a dream that a bell was ringing, so he checked with his broker and found that a stock named Packard Bell was selling for $9.00 a share. He bought a thousand shares of the stock and sold it at $42 a share! He tried this system with many stocks and won on most of them.

A woman had been most unfortunate in love and marriage, having married and divorced three times. When she came into my office for a consultation the first thing she said was, "I guess I was born to lose in life! Even love has passed me by."

I gave her the magic key words I Win, to apply to her life, with suitable Telecosmograms that fitted her exact needs for love and marriage. Within three weeks, this woman was engaged to marry a man who seemed to be her exact soul mate!

Yes, these Telecosmograms with I Win can be applied to more than just making money. You are trying to win in the greatest game of all, life. You can invoke these higher rules of the game and win out in business, finances, friendship, love happiness, and even peace of mind, which makes for perfect living!

3. Problems Dealing with Human Relationships in Business, Personal, and Social Life

It is true that many of our problems are due to people. Those who daily touch our lives in business and social life, often have the power to disturb us and disrupt our lives. We react emotionally to human beings and we can get some of our greatest joys, as well as some of our worst headaches, from other people.

Our co-workers in business relationships often are vitally important, for we spend many hours in their presence. Many times the way we get along with them determines our own progress and evolvment, our own happiness or misery, and can even determine our state of health.

A woman who worked in a large office with a group of men and women had many sharp edges in her relationships with others. She was often distracted to the verge of tears, and sought out our work to find out what she could do to find an easier way of coping with her problems in the office.

After talking to this woman for only five minutes I discovered that she opposed everything that anyone said to her. If I agreed with her she would take an opposite tack and say, "No, but it isn't that way—it's this way." Then I would change my tactics and say, "Yes, of course, it is." And she would instantly begin to veer in another direction. She suffered from extreme opposition to everything that others said or did. This made it difficult for her to take orders or to get along with others. Soon she had a reputation as a trouble maker in her office. When others were promoted or given advances in salary, this woman was left out of things. She had thought of making a change in her work until I showed her how she could easily program her subconscious mind to get along perfectly with others. She followed my suggestions and used three key words, which put her over the hurdle of opposition and made her one of the best-liked women in her office. She won a promotion within one month from the time she began her mental programming!

The key words for dealing with people in human relationships are I Agree. The Telecosmograms to flash into your subconscious mind whenever you think or say the words I Agree, are:

I flow with the tide of public opinion. I do not oppose it. I am in agreement with all that is good, honorable and honest. I now program harmony and unity in my environment. I radiate an aura of confidence, poise, inner peace and power. Others instantly recognize that I am agreeable, pleasant, and friendly and they will react in like manner.

Another woman was always having run-ins with her friends at social gatherings. She bristled when things did not go her way. She said sharp, cutting things that instantly turned people against her. She took pride in the fact that she was "Honest with people." If she didn't like a woman's dress, she told her so. If she thought a person was lying, she let him know she thought so. She foisted her political opinions on others, she had decided opinions about almost everything and she did not hesitate in expressing them.

Soon people stopped inviting this woman to their homes and she was compelled to seek assistance. This was when she first came to me. I gave this woman the key words I Enjoy and I Harmonize, to use with the following Telecosmogram.

I Enjoy: I am happy to be in the presence of people who are compatible and friendly and I fully enjoy my friends and the social atmosphere they create. I see the good side of people and I am in harmony with good and beauty and joy. I now gain pleasure from my associations with others and I remove all sharp edges from my personality.

I Harmonize: People around me shall feel the sense of harmony and peace that I project. It is not important that I correct or criticize people. I now program my higher mind to harmony, joy and peace and I become harmonious with everyone in my environment.

When this woman had programmed the above Telecosmograms for only a few weeks she became one of the most charming hostesses in Beverly Hills and Bel Air society in California, and was much sought after by others.

HOW TO TAKE THE POWER OUT OF PROBLEMS

Whenever a problem arises in your life, you can remove its sting, so to speak, by renaming it. Instead of saying you have a problem, which sets up all kinds of subconscious resistance—owing to the centuries in which man has been baffled by enormous problems—call it a challenge, or a life experience. By this method, every time you have a tendency to become annoyed and angered by the numerous rebuffs that life seems to give you, change your entire attitude and use the key words I Adjust. Then, after you have said I Adjust a few times, you will automatically trigger the following Telecosmograms and program your subconscious mind with the solution to the challenge.

I Adjust: I now program my mind to handle all of life's challenges competently and without causing me pain, anger or annoyance. I know there is a solution to this disturbing challenge and I know that the means are at hand to solve it and remove it from my life. I am confident that this challenge is now being removed and that my mind shall be able to cope with it competently and efficiently.

REFUSE TO SEE THE DARK SIDE OF LIFE

A man who came to me for counseling could see only the dark side of life. He never was able to enjoy the bright, happy moments that are in every person's life. He wailed, "Everything is getting worse. The war will never end in Vietnam. Our young people are rebelling. The streets are dangerous at night. We'll have a social revolution here in America. There will surely be an atomic war that will destroy all of us!"

This man had built such phantoms of fear and destruction in his subconscious mind that he had neglected all his good. His wife of 25 years became weary of listening to his tirade of negativity and left him. His three grown children stopped coming to visit him. His business was failing, and his health had dangerously deteriorated. He was actually destroying himself by building a mental atmosphere of fear, hate, and destruction. It was cancelling out all the natural bright, happy, and constructive forces of his subconscious mind.

I gave this man several interviews in which I helped him program a complete new subconscious mental atmosphere, using Telecosmic Power and the key words I Change, and the following Telecosmograms which would be triggered several times a day.

I Change: My entire mental attitude must be changed from negative to positive. I invoke Telecosmic power to help me see only the bright side of life. Life is filled with joyous experiences. Good is on all sides. Life always banishes darkness. The shadows of fear, hate, and anxiety are now being banished by the bright light of my subconscious mind. I refuse to surrender my divine heritage of joy, love, peace of mind, riches, health, friendship, and good. I now put myself in the divine circuit of change and I become one with my subconscious mind power for perfect living.

It took this man two months to really change his conditions of life, but he gradually began to remove the shadows and fears from his subconscious mind. He told me later that it was like taking a mental bath when he did his Telecosmograms nightly, making him feel once again whole and clean. He saw his wife and children frequently and they saw the amazing change in his mental attitude and they returned to him, promising to help him continue on the upward path to a perfect healing.

HOW TO MASTER FATE AND CONTROL YOUR DESTINY 5 THROUGH TELECOSMOGRAPH PROJECTIONS

Your future destiny is under your direct control. You can shape your stream of consciousness by using Telecosmograph projections to the Cosmic Mind that rules the universe, and bring everything into existence that you put into your higher consciousness.

Do you need more money for some specific purpose?

Do you require a physical healing of a sick body?

Would you like to have greater love and marriage happiness?

Are you struggling to find your right work, a bigger income than you now have?

Do you long for fame, fortune, new adventures in living?

All these things, and much more, can be yours when you once learn how to invoke the cosmic law of Telecosmograph projection.

Let us see how this higher power works in the realm of nature.

Everything in the cosmos issues from a cosmic matrix, in which the exact image of everything in creation is formed through invisible pulsations of cosmic energy . . . what Einstein, in his last works at Princeton before his death, labeled, Cosmic Spirit. These pin points of spiritual energy, when they cross each other, manifest in the visible universe as physical phenomena or matter. They form trees, flowers, rock formations, water, birds, insects, animals, and in the highest vibratory form of creative energy—man himself, with all his vast armamentarium of cosmic powers.

THE TELECOSMOGRAPHS FOR ALL CREATION ARE IN THE COSMIC MEMORY BANK OF GOD

The creative forms, or Telecosmographs, for all creation lie in the hidden, invisible universe in, what might be called, the cosmic memory bank of God. A spiritual command sends the atoms of time and space hurtling from the womb of time, into crystallized forms that give us everything we need to fulfill our destinies as human beings.

The first creative command in the Bible is given in the first chapter of Genesis, verses 1-3:

In the beginning God created the heaven and the earth. And the earth was without form, and void; and darkness was upon the face of the deep. And the Spirit of God moved upon the face of the waters. And God said, Let there be light: and there was light.

The creative command "Let there be light" is analogous to your mental commands to your subconscious mind to release the light of infinite intelligence to shape and mold your destiny.

Your subconscious mind contains the spiritual form or cosmic matrix for everything you will ever need in your life to give you perfect living. To invoke this higher power you must release the cosmic images or pictures, which we call Telecosmographs, in the Science of Telecosmic Power.

Later in the first chapter of Genesis, this creative power began to manifest in human form, after God's creative commands brought forth living creatures after his kind.

Verses 26 and 27 give this law of the cosmic matrix, in which man is created:

And God said, Let us make man in our image, after our likeness: and let them have dominion over the fish of the sea, and over the fowl of the air, and over the cattle, and over all the earth, and over every creeping thing that creepeth upon the earth.

56 HOW TO MASTER FATE AND CONTROL YOUR DESTINY

So God created man in his own image, in the image of God created he him; male and female created he them.

Then the Cosmic Intelligence, we call God, issued five stupendous Cosmic Telecosmograms, in verbs of dynamic action, which we may use when we want to invoke the same creative power that God, Himself, used (Verses 28 and 29).

And God blessed them, and God said unto them, Be fruitful, and multiply, and replenish the earth, and subdue it: and have dominion over the fish of the sea, and over the fowl of the air, and over every living thing that moveth upon the earth.

And God said, Behold, I have given you every herb bearing seed, which is upon the face of the earth, and every tree, in the which is the fruit of a tree yielding seed; to you it shall be for meat.

To a student of cosmic philosophy, these above creative commands set the magnificent stage for the evolvement of all forms of creation. In the seed, or cosmic matrix. God has placed everything that man shall require for his triumphant journey through time and space.

The five creative commands, which are really Telecosmograms, given in Verse 28, are:

1. To fructify.
2. To multiply.
3. To replenish.
4. To subdue.
5. To dominate or have dominion over all.

The seed is the mental picture that we put into the cosmic matrix to project to the outer world.

This seed possesses within its dream-like substance, the Telecosmograph or picture of what it is to create through the invisible cosmic protoplasm that makes up all creation.

This is the first law, To Fructify or to be fruitful. Man's mind is a creative channel through which he shapes the world of his choice. When you duplicate this cosmic process of creation, you can plant the seedlings of reality in your subconscious mind and let the light of cosmic intelligence nourish them, as the physical sun gives life to the seeds that are planted in the womb of earth.

HOW TELECOSMOGRAPHS WORK TO CREATE YOUR DESTINY

To understand fully how this mystical, creative cosmic mind works to project your Telecosmographs to the outer world of reality, visualize a motion picture projector being like your physical brain. Running through the projector is film, upon which are printed photographs. Your mind is analogous to the film. You have imprinted Telecosmographs, pictures of the events you want to be projected to the outer world as your destiny. These will externalize as the events in your life.

The light that will project these Telecosmographs to the screen of the outer world, is the Cosmic Intelligence, which we call God. This light, working through your subconscious mind, is created by the intensity of your desires for successful living.

How One Man Got $5,000 in One Month through the Projection of Telecosmographs for Money

A member of our lecture work in San Diego, California, wanted the sum of $10,000. He began to invoke the Telecosmographs of all the things he and his wife could do with that money. I told him to write out a check made out to himself, for the sum of $10,000. He was to sign the check, God, the Universal Banker. Then, every morning when he arose and every night when he retired, he was to look at this check drawn on the cosmic bank. He was mentally to project the Telecosmographs of the things he wanted to buy, the trips he would take, the future car, the house he would like to own. This $10,000 was to be a kind of down payment on all the things he desired, with more to come when he had expanded his consciousness to bigger sums.

After projecting the Telecosmogram I Desire, with the Telecosmographs of the things he wanted for only a few days, he began to receive money from unexpected sources, such as $50 and $100. These he faithfully wrote down on the back of his check, constantly projecting the full amount. Within one month, he had his full $5,000! Then he showed me his cosmic bookkeeping on the back of his check, showing how the money had come to him, inexorably and mysteriously, until half of it was attained. I left San Diego then, but I am certain that he got the other $5,000 exactly as he did the first, by projecting his Telecosmographs daily.

This man's wife also had an amazing demonstration of how Telecosmic Power works through Telecosmographs. She had for some years been collecting beautiful Indian jewelry, until she had quite a valuable collection. Then, when she learned in our classes about how to project Telecosmographs for things she wanted, she began to project the picture of herself owning a small jewelry store that featured Indian jewelry, made of silver and turquoise. Two weeks after she began her Telecosmographic projections, a reporter from a San Diego newspaper heard from a friend about her collection of Indian jewelry and interviewed her, with photographs of her most outstanding pieces of jewelry. This appeared in the local papers.

A few days later, this woman received a letter from another person who had seen the interview in the paper. She owned a jewelry store that specialized in Indian art and offered to sell it to her with nothing down, and small monthly payments! This woman moved into the jewelry business, displaying her fine collection, and cashing in on the publicity she had received! She ascribed this miracle to Telecosmic Power.

HOW YOU MAY USE TELECOSMOGRAPHS TO CONTROL YOUR DESTINY AND SHAPE YOUR FUTURE LIFE

1. Use the key words, I Fructify, and see your mind as the cosmic matrix in which you plant the seed you want to grow in your Garden of Destiny.

Use the following Telecosmograph: Visualize the golden sun shining earthward, sending its creative life energy to you and your mind and body. Every time you are aware of sunshine, your subconscious mind will be triggered with the following Telecosmogram:

I Fructify: I now plant the seedlings of reality in my subconscious mind to mature the rich harvest of abundance in my garden of Destiny.

The Telecosmograph of the golden sun now triggers in the matrix of my subconscious mind the reality of $10,000. (You may trigger as big a sum as you have faith in, but you can start with smaller sums at first, until you have faith in this Telecosmic Power to manifest as much as you need.)

I now project the things that I shall do with the money I desire.

As the golden sun gives creative life to earth, causing it to bloom with every good and precious gift for my use and enjoyment, so too, in this moment the spiritual sun of creative inspiration and life will manifest for me the things that I desire to give me perfect living on every plane of consciousness.

2. Now use the second Telecosmogram, to project into the matrix of your subconscious mind the pictures of the things you desire. I Multiply. Project the following Telecosmographs.

I Multiply: Now my subconscious mind will be triggered to release to me every idea that can increase and multiply my good. I am aware that the golden sun releases a multiplicity of treasures for earth-dwellers to use and enjoy and I now claim my cosmic heritage of money, possessions, houses, lands, jewels, stocks, automobiles, household furnishings, silver, gold, and other riches that will bless my life with plenty.

3. If you feel that you are not receiving enough of the good things of life, and you suffer from any form of mental, physical or material impoverishment, invoke the third Telecosmogram, I Replenish.

In my mental matrix I now plant the seed of joy, and my happiness is daily replenished by joyous experiences.

I now plant the mental seed of love in my cosmic matrix, and I become loving and I attract loving experiences.

I now put into my mental matrix the quality of beauty, and I discover everything lovely that exists in the universe. The mantle of beauty now cloaks all life's harsh experiences and I become a magnet, attracting beautiful objects, beautiful experiences, and people who possess beautiful souls.

A young woman who came to my lectures in New York felt she was less than beautiful and it was the regret of her life that she could not be as beautiful as Elizabeth Taylor. I pointed out to her that she could flash Telecosmographs of eternal loveliness to her subconscious mind and it would fashion her features and her expression in the mold of loveliness.

I also told her that I had met some of the most so-called beautiful women in the world, and actually they did not possess beautiful features. The Duchess of Windsor, who took a king off a throne, was not a raving beauty. I spent an evening with her and the Duke of Windsor, at the Balkan Grill in Vienna, and found that the Duchess was rather plain of features and did not have a perfect figure, but the light that shone through her face made her charming. This was the magnetism that caused her to be a scintillating personality.

On Aristotle Onassis' yacht, the Christina, in the harbor of Piraeus, I once met three very famous women, who were reputed beauties and found that these three women had an inner, spiritual radiance that transcended their physical bodies. The three were: Greta Garbo, Elizabeth Taylor, and Maria Callas, the noted opera star. I had given Elizabeth Taylor my famous Magic Circle when she was 14 years old, at the M.G.M. studios in Hollywood, and despite the fact her face is not perfectly balanced and her features are rather irregular, she has developed an inner quality of beauty that overcomes physical dimensions.

Garbo, whom I had met many years before in Hollywood, and who also possesses this inner sense of soul beauty, has not been considered a raving beauty by artists, for her mouth is too large; her nose is irregular, and her eyes are too small; but the quality that made Greta Garbo one of the screen's greatest beauties, is something above and beyond the physical form; it is an inner spiritual light, an image of beauty that radiates from her soul and gives the illusion of great beauty on the screen.

Maria Callas, who once weighed 200 pounds, would not ordinarily be called a beautiful woman, but all those who have ever heard her glorious voice, in opera or concert, must admit that she has a commanding presence and a majestic magic circle that projects in her golden voice and enchants the senses of all those who see and hear her.

"Yes, you can project Telecosmographs of beauty," I told a certain young woman who had a social problem, "and they will transform your physical self, giving you inner beauty."

This young lady began to program her subconscious mind with everything beautiful she could think and see. Using the key words I Replenish, she deliberately set out to search for beauty, as a lapidary searches for precious gems. She used the Telecosmograms given above for beauty. She listened to beautiful music and visualized long-stemmed roses swaying in a beautiful garden, to the whispering of the wind. When she walked, she duplicated the graceful rhythm of undulating trees that seem to be dancing to cosmic music.

She triggered her subconscious mind to make her facial expressions joyous and uplifted, as though she had a beautiful secret that caused her face to be perpetually uplifted in a radiant smile.

She duplicated the most beautiful sounds in classical music, and she tried to capture the rhythm and cadence of muted violins and the murmur of distant harps. She soon was able to lower her voice to a magnetic pitch that made people hang onto her every word with bated breath.

This young lady, with plain features, soon radiated a magical quality in her face and voice that gave the illusion of great beauty. She met a handsome young architect at a party one night, who was enchanted by her presence. They were married and now have a beautiful family and are supremely happy.

4. You can use another cosmic symbol to help you trigger your subconscious mind and give you power to control your destiny and achieve perfect living.

The silvery moon is a perfect symbol to flash Telecosmographs to your higher mind. Think of the moon as the secondary planet in our solar system that releases magnetism, and causes the tides to ebb and flow. As it circles around the earth and around the sun, this lesser body reflects the light of the sun, and sails majestically and serenely through the firmament, adding beauty and romance to the long night.

The moon can flash to your subconscious mind the Telecosmographs of magnetic power, of inner peace and serenity, of romantic heart-and-soul yearning for true love. To trigger your subconscious mind with the symbol of the moon use the fourth Telecosmogram found in the Bible:

To Subdue. This relates to the acculturation process by which we are able to subdue the animal nature of greed, selfishness, lust, hate, jealousy, domination, and licentiousness.

Magnetism flows through your higher mind centers, when you control your physical nature and rise into the realm of intellect and spirit. To program Telecosmograms that fit your every need, sit quietly and concentrate the power of your mind on control and conquest of yourself. Hold a pose quietly for a few moments and feel a sense of surging power within. Project the following Telecosmograms:

I Subdue: I now project to my subconscious mind the serenity, peace, poise, and power represented by the lambent, lovely full moon. In its magnetic orbit, I now revolve. I attract people who gravitate around me with friendship and warmth. I am the recipient of divine bounties, in which my mental magnetism attracts all the good things of life. I magnetize my heart and soul with the eternal romantic image of divine love, in which I am fulfilled, joyous, and complete.

TO OVERCOME ANGER AND ANNOYANCE

To overcome anger or annoyance when someone says or does something that upsets your inner poise, quickly flash the Telecosmograph of a full silvery moon, and repeat five or ten times the key words I Subdue. You will automatically be put into a peaceful state of mind where your temper will be controlled and you will feel peaceful and serene.

TO CONQUER FEELINGS OF INFERIORITY

To conquer feelings of inferiority in any social situation where you may feel awkward or inadequate, quickly flash the Telecosmograph of the full, silvery moon, and then try to reflect its aloofness and serenity, while you say the key words, I Subdue, several times. You will then be able to subdue your feelings of inadequacy and the magnetic pull of the moon will give your subconscious mind the uplift it needs to cause you to rise above feelings of inferiority and inadequacy.

TO BECOME MORE PATIENT WITH PEOPLE

If you become impatient with some person who rubs you the wrong way, or someone in your family who constantly irritates you with their domination, their criticism or other negative habits, quickly say the key words, I Subdue several times to yourself, and flash the Telecosmograph of the full, silvery moon to your higher mind centers. You will instantly trigger reactions of patience, harmony and love within your mind and the person will no longer have power to disturb you.

TO RELEASE CREATIVE OR ARTISTIC POWER

If you wish to create something beautiful, such as art, music, poetry, literature, or to invent some object, or get an idea for a new business project, flash the key words I Subdue, to your subconscious mind and the Telecosmograph of the full moon. It will trigger the creative magnetism that lies within your subconscious mind, making you a receptive channel for great ideas.

5. To use the fifth Telecosmogram from the Bible, that can help you achieve conquest of life and control your destiny, say the key words I Dominate, and flash the Telecosmographs to your subconscious mind represented by the blue skies above, or the falling rain. Each time the sun is shining and the sky is blue, you will receive the subconscious stimulus:

You can overcome every situation in life. You were born to rule and dominate the elements of nature. You can exercise your mental power over every situation in your life and master it. The control of your destiny is within your own hands.

TO MASTER MOODINESS AND DEPRESSION

Each time it rains, and you are inclined to feel moody or depressed, flash the key words I Dominate, to your subconscious mind and the rain becomes the Telecosmograph that says to your subconscious mind: As rain is essential to the earth's growth, so, too, the minor problems and challenges of life are needed to give spiritual growth to man's soul. As the gentle rains cleanse the earth of all its gross and carnal forces, so too, you will transmute all earth's negative forces of lack and limitation, into the glittering harvest of riches and abundance, blessing all mankind.

Let the falling rain flash to your subconscious mind the Telecosmographs of happiness and fertility. Your mental seeds have been planted in the garden of destiny and now they are being given the mental inspiration and stimulus that will cause them to bloom in verdant crops of joy, love, friendship, treasures, health, and abundance of every kind.

Similarly, you can use symbols all around you to trigger subconscious reactions and bring you instant results. For instance, when you drive through the country and see beautiful homes, let each home be a Telecosmograph sent to your subconscious mind which flashes the message:

Happiness begins in the home. I now release the subconscious power that will guide me to the purchase of my own home, where I shall find eternal peace and serenity.

Every time you enter through a door, let it become a Telecosmograph to your subconscious mind, reminding you of the broader expansion of consciousness which you may achieve when you trigger subconscious reaction with the key words, I Enter. You enter into great new experiences every time you go out of a door to the outer world. In the morning, when you exit to go to your place of business, let it flash to your subconscious mind the Telecosmograph of new experiences, better business prospects, more money from unexpected sources, greater sales for that day, happier experiences with your co-workers.

A real estate salesman I once knew in California, who studied with me, used the Telecosmograph system to flash a perpetual message to his subconscious mind that every time he saw a door, or a house, he would be programmed to give the best sales talk of his life to his next client. Within one month, he was selling double the number of houses that other salesmen sold!

A young lady in Long Beach, California, who learned how to use Telecosmic Power, told me there were no opportunities for her in that city, where there were many elderly, retired people. I told her to use the symbol of the Door to trigger the subconscious message:

I exit from this city of limitation, and enter into the broader expanses of the world, where I shall attract my greater destiny.

Within two weeks, this lady received an offer to go to San Francisco as a representative for a firm handling home products. She made the move and found the broader field of experience that she craved, made more money, and was happier than she had been in her former limited domain.

A Young Man Overcame Suicidal Tendencies

A young man whom I met on a plane going to Athens, Greece told me that he was periodically depressed and often thought of ending it all. He had just broken off with his girl friend, to whom he had been engaged to be married, when she fell in love with another young man. I gave him this system of Telecosmic power to help relieve him of depression and moodiness. He especially hated the rain and was going back to his home country Greece, where the sun shines almost the year round.

I told him how to flash Telecosmographs using the sun and even the rain, for his complete healing. He was to visualize the sun as giving him life and energy and dissolving his problems. And when he saw rain, he was to flash the key words I Grow, I Evolve. He kept in touch with me after reaching Athens, and told me he had improved within one week. In his village, where he went for a visit, he met a beautiful young lady and believed he could love her and marry her. Truly, the romantic sun quickly rose on his new mental horizons!

You possess a hidden genius within your subconscious and superconscious minds. No matter your present level of mental activity, you can increase the power of your mind, through Telecosmic forces, to raise your IQ to the level of a genius!

College students were recently tested in the laboratories with the new brain wave techniques and Alpha Bio-feedback. These students lacked ability to concentrate, made consistently low grades in their studies, and had very poor memories.

These students were put into the Theta brain wave state, which means that their brain waves on the electroencephalograph, measured from between 4 to 7 cycles per second. Then they were programmed subconsciously by being told to concentrate their minds on holding certain facts, words, numbers, or other information in their minds while they meditated.

After a few such treatments, it was discovered that these slow-learning students suddenly could retain anything they read or heard and instantly recall it whenever they put themselves back into the state of meditation known as Theta!

This new breakthrough in the science of mind makes it possible now for any person to build a perfect memory, to be able to read more rapidly and retain what he has read, to be able to break negative habits, such as smoking, drinking, or dope addiction, and any one of dozens of other defects.

With this programming of your subconscious and super-conscious minds with Telecosmic Power, you may bypass the normal avenues of laborious effort required to learn something and have an instant apperception of anything you want to learn. You can master foreign languages in this way; you can increase your skill in assembling your thoughts and ideas, and become a proficient public speaker in a short time; you can use this new science to help you evolve talents that you did not know you had, such as writing great novels, painting beautiful pictures, creating magnificent poetry, inventing useful objects, or having great business ideas that could make you millions. There is no limit to Telecosmic Power when you once discover that you have a hidden genius within your mind, which you may summon to do all your difficult tasks and bring you perfect living!

A 65-year-old man, who came to our lectures in New York City, planned to retire and live in Greece on his Social Security, because living is comparatively reasonable there. He decided to try this method of using Telecosmic Power to learn the Greek language. Everyone told him he could not do it, as Greek is one of the most difficult languages to learn.

Within six months, this man had mastered enough of the language to be able to speak conversational, every-day Greek sufficiently so he could carry on an ordinary conversation.

A woman who was 35, worked as a secretary for a prolific TV writer. She turned out what are commonly known as soap operas—continuous daytime series—and the writer received a very high salary. This young woman, after learning how to raise her creative level with Telecosmic Power got an idea which she turned into a TV script. She presented it to the production department of a big TV network and it was accepted. Now, instead of being a secretary, making money for writers, she is a successful writer, receiving rewards that she never thought possible when she just sat pounding a typewriter for someone else!

THE MASTER MIND THAT CONTROLS THE UNIVERSE

There is a Master Mind that controls the universe. There is a Master Plan that has been invoked under which the billions of planets rotate in their spheres each night, held up by invisible magnetism. These stars are always in the same places every night, never too late or too early, and we can predict a thousand years from now where Saturn, Mars, Neptune, the Sun, and Moon will be in relation to our planet Earth. In fact, these stars in the heaven are so accurate that we set our earth clocks by the stars!

You can trust such a master mind that has created such a cosmic miracle as life and caused it to operate under cosmic laws that are perfect.

You can duplicate the power of this master mind in your own life, through using Telecosmic Power to help release the slumbering genius within your subconscious mind.

TELECOSMIC POWER HELPS PROGRAM A POSITIVE ATTITUDE

Through Telecosmic Power you may begin today to program your subconscious mind with positive forces.

Train your mind to think of yourself as a master salesman. You are selling one of the greatest of all commodities; your mental gifts and your personality. The values that you stamp upon yourself, the magnificence of your inner dreams, the size of your concepts, these will become programmed in your subconscious mind and become the externalized actions that lead you to fame and fortune.

Follow This Regimen to Discover and Release the Hidden Genius That Can Help You Build a Great Destiny

1. Recognize that the master mind power which created the universe, the billions of planets, and everything in creation works in and through you. This power has the ability to permeate your own consciousness. It is the slumbering genius within your subconscious and superconscious minds. You can release it by using the key words I Recognize and the following Telecosmograms:

I Recognize: That there is a master mind in the universe which created all things. This master mind power works through my higher mind centers, giving me the power to create, and do anything I choose.

I now create the master plan in my life that encompasses great deeds, big dreams, and high concepts. I now trigger from my subconscious mind the superior intelligence that can improve my memory; give me power to overcome bad habits, and to increase my mental capacity so that I function on the high IQ level of a genius.

2. Then when you have given your subconscious mind this recognition of its superior power, program yourself with a master plan that will encompass the things you desire in life.

Use the key words I Project and the following Telecosmograms for this purpose:

I project the perfect master plan that will give me perfect living.

I program a perfect body, with vitality, energy, and good health. I will have energy to do all my life functions perfectly. I invoke the power of my subconscious mind to keep my heart beating perfectly, to give me normal blood pressure, to heal me of any disorders I may now have, to regulate my metabolism, keep my weight at normal, and to control all the automatic functions of my body perfectly.

I program my big dream into my subconscious mind. I wish to have a business of my own; I desire large sums of money so I may have freedom from want, security, cultural benefits, and leisure time to do the things I enjoy. I think large sums of money and these come into existence through the golden ideas that my subconscious mind will release for gaining riches and abundance.

A Woman Who Was Programmed to Poverty and How She Changed with Her Master Plan

A woman who came to one of my lectures complained that the clerk at the store that day had charged her $5. for some small item. She wailed, "My, everything is so expensive nowadays! I don't know how we'll be able to live with everything going up-up-up!"

Then, in talking to her further, I discovered that she had been programmed all her life to think in terms of lack, limitation, poverty, and restriction. She had been brought up by a mother who had come from a poverty-stricken section of the South, where she was conditioned to think in terms of lack and limitation. She had heard, from the time she was born, of how difficult life was, how poor they were, how they could never become rich, until this woman had programmed her subconscious mind with absolute poverty.

She and her mother lived in a little furnished room. The younger woman worked at a small salary, and over a period of 20 years, by scrimping and saving they had saved $3,000.

I knew the only way I could help her break this negative programming was to give her the secrets of Telecosmic Power, and help her build her own master plan for future prosperity and success.

I started the process by giving her the key words I Recognize with the Telecosmograms that fitted her situation, in which she was to recognize there were riches in the universe, and that her subconscious mind could guide her to the finding of her abundance.

I also gave her the key words I Increase and I Enrich with the following Telecosmograms, which she was to say every night for two weeks:

I Increase. My awareness of infinite riches now increases. I expand my consciousness to include the Master Plan which exists in the universe. Everything has been provided for my future welfare. I now draw upon the Universal Bank of riches and abundance the money and other elements I need to give me security for the future.

Then she was to use the key words I Enrich with the following Telecosmograms:

My consciousness is now enriched with the concept that there is abundance in the universe and I now magnetize my mind centers with the thought of money coming to me from many sources. I live in an unlimited universe and all my needs shall be met.

Then I gave this woman Telecosmographs of money to flash the message to her subconscious mind of bigger sums than she had been used to thinking. I cut out pieces of paper in the four corners of which I wrote the sums of $1,000, $5,000, $10,000, and $100,000. She counted these stacks of simulated money and then began to project first $1,000, and then $5,000, until she had built her confidence enough to actually visualize that one day she could attract the larger sum of $100,000.

I had a money magazine that had pictures of all the big bills with the names of the men, and their pictures, that were on the bigger bills. These she memorized and kept flashing the Telecosmographs of money, projecting the names and faces of the men on the $10. bill, and gradually the $20, the $50, the $100, until finally she graduated in her master plan to the $1,000, $10,000, and $100,000 bills.

Following are the names and faces on these bills, which you should be familiar with in making out your own master plan for future riches and abundance.

The $5 bill has on it the face of Lincoln.

The $10 bill, the face of Alexander Hamilton.

The $20 bill, Andrew Jackson's face.

The $50 bill, the face of U.S. Grant.

The $100 bill, Ben Franklin's face.

The $1,000 bill, Daniel Webster.

The $10,000 bill. This has on it the face and name of Salmon Chase, Secretary of the Treasury under Lincoln.

The $100,000 bill has on it the face of Woodrow Wilson, and this big bill is used only to exchange money from one Federal Reserve Bank to another in large sums.

Then after she had accustomed herself to thinking in terms of the Big Dream and the master plan for her life, I had her begin to use Telecosmographs to her subconscious mind for a method by which she and her mother might have a business and a big yearly income.

One day, while she was knitting a colorful sweater for a Christmas gift to give to a friend, the thought was flashed to her from her subconscious mind: You love to knit and crochet; why not open a shop for women who enjoy this hobby, selling materials and goods for that type of work?

This was the answer to her request for a master plan for her future life. She told me about her sudden flash of inspiration and I encouraged her to go ahead and do it. She took her $3000 from her savings account, found a small shop near her home, and opened a store that specialized in everything for women who wanted to sew, crochet and knit, even to patterns, books, and all kinds of materials such as yarns, knitting, and crocheting needles, looms, and other equipment. This woman's home was a short distance from Los Angeles, in Long Beach, where there are many retired older women. These people flocked to her shop, which became a kind of social center, and from the first the shop was a success. When I saw her two years later, when I gave a series of lectures in that city, she proudly told me that her income that year had jumped to $15,000! She and her mother had bought a simple little home and were happier than they had ever thought possible.

3. Use these five master techniques and key words to help release the hidden genius that slumbers within your subconscious mind:

A. I Overcome. Program to your higher mind that you can and will overcome the past negative programming of lack, limitation, poverty, fear, and worry that might be short-circuiting your subconscious power and your dream of greatness.

B. Make out a Success Chart and put it up somewhere where you can see it each day to check your progress.

Monday — I overcome fear and anxiety today and am confident that my master mind will guide me to success and riches. Use the key words I Overcome, as often as possible this day.

Tuesday — I invoke the power of my master mind all day today to keep myself optimistic and cheerful, never uttering one negative word all day. Use the key words I invoke.

Wednesday — I see riches and abundance all around me today and I attune myself to larger sums of money by knowing my mind is a money magnet that can attract everything I need to bring me success and security. The key words today are: I Expand.

Thursday — I release myself from all past limitations, inferiority and restrictions that have held

- me in a position of poverty, mediocrity and frustration all my life. The key words this day are I Release.
- Friday — I recognize the slumbering genius within my higher mind centers and I now co-operate with this power to elevate myself to new and higher stratas of creative mental and physical action. The key words today are: I Recognize, I Co-operate and I Elevate.
- Saturday — This day, I shall take bold action to project my big dream to the outer world of reality, knowing that fortune favors the bold. I shall dare to dream big, to do great things and to be aware of the power I have tapped. The key words today are: I Dream, I Dare, I Do.
- Sunday — This day I shall be aware of my blessings and give thanks to God for the gift of life and pray that I shall constantly be a credit to Him. The key words today are: I Pray and I Believe.

4. Mastermind your life by consciously co-operating with your subconscious mind each day. Do not take any steps alone, but sit quietly and ask that your higher, subconscious mind shall make your decisions and guide you to take the right action in your life.

Example: A man needed a certain sum of money to pay a long overdue note. He was frantic and rushed around asking his friends and relatives to help him, but of course they did not. He came into our work and learned about Telecosmic Power and the master mind principle. He decided to invoke the aid of his higher mind. He sat for three days, for 15 minutes a day, using the key words, I Contact, and he gave the following Telecosmograms to his higher mind to trigger instant reactions to his desperate need.

I Contact: My higher mind knows my needs and will now rush forth to assist me in raising the money I require for this specific purpose. I now contact the higher mind centers where are stored millions of ideas that can bring me wealth. I now confidently await results.

At the end of the third day, this man had an offer to sell a piece of land that had long been considered worthless! A decision had suddenly been made to run a road straight through his property, giving it new value. He obtained the check for the down payment and it was more than enough to meet his emergency. Later, he made a terrific profit on this land, which he had held for many years.

5. For the following week, make up your mind that you will follow a master plan that will bring everything you do into sharp focus. If you are a salesman, decide that you will make more sales that week than in the previous week.

If you need a sum of money such as $500 or $1,000, write it down on a slip of paper which you carry with you for the following week, looking at it as many times a day as you can. Program the key words I Attract and the following master plan Telecosmogram:

Money flows all around me. It is in perpetual motion from one pocket and one bank to another, blessing each person whose life it touches. I now attract my share. I master-plan the sum of $1,000 to meet my present needs. I have faith that this money will come to me in the near future.

If there is a problem in your life, disagreement with some person, marital difficulties, problems in your office or work, make a master plan to create harmony and bring you into an atmosphere of peace and serenity. You can use the key words I Soothe and the Telecosmograms:

This situation now yields to my master plan for peace and harmony within my environment. All problems now yield to my master mind principle and there is only perfect peace in my affairs.

6. If you wish to create some work of art in music, poetry, painting, literature, or obtain an idea for an invention, or for business, invoke the master mind principle and the master plan by sitting quietly, putting yourself in a confident, quiet state of mind, which is equivalent to the Theta in the slower brain wave rhythm that geniuses often use to create their masterpieces.

Silently flash the key words I Create, five or ten times to your higher subconscious mind asking for the release of the particular type of creative action you desire.

If it is a desire to paint beautiful pictures, use the key words I Create with the following Telecosmogram:

Creative power resides within my subconscious mind. I now tap this creative power with a desire to create a painting that reflects order, harmony, and beauty. I ask for instant recall of everything beautiful I have ever seen, and that it be projected through my hands onto this canvas, (or paper). I am now a channel for the reception of great concepts in art.

If you have a desire to write something great in poetry or literature, a television or motion picture script, a play, or a thesis for a philosophical work, know that the higher subconscious mind knows more about the subject matter than you do. You can ask for the master mind to come through to you with the key words I Create and the following Telecosmogram:

I wish to become a channel for great ideas to come through my master mind for a novel which shall accurately reflect life and which shall be an inspiration for others.

(You can state poetry, drama, articles, stories, or any other form of writing. If you are desirous of obtaining new ideas for an advertising campaign for some product, this master mind can bring it to you.)

How an Author Uses This Power to Write Novels

An author that I know uses this method for writing his novels and plays. He wrote his first novel, using the Telecosmic Power through his subconscious mind, and the key words I Create. He sold his first novel, but it did not bring him the fortune he had programmed into his subconscious mind, for it only sold about 1,000 copies. However, he had programmed the desire that it would be made into a motion picture. He received $85,000 for the movie rights, and then was hired, at a very big salary, to write the movie scenario! Whenever he wants to start the flow of creative ideas, he sits at his electric typewriter, turns on the power, and says I CREATE; then he flashes the Telecosmogram to his subconscious mind that his brain is being motivated by the same electric power that causes the typewriter to operate. The flow of ideas is almost instantaneous!

How to Use Telecosmic Power to Paint Pictures

If it is your desire to paint pictures, design costumes, create interior designs for houses, or public buildings, to sculpture great works in marble or wood, or any other art form which you choose, you can use the same method, by sitting before your work table for a few moments, concentrating your mind on the key words I Create, and saying the Telecosmograms, or thinking them, that are given above for releasing creative power from your subconscious mind. Then flood your mind with the most beautiful Telecosmographs of scenes you have witnessed in the past. This subconscious recall of beauty will help the automatic working of your subconscious mind, by causing it to dig down below the surface to call up the most idealistic and beautiful creative forms which you have actually seen.

A former student of mine, who used Telecosmic Power in his work in an advertising agency, used this method to dream up two TV commercials which he sold for $10,000 each! He had programmed several weeks before that he wanted the sum of $20,000, and his subconscious released two, new and original ideas that won him two separate contracts for $10,000 each. Later, this man opened his own advertising agency and the first year received $25,000,000 worth of orders from large companies who knew of his great work in that field!

How to Compose Classical or Popular Music Through Telecosmic Power

Mozart used this method for receiving great inspiration from his higher mind for his beautiful compositions.

Tchaikowsky tells of how he composed his first major work, "A Musical Ode To Winter," when he was 25. He sat looking out of his window at the Russian landscape one cold winter day, when the world was locked in a white sheet of snow and ice, and he was so impressed by the utter desolation, and awesome loneliness of the scene that he was inspired by his subconscious mind to go to the piano and compose an ode to this spectacular scene. He created a beautiful composition from this frozen beauty that still lives today as one of his greatest works.

Sit quietly when you are courting the muse for music, and give the creative key words I Create to your subconscious mind, having read or thought the Telecosmograms given above for any creative activity. Then, as you sit and concentrate the full powers of your mind on creating lovely music, let whatever your subconscious mind wants to send through, flow through your consciousness, capturing it on the keyboard of the piano, or whatever instrument you wish to use. Sometimes the melody will not come through at that session, but if you ask your subconscious mind to compose something special, you can go about your regular activities of the day, and suddenly a flash of inspiration will come through for you to go to the piano and prepare to receive a fully-developed musical masterpiece.

A young popular composer, who studies these techniques in dynamic mind control in Los Angeles, triggers his subconscious mind by putting on a medley of modern composers on his pick-up. As he composes musical themes for motion pictures and also popular songs for TV and radio groups, this sets his mind into creative action and the flow usually begins within from five to ten minutes.

If you are a singer or an actor, and you must project your voice before the public or cameras, you can use this Telecosmic Power to trigger your subconscious to give you the most beautiful vocal sounds you are capable of creating. You can use two different key words for this type of vocal production; I Create and I Project. Then visualize your voice going out like a pair of loving arms, embracing those who listen to you sing or act.

Maria Callas thought this inspiring and uplifting Telecosmogram every time she went out to sing before vast audiences in concert and opera halls throughout the world and she has been acclaimed as having one of the greatest voices of all time!

How to Use Telecosmic Power to Be an Inventor

You can use the same creative power to become a great inventor or to discover some new ideas in creating useful objects or materials, such as nylon or plastics. Sit quietly and repeat the key words I Create, and then mentally inspire your mind with the Telecosmograms given above, and visualize the master mind of an Edison, an Eli Whitney, a McCormick, or some other genius, coming through your subconscious mind to inspire you with some great new idea or invention.

  17. How a former student of mine used Telecosmic Power to get two ideas in advertising that brought him $20,000, and later how he opened his own advertising agency and obtained 25 million dollars worth of contracts.
  18. How great composers use this subconscious power to release their melodies for the world's enjoyment.
  19. You can use Telecosmic Power to invent some useful object, or discover some new combination of materials, such as nylon or plastic, that can make you rich.

SEVEN TELECOSMOGRAMS THAT RELEASE A FLOODTIDE OF POWER FOR GETTING RICH

Did you ever read the fable that tells about King Midas and how he was granted the Golden Touch, which turned everything he touched into solid gold?

Have you ever wished there were some magic formula which, like the golden Midas Touch, you could use to bring you a floodtide of power for getting rich?

In this chapter we shall explore the method by which you may use Telecosmic Power like a veritable golden Midas Touch, to turn your thoughts into the glittering gold of riches and abundance.

Successful and rich people automatically invoke seven Telecosmograms that trigger their subconscious minds with a floodtide of creative power that drives them in the directions of riches.

I have met many millionaires and a few billionaires in my lifetime, and I have carefully analyzed their minds, their careers, and the methods by which they achieved fame and fortune. In each instance, I found out they automatically used certain mental formulas and thought in certain ways that programmed them to money, recognition, and outstanding success in their chosen fields.

I have condensed the lifetime philosophies and creative principles of these rich men and discovered that they all used our subconscious Telecosmic Power without being aware of it!

SUBCONSCIOUS TELECOSMIC POWER IS BACK OF ALL MAN'S GREAT DISCOVERIES

As you look back at the historic march of events in recorded history, you will realize that some higher mind power was back of all of man's great discoveries and achievements.

Always, your subconscious mind knows more than your conscious mind. It is trying constantly to penetrate the veils of ignorance and superstition that hold back progress, and to bring into the forefront of consciousness new discoveries for man's evolutionary progress toward successful living.

In applying the following seven Telecosmograms to release a golden floodtide of power for getting rich, you need not memorize all of them. Write down on a filing card each of the Telecosmograms that you feel you need for immediate use. Each day, carry this filing card in your pocketbook, or put it on a mirror or wall, where you can read it several times a day. When its dynamic message has once been programmed into your subconscious mind, you need only think or say the key words that trigger that particular Telecosmogram. It will have an immediate effect on your subconscious mind, causing it to release the particular information that you require for attracting more money, or discovering new ideas that can help you in your life.

THE SEVEN TELECOSMOGRAMS THAT CAN RELEASE A GOLDEN FLOODTIDE OF POWER FOR MAKING YOU RICH

1. I Desire: I now invoke the power of my subconscious mind to release a floodtide of golden ideas that can make me rich.

When you have stated the above Telecosmogram to your subconscious mind seven times, sit quietly and flash the following Telecosmographs to your higher mind. By invoking the words or creative commands, at the same time you project the cosmic pictures of the things you want, you create a dynamic magnetism within your higher brain centers that works like a magnet—attracting to you the persons, situations, and objects which you have projected through Telecosmic Power.

Remember also, it is not your subconscious mind alone which is being programmed, but it is your superconscious mind, which relays its messages to the cosmic mind, which created all things, and which is then set into motion to bring you whatever it is you desire. This Cosmic Telepathy flashes signals to every part of God's universe and works like a vast system of telegraphic signals to every cell of the living universe. This is how everything in the universe operates under such perfect cosmic law. When you attune your higher mind to this cosmic mind, your Telecosmograms and Telecosmographs will instantly be flashed to this highest form of all intelligence, and they will be executed without question or delay.

Hold These Telecosmographs in Your Mind with the Telecosmogram "I Desire"

Visualize yourself receiving brilliant ideas that can make you successful and rich. See yourself going into your own business. See money pouring in from many sources. Mentally go on a shopping spree and visualize all the things you are going to buy with your money.

Project the picture of the house or apartment you want to live in. Cut pictures out of home-making magazines of your perfect dream home. Paste these pictures into a Scrapbook of Destiny. Then cut out pictures of the furnishings you want in that home and paste them in also. Each night, just before retiring, look at those photographs and project them to your subconscious mind as the ideals you wish to attract.

When you see a photograph of the type of car you wish to own and drive, cut it out of the magazine, and paste it in your Scrapbook of Destiny. Then, mentally sit in meditation and drive that car; visit your friends, go out into the country on picnics; see yourself driving to your place of business. As you make that car a reality in your consciousness, the mental forces are already working to make it come into the dimensions of the present.

If you wish to have money to travel, project the Telecosmographs of the countries you wish to visit. Get travel literature from agencies, that show colorful pictures of England, France, Spain, Greece, Hawaii, or any other country you want to visit. Paste these in your Scrapbook of Destiny. Look at these pictures every night just before going to bed; recall them as often as you can during the day, and see yourself on the plane or boat, going to these chosen foreign countries.

How a Singer Traveled Around the World

A singer, who once appeared for me at one of my lectures at Carnegie Hall, came to a few classes and learned the secret of Telecosmic Power. She told me one day, "I have always wanted to travel around the world, but never had enough money." I told her to invoke the Telecosmograms and Telecosmographs given above, projecting herself to a luxury liner going around the world, and not to worry about how the money would come.

She went to a travel agency to obtain travel folders about a luxury cruise around the world that they had advertised which cost close to $5,000. In talking to the courteous woman in the travel agency, she revealed that she was a classical singer, and that she had sung at Carnegie Hall and Town Hall, as well as with the New York City Opera Center. The woman asked her, "Have you ever thought of getting a job as an entertainer on a cruise ship going around the world?" This was the first time this idea had ever been suggested to the singer. She made inquiries and found out where she should go to see about being booked on such a cruise.

The singer had her interview and after giving an audition, showing she could sing classical as well as popular music, she was booked on the $5,000 round-the-world cruise, and she was paid for her services, as well!

This Woman Invoked This Power and Won an Entire Set of Furniture

Another woman in our New York lecture group invoked the Telecosmogram I Desire, with the projection of the Telecosmographs of new furnishings for her apartment. She lived in a rent-frozen apartment, where she had been for 25 years and she did not want to move, but she did want new furniture. She had no extra cash to buy it, so she began to invoke the I Desire Telecosmograms and Telecosmographs. For free entertainment, evenings, she was in the habit of going to some of the free TV shows which allowed audiences to participate. One day, she entered her name on a blank that had been handed to her at the door when she entered. She signed it and dropped it into a basket. Later, during the filming of the show, her name was called, and she found she was a contestant in a give-away type of program where the contestants had to guess the answers to certain questions.

She and three other people were on the stage, trying to guess the correct answers to the questions. She picked a category she was familiar with, which was Geography, having once been a grammar school teacher, and she answered every one of the questions correctly! Her prize? A complete set of household furnishings; living room suite, bedroom suite, dining table, refrigerator, electric stove, chairs, and even a new color TV set! This woman is convinced that her higher mind guided her to that particular TV show on that special day to make it possible for her to attract the things she had programmed through the key words I Desire.

2. I Dream. I dream the big dream, knowing that back of all creation is a blueprint or dream that has created everything in the universe. I am a part of God's dream for perfect living, and I now invoke the power of my higher mind to bring me the perfect destiny which I desire.

Every time you desire something, flash the Telecosmogram I Dream to your subconscious mind and it will trigger your higher mind with ideas for creative action that will project your dreams to the outer world.

The first primitive man who saw a stone rolling down a mountain side and dreamed of a wheel attached to a cart changed the course of history. Science calls this one of the greatest of all inventions.

The first time a man saw a bird flying and dreamed that one day man would grow wings and soar into the upper reaches of the universe, in that moment, was born the modern jet plane and with it, the further advanced dream, that one day man would walk on the moon. He fulfilled his dreams, because always, inherent in the dream, is its fulfillment.

Man's dreams have always preceded his science, invention, art, music, literature, industry, and progress.

Your inner dreams are the building blocks of your destiny.

Project the Telecosmographs of your dreams to your subconscious mind.

Sit in regular sessions where you daydream about your life. See the perfect romance or marriage that you desire. Project the ideal type of work you want to be in. See the dream house, complete in every detail, including the location, number of rooms, garden, and even the entertaining of your friends.

Project the dream of the perfect, healthy body, with youth and vitality, and long life.

Dream of the day you will be magnetic, charming, and popular, surrounded by a circle of loving friends.

Use the "I Dare" Telecosmogram to Achieve Greatness

3. I Dare. I dare to explore the new frontiers of adventure and excitement that beckon me in the future. I now program a great destiny, made up of exciting new experiences, in which I shall carry out all my secret plans and ambitions. I shall have the courage to try the impossible; to achieve great deeds; to project brilliant ideas that can revolutionize the world.

The man who dreams something into existence, and then dares to follow through with his dream, is called a genius by humanity.

Think of the daring of man to split the atom and release its awesome powers!

The daring it took for the Wright brothers to enter their flimsy flying machine and prove that man could fly!

The daring of Churchill and Eisenhower to believe that their invasion of the European Continent would prove successful in winning the war against Hitler!

Project the Following Telecosmographs with the Key Words "I Dare"

Visualize yourself daring to try your hand in a new job where you are in charge of a business or the manager of an office. Instead of being afraid to try something new, make up your mind that you are intelligent enough to be at the top of your profession.

See yourself singing, or speaking before large groups of people, if this is your desire. Mentally appear on the concert stage and hear the applause of your audience. Make up a speech and deliver it before a large audience. If you want to be an actor, project the Telecosmograph of yourself appearing before TV cameras, or on the stage, or in motion pictures. Go through the scenes that you will play. Mentally see your name on the screen, on theater marquees. See yourself being written up in Time and Newsweek.

A young actor, to whom I gave this secret of Telecosmic Power when he was a beginning player at M.G.M. studios a few years ago, was named Roger Moore. He began to project that he would be a success as an actor. He made several pictures in Hollywood but they were not very successful. He kept projecting Telecosmographs that he would one day be a big success on TV, and in motion pictures. He was later guided to go back to his native England, where he became the star in the successful TV series "The Saint," that ran for several years. His career received a new impetus and he was soon reported in the magazines he had carefully projected his name would appear in, Life, Newsweek and Time, as well as hundreds of others.

Project the "I Do" Telecosmogram for Instant Action

4. I Do. I aspire to great heights in my future destiny. I do the things that will automatically bring me success, riches, and recognition. I do overcome the negative programmings that have held me back in life and I now project my dream of achievement to the world of reality, knowing that it will come true.

The Telecosmograms for I Do, stir up vortices of atomic action within your brain centers, causing you to be inspired to do the things you have daydreamed about. As action is the first law in the universe, you will create dynamic patterns of action within your higher brain centers through the use of this Telecosmogram.

Use the following Telecosmographs to add impetus to your key words I Do.

See yourself doing the things you have always thought about but which you kept putting off.

Go for that interview for the better job, and be confident you will be hired.

Write the five letters to prospective employers and be sure that one of them will engage you. I knew one young man who graduated from a course in business administration and used these Telecosmograms to win a big position. He wrote five letters to heads of big corporations giving his qualifications, and stating that his salary would be $15,000 a year, as a junior executive. When he was given a position with one of the firms the head of the company told him that the fact he had thought himself worth $15,000 a year, for a beginning salary, impressed him. He said, "Any young fellow, just out of college, who believes he is worth that much money, must have something to give."

Project your mind to the new location where you want to move. Perhaps you are not satisfied with your present work or home and think you should live in Arizona, California, or Florida, to avoid the cold of the eastern or mid-western states. Program your subconscious mind with the Telecosmographs of the action you want to take. Invoke the I Do key words, and they will automatically trigger the dynamic action that will put you in your right place.

How a Man and His Wife Moved to Florida

A man and his wife were very unhappy in the cold, northeastern city where they lived. They learned about Telecosmic power and began to invoke the Telecosmographs for doing what they wanted to achieve perfect living.

They cut pictures of sunny Florida out of magazines and travel literature. They projected a little white cottage beside a sunlit lagoon. They saw the husband working in a nearby business. They projected a small car that would be economical to keep up.

I received a letter from this couple from a city in Florida, with a photograph enclosed of the little white cottage, the waving palm trees and blue skies, beside the little lagoon of which they dreamed. The husband, true to their mental projection, was working in a factory nearby, and parked at the curb in front of their dream home was the little Volkswagen they had projected!

Use the Verbs of Action "I Am" to Create New Activity

5. I Am. I now program my higher subconscious mind with my true identity and value. I am created to know successful living on all planes of consciousness.

I am perfect. I am illumined mentally and spiritually. I am worthy of the best life has to offer. I am in attunement with riches and abundance and now attract to myself success, money, fame, recognition, friends, love happiness, perfect health, and peace of mind.

The key words I Am trigger from your subconscious mind an automatic response of everything that you really are.

Feed the above Telecosmograms into your subconscious mind each day until they become a part of the automatic response mechanism of your higher mind, creating the true value that you now believe you are worth to the world and to yourself.

Instead of negatively programming yourself with the I Am Not statements, change them to the I Am statements.

I am happy.

I am successful.

I am rich.

I am talented.

I am on the way to great achievements.

I am healthy, young and vital.

I am loving and kind.

I am important.

I am great.

When you have fed all of the above Telecosmograms into your subconscious mind, sit quietly for a few moments each day, and program these Telecosmographs to your higher mind.

Experience the emotion of happiness. Call up all the happy memories that make up the beautiful mosaic of your past and re-live them in your mind. Project to your subconscious mind the success patterns of what you think success for you should be. See the fame and recognition that you desire coming to you.

Mentally see yourself living like a rich person, going to the best hotels, dining in beautiful restaurants; living in a fine home, furnished magnificently; joining the clubs and associating with the social set you have mentally chosen.

Project the Telecosmographs of the talents you want to develop; writing, painting, inventing, composing, carrying out big business ventures.

Picture your body being healthy and strong, and yourself living as long as you wish.

Envision yourself surrounded by loved ones and winning and holding the love of your friends. Hold the mental picture of others claiming your talents are great and that you are important in your field.

Use the Telecosmogram "I Discover" to Lead to Great Achievement

6. I Discover. I now program into my higher mind that I shall discover and unfold new and original creative forms that can help the world and benefit me. I discover my own latent powers of mind. I project creative intelligence to my life and shape it in the image of success, riches, and fulfillment. I discover the hidden secrets for making money that rich men have used throughout the ages. I discover the golden Midas Touch that will cause me to release the golden nuggets of thought and convert them into money and its material and physical equivalents.

When you use the key words I Discover to trigger the above Telecosmographs to your subconscious mind, you will set into motion all the automatic mechanisms of invention, chemical formulas, new discoveries in science, original products, and combinations of old materials that produce something new and original, like plastic or nylon.

Program the key words I Discover with the following Telecosmographs to your higher mind, for immediate action in building your own personal fortune.

See yourself discovering something new that will add to the comfort or advancement of the world.

Visualize yourself inventing some useful object, or refining and improving an old one, and you will make a million.

Project the mental picture that you will open a chain store that will give something useful to the public. Col. Sanders projected this Telecosmograph with his southern fried chicken and he has made millions!

Release This Telecosmogram for Money and Possessions

7. I Claim. I now program into my subconscious mind that the universe and all therein are mine by divine right. I now claim all the good things of life. I claim the natural resources of the world, where true riches reside. I claim the public parks as my own estates;

I claim the riches of all the art galleries and museums as being created especially for my use and enjoyment. I claim all the public libraries, wherein is stored the wisdom of the ages, and which is intended for my enrichment intellectually.

I claim the public transportation systems of buses, subways, trains and trolley cars, knowing they were created for me to use. I claim the theaters, motion pictures houses, TV and radio programs, where I may turn a switch and receive millions of dollars worth of entertainment in one single evening!

I claim my inheritance from the Divine Father who created all these things for my own personal use and enjoyment. I give thanks for all these free blessings and gifts which enrich me as much as though I were a potentate of the Far East.

Project for your Telecosmographs to go with the above Telecosmograms, the following pictures:

See yourself staking out a claim on the gold, silver, jewels and other precious gifts that are in the Universe. See yourself wearing the finest clothes, living in the best surroundings; enjoying the finest foods; riding in the costliest automobiles. Project yourself on airplane flights to glamorous foreign lands. See yourself associating with international figures, in a social set which you mentally choose as being the right one for you.

A lawyer, who had been losing many of his civil lawsuits, was wondering what was wrong with him. He came to a few of our lectures and learned about Telecosmic Power. He began to project the key words I Claim, with the mental Telecosmographs:

I shall win my next half dozen cases. I shall receive awards that are just. I shall make more money this year than for the past two years.

As he projected these Telecosmographs, his subconscious mind began to work them out satisfactorily for him. He won his next six cases and was awarded $100,000 in an accident negligence case for his client! Within one year, his income soared unbelievably, and he was on his way to perfect living.

An aging movie actress whom I had advised when she was young had been neglected by Hollywood for some years. She sought me out again to find out why in her middle age she should have had such a decline of fortune.

I projected Telecosmographs that this former star would receive calls from producers immediately for new roles in TV and motion pictures. She used the key words I Claim, flashing the Telecosmographs;

I see myself before the cameras; I will receive a contract for a leading role in TV that will last for some time.

Within two weeks, this actress received a call from a producer for a leading character role in a motion picture that won her an Academy nomination! One month later, she was cast in a leading character role in a TV series, which is still running! She is now comfortably rich and no longer fears the future.

A young man who came into our work in Los Angeles, was broke and had no work. He began using Telecosmic Power, and soon attracted a job selling fine curtains to middle class homes. He needed a car, and projected that he wanted nothing less than a Mercedes! A new Mercedes in America can run anywhere from $6,000 to $15,000. He claimed every Mercedes he saw on the streets, and finally one day, someone told him about a Mercedes that was for sale. It belonged to a famous singing group who were buying another car, and it was being sold for only $750.

When this young man looked at the car he saw that it had been shabbily treated, but being mechanically inclined, as motors were his hobby, he bought the car for a small down payment, put it into first class condition, and is now riding in a beautiful, repainted Mercedes that gives him a prosperity consciousness!

HOW TO TAP YOUR PSYCHIC CENTERS TO ACHIEVE INTUITIVE GUIDANCE

There is a higher intuitive mind within your own mind which gives you the ability to transmit thoughts, or receive thoughts from the minds of others, on invisible wavelengths, very much as your radio and television sets are able to receive programs beamed out from a sending station.

You can open these higher psychic centers through Telecosmic Power and be intuitively guided to perfect living.

In this chapter, we shall explore the method for doing this.

YOU CAN COMMAND AND CONTROL THE FORCES OF LIFE

You have been given the telepathic power to command and control the invisible, cosmic forces of life. You can direct these forces to guide you in the making of decisions.

You have the power to prefabricate your future destiny, with the psychic visions and mental programming of exactly what you want in your future. The invisible cosmic intelligence, receiving pulsations from your higher super-conscious mind, is able to shape the events of your life in the exact pattern that you have predetermined,

1. How to Use Telecosmic Power to Give You Intuitive Guidance

To reach out and motivate other people with your higher psychic centers, and control them use the following method:

Sit quietly in a room where you will not be disturbed for at least half an hour to an hour for this exercise. Use the Telecosmic Motivators that begin with the key words You Will. Project the Telecosmograms given below, or make up some of your own to fit your exact needs. See the person's face that you want to project these Telecosmograms to, or if you desire aid from people you do not know, project them to the cosmic mind, knowing they will be relayed to the right source, or the person who will come into your path of life to help you.

If the person's name is known to you, say the name to yourself, and then add the following Telecosmograms that suit your particular needs:

TO COMMAND A PERSON'S ATTENTION

A. You will communicate with me. I have a matter of vital importance that I wish to discuss with you. Write me, or telephone me as quickly as possible.

TO GET PROMOTED ON YOUR JOB

B. You will follow my directions and carry out the actions that I desire. These are for your own benefit as well as my own. You will give me the job I desire. You will give me an advance in salary, as you know I am underpaid. You will make me the manager of my department.

(Of course you will select the psychic motivator that fits your needs. If it is not given in this list, then make up your own.)

TO WIN A PERSON'S LOVE OR FRIENDSHIP

C. You will be attracted to me magnetically for our mutual good. You will find me compatible, agreeable in every respect and you will seek me out, knowing that our relationship will be mutually beneficial.

TO BECOME A SUPERSALESMAN

D. You will buy my services (or goods). You need what I have to sell. You will trust me, knowing that I have good intentions to serve you and that my product is the best to be obtained. You will give me a larger order for my product.

TO WIN AND HOLD SOMEONE'S LOVE

E. You will love me. (If it is someone in whom you wish to arouse the emotion of love and affection.) You are my true soul mate. This I know and I want you to respond with love and feel that I am the right person for you romantically. We shall share common interests; we shall enjoy our life experiences in marriage; we shall rear a family, and find the supreme satisfaction that can come through the divine emotion of love.

TO GAIN REWARDS FOR SERVICES RENDERED

F. You will reward me. I require money and other equivalents of money for my services, and I feel that I am worthy of assistance. You will give recognition to my worth and you will benefit from your association with me.

TO ACHIEVE RICHES AND SUCCESS

G. You will help me achieve success and riches. You are in a position of power and can aid me in the achievement of my life goal. You will seek me out, give me an offer to be associated with you in your business enterprises, and you will trust me to deliver the quality of service that you and your organization require. I dedicate myself to honest effort, integrity, and loyalty to you.

TO WIN AND INFLUENCE YOUR FRIENDS

H. You will share your friendship with me. I am desirous of being your intimate friend. I feel that we have much in common and I feel that this relationship will ripen into a lifetime association that will be mutually beneficial.

A student of mine in New York City used Telecosmic Motivator B. and sent out the Telecosmogram that her boss would give her a $10-a-week raise in salary. He called her into his office after she had been sending out these commands for only a week, and like a man in a daze said, "I am giving you a $10-a-week raise in salary." She had been there five years without a raise!

A man in San Diego, who used Telecosmic Motivators F. and G. sent out his message every morning when he went to work and every evening when he retired at night. He projected the thought to his head boss that he should be rewarded more adequately than he was at present. He also projected the Telecosmograph that he would be transferred to their branch office in Fort Lauderdale, at an increase in salary and that he be made the manager of that branch.

Within one month, this man was selected above all the other employees to manage the branch office in Fort Lauderdale, at an increase in salary of $1800 per year!

A used car salesman in Los Angeles, who studied this science with me, used Telecosmic Motivator D., repeating it every morning before he went to his work, and as many times a day as he could think of it. He doubled his usual sales within one month and ascribed it to the fact that somehow he reached into his prospective customers' subconscious minds with his confident, positive approach that he was going to sell them a car. Later, this man opened his own used car lot and now operates three such lots, all of them successfully!

A lonely widow, who was past the age of romance, so she thought, came into our work and learned about Telecosmic Power. She wanted companionship more than passionate love, so she began to use Telecosmic Motivator E., projecting her thoughts to a widower who often played bridge with her at a club. He asked her to go to a Senior Citizens Ball with him one night, and on the way home in the car he proposed marriage! They are now happily married and living together in his beautiful home on the outskirts of Los Angeles.

2. How to Receive Cosmic Thought Forms to Benefit You

To receive Telecosmic thought forms from the minds of others, sit quietly by yourself for at least a half an hour a day, until you have developed this power. Visualize that your third eye, which is located in the forefront of the brain and is known as the pineal gland, is opening and receiving the projections of thoughts from the minds of others.

Use the key words I Receive. Then focus your mind on the face of the person you wish to tune in on. Say the person's name quietly, a few times. Then think to yourself:

I wish to receive psychic communication with you.
Your mind will now attune itself to my wavelength and you will communicate your thoughts to me.

While you sit and are in a highly sensitive state, you can ask this other person questions.

What do you really think of me?

Do you love me?

Are you being sincere?

Have you done something wrong that I should know about?

Are you cheating on me in love (or marriage)?

A Woman Used Telecosmic Power to Find Out Her Husband Was Cheating on Her

A woman student of mine used Telecosmic power to probe her husband's mind to find out if he was cheating on her. She projected a steady stream of Telecosmic motivators at night, while she lay in the double bed beside her husband. The first two nights nothing happened. He turned over and went to sleep, as usual. On the third night, he seemed restless as she kept up her mental probing with the command; "You will confess to me if you have been untrue. I will forgive you. I still love you but I must know if you are true to me."

After she had said these words to herself about five times, her husband turned towards her, took her in his arms and kissed her and said, "Darling, there's something I want to confess to you. I have been having a thing with the girl in the office. She means nothing to me. It's you I really love and if you forgive me, I promise it won't happen again."

Of course, she forgave him, and they went on to build a more solid relationship than ever before.

3. To Use Telecosmic Power to Ask for Sums of Money from Cosmic Intelligence

You may have a financial problem that requires a certain sum of money and you do not know where to turn. Perhaps a bank will not give you a loan; friends or relatives may be unable or unwilling to help you. How can you use Telecosmic Power to solve such a financial problem?

You can project Telecosmic commands to the higher mind by using the key words I Need, and the following Telecosmograms:

I need the sum of $1,000, (Or more, project the amount you feel you actually need to solve the problem.) I now appeal to the cosmic mind to bring me this sum of money. I have faith that I shall be guided to my source of supply.

After you have projected these Telecosmograms for money at least seven times, do not sit any longer, but go about your regular activities. Later, your subconscious mind, having relayed this message to your higher, super-conscious mind, will give you a definite psychic impulse to do something that will put you in line for the money.

See how this works for others, who have studied this Telecosmic Power for projecting definite sums of money.

A man sent out an appeal for $2,000. He had no idea where he would obtain that amount of money, but he let it go out into the cosmic spaces through his Telecosmic request to his psychic mind centers.

Within one week, a man came into his office whom he had befriended two years before with a sum of money. This man had opened a business and was making big money. He dumped $2,000 in bills onto the man's desk and said, "This is your share of my profits for the past few weeks. There'll be more later, for I have never stopped being grateful for your help in going into my own business!" This man kept getting a return on his money for many months because of Telecosmic Power which guided the other man to return and show his gratitude!

A woman needed $1,000 to pay for corrective surgery on her son's crippled leg. She had lost her husband and was alone. Her relatives were all poor and no friends could be called on to help her. She sent out the Telecosmic motivator I Need, with the request for the $1,000. A few days later, a friend of hers told her, "You know that operation your son needs? Well, I have a surgeon friend who usually gets $1,000 or more for that type of operation. He said to tell you to come in and see him. He thinks he can do the surgery free."

This woman went to the doctor's office and found out that he did a certain number of operations every week for charity. He agreed to do the surgery and the woman had her $1,000 equivalent, in a perfect operation that permitted her son to walk normally once again!

A student of mine in Hollywood, California, needed $3,500 for a certain business debt. There was no way for him to get it. He was not a gambling man, but one night he had a vivid dream in which he saw a horse race, with number 1 coming in on the first and second races in what is known as a Daily Double. He borrowed $100 to go out and play number 1. When he got to the betting window he hesitated and only bet $20. His two horses came in first and second and he won exactly $3,500! If he had bet the entire $100, he would have made many thousands more!

You may not know where the money will come from, but your superconscious mind, working under the impetus of cosmic mind, knows where everything is in the universe, and knows how to put you in attunement with money or other things of value, whenever you need it.

4. To Attune Your Mind to the Cosmic Mind for Inspiration to Create Something Great

Telepathy can be used for more than mind-to-mind communication. It can be used to attune your mind to the cosmic mind that can relay inspiration for you to do great things.

If you wish to use Telecosmic Power through your higher psychic centers to create something worthwhile, you can use the six following Key Words, with the Telecosmograms given below, and they will help open your higher psychic centers, bringing through the inspiration and the creative intelligence that can cause you to write, compose, invent, discover, or perfect some new business product or technique.

I Discover

I Create

I Compose

I Write

I Perfect

I Discover: I ask my higher mind to give me the ability to discover new combinations of elements that will bring me a fortune. I wish to discover natural resources, gold, oil, uranium, or other products which will benefit humanity and myself.

I Create: I project creative patterns in art or other forms that will project beauty and usefulness. I am a creative channel that can now bring forth perfection.

I Invent: I wish to create useful objects that will make life easier for others. I want to invent something new and original that can make me a fortune.

I Compose: I now ask my higher psychic mind to use me as an instrument to compose beautiful and inspiring music. I wish to create something enduring for the good of the world, that millions will enjoy.

I Write: I invoke my higher creative mind centers with the power of expression through the written word. I ask for high inspiration so I may project beautiful words and inspiring ideas that will help others.

I Perfect: I wish to have the gift of creating ultimate perfection, to evolve nature's products to higher levels of perfection; to idealize life and to bring beauty, peace, good, joy, and richness to the world.

5. How to Use Telecosmic Psychic Power to Find Lost Objects

When you have lost some object, do not look around frantically, for your subconscious mind knows exactly where it is and will reveal it to you when you once still your conscious mind.

Sit quite still for a few moments and say the key words; I Search Out, or I Find.

Then use the following Telecosmograms, which will reach into your higher psychic centers, triggering your subconscious mind to project the location of the lost object:

I know that nothing is actually lost in cosmic mind. All secrets are known to my higher mind. I now search out the lost object, confident that I shall be guided to it.

As a rule, your higher psychic centers may not guide you to the finding of the object at that exact moment. But do not worry; just go about your regular activities and later, you will suddenly be led to finding it.

A woman had mislaid a valuable ring, and could not find it anywhere. She invoked the above psychic motivator with the key words I Search Out. She then went about her regular activities. An hour later, something impelled her to empty the waste paper basket near her writing desk. As she was about to dump it she saw the glint of metal, and there was her ring! She had been typing some letters and had taken her ring off, as it was rather tight; she had put it on the desk and some papers had nudged it off into the basket. Her subconscious impelled her to go and dump the basket so she could discover it.

A man needed a certain valuable paper in his business. He knew that he kept it in a certain drawer of his desk, but when he went to look for it he could not find it. He had learned about Telecosmic power, so he quietly sat and repeated the key words I Find for a few moments. Then he went about his regular activities. A short time later he went into the desk where he had thoroughly searched, and there was his valuable paper! When he had tried to find it before, the paper had been caught up in the upper part of the drawer and pulled into the back of the drawer. When he once again opened it, the motion of the drawer pulled it forward once again!

6. How to Use Telecosmic Psychic Power for Precognition; to Reveal Your Future Life

There are two cosmic forces that are concerned with shaping your future;

- A. Involution.
- B. Evolution.

Come for the filter.

for the taste.

Warning: The Surgeon General Has Determined
That Cigarette Smoking is Dangerous to Your Health.

That which you put into your consciousness as the blueprint of your destiny, is the process of Involution.

The destiny that is produced by this inner, mental blueprint is the Evolution, which simply means bringing something out from the inner to the outer.

You can use two key words for flashing psychic Telecosmograms to your higher mind;

I Involve.

I Evolve.

For this projection of your future life, write down on a sheet of paper the events that you want to involve in your consciousness. Then, as you sit each day and concentrate your higher psychic mind on these events, they will evolve in the outer circumstances of your life.

For example, if you constantly involve the negative psychic thought form, I am sick, instead of the positive thought form, I am healthy, your body cells receive the psychic flash to become sick. You have involved thoughts of sickness and your subconscious mind must carry out whatever commands you give it, as it is your willing slave and must obey your every wish.

If you involve the negative idea, I am poor and can never become rich, you can predict that your future will always be poverty-stricken and limited.

If you project the Telecosmogram I am miserable, you can accurately predict that your future will have little happiness but be colored by the thought of misery you have involved in your psychic centers.

If you constantly project the psychic thought forms, I am ignorant, I am inferior, I am a failure; your subconscious mind will evolve these negative forms of programming and you will find your mind is a closed street and will refuse to accept new ideas, or become superior, or successful.

CHANGE YOUR PSYCHIC PROGRAMMING AND SHAPE YOUR FUTURE

You can change your psychic programming through these two key words, I Involve and I Evolve, and you will shape the events of your future accordingly. Use the following format, or make up one that fits your exact, personal needs.

USE THIS TELECOSMOGRAM FOR SUCCESS IN YOUR WORK

I Involve the psychic thought form that I shall become successful in my work. I project the business I want to be in. I project the money I shall make. I know that I have the necessary knowledge to achieve success in my chosen field and I now confidently await the fulfillment of all my desires and ambitions in the future.

USE THE "I INVOLVE" TELECOSMOGRAM FOR RICHES AND ABUNDANCE

I Involve the psychic thought form of riches in every form; mental riches, of the intellect, so I may enjoy life's great cultural treasures; riches of the body, so I may have a perfect, healthy body that will live a long, useful life; riches of the pocketbook, so I may have $100,000 or more, to give me future security; riches of the spirit, so I may have serenity, peace of mind and peace of soul. I trust the Cosmic Power which created me and know that this intelligence is even now shaping my destiny according to high standards for perfect living.

USE THE FOLLOWING TELECOSMOGRAM FOR ROMANCE AND MARRIAGE

I Involve the pattern of romantic fulfillment in love and marriage, knowing that I shall be psychically guided to my true soul mate; that we shall build our dream home together and rear our family in peace and security.

FOR A SOCIAL LIFE AND FRIENDSHIP USE THIS TELECOSMOGRAM

I Involve the psychic thought forms of friendship, social reciprocity, popularity, and agreeableness, knowing that I can magnetize and attract into my social life those persons who operate mentally on the same wavelength of honesty, idealism, good, beauty, love, and joy as myself.

7. After you have involved all the various psychic thought forms that you want to evolve in your future life, sit for another half hour each day and pass those events through the area of your brain where the imagination resides, and project suitable Telecosmographs that embody your inner desires.

Say the key words I Evolve, and with them trigger the following future actions.

Imagine yourself in your own business; see the product you will sell. Visualize cash registers ringing up sales. If it is a position as manager of a business, imagine your name written on a brass plate on the door of your office.

A man in our lecture work did this with the above Telecosmographs I Evolve, after he had programmed his subconscious mind with the key words I Involve. He began to visualize himself the manager of his department in a large business organization. There did not seem to be any chance he would be promoted to this position, but he went out and had a brass name plate made with his name on it, JOHN JONES, MANAGER. Within three weeks, the manager of that department was transferred elsewhere and John Jones was chosen for the new manager! He simply put up his brass name plate which he had already projected into his future through Telecosmic thought forms.

A priest in New York once told me that other priests in his diocese were very jealous of him because he put on airs, walked with his head held high, and spoke in the authoritative manner of a bishop. He said, "It's true, I constantly project the mental image that I shall one day be a bishop and I strive to have the dignity and to be worthy of that coming honor."

A year later this priest, who was then a monsignor, actually was selected as a bishop and went on to become one of the Church's most important figures.

THE ART OF TELECOSMIC DUPLICATIONS OF THOUGHT FORMS TO MAKE ALL YOUR DREAMS COME TRUE 9

There is a secret process by which you may use the art of Telecosmic duplication of your thought forms to make all your dreams come true.

This Telecosmic duplication occurs in all of nature. Every springtime we see the miracle of a pink rose blossoming on the same bush that had seemingly died in winter. The rose is a duplicate of the thought form or cosmic image of the rose that blooms forever in the invisible mystical realms where dreams are made.

In this chapter, we shall learn how to use this mystical power to turn your daydreams into the glowing reality of health, peace of mind, happiness, riches, love fulfillment—or whatever inner dream you hold.

You can use the science of Telecosmic duplication to create the successful life you desire.

You can create and project mental duplication of cosmic thought forms of the greatest minds that ever lived; you can breathe the breath of life into these astral images that you project to the cosmic mind, and make them come alive!

Through the miracle power of your subconscious and superconscious minds, you can externalize the cosmic thought forms of your inner dreams as living, vital, everyday experiences that will give you perfect living on every plane of consciousness.

THE COSMIC DREAMS OF GREATNESS YOU CAN DUPLICATE

When God created the universe, He had a perfect dream for His creation. This dream could be called the Cosmic Blueprint of the entire cosmos.

This dream expressed itself in living form; always the dream precedes creation.

The architect's plan for your dream home must exist before the workmen will know where to place the doors, windows, stairs, and rooms.

The Creator has placed this power of Telecosmic duplication of your thought forms within your subconscious and superconscious minds.

Your conscious mind chooses the cosmic thought forms that you want to project as your destiny.

Your subconscious mind programs these cosmic thought forms into its automatic processes.

Your superconscious mind is the Boss, or head architect, so to speak, that selects the materials, chooses the workmen and tells them how to carry out the plans that have been programmed into your Cosmic Blueprint of Destiny.

HOW TO USE THE ART OF TELECOSMIC DUPLICATIONS TO MAKE YOUR DREAMS COME TRUE

1. First create your own cosmic Blueprint of Destiny. Write this down on a blank sheet of paper in your handwriting. It should reflect all the things that you want to duplicate in your physical and material world, as well as the qualities, ideals, inspirations, talents, and gifts that you want to release to the outer world as your destiny.

Here is a sample Blueprint of Destiny

A. I desire the fulfillment of the following dreams and aspirations, knowing that they are possible of achievement.

B. I wish to have a business of my own. (Here state the type of business you want to be in, if you know it. If you do not know, then let your higher mind guide you to it.)

- C. I wish to have an income of $25,000 a year, or more.
- D. I desire the sum of $1,000 within three weeks time.
- E. I desire $5,000 from unexpected sources in the next year.
- F. I want the sum of $100,000 or more, as security for my future.
- G. I wish to develop the following talents; to write stories, to compose songs, to invent articles, to paint pictures, to become a cosmetologist, to be an interior decorator. (Here it is necessary that you name one or more talents you want to develop.)
- H. I want to attract my true soul mate in love and marriage.
- I. I desire a home of my own, (or an apartment) to be of the following style, and furnished as follows. (Give a short description of the furnishings.)
- J. I wish to develop a more dynamic and magnetic personality so people will be attracted to me.
- K. I want to travel to the following countries. (Here specify the countries you want to visit.)
- L. I want an automobile of the following make, color, and model.
- M. I wish to become manager in my office or business, with a suitable increase in salary.

2. After you have created your own Blueprint of Destiny, read it over every morning and every night, just before you retire. This will help program it into your subconscious mind. Your subconscious will then relay it to your superconscious mind, and it will in turn project the psychic guidance to your intuitive mind centers, guiding you to do the things that you desire. You need not worry about how it accomplishes this; the majestic power that can create a universe and keep it going can certainly be trusted to fulfill your simple requests.

3. After reading it over twice a day for one week, scratch out the things that come true, and then rewrite the blueprint again on a fresh sheet of paper, and continue this process until you have fulfilled all your dreams. Then start another blueprint, and keep programming it in your subconscious mind each day by reviewing it as often as you can think about it. You can use the key words I Think to invoke the entire blueprint several times a day in your subconscious.

A student of Telecosmic Power and her husband, programmed their dream home through this method. They had only $5,000 in savings, but they wanted a certain type of home in the country, with a yard for their children to play in, and furnished in a certain style.

After programming their blueprint only two months, they heard about a house for sale in the section of the city they had chosen. They looked at it, but immediately saw that it was too big and completely out of their class. However, they went in to see the woman who owned it. She was a widow, whose husband had died suddenly of a heart attack six months before. The house held only sad memories for her and she was anxious to sell it and travel. They told her they had only $5,000 for the deposit, and obviously, this was too small for such a luxury house, but the woman told them she would give the house to them for that amount, with all the furniture included! They arranged financing with her help, and moved in within six weeks!

4. You can use the art of Telecosmic duplication to project God's perfect dream for your future destiny. By programming the seven facets of that dream into your subconscious mind, you will create the physical and mental prototypes in your own external circumstances of life.

Here is how this power works: Think of a negative, that has on it pictures in reverse. When you want to produce the picture you pass light through the negative, onto sensitive paper, and the picture is projected in all its reality.

When you hold the seven facets of God's perfect dream for you in your subconscious mind, the light of God's infinite intelligence, passing through your subconscious and superconscious minds, projects them onto the protoplasmic invisible substance we call matter, and makes them come into existence in the third-dimensional world.

A chicken's egg possesses within its cells the power of cosmic duplication. Under the impetus of the life urge within, this intelligence makes the chick break out of its shell within 21 days.

A single cell has the power to duplicate itself by division, until after millions of times, after which it has duplicated its cosmic image of a chick, it is able to manifest as a third-dimensional prototype of the cosmic thought form of what a chicken should look like.

An acorn uses this Telecosmic Power and duplicates the cosmic thought form. What is its dream pattern? A perfect oak tree.

A rose, a cabbage or a pomegranate, in fact, all created things possess this power of cosmic duplication.

THE SEVEN FACETS OF GOD'S PERFECT DREAM TO PROGRAM INTO YOUR SUBCONSCIOUS MIND

- A. Your perfect body and its perfect functioning in what we call good health.
- B. Happiness and joy in your entire life experience.
- C. Reciprocity in friendship and social life.
- D. Love fulfillment, marriage, and your own family.
- E. Sufficient money or its equivalents to give you and your family security in the future.
- F. Intellectual treasures, the ability to appreciate beauty, art, music, literature, poetry, and all the good things of life.
- G. The spiritual treasures, consisting of peace of mind, peace of soul, and an awareness of God in your heart and soul as an Infinite Spirit.

5. To program these seven facets of God's perfect dream into your own higher subconscious mind, use the key words I Duplicate and the following Telecosmograms.

I Duplicate: My subconscious mind will now transmit to my superconscious mind the seven golden facets of God's Rainbow of Cosmic Dreams. These elements were dreamed into existence when God conceived the universe and all therein.

I now duplicate the cosmic dream, and project all these facets into my life, through the art of cosmic duplication. I now take on the nobility and grandeur of the cosmic dream.

6. To use the art of cosmic duplication to project your inner dreams to the outer world, choose the greatest minds of history and duplicate their sublime thoughts and dreams.

Someone has said, "To be Voltaire; think the thoughts of a Voltaire."

To release the cosmic thought forms of great minds of history; study the lives of geniuses, creative minds, men and women of great accomplishments. Then give your subconscious mind these great thoughts with the key words / Absorb. Each day study one such great life and try to bring into your own mind, by cosmic duplication, some facet of knowledge that person released.

You can make out a list, using the following great figures of history as examples, or you may make up your own list, programming the particular qualities and virtues that you most admire.

Leonardo da Vinci: Originality and the desire to create beauty for the world to enjoy.

Columbus: Cosmic vision and a desire to explore new horizons to discover a new world.

Galileo: Courage to go against the concepts of his day when he proclaimed that the earth rotated around the sun.

Socrates: The desire to organize man's knowledge into a philosophy and code of ethics that brought order out of chaos.

Shakespeare: Beauty of words and expressions; to fashion creative ideas in images that could transmit tremendous emotional power to other human beings.

Voltaire: Wisdom and logic through his philosophy.

Pasteur: Curiosity to discover the invisible world of germs, to help cure a sick world.

Newton: Keep perception and intuition, that caused him to learn the Law of Gravity by observing nature.

Edison: A creative mind and a secret desire to harness the great forces of nature for man's benefit.

Webster: Brilliance of mind, coupled with an insatiable desire to invent and create things of value for humanity.

Lincoln: Compassion and a desire to unify a divided nation and bring freedom to the slaves.

Burbank: A love of nature and the discovery of God's laws which could be used to change nature's products and improve them.

Churchill: Versatility, statesmanship, and courage to win his last battle, after many defeats.

Emerson: Transcendental inspiration to elevate mankind through his philosophy of Idealism.

Carnegie: Faith in his dream for the future of America that caused him to turn nature's resources into productive factories for the good of the country.

Rockefeller: The vision that America would one day be great and require oil for its coming industry.

Borrow any or all of the above great thought forms from these geniuses of the past, and then program them into your subconscious mind with the key words I Absorb. Soon you will create the prototype in your outer world of that which you hold in your mind as a cosmic thought form.

Use the following Telecosmogram to help you program these great thoughts of geniuses into your subconscious mind.

I Absorb: Everything that has been thought by any great genius of history is now in the cosmic repository of all wisdom and knowledge. This now becomes my property to be mentally absorbed, digested, and released as my own original concepts of beauty, idealism, good, creativity, magnificence, and in those enduring works that shall elevate humanity to newer and more noble achievements of peace, prosperity, brotherhood, and spiritual fulfillment.

THE TEN DYNAMIC SECRETS OF TELECOSMIC ALCHEMY TO BRING YOU WHAT YOU WANT

In ancient times, people believed in witchcraft, black and white magic, occult powers, mental alchemy, and many strange cosmic forces, which they believed could be invoked to perform miracles.

What was once thought of as superstition is being now accepted by the latest scientists as actual fact.

Faith healing, in which miracles are performed, is now known to be due to higher Telecosmic forces flowing through the human mind and healing a person.

Praying over seeds of wheat by a minister and his congregation, caused them to yield five times the crop other seeds did.

Growing plants, attached to a brain-wave machine by Cleve Backster, proved that they could tell when they were threatened, and sent out alarm signals with some intelligence they possessed.

We truly live in an age of miracles and we may use these secret, mysterious forces to perform miracles in our own lives.

If the ancients had seen our modern television or radio, they would have thought it a supernatural force.

If primitive man had seen the miracle of our modern lighted buildings and the turning of wheels of industry through electricity, he would have fled terror-stricken before such an awesome power, which he would attribute to some evil genie.

And what of the magic of atomic power, telestar, space ships that take men to the moon and back? What of the wizardry of modern computer systems that can do the work that would take men weeks to do, in just a few moments time?

Truly, we live in an age where man has tapped the Telecosmic Power back of the universe and is indeed performing the miracles dreamed of by the ancients.

TELECOSMIC ALCHEMY PERFORMING MODERN MIRACLES

Now, in the scientific laboratories it is found that by harnessing these invisible wavelengths of Telecosmic power man may extend his mind into new dimensions of time and space, and literally perform miracles.

In this chapter, we shall learn how you may use the ten dynamic secrets of Telecosmic Alchemy to bring you perfect living; so you may have the health, happiness, prosperity, and riches that you deserve and which you desire.

The dynamic Telecosmic Power that flows from the celestial heights to mankind is more than a magnetic or electrical force; it is a Cosmic Intelligence which operates under perfect laws. When you once learn how to invoke this power, it will work its miracles for you in every department of your life.

Is There Any Reality to Black and White Magic?

Are there such things as black and white magic?

Do curses and blessings work some special spell over a person?

Are demonology, witchcraft, necromancy, wizardry, and other allied occult arts powerful enough to perform the mystical acts ascribed to them?

Each person must answer the above questions for himself, but scientists are no longer laughing at the evidence they have discovered, nor are they calling it superstition. They candidly admit, after many years research in the fields of occult phenomena, mental telepathy, Extra-Sensory Perception, Spiritism, and other forms of mystic phenomena that there is something strange and mystical in the invisible universe which man may tap, which alters the chemistry of his body, changes the conditions of his life, and profoundly affects his destiny when that power is invoked by the higher mind within man.

THE TEN DYNAMIC SECRETS OF TELECOSMIC ALCHEMY.

Use This Telecosmogram to Release the Miracle Power of Faith

1. I Believe.

The magic of believing invokes the supreme act of faith in the highest power that resides within your subconscious mind, which Jesus referred to as the Father within.

To release the mystical power of your higher mind, use a system that has been used for centuries in India and Tibet, in which you chant mantras, or silent prayers, to this indwelling Cosmic Power, who works the miracles of life.

Sit in quiet meditation for a few moments and chant in a rhythm of seven (which in itself is a mystical number) times seven, or 49 times, the mantra I Believe.

Here is the pattern, which you may count out on your first four fingers:

I Believe— —I Believe— —I Believe— —I Believe.
I Believe— —I Believe— —I Believe.

Now repeat this pattern until you have completed it seven times; this will make 49 times that you say this mantra.

The Master Jesus said of this dynamic mantra,

Thy Faith hath made thee whole.
All things are possible to him that believeth.

Invoke the following Telecosmogram of Faith every time you wish to obtain power for any situation in life. The Telecosmic Alchemy begins to change your brain, your body and the situations of your life, in the very moment that you invoke this mantra, I Believe.

The Telecosmogram that flashes to your subconscious mind is:

I Believe: I believe in the mystical power back of life. I possess an alchemical force within my mind, body, and soul that is capable of performing miracles for me. I now invoke this power to heal my body, to keep it healthy, vital, and young. I believe cosmic spirit now flows through every cell of my brain and body restoring me, healing me, inspiring me, and guiding me to my great destiny.

TO HEAL PHYSICAL SICKNESS WITH TELECOSMIC POWER

If there should be some specific illness that you are trying to heal through Telecosmic Alchemy, do not name the illness, for this only imprints its reality deeper into your subconscious mind. Simply sit in quiet meditation, after you have read the above Telecosmogram several times, and invoke the mystical power of your higher mind by repeating the mantra I Believe, in a rhythm of seven, for 49 times.

This repetition of the healing meditation will release the right chemicals within your body, from the right glands, that will bring about a healing of your negative physical condition.

TO OVERCOME EMOTIONAL PROBLEMS

If it is a mental or emotional problem, brought on by worry, fear, stress and strain of modern living, repeat the above Telecosmogram by reading it several times, until it is firmly lodged in your subconscious mind. Then sit and chant the mantra I Believe, quietly to yourself, or aloud, 49 times. Then stop and rest, letting the alchemical power of mind and spirit do the work, without any more effort or concern on your part.

Repeat this chant and the mantra I Believe every day for at least half an hour until the condition completely disappears.

A woman had a very bad sore on her right hand that did not yield to any kind of medical treatment. She used the above Mantra of Faith, and it healed completely within one day!

A woman sitting in one of my classes in New York had migraine headaches that nothing could stop. She had treated this condition for months without results. When we began the chanting of the mantra I Believe together, she later told me, she had a violent headache. After the third repetition of the seven rhythm, her headache completely disappeared! She reported to me for many weeks after that healing and her migraine headaches never returned! Her doctor told her it was truly a miracle.

A man had such bad allergies that he was constantly under medication. Doctors tried 135 different substances, which they injected into his blood stream made up of pollen, dog hairs, feathers, dust, coffee and other things they thought might be producing the allergies with sniffing, sneezing, headaches, swollen, running eyes, and all the symptoms of hay fever. Nothing worked. This man used the above mantra for two weeks every day and reported that his allergies, whatever the cause, seemed to completely disappear!

I have in my files hundreds of similar results, proving that something within the human psyche responds to the miracle working power of faith, the I Believe mantra.

2. I Invoke.

Say the mantra I Invoke, in a chanting rhythm for 49 times, with the following programming to your subconscious mind:

I Invoke the highest power of Telecosmic Alchemy, which now works in and through my higher mind centers, performing its miracles for me.

I invoke subconscious mind power to bring me health, happiness, power, riches, joy, peace, love fulfillment, money, or its equivalents.

If you are faced with an unpleasant situation, pain, or some annoyance that you want to banish, intone the mantra I Invoke 49 times, knowing what it is you are trying to rid yourself of, and the unpleasant situation should completely disappear within a few moments. However, if the situation is such that it cannot disappear, you will feel a sense of removal from your mind, like a thorn leaving the flesh, and a feeling of release and relief will flood over your mind and body, making you immune to the painful situation.

To Remove Obstacles in Your Path Use This Telecosmogram

3. I Remove.

Use this mantra when you want to remove some obstacles from your life, or your path to achievement. There may be a person in your office who causes trouble for everyone, and you would like to see him removed to another place.

Or you may have some problem that you cannot solve, or something may be opposing you in your desire to achieve some high goal. This mantra can be said when there are problems with in-laws, landlords, bosses, creditors, or legal obstacles that threaten safety or freedom.

Sit quietly and intone the mantra I Remove 49 times, and let it release the following Telecosmogram for help from your subconscious mind.

I Remove: My faith is strong that I can and will remove the obstructing negative force that stands in my way of progress. No person or situation can withstand this cosmic power.

I now invoke it to remove this troublesome person from my environment. I wish no harm to come to this person; I ask only that he be removed to his right place for his, and my, greater good.

*Note: You do not need to say the Telecosmogram 49 times. You need to read it only once or twice to fix it firmly in your subconscious mind. The subconscious never forgets anything it ever hears, sees, or reads. When you say the mantra I Remove, with its purpose held firmly in your mind, it automatically triggers this Telecosmogram from your subconscious mind and it begins at once to solve your problem or guide you as to what you should do.*

4. I Bless.

Use this mantra when you want to bring benefits, profit or joy to some other person. Use it also when you want to increase your own good; say it 49 times when you want to multiply your money or increase your income.

When people criticize you or try to hurt your feelings do not become angry and curse them but quietly intone the mantra I Bless, and the entire Telecosmogram given for this mantra will flash into your consciousness, removing the sting of sarcasm, criticism, or blame.

This mantra was used by Jesus, the Master, when he said: Matthew 5:44.

But I say unto you, Love your enemies, bless them that curse you, do good to them that hate you, and pray for them which despitefully use you, and persecute you;

Also, the Beatitudes, given in the Sermon on The Mount by Jesus, all begin with the mantra Blessed.

I Bless: I now invoke the power of Telecosmic Alchemy to bless this condition in my life and transmute it from negative to positive.

I bless this money and under the law of increase, it shall multiply and bring me great benefits.

I bless this person and release him to his good, knowing he no longer has power to bring me pain or mental distress, I transmute all negative forces into positive ones by adding the Spiritual Plus, to every experience of my life.

I bless this house and its occupants, asking that they be permitted to dwell forever in peace and harmony.

I bless this place of business and invoke the law of increase, knowing that it shall prosper and grow.

If you wish to increase your money supply, invoke this Mantra by writing on the margins of all $5, $10, and $20 bills that you spend for the next month or so, the words, I Bless This. Your subconscious will then be programmed to multiply all money that you spend.

To Overcome Bad Habits and Control Your Mind, Use This Telecosmogram

5. I Control.

Use this powerful mantra for many different forms of control. If you have a quick temper that threatens you with disaster, intone this mantra as many times as you feel you are becoming angry. It will instantly flash its Telecosmogram to the subconscious to give you immediate control of your temper and your tongue.

If you are impatient and the type that cannot stand waiting for a signal to change when you drive your car; if you fret and fume when someone keeps you waiting and is late for an appointment; if you hate to wait for a bus or a streetcar; use the mantra I Control, saying it to yourself as long as you need it and until your mind is under your complete control.

If you have a bad habit that you wish to overcome and control, use this mantra saying it the full 49 times, each morning and night, until its full power to break your negative habit is released.

A student of mine smoked excessively and it was injuring his health. He invoked the mantra I Control with the Telecosmograms given below. Within two weeks, he was able to slow down his habit to two cigarettes a day; within four weeks he had stopped completely!

If there is an alcoholic or dope addiction problem, intone the I Control mantra three times a day, using the full 49 counts, and it will yield within two to three weeks. At a famous university in Southern California, using this type of therapy, with Transcendental Meditation and the Alpha brainwave control, 20 habitual cigarette smokers stopped in two weeks. 19 dope addicts stopped taking heroin within two to three weeks.

Use the mantra I Control also for overcoming the negative habit of laziness, or procrastination, or any other bad habit.

You can use this mantra also to improve your memory so you can fix dates, names, and places firmly in your subconscious mind and recall them at will.

Then, most important of all, you may use the mantra I Control, to control your nerves, muscles, or bodily functions.

Use the following Telecosmograms with the I Control mantra.

I now invoke the power of instantaneous control over the forces that regulate my life.

My mind is under control of a higher power and I am no longer impatient when external forces intrude on my peace of mind.

My temper is under perfect control and I speak with calmness and serenity when others rant and rave.

I now break the negative habit that I know is harmful to my health and safety. I overcome laziness, putting things off, smoking, drinking, or doing anything to excess, and I control these actions.

To Release Magnetism in Your Personality Use This Telecosmogram

6. I Project.

The mantra I Project, is to be used when you wish to achieve any of the following objectives:

If you wish to have a more dynamic and magnetic personality, you can project magnetism in your voice, in your smile, and in your general aura by intoning this powerful mantra,

If you want to project to the world a presence which radiates joy, optimism, courage, or any other quality, repeat the mantra I Project 49 times at least once a day, until you build the habit pattern in your subconscious mind.

You also may use this mantra when you wish to project good-will, friendliness, and love to other people. If you wish to become a better salesman and make more sales of your product, use the mantra I Project when you approach your client.

A lawyer who had studied Telecosmic Power used this mantra I Project just before going into the courtroom to plead his case before a jury. He would intone the mantra 49 times, asking his subconscious mind to project sincerity, honesty, and justice in his demeanor and personality. He began to win 90 percent of his cases, whereas formerly, he had only won about 45 percent or 50 percent!

I gave this secret to a college teacher who wanted to be advanced to administrative work at a famous university. Within six months, he was given a position as Dean of the University, with a tremendous increase in salary!

A woman who worked in a beauty parlor used this mantra to advance herself in her work. She kept projecting the mantra I Project, with the additional Telecosmogram that she would give better service to her customers, and that someone would offer her a better position in another bigger establishment.

After she had used this mantra for two weeks, a man came to the shop to see her, and gave her a card telling her to call him. She did and he turned out to be a representative of a large chain of beauty salons. A woman that she had been doing work for at the beauty parlor was so impressed by her radiant and efficient personality that she told this man to hire her for his chain. She was offered a chance to be manager of one of the leading salons in Beverly Hills, and her work gave her a chance to later become an equal partner, with another successful beauty parlor within two years time!

Use the following Telecosmograms with the mantra I Project:

My subconscious mind is now programmed to project to the outer world the quality of dynamic magnetism in my personality, my voice and my aura. I wish to project joy and radiance, to charm others, and to attract friends and happy experiences. I project the quality of optimism, courage and integrity in my outer personality. I project an aura of love and beauty to everyone I meet. I increase my effectiveness as a person, in my saleswork, and give confidence and service to others, thus increasing my own good.

To Turn Bad Luck to Good Luck and Black Magic to White Use This Telecosmogram

7.1 Transmute. (Meaning to change.)

You can use this powerful mantra for the following purposes:

When you have a long string of bad luck and wish to change it to good luck, use this mantra.

If you want to win out in life over persons or situations that seem to be harsh and unyielding, say this mantra 49 times at least twice a day.

Use this mantra to change ugliness into beauty, and refuse to see that which is ugly or demeaning in your environment or in the personalities of those around you.

You can turn enemies into friends using this mantra.

You can use the I Transmute mantra to turn the losing cycles in the stock market or other investments from losses into gains. Your subconscious can be triggered to give you accurate information about investments in real estate, stocks, or business ventures.

Use the following Telecosmograms with this mantra.

I now add the Spiritual Plus to every situation in my life that represents a Minus. I add the Plus of Beauty where there is ugliness.

I change my bad luck cycles into good luck, knowing that I will attract only that which is for my ultimate good.

I turn all enemies into friends; I increase my joy and lessen my sorrows.

I invoke this power to turn losing cycles in money and business into winning cycles.

A man who came into our lecture work in New York was having a period of very bad luck in regard to employment. He was an engineer and had been receiving a salary of more than $25,000 a year. Suddenly he was out of work, and for one year he could not find employment. He was offered various positions at salaries of $15,000 and less, but he refused to lower his standards. His savings were nearly gone and he and his wife were desperate.

I programmed this man with the key words I Transmute and the above Telecosmograms, with special emphasis on the last sentence: I invoke this power to turn losing cycles in money and business into winning cycles.

Within a few weeks after he started using these mantras, this man was offered a big position in San Francisco, at a very good salary and he instantly accepted it! He had also been programming for a change in residence, hoping that in some way he could live and work in either Los Angeles or San Francisco!

To Gain Something of Value Use the Key Words "I Enrich"

8. I Enrich.

Use the key words I Enrich whenever you want to gain something of value, either mentally, physically, materially, or spiritually.

Say the mantra 49 times, in the seven rhythm we have studied.

Use this mantra for the following purposes:

To enrich your intellect and have an expanded consciousness, with greater cultural growth in all fields of knowledge.

In elevating your standards to very high levels of idealism and beauty, use the I Enrich mantra.

Use this mantra also to strengthen your five physical senses and your physical body, so they will all operate in harmony and give greater efficiency and pleasure.

Use the I Enrich mantra to bring you material riches, including money in the bank for security, lands, houses, cars, jewels, furnishings, clothing, and other material things that add to comfort, security, and happiness.

You will trigger the following Telecosmograms by using the I Enrich mantra:

I Enrich. I now enrich my consciousness on all levels of creative action. I wish to increase my mental and intellectual capacity, to absorb wisdom and knowledge, which I may apply to my life.

I absorb from my subconscious mind high standards, idealism, beauty and qualities of perfection, which will show in my outer actions and create for me a perfect destiny.

My five senses and my body's physical forces now operate in complete unity, giving me harmony within, and greater enjoyment of my total life experiences.

I am enriched spiritually and my soul becomes attuned to the Cosmic Soul of the Universe, pulsating in harmony with the forces of Good, Peace, Love, Joy, and Ecstasy.

To Rid Yourself of Negative Emotions, Moods and Depression

9. I Dispel.

The mantra I Dispel, can be used to banish clouds of moodiness, fear, worry, hatred, anxiety, and depression. When you say this mantra every time you have a problem you cannot solve, or something troubles you, it instantly helps lift the veils of confusion and discord, permitting your subconscious mind to come through with perfect psychic guidance. Intuition will once more take over when you use the mantra I Dispel to remove mortal mind doubts about your present or future life.

I Dispel. Use these Telecosmograms for this mantra: All negative clouds that obstruct my higher vision, such as fear, worry, hatred, anxiety about the future, are here and now dispelled by the bright sun of my subconscious mind. I am in the light, and the shadows of doubt and uncertainty fall behind me. I am illumined by the light of Cosmic Mind, and guided through intuition to my destiny of perfect living.

To Heal a Specific Physical or Mental Condition

10. I Heal.

This Mantra may be used when there is some specific physical or mental condition that needs healing, which may not have responded to physical treatment by medicines or doctors. Give modern science every chance first and then, if there are no results, let the Cosmic Physician work His healing arts on you through the centuries-old method of Telecosmic Alchemy, which knows how to build your body and sustain it perfectly.

Use this mantra of I Heal with the following Telecosmograms:

My body responds to the higher superconscious power that knows the chemistry of every cell of my physical body. I now release the healing power of this higher mind to restore my body to its perfect functioning.

My heart responds to the cosmic rhythm which set it into motion, and it will now regulate my heart, my blood-pressure, my blood's circulation, my metabolism, my digestion, my nourishment, and all other functions perfectly.

Any specific ailment that now afflicts my body or brain responds to the I HEAL mantra. My subconscious mind, which controls the automatic processes of my body through the autonomic system, now takes over the healing process and I become perfect.

There is a universal language of symbols that exists between all elements of creation. This form of telepathic communication tells plants to grow and evolve when spring comes. It orders the seasons to change on schedule. It tells the tides of the seas when to ebb and flow. It makes the earth revolve on its own axis every 24 hours, giving us our nights and days.

This universal communication tells the stars to revolve in their orbits; it orders rain and snow when needed; it gives its message to every living, growing form of life, including human beings—the highest form of creation.

You can also be guided by this universal form of cosmic intelligence to the finding of your true destiny. You can learn to use these universal symbols to flash Telecosmographs to your subconscious mind and program them to dynamic forms of action.

In this chapter, we shall learn how you can use Telecosmographs, the universal symbols, to project your thoughts and inspirations to a Cosmic Telestar, and they will then be replayed back to your life in glorious fulfillment of your every dream.

Just as we use earth's telestar to send radio and television waves back to earth, where they may be received by millions of sets, so too your own Telecosmographs will be projected to the sensitive minds of those who can help you achieve your destiny perfectly.

Psychologists tell us that we often dream in symbols.

The higher mind is trying to tell us something important, a future danger we can avoid, or an upcoming event we can expect. We might dream of fire, and it can be a warning to be cautious. A woman in our lecture work in New York kept having a dream of fire. Her husband was a traveling salesman, living in various hotels. She wrote him of her warning dream. Two weeks later, her husband was in the LaSalle Hotel in Chicago and smelled smoke. He remembered his wife's warning dream and escaped that fatal fire that destroyed many lives.

A man in our lecture work kept dreaming of a white eagle. He happened to be in the stock market, so he looked to see if it related to stocks. There was a stock named White Eagle, which was selling for a dollar or so a share. He bought 6,500 shares and forgot it. In a few months time, it went up to $8 a share and he sold it, making a big profit.

Just as you receive these symbols from your subconscious mind in dreams, so, too, you may use these symbols, which I have named Telecosmograms, to send your subconscious mind messages that will trigger it every time you see the symbol or Telecosmograph in your daily life.

For instance, you see the sun every day; you are aware of the moon and stars at night; when rains falls, you are aware that it is causing things to grow. When you see a car on the street, it indicates to your mind transportation, pleasure, or work. Your subconscious mind is constantly being programmed by these Telecosmographs in your daily life. By deliberately choosing the Telecosmographs you see every day and programming them into your subconscious mind, you will automatically trigger certain reactions that cause your subconscious mind to be programmed in a certain form of dynamic action. This happens through the sympathetic nervous system and releases emotional responses that drive you towards certain goals.

REGIMEN FOR USING KEY TELECOSMOGRAPHS

1. Use the symbol of our golden SUN as a Telecosmograph, when you want to release power, energy, life, healing, and other physical forces connected with your physical body.

Use the key words I Give and the following Telecosmograms. Remember—read the Telecosmogram several times and get it into your subconscious mind, then merely repeat the key words I Give whenever you want healing power. Each time you see the sun, you will automatically trigger the Telecosmograms that go with the key words I Give.

I Give: The sun is the giver of all life and energy. I now draw upon the golden sun for health, power, life, youthful radiance, and joy. The sun is the giver of all good and precious gifts. It is now the symbol that reminds me of God, the Spiritual Sun back of life. This Spiritual Sun gives life, happiness, prosperity, love, peace and, beauty to the world.

I now give of my good and it comes back to me enriched. I give my services and I become successful. I give ideas and they make me rich. I give love and I am blessed with friends and loved ones. I give happiness to others and in turn I receive pleasure and good.

2. Now use the same Telecosmograph of the SUN with the key words I Receive, when you wish to program your subconscious mind with the things you want to receive.

I Receive: I now receive from this life source of the sun all my good. A golden floodtide of life energy suffuses my body. Cosmic gold now streams from my higher mind centers in a perpetual flow of ideas that will make me successful and rich.

I receive inspiration, beauty, idealistic concepts, and divine love from the source of all life and power. I receive peace of mind and inner tranquility as I hold the image of the golden spiritual sun in my consciousness.

A man I once knew was having serious difficulties in his marriage after five years. He learned about Telecosmic power, and it suddenly dawned on him that he had been receiving love and service from his wife, but he had not been giving of himself. He seldom ever stopped to tell his wife he loved her, assuming she knew he did. He never praised her for the fine meals she served him, but often ate watching TV and leaving her out of the magic circle of his love. He frequently complained and nagged, and rarely ever took her out to a party, a dance, or a movie. Naturally, his wife became cool and aloof emotionally and soon she told him she wanted a divorce.

I gave this man this exercise to use, with the Telecosmo-graph of the sun, and the key words I Give. He programmed his subconscious mind with the above Telecosmograms of love, kindness, and consideration and his wife responded immediately. They are still happily married.

3. THE MOON. Use the mental image of the moon as a Telecosmograph to your higher mind, when you want to program yourself to beauty and the feminine virtues of kindness, gentility, peace, beauty, and romance. Use this with the key words I Idealize.

Program your subconscious mind with the following Telecosmogram whenever you see the moon, or mentally image it in meditation:

I Idealize: Like the full silvery moon, sailing high above the earth, in its serenity and majesty, I now become high-minded, idealistic, beautiful, and romantic. I take on all the qualities of gentility, peace, and romance, and I give out creative gifts and idealism. My life reflects the magnetism and enchantment that cause others to revolve in the orbit of my mind and heart with affection, joy, and love.

As the gravity pull of the silvery orb attracts the ebb and flow of the tides, so too my magnetism increases and I attract into the orbit of my influence people and situations that bring me riches, happiness, and prosperity.

Whenever you are faced with confusion or impatience and you want serenity and peace, close your eyes for a few moments, visualize the full, silvery moon, and let it signal all of the above Telecosmograms to your subconscious mind. You will instantly feel a sense of peace and aloofness from life's problems and turmoil.

A woman I knew moved in an atmosphere of confusion, discord, and friction. She had trouble with her co-workers in the office. Her boy friend broke off with her because she was always 'blowing her top.' She couldn't control her impatience with waiters and clerks, who always seemed in league against her. When she studied this principle of achieving serenity with the moon Telecosmographs, she changed dramatically within one week and her friends remarked about how peaceful and calm she now appeared. Her boy friend returned to her and could hardly believe the remarkable change. She told me he proposed marriage within one month from the time he returned.

4. STARS. Flash the Telecosmograph of glittering stars set in the celestial heights, whenever you wish to program your subconscious mind with enduring qualities that add character, give purpose and direction to your life. Associate the following qualities with these Telecosmographs of stars: Faith, Beauty, Hope, Joy, Peace, Good, and Love.

When your life is clouded with doubt and you feel a sense of uselessness in your life, sit quietly for a few moments and say the Telecosmographs given here and instantly you will be elevated and inspired. Then, whenever you need these inspiring elements simply say the key word I Rise and all these forces will rise to help you, from your subconscious mind.

I now emulate the radiance and beauty of these celestial jewels.

The star of Faith now radiates its sustaining message to my subconscious mind. I have faith in the Creator who created the universe and all therein for my pleasure and benefit.

The Star of Beauty, which glows in my heart, mind, and soul, reflects my inner beauty to the outer world.

The Star of Joy now floods my life with happiness, and I project this in my daily living, sharing it with everyone I meet.

The Star of Good now blesses my life with every good and precious gift and I live in an aura of prosperity and richness, utilizing all the good things that God has given me.

The Star of Peace now scintillates in my mind and body with its celestial rays of tranquility and serenity, and I live in peace and harmony with all the world.

The Star of Love now dawns upon the spiritual horizon of consciousness, blessing my life with the Divine Romance, in which my soul blends with the Soul of the Universe in a perpetual betrothal that will last throughout eternity.

The Star of Hope springs eternally within my heart and soul, bringing me the assurance that life will present me with the best, the greatest, and the most beautiful experiences.

A woman who was always swinging from one cycle to another, high and low, constantly depressed and moody, needed this Telecosmogram and she began to use it every day for three weeks, saying I Rise, 49 times whenever she felt moods, depression, or uncertainty. She reported that her life changed dramatically in that time and she never again let herself become moody and depressed.

5. A DOOR. This Telecosmograph is highly symbolical, for in mysticism a door is the symbol of entering into an expanded life experience. The Master Jesus spoke of being the Gate, and this symbol has always been one of spiritual significance.

As you use a door every day of your life, it can be a perpetual Telecosmograph, flashing to your subconscious mind the key words I Enter and I Exit.

Whenever you wish to open the inner portals of your mind and achieve the state known as Cosmic Consciousness, you can use the key words I Enter. This will give you expanded horizons and new life experiences.

You can use it also for a new era of prosperity and success in your business affairs, as well as new relationships with friends in your social life.

The I Enter Telecosmograms can also be used to give you greater awareness in love and marriage, with a deeper appreciation of your mate.

I Enter: I now program my subconscious mind to guide me into a complete new life experience. I enter into the expanded domain of a greater consciousness. A greater vision of my future life now comes to me.

I enter into an era of prosperity and riches.

I enter into new relationships with friends in my social life, and new and exciting possibilities offer themselves to me in love and marriage.

Swing open the portals of consciousness and permit me to have cosmic illumination. I wish to have new ideas in business and financial matters. I desire the release of creative imagination to present me with a design for the future that admits of greater joy and more perfect living.

A man who came into our work in New York City told me he was retiring in another year on his Social Security, and that he had nothing else to look forward to in his life. He ended his sad saga by saying, "When you're 65 and alone, who wants you?" His wife, he told me, had died two years before and now he lived in loneliness, waiting for death.

I immediately changed this man's subconscious programming, first by telling him that most of the world's great works had been done by men and women who were past 60 and even 70! Vanderbilt built his big fortune when he was in his seventies. Michelangelo painted his greatest masterpieces when he was 74.

George Bernard Shaw wrote his greatest dramas after the age of 60.

Grandma Moses, in our own time, was given up to die when she was in her seventies, and began to paint quaint little pictures called primitives, that made her a million dollars! With this new entrance into a new life experience, she had a new zest for life and lived to be 101!

This man, after being programmed with the key words I Enter, and the Telecosmograms given above, had an astounding change in his entire life plan within one month. He began to study dramatic writing in night school. Within one year, he wrote a TV drama for a day time serial, sold it, and instead of retiring on his small Social Security, he began to receive $2,000 a week for his continued writing of the so-called "Soap opera."

You may use the same Telecosmograph of a Door, with the key words I Exit when you are faced with an unpleasant situation that you want to remove from your life.

Use the following Telecosmograms with the key words I Exit:

I now program my subconscious mind that I shall leave this unpleasant situation in my life. I shall come into an era of peace and harmony. I depart from this position that is unworthy of my talents and I enter into a new life work, where I can make the money I deserve and create something useful and enduring with my thoughts and labor.

I depart from this era of problems and vexations and enter into a life that is joyous and free. I leave behind me all the negative programmings of the past with their worries, fears, hatreds, pressures, and anxieties. I enter into the new unlimited domain of peace, love, prosperity, and perfect living.

6. A KEY. This Telecosmograph is something that can be flashed to your subconscious mind every time you use a key to open or lock a door. Like a door, a key is also symbolical of certain things. Whenever you wish to discover something, when you want to program greater riches, or find new knowledge, you can use this Telecosmograph with the key words I Unlock and the following Telecosmograms.

I Unlock secrets of the universe through my subconscious mind. I discover new forms of knowledge and find unexplored realms of intellect and creativity within my mind. I penetrate the secret interstices of the universe; all of nature's mysteries are revealed to me, giving me instant awareness of my own creative powers to discover new formulas, to invent useful articles, to create beauty, to evolve all creation to higher forms of perfection.

I unlock my higher superconscious power to give me instant apperception and psychic guidance to know where I may discover the earth's hidden treasures. I ask to be guided to riches in every form; money, houses, lands, jewels, stocks, automobiles, and other treasures that will give me everything that I need for my pattern of perfect living.

I unlock the treasures of my soul, releasing to the outer world my inner poise, serenity, and soul's tranquility.

I unlock the higher dimensions of love on all planes, bringing me friends, loved ones, perfect expression of love in marriage, a family of my own, and all the priceless treasures of a loving heart, mind, and soul.

A young lady of 22 had been terribly disillusioned in love. On the eve of her wedding, her fiance had deserted her and she swore she would never trust another man. When she came to me for counseling, I changed her subconscious programming with two Telecosmographs, The Door and the Key, with the Telecosmograms given for them above. She was to give special prominence to the aspects of love on all planes. She did this for only one week when she reported to me she was her old, smiling, confident self again. She had a date that night with a boy friend she had given up before and she now realized that he had more true qualities than the one who had jilted her!

7. A MIRROR. This Telecosmograph can flash its message to your subconscious mind every time you look at yourself in a mirror. A mirror is a reflecting surface that shows exactly what is put before it. Your life will reflect back to you exactly what you bring before the mirror of nature. You will program your subconscious mind with those qualities that you want to reflect back into your life experience.

Use the key words I Reflect when you want to reflect the wisdom of the cosmic mind to achieve the spiritual prototype of the Perfect You.

I Reflect: As a mirror is the reflector of that which stands before it, so too, my mind reflects in the mirror of my soul the images I wish to manifest in the outer circumstances of my life.

I mirror a rich consciousness and project to my subconscious mind the sum of $1,000 to come to me through an unexpected source. I project the larger sums of $5,000, $10,000, and $100,000, to come to me over a period of time, giving me financial security for the future.

In the mirrorscope of my mind I reflect the omniscience of the cosmic intelligence, which is all-knowing, all-seeing, and all wise, guiding me perfectly to the fulfillment of my destiny.

My intellect mirrors qualities of omnipotence, making me all-powerful, giving me the ability to conquer life, to master self, and to rise above the limitations of life into the stratosphere of life, power, intelligence, and good.

I now reflect the divine quality of Omnipresence. The cosmic spirit of creation is everywhere present, bringing illumination to my life, quickening my spirit, evolving my mind, and releasing divine light that banishes the dark shadows of life.

8. THE ELECTRIC LIGHT. Every time you turn on an electric light you will flash the signal to your subconscious mind I Illumine, and be aware that light banishes darkness and is a symbol of infinite intelligence.

Whenever you wish illumination on a problem, or when you want to dissolve an unwanted condition and overcome some negative situation, use the following Telecosmograms with the key words I Illumine.

The light of Infinite Intelligence now illumines my consciousness, bringing me instant awareness of my power. As light dispels darkness, so too my problems now disappear under the bright light of Infinite Intelligence.

The golden light of psychic illumination now stimulates my third eye, the psychic center within my mind, which knows how to guide me to my future destiny perfectly, overcoming all obstacles and leading me to greatness.

The light of the cosmic sun, reflecting earthward, strengthens me mentally and physically. I bask in its radiance, and it magnetizes my mind centers with ideas for growth and evolution, bringing me riches, happiness, peace, and abundance.

9. A BIRD IN FLIGHT. This Telecosmograph can flash the following message to your subconscious mind: the desire to be free of life's petty annoyance, and to be released from the mundane world of commonness, vexations, irritations, and annoyances.

The key words can be; I Free and I Release.

I now rise above the petty problems and annoyances of life, and I am free of the disturbances that exist in my home, in my business and my daily environment. I wish to be released from the daily cares and petty problems and rise into a new, expanded cosmic consciousness of freedom, growth, and spiritual evolution.

I wish to be free of the problems that beset my romance (or marriage) and come into a peaceful era where I may know true bliss and freedom.

I wish to be free of troublesome people who are critical, nagging, unappreciative, and negative, and who perpetually stand in the path of my progress and keep me from soaring into unlimited prosperity, joy, love, and good.

I free my mind from the gravity pull of earth with its daily petty vexations. My mind now soars into the illimitable realms of cosmic greatness and splendor. On wings of hope I ascend, with a song of joy in my heart, to those realms of peace and joy where my great destiny awaits me.

The above nine Telecosmographs are those which are most frequently encountered in your daily living, and which can be programmed into your subconscious mind for certain purposes. Note: It is important to remember that all these symbols and key words go together, making a pattern that makes sense to your subconscious mind. It is used to thinking in terms of symbols and you are already programmed to certain states of consciousness, some good, some bad, that cause you to be the person you are and act in the way you do.

12

You possess within your higher mind ten basic desires, in common with all humanity, which you can use to focus your Telecosmic Power to bring you anything you desire.

We shall study these ten basic desires in this chapter and learn how to use the emotion of desire to bring you fulfillment of your every dream.

The emotion of Desire has been given to all of God's creatures. It is higher in man than in any other form of life. This divine emotion is responsible for all of man's great achievements in every field of endeavor.

THE DESIRE FOR SUCCESSFUL LIVING IS WITHIN YOU

You have a desire for successful living. From the moment you were born you have been striving to achieve a certain pattern of destiny that is natural for you. When you program your higher mind centers with the ten basic desires God gave to every human being, you will be able to trigger the cosmic jackpot of golden ideas that bring you a perfect destiny.

THE TEN BASIC DESIRES THAT TRIGGER YOUR SUBCONSCIOUS MIND WITH DYNAMIC CREATIVE ACTION

1. The Desire to Achieve Personal Success

Successful living comes only when you achieve personal success on every plane. Many people are rich and successful in a monetary sense, but miserable failures as persons.

I know a man who has made several million dollars in his lifetime. He has married and been divorced three times. Now he lives alone in a mansion, without friends or loved ones. His three grown children seldom visit him. He is stingy and miserly, refusing to help anyone with his fortune. This man has a variety of ailments, including high blood pressure and heart trouble. His days are numbered, and he will not be missed or mourned by many people. He is one of life's many failures, even with his vast fortune.

On the other hand, I know another man who has a family of six children. He and his wife are always struggling to pay the bills and the rent, but they are smiling, happy, well-adjusted people who have found the secret of perfect living. They are successful people, even though their bank balance may not be very big. The chances are that they will also achieve financial success through their desire to give their family a better way of life.

There are six elements that make for a successful person. These are:

- A. The ability to enjoy life in every phase.
- B. A desire to like people and to be well liked.
- C. An integrated personality that functions gracefully in the presence of others.
- D. The ability to adjust to life's changing situations with inner equanimity.
- E. The finding of inner poise and faith, which give strength of soul to see one through life's disturbing cycles.
- F. The desire to do constructive work and be productive for the good of the world.

How to Program These Six Elements into Your Subconscious Mind

Each day, write down one of the above elements for being a successful person on a filing card that you can carry with you or leave where you see it often during the day.

Tell yourself that all that day you will carry out the particular injunction for that day. On Monday, you will use Telecosmogram A; The ability to enjoy life in every phase.

All day Monday, express joy, no matter what trying situations you pass through. Transmute the negative experiences of that day into positive ones. If someone criticizes you or hurts your feelings, change it into gratitude for possible improvement in yourself, rather than direct hatred to the offending person.

On Tuesday, program Telecosmogram B. into your subconscious mind; A desire to like people and to be well liked.

All during that day, strive to be likable. No matter how people react to you, see them as being likable and make the effort not to resent them nor to argue with them. You will soon be so programmed to seeing the good in others that you will be able to overlook their faults.

On Wednesday, use Telecosmogram C; An integrated personality that functions gracefully in the presence of others.

All day Wednesday, try to take the sharp edges off your personality. Make it a point to get along with everyone in your office or your home. Refuse to let little things throw you. See yourself as a decent human being, treating others with respect.

On Thursday, use Telecosmogram D; The ability to adjust to life's changing situations with inner equanimity. There are times when nothing seems to go right. Everyone has these days. It is nothing that you do or do not do, it is a cycle of life. If you do not adjust yourself to these changing conditions, you will be in a perpetual state of mental and emotional turmoil.

A woman who was very disturbed because nothing seemed to go right in her life came to me for guidance. I checked on her life and found she was lacking in the ability to win friends and also to adjust to changing times. She had once been socially prominent, but when her husband died, she lost all her money through wrong investments. With the loss of money, her social facade crumbled. She found that most of her friends had liked her when she had a beautiful home in which to entertain them, but when she was forced to move into a small apartment, these friends deserted her.

I programmed this woman with three elements which she especially needed, A, D. and E. She had great difficulty in finding anything to enjoy in her present situation, but I told her to immerse herself in helping her two grown children, who now had two children each of their own. She spent time baby-sitting, giving her daughters time for their own social activities, and soon she was so happy with her grandchildren that she didn't miss her old fair-weather friends. She spent more time in reading and improving her mind. She began to be active once again in church affairs, giving her the inner poise and faith which strengthened her and made her strong enough to withstand life's unfortunate reverses.

On Friday, program yourself with Telecosmogram E: The finding of inner poise and faith, which give strength of soul to see one through life's disturbing cycles.

No matter how disturbing are the events of that day, transmute them into spiritual substance by reminding yourself that you grow spiritually when you meet life's challenges and have faith in a power higher than yourself, which can guide you to the fulfillment of your life goal.

On Saturday, use Telecosmogram F; The desire to do constructive work and be productive for the good of the world. All during Saturday, whether at work or at home, hold in your mind the thought that you will only do constructive acts that benefit yourself as well as others.

On Sunday, you can make up your own Telecosmogram, which fits your concept of spiritual or religious matters. You might use the Telecosmograms of Faith and Charity, or of Forgiveness and Divine Love, and all day be aware that God is a reality, guiding you in your life and blessing your life with everything good and beautiful.

2. The Desire to Win Recognition and Acceptance by Others

"Man shall not live by bread alone," we are told. We live for other people, and the desire to be recognized as human beings and accepted by others is strong within every person.

Recognition does not apply merely to one's work, but applies also to the acceptance by others. You might be a genius in your work and yet be an isolated, lonely person. To have perfect living, people should figure prominently in your life.

You must not only have friends but you need many acquaintances to give you a sense of belonging to the entire community, not to just a few people.

Program into your subconscious mind every day that you have something of value to give to people and they in turn can enrich you with ideas, service, money, and other things of value.

Use the key words I Win, to program this particular desire into your higher mind centers, and realize that when you are aware of others and have a desire to give them joy, you will, in turn, win recognition and acceptance by others.

A young woman of 21 was lonely and felt left out of the world's magic circle of love and acceptance. She came from a broken home and she felt that she could never find anyone who would give her love and understanding. I gave her subconscious mind a special form of programming in which she was to use the key words I Win, with the following Telecosmograms every night for two or three weeks.

I shall win the admiration and respect of others. I project the emotion of affection to everyone I meet. I think friendly and loving thoughts. I am joyous and expectant of my good. People are all friendly and are eager to give me friendship. I now accept that friendship and respond with true affection and joyousness.

It was hardly one week before this young woman began to radiate a completely different type of personality. Instead of being shy and withdrawn, she seemed suddenly to be surrounded by an aura of friendliness and joy. She smiled more often, she no longer mistrusted strangers. She was invited to a dance on the first week of her new programming, and she felt warmth and affection for the young man. He dated her often after that, and she finally told me at the end of a two-month period that she no longer feared loneliness but felt that now she was ready for love and marriage.

3. A Desire to Love and to Be Loved

To win and hold love, your subconscious mind must be programmed with this divine emotion daily. Love is not something you can think of one day and ignore the next. It is an emotion that must daily be replenished and given out.

Our emotions grow stronger when we use them daily. Just as a muscle grows stronger when it is exercised, so, too, the emotion of love grows when you express your love for your family, your mate, your friends, your community, your God. This is why you must consciously program this emotion with the key words I Love every day.

Emerson said it in these words: "Love and you shall be loved; for all love is as mathematically just as the two sides of an algebraic equation."

The only two definitions given in the Bible of God are summed up in two words, Good and Love. God is Good. God is Love.

Program daily into your life that you will do good for other people.

Use the key words I Do, and the Telecosmograms:

I now recognize the good in other people. I release my good in daily actions that will bless the lives of others.

With the key words I Love, use the Telecosmogram:

I love every human being created in the image and likeness of God, Cosmic Good. I share my love with others and in return, their love blesses my life.

I love my family and daily express that love in thoughts, words, and deeds.

I love my mate and show my love in my actions and my words.

I love my country and will sacrifice for its good.

I love God more than self, and will serve Him always.

4. The Desire to Make Money and Become Prosperous

This innate desire for financial and business success is within every person when he is born. You are on a constant quest for success, personal, romantic, financial, and spiritual. Only when you balance your life with monetary success, and achieve the highest goals you can attain, can you be said to be a total success.

Money images must be programmed in your subconscious mind with the key words I Prosper.

Each day program this prosperity theme into your subconscious mind with these Telecosmograms:

I recognize the need of financial success in my life. I now program riches on every plane. I wish to have security, and I know that money is a medium of exchange that can bring me the good things of life. I program the sum of $100,000 as an over-all goal, asking for business ideas that can make me prosperous.

A man who came into our work considered himself a total failure at the age of 39. He had just been divorced because his wife couldn't stand the perpetual failure that he had become.

After three weeks, I programmed this man with the I Prosper theme to such a success that he went on the road with a household product, visiting medium-sized cities, where he recruited crews of young men to go from door to door to sell his products. Then, after training these crews, he left them and went on to another city, where he repeated the process. He received commissions from every sale these crews made and soon it amounted to as high as $5,000 a month! Within one year, this man had a sizable nest egg and is now consolidating his business in a large central office in the West Coast; and he feels that soon he will be in the $100,000 a year income class!

The thing that happens to your subconscious mind, when you program it with the I Prosper key words and the above Telecosmograms, is that it is impelled to search immediately for ways by which you can become prosperous. Every person has different talents; this man happened to be a good salesman, but if he had not known how to sell, his subconscious mind would have come up with an idea that fitted his exact needs.

Another man, using the I Prosper key was a carpenter; he got an idea for doing home repairs and within one year had three trucks going out to do home repairs, while he stayed in his office receiving orders.

Two women who used this system of mental programming were artistic. Each had a different talent from the other. One received instructions from her subconscious mind to do color tinting of large photographs which sold for $50. She trained three other women to do this work in their homes, and got orders from leading photographers in her home town. She was soon making more money than her husband!

The other artistic woman had a different talent; she could knit and crochet and do dressmaking. Her subconscious gave her the idea to study artificial flower making. She enrolled in a class and, within a few weeks time, she was able to create beautiful artificial flowers that she sold or rented to stores. Her biggest money came a year later, when she trained 50 women to do the same thing while she furnished the materials and the know-how. Soon her income had soared to $2,000 a month!

5. The Desire to Discover New Life Experiences

Every person has a desire for new adventures, exciting new experiences that will add pleasure to his life.

This desire is what leads some people to go on journeys of discovery to foreign lands and to seek out exciting adventures far from home.

However, this desire can lead you to the finding of new life experiences in your own everyday environment and keep you from being bored with life.

Use the key words I Discover, to program the following Telecosmograms into your subconscious mind:

I discover the unlimited horizons of the universe in my quest for life's new and exciting adventures. I project the desire to share in life's greatest adventures, to travel to foreign countries, to meet interesting people in all walks of life. I expand the horizons of my mind and encompass new ideas and unlimited concepts. What others have done I can do. I wish changes in my home, my business, my environment that fit this new concept of adventure and excitement.

One young lady who came into our work used this Telecosmogram and was impelled by her subconscious mind to go into the Peace Corps, where she had the opportunity to travel to the Far East. But the most exciting thing that happened on her many trips was that she met a young man, studying to be a doctor, who was on summer vacation, and they fell in love and were married in India in the most romantic of settings!

Another young man who came to our lectures in Carnegie Hall several years ago, programmed his mind with this Telecosmogram. Something impelled him to begin the study of Portuguese, never knowing why. Two years later, he had an opportunity to go to South America, where he went into television work in Brazil and became one of the big successes in that field!

6. The Desire to Create Something Beautiful and Enduring

Every person is born with a desire to create something beautiful and enduring. To some this desire expresses itself in creating beautiful art objects, others compose music, still others go into cosmetology, or interior decorating, or dress designing, architecture, theater design, or writing poetry, novels, or plays. Whatever form it expresses itself in, this basic human desire is always intent on creating something that others can share and enjoy.

The most magnificent creations by men throughout the centuries have been dedicated to this ideal of beauty.

The artistic masterpieces of great artists, the immortal sonnets and dramas of Shakespeare, the delightful music created by master musicians throughout the ages, all these attest to the divine urge in man to create something magnificent and enduring.

To release your own subconscious creative power for creating something beautiful and enduring in your life, use the key words I Beautify with the following Telecosmograms;

I strive to achieve ultimate perfection in everything I do. I desire the creation of magnificent concepts in art, music, poetry, literature, and drama, that will express my own inner images of beauty.

I wish to create something beautiful and enduring that will give joy to others as well as to myself.

I now search within for the mystic tapestry of dreams which can weave my destiny in the image and likeness of perfection and beauty.

7. The Desire to Find Peace and Happiness

You can program your subconscious mind to peace and happiness just as easily as to discord, confusion, and misery. Most people are negatively programmed and they seldom find the joy in living that should be theirs.

To program your mind to finding peace and happiness use the key words I Am with the following Telecosmograms:

I am one with the positive forces of life. I live in an atmosphere of peace and serenity. I grasp the little moments of happiness that are in my life every day and appreciate them fully. I share my happiness with others and am doubly blessed. I am a center of quiescence and calmness, and like a peaceful lake, reflecting the blue skies and the golden sun, my soul now reflects the peace, joy, good, and beauty that are all around me.

8. The Desire to Give Something of Value to Others

You were born with the innate desire to share your good with others. People who are selfish and demand that everything revolves around them, are usually miserable and suffer from loneliness and discontent.

Use the key words I Share with the following Telecosmograms to implement this desire to give something of value to others.

I share my good with the world. I give of my smiles and I win friends. I give my services and labor and I win riches. I give love and I attract loving persons in my life. I share my joy and in turn I am joyous. I share my inner beauty and I am in turn made more resplendent.

9. The Desire to Improve Your Intellect and Your Creative Powers

The quest for wisdom and knowledge is inborn. From the moment you were born, you have been acquiring more and more knowledge in every department of your life. Schooling and education carry this to its ultimate conclusion. However, many people stop learning the moment they leave school and this dooms them to live lives of ignorance and misery.

Each day, program this desire to improve your intellect. Learn a new word every day. Study a foreign language, even if you do not use it, it will activate your brain cells and give you a more agile mind. Study something about art, music, literature, science, travel, politics, chemistry, astronomy, philosophy, psychology—all the world's accumulated knowledge can be yours, if you give only one hour a day to self-improvement.

Use the key words I Improve with the following Telecosmograms to improve your intellect and your creative powers:

I desire the improvement of my intellect, and the accumulation of wisdom and knowledge on many different levels of creative action.

I improve in my powers of observation, viewing the world and people through eyes that see every subtle nuance of difference, of beauty, and of good.

I improve my memory, holding on to that which is significant and important to my future, and discarding those past memory patterns of negativity, ugliness, discord, inharmony, hatred, or other emotions that keep me from the true glory of the universe.

I improve my imagination, recognizing this as the creative force within that can shape the world in which I wish to live in my future.

10. The Desire to Evolve Spiritually

Within every human soul there is a desire to know God and to worship and pray to a higher power that controls the universe and all therein.

Spiritual evolvment is more than the practicing of your own personal religion; it is putting into action all the great moral, ethical, and spiritual laws that have been revealed in the Ten Commandments, the Sermon on the Mount, the Golden Rule, and other precepts released by the prophets and teachers of history.

Use the key words I Worship with the following Telecosmograms for spiritual evolvment.

I now program into my higher consciousness the desire to become a more spiritually evolved person, with a love of God and a desire to serve Him in my daily life.

I practice the spiritual principles of Good, of Charity, of Forgiveness, of Mercy, and Compassion. I become loving and kind, giving consideration and courtesy to everyone I meet. I ask guidance of my higher mind to fulfill my spiritual destiny perfectly, to know inner peace and tranquility, and to be rewarded with joy, peace, and happiness in my personal life.

HOW TO TAP THE COSMIC TELEBANK OF UNIVERSAL RICHES

Everywhere we look in the realm of nature we are confronted by an astounding array of universal riches that man may tap and utilize for his own benefit.

Every foot of soil teems with abundance. We need only put a seed into the ground to see how quickly the Cosmic Telebank of universal riches begins to turn that seed into treasures for man to use.

Lumber awaits you for your future dream house.

Iron, coal, oil, and gold lie in the Cosmic Telebank waiting for your joyous discovery and use.

Rubber, maple syrup, and resins flow from trees to enrich mankind. Cotton, oranges, watermelons, and apples, spring into being from the Cosmic Telebank of the universe and bless man with infinite riches and abundance.

The sea abounds with infinite treasures; fish, to feed mankind; pearls, to adorn his person with beauty; oil and other treasures abound in the sea and scientists are only now beginning to tap these priceless treasures for mankind's future use.

MONEY IS MAN MADE

When you use Telecosmic Power to tap the Cosmic Telebank of universal riches, to attract money or its equivalent, realize that money is man made. It is an artificial symbol, that stands for the true treasures of life. To understand how money responds to Telecosmic Power is the purpose of this chapter.

You can tap the flow of cosmic riches with the Telecosmic Power of your higher mind and actually start a flow of money and things of value in your life that will never stop.

REGIMEN TO TAP THE COSMIC TELEBANK OF UNIVERSAL RICHES

1. I have named the repository of all riches that exist in the invisible realm of the universe, the Cosmic Telebank. Just as a bank holds money on deposit which can be drawn when needed, so too there is a vast cosmic intelligence which created all forms of treasures, and which holds the secret key as to how these riches may be tapped. The word Tele, relates to the process of communication between your mind and the cosmic mind, through a process similar to Telepathy.

To tap this Telebank, you must use the higher psychic centers, which reside in the superconscious mind. Here it is that all knowledge regarding money and its equivalents exists.

Your conscious mind directs the tapping of this Telebank by relaying the sums of money you need, why you need them, and the possibilities of attaining them through normal channels.

To start the flow of riches from the Cosmic Telebank, use the key words I Tap with the following Telecosmograms to your superconscious mind. This message will be relayed to the cosmic mind, and it will direct you as to what steps you should take to obtain the money or things of value you desire.

I Tap: The Cosmic Telebank is filled with treasures in the visible and invisible universe. The soil teems with riches and abundance. I now plant the seed in my consciousness that will bring from the invisible cosmic realms the money I need to fulfill my every desire.

I recognize the law which states, "As ye sow, so shall ye reap." I now sow the seeds of plenty in my subconscious mind. I desire a home of my own, furnished beautifully. I desire an education for my children. I desire a car that will be useful for pleasure and profit. I desire a large sum of money in the bank, which will give me future security. I desire a steady income from some business source that will continue to grow and prosper through the years. I ask for beautiful clothing, jewels, television and hi-fi sets, all things of value that I require I now draw on from the universal Telebank of riches.

2. When you have formulated the plan which you wish to project to the cosmic mind that releases all the treasures of the universe, read the Telecosmogram given above several times, until its meaning has been firmly imprinted on your subconscious mind. Then repeat the key words I Tap, 49 times in series of seven, as given elsewhere in this book. Send to your higher mind the following Telecosmographs: Imagine yourself receiving large sums of money. See them coming from expected and unexpected sources. Visualize yourself getting a new idea, to write a book, to compose a song, to invent some article, to go into some business where you can make money quickly.

A woman who needed money came to our lectures in New York City. I gave her this system for tapping the Cosmic Telebank, and told her to begin at once to visualize money coming to her from some source that was not known to her then. She said, "But there isn't any possible chance that I can receive a large sum of money from any source. I have no rich relatives who might die; I haven't an idea in my mind for an invention or a song or book. I am absolutely untalented."

However, I persisted in telling her that she must have faith in the cosmic intelligence and to keep projecting the mental images of money coming to her from some unexpected source in the immediate future.

She called me up within a week and said, "I just got a check for $500. as a refund on last year's taxes, but this isn't enough to meet my future needs. I really expected more than this small amount."

I told her to bless this small sum and to keep tapping the Cosmic Telebank for the larger sums she desired.

This woman called me again within one month and her voice mirrored the excitement she felt: "A miracle has happened! I kept projecting to the cosmic mind that I would have a sum in excess of $50,000, although, I doubted it could come quickly, and what do you think happened?" Then she went on to tell me that an uncle, who had gone to Canada in the 1930's had never married but had made a large sum of money through an early investment in some mining stocks. He had never helped her mother, who was his sister, but now he had died and left this woman and her mother the sum of $65,000!

3. Program into your subconscious mind the Law of the Double Return, for demonstrating money or its material equivalents.

Every time you give out a dollar or five or ten, bless it and invoke this Law of the Double Return.

Use the key words I Double, and it will trigger the following Telecosmogram in your subconscious mind:

I Double. I now invoke the law of the double return in my life. I now bless money and release it joyously, knowing that for every dollar I give out, two will come to take its place. This law works in nature and taps the Cosmic Telebank of riches and abundance. A grain of wheat produces a kernel; a kernel planted again, produces a pint; a pint, turns into a bushel. I now invoke this same cosmic law and double my money.

How Howard Hughes Used the Law of the Double Return

I once leased my home at 10539 Bellagio Road, in BelAir, California, to the famous billionaire industrialist, Howard Hughes. This was back in 1956, before he was such a recluse.

I had occasion to talk to him several times during the year he lived there and he once told me an interesting story about the law of the double return. When he was a youngster, he played a game with his playmates, in which he would cut out paper shaped like bills and write in the corners various sums, representing money with which he traded. One day, while they were playing, Hughes asked his playmates which they would rather have, the sum of $1,000 a month as salary, or a penny a day, doubled every day for 30 days.

Of course, all his playmates chose the $1,000 a month. Hughes then proved to them that a penny a day, doubled every day for 30 days, would run into more than a billion dollars!

It was on this theory that he built his vast fortune; everything he invested in doubled and multiplied astronomically. He instinctively knew this law about money, and used it all his life. Without even being aware of what he was doing, Howard Hughes, even at that early age, was programming his subconscious mind with the law of the double return, which later made him his vast fortune!

4. To further imprint the subconscious mind with the Telecosmograms that start the flow of ideas to make you rich, use the system of chanting that is taught in the Far East.

You can make up a chant to fit any needs, but for increasing your supply from the cosmic telebank of the universe, use words that designate money or its equivalents. Here are some chants that you may use. Say each chant out loud and repeat them seven times.

I am rich—rich—rich.

I attract money—money—money.

I become wealthy—wealthy—wealthy.

I magnetize gold—gold—gold.

I desire the sum of $100,000—$100,000—$100,000.

If you wish to receive smaller sums of money from the cosmic telebank of the universe, use a chant that signifies how much you want for some temporary need.

I desire $1,000—$1,000—$1,000.

Say this chant aloud seven times, and then consider that it is filed in your subconscious mind for future action. What will happen after this is that your subconscious mind will reach into the deep recesses of its cosmic memory bank to discover everything it knows about you, your gifts, and your possibilities for making that amount available to you.

A message is flashed, through a kind of cosmic telepathy, from this higher cosmic intelligence to your own consciousness, and suddenly you are given a direction to do a certain thing, write a certain letter, or see some person who will bring you the money.

A woman who was in my lecture work in Carnegie Hall some years ago, before they had the lottery in New York State, used this system to tap the Cosmic Telebank for money. She had a young daughter, who was dependent on her, the father having deserted them some years before. The mother worked part time as a maid. She had absolutely no known way of receiving $100,000. However, she felt that if she had that amount they would have security for the future. She used the key words I WIN, with the Telecosmograms given above, and started her mystic chants using the one she had made up to fit her needs: I desire the sum of $100,000—$100,000—$100,000.

Two months passed and nothing definite seemed to happen, but she kept up her daily programming with her chanting and the Telecosmograms for money.

One day when she was visiting a relative, he told her that he had just bought an Irish Sweepstakes ticket for a small sum and he suggested she buy one also. It was then that this woman thought, for the first time, of this as a possible way for her to win her $100,000. She bought a ticket and increased her chanting of the mystic ritual to three times a day. As the day drew nearer for the drawing, she had a feeling of triumph within herself.

When the results were published, this woman's ticket was one of those drawn on the race to be run, which would establish if she would win the $100,000 or a smaller amount.

The day of the big race, she kept repeating her mystic chants, and when the papers came out that evening, they announced her ticket as the winner of the big prize! She and her daughter moved to California, where she invested the money wisely and had security for the future.

5. To further help program your higher mind with the positive images of money and things of value, use the following method to flash Telecosmograms of fame and riches to your subconscious mind: Put yourself into the Cosmic Hall of Fame with rich and famous people.

You have heard the saying, a picture is worth 10,000 words. Your subconscious mind is triggered by the Telecosmographs that you flash to its sensitive depths. You can join the richest and most famous people, who have achieved success, by having your own Hall of Fame, where you join these successful people.

Get a scrapbook, the type you paste photographs in. Write on the first page, My Cosmic Hall of Fame. Then cut out of magazines or newspapers pictures of famous, rich people from every walk of life who have made a big success on their own. Then, after pasting in their pictures, put a small photograph of yourself on the same page, with your name underneath it. Some rich people whose names you will find, with their photographs, in newspapers and magazines are:

Bing Crosby, said to be worth between 400 and 700 million dollars.

Bob Hope, worth well over 400 million.

Art Linkletter, said to be worth more than 100 million.

Governor Rockefeller, worth close to a billion dollars.

Aristotle Onassis, worth close to two billion.

Lucille Ball, worth in the neighborhood of 100 million.

W. Clement Stone, H. L. Hunt, of Texas, the Rothschild brothers, famous bankers, worth many millions, as well as others that you will discover if you do research at your public library.

Use all these, or as many as you can find photos of, and paste them in your Cosmic Hall of Fame with your name and picture; then daily look at this Hall of Fame and program your subconscious mind with the following key words and Telecosmograms:

Use the key words I Move Up and the Telecosmograms:

I now tap the Cosmic Telebank of universal riches. I move up into the Cosmic Hall of Fame with those who have achieved fame, riches, and success. I begin the flow of creative ideas from my higher mind centers, which will guide me to the achievement of my fortune. I move up into the higher brackets of income. I move in circles of socially prominent, accomplished people who have achieved recognition from the world. I am aware that a position of power and success awaits me and I now prepare myself to move into those circles of creative mind action that will bring me rich rewards.

A young man who used this system of putting himself into the Cosmic Hall of Fame, was working his way through college in New York City. He was very interested in sports, particularly playing the vigorous game of ice hockey. He began to program his subconscious mind that he would one day be able to play professional hockey with a leading team. He had no contacts with rich or famous people, but he persistently used the key words I Move Up and the Telecosmograms given above, also sending the Telecosmographs of himself playing hockey in the number one team in America at Madison Square Garden. After two months of this type of programming, he went about his usual studies and his amateur ice hockey playing. One day, a scout from the leading ice hockey team in America saw him play and tagged him for a beginning position with his team! The boy went on into the Hall of Fame of great hockey players, without any effort on his part!

6. To tap the Cosmic Telebank of universal riches to increase your flow of money, use the principle of tapping the cosmic generator to start the flow of money, goods, supplies, and possessions in your direction.

To do this, visualize an electrical generator, which starts the flow of electric power. When the generator is humming, it keeps that electricity flowing out over a vast network of lines, giving us light, power, heat, or cool air. When the generator stops, the flow of electricity is curtailed.

Your brain is like a generator; it even uses electric current, turning the mechanism of your body into creative action, that gives you health, causes the heart to beat, the blood to flow, the vital organs to perform their functions perfectly. When you implement the generator of your subconscious mind with conscious direction, you can strengthen the flow of creative ideas that can make you rich.

To start the cosmic generator humming with new life and power, use key words that will begin the flow of ideas into your conscious mind.

Following are some of the key words that people have used to create great works in their own fields of endeavor. Select the key words that suit your exact needs, using a combination of one or more, and repeat each one at least seven times, two times a day, until your subconscious mind is completely programmed with the message the key words contain.

I Believe: I express faith in a higher mind power that can manifest for me all the good things of life.

Great men who have used this Telecosmic Power; Galileo, Columbus, Pasteur, Newton, Edison.

I Desire: I desire a great destiny, with adequate rewards financially. I desire fame and recognition.

People who have used the I Desire key words: Ford, Rockefeller, Carnegie, and Vanderbilt.

I Create: I am a creative channel through which flows power to create beauty and good. I lift the world to new heights of achievement with my ideas.

The key words I Create have been used by some of the great geniuses of the past and present, to bring great music, poetry, literature, artistic masterpieces, inventions, scientific discoveries, and great ideas in every field of human endeavor.

I Improve: I strive to improve my life, my personality, my appearance, my mind and intellect, knowing that I shall be able to function better in my relationships with other people, bringing higher standards and greater benefits to the world.

I Give: I give of my creative ideas, and the world becomes a better place. I give beauty and banish ugliness; I give joy and make others happy; I give love and I am blessed with love.

I Heal: I pour the healing balm of love on the troubled waters of life and I restore peace and calm. I am an agency for the uplifting and betterment of the human race and I am in turn healed and made whole.

I Illumine: I release the beacon light of truth in my own mind and it casts its rays on the dark places of the world, bringing illumination. I transcend the forces of ignorance and darkness with the light of Infinite Intelligence.

This powerful key has been used throughout history by educators, teachers, reformers, ministers, priests, and rabbis, and they have helped overcome ignorance and have elevated humanity to new levels of civilization.

I Lead: I become a leader of those who stray from the path of light into the shambles of war, darkness, and superstition. I inspire and uplift those who have lost their way, and bring them back to the path of peace and joy.

Many great statesmen, teachers, soldiers, sailors, airmen, and others have used these key words I Lead, to show the way to those who have been ~~mirred~~ mirred down by the vicissitudes of life.

I Establish: I establish my own creative sphere of action, in my own environment, freeing me from financial pressures and bringing me the fame, riches and abundance that I desire.

The great financial empires that have been established by the Rockefellers, Vanderbilts, Morgans, Mellons, Onassis', and other financiers, were created through this powerful key word.

I Perfect: I evolve and perfect the elements of the natural world, bringing them to even greater productivity than before. I strive to achieve idealism, in which I become more perfect in every way. I bring higher standards, improved morals, advanced ideas, into every sphere of creative action which benefits the world and myself.

These key words were programmed by Burbank to improve nature's products; by Edison, to discover electric light, the motion picture camera, and other inventions; by Einstein, with his mathematical formulas that helped unlock secrets of atomic power.

I Discover: I discover the world of mind and spirit, in which there exists unlimited creative power. I explore the new horizons of limitless cosmic space and discover in the realm of the intellect vast powers, which can produce illimitable good for humanity.

The key words I Discover were used by the famous explorers of history, like Columbus, Marco Polo, Cortez, and Livingston, to open new frontiers of living for humanity.

HOW TELECOSMIC POWER CAN BRING YOU VITAL GOOD HEALTH AND YOUTHFUL ENERGY

14

You can use Telecosmic Power to bring you vital good health, a long life, and youthful energy.

We are experiencing more sickness today in America than in any other period of history, despite the fact that this is the most advanced age of all time.

No matter what form of sickness afflicts you, there is one sure cure and that is through the agency that made you sick in the first place—your subconscious mind.

Telecosmic Power can be used to program your subconscious mind with the image of a perfect, healthy body. Science now says that we can stop the aging processes of the body and even cure many formerly incurable diseases through control of the higher mind centers by a process used in the laboratories to heal sickness, known as Alpha meditation.

We program ourselves to believe we must suffer from asthma and allergies; we believe that arthritis is something that can strike at anyone; we are programmed to believe that millions will die this year, and every year, from high blood pressure, heart trouble, cancer, and other dreadful diseases.

WHY NOT USE TELECOSMIC POWER TO PROGRAM GOOD HEALTH?

Instead of programming all these disasters and the belief that man must die at three score and ten, why not use Telecosmic Power to program your subconscious mind with the thought you can be healthy and live to be a hundred years or more?

Scientists, in the laboratory, today, are performing seeming miracles through the control of the brain waves. The patient sits quietly and thinks in certain wavelengths, called Alpha, Theta, Beta, and Delta, and the blood pressure miraculously goes down to normal; the heart begins to beat faster or slower, depending on the person's need; a certain mental programming is brought about which shrinks tumors, removes warts from the body, directs the thyroid to secrete more thyroxin, or the adrenals to pump more adrenalin into the bloodstream.

You can trigger your subconscious mind with reactions that will regulate your body's organs and their functioning perfectly.

The Emile Coué school of thought achieved this through auto-suggestion. Hypnotists achieve control of the body through hypnotism; you may use self-hypnotism to do the same thing for yourself. You can use key words that will reach into your subconscious mind and cause it to send out healing currents to your body's billions of cells.

You can use this Telecosmic programming to go back into the genetic programming of your body cells, to tell you the secret chemistry that keeps your body healthy or makes it sick.

HOW TO USE TELECOSMIC POWER TO GIVE YOU PERFECT HEALTH

1. First it is necessary that you break down the old negative subconscious programming which creates sickness.

Use the key words I Dissolve with the following Telecosmograms, which should be imprinted on your subconscious mind by reading them at least five to ten times.

Your subconscious mind is instantly programmed with the Telecosmograms you flash to it, and it never forgets them. All you need do is to remember the simple key words I Dissolve, and others which I shall give for healing the body, and the entire mechanism of your subconscious will be instantly set into motion to do the natural healing action, without any effort on your part.

You must always remember that your subconscious mind wants you to be healthy, to live long, to enjoy life, for only through you can it exist! If you die, so does the subconscious. This Telecosmic twin of yours is prejudiced in favor of health, not sickness; it favors life, not death; it enjoys it when you are vital, young and expressing life to the fullest.

The subconscious suffers much abuse at the hands of its twin. It takes this punishment because the conscious you, who is in control, gives it commands to be sick, to suffer and be in pain, to commit slow suicide by ingesting wrong foods and poisons. You must reverse this negative programming before you are sick, and then repeat the Telecosmograms, through the key words, every day of your life, to remain, healthy, strong and vital.

Use This Telecosmogram to Dissolve Negative Subconscious Programming

I Dissolve: I recognize that my subconscious mind is filled with many negative forces from the past. I here and now dissolve all these negative programmings that I have intentionally or accidentally given to my higher mind.

I dissolve the negative thought that it is natural to be sick, in pain, or to grow old prematurely.

I dissolve the negative programming of fear, worry, hate, resentment, frustration, guilt, and other negative emotions that create the climate within my body for germs, infections, colds, arthritis, high blood pressure, allergies, and other forms of illness.

2. After you have cleared your subconscious mind of all the former negative programming of sickness, age and other elements, you are ready to begin the process of rebuilding your body, giving it the power to resist the invasion of germs and the breakdown of its organs.

For this purpose use the key words I Heal, with the following Telecosmograms:

I Heal: I realize that health is a natural state and that sickness is unnatural. I now realize the healing power of my higher mind to bring me perfect health. This subconscious mind, which built my body in my mother's womb in nine months time, knows the secrets of chemistry, of healing, and of restoring my body's organs to perfect functioning. I now program my subconscious mind with the desire to be healed of all malfunctioning of my body organs, of every kind. It will once again establish the glandular balance with the proper secretions that my body requires to keep me perfectly healthy.

I Direct: I now direct my higher mind to send instant telepathic communication to every cell of my brain and body with the message of healing, which I now invoke.

I direct my subconscious mind to choose the right foods, the balanced diet, that will give my body perfect nourishment and keep it healthy and filled with life energy.

I direct the life force of magnetism, electricity and other invisible forces, to flow throughout my brain and body, establishing order and harmony in my body cells and giving me vitality and energy.

I Control: I control the automatic functions of my body through my subconscious mind. My heart now beats at a normal rate of approximately 72 beats per minute. My body temperature remains normal; my blood pressure now maintains itself at what is its normal rate for my age and weight.

How a Man with High Blood Pressure Used Telecosmic Power to Lower It

A 55-year-old man came into our work in New York City, who weighed 235 pounds and had a blood pressure that was perpetually in the 200 area. He had tried every form of dieting and medication for his condition, but after a short time he went right back to his old former habits and up would go his weight and his blood pressure.

In desperation, he decided to try using Telecosmic Power to signal his subconscious mind to stop his appetite for rich foods, which caused him to keep his excessive weight. The doctors had told him that was one cause of his high blood pressure. Another cause, they told him, was his frustrations in his work and at home, where he had to contend with a wife who constantly nagged him and was unsympathetic to his condition, often calling him a "Pig" when he indulged his excessive appetite.

This man used the I Dissolve key words for a period of one week, to try and rid his subconscious of the guilts, fears, and frustrations he had accumulated over the years.

Then, for three successive weeks, he intoned the I Heal, I Direct, and I Control key words, with the appropriate Telecosmograms.

He noticed a change in his eating habits almost immediately. After three days of using the key words I Control, he found, when it came to dessert time, that he had a full feeling and did not crave the sweets and starches that he had formerly required to round out each meal.

It took this man three months to get rid of his excess pounds and once again establish normal functioning of his metabolism, but at the end of that period he had lost 60 pounds and was down to the weight which was normal for his age and height!

3. To keep up this programming you have established for good health, youth and vitality, use the keywords I Maintain, with the following Telecosmograms every day of your life.

I Maintain: My body is now under the direct control of my subconscious mind and functions perfectly in every way. I now maintain this level of energy, health and vitality at all times. I maintain the state of mind that is positive, peaceful and optimistic. I allow no one and nothing to disturb my inner tranquility.

4. No matter how correctly programmed you may be, there may sometimes be a temporary indisposition, a mild headache, an ache or a pain you cannot account for, a tendency to eat too heartily, or to pick up a cold virus from some source—for after all, your body is human and subject to these normal aberrations at times. At such times you can help remove the pain or temporary disturbance by using the key words I Remove with the following Telecosmograms.

I Remove: Any temporary pain or localized negative condition that afflicts my body is now under the direct control of my subconscious mind. I ask that it remove such temporary conditions instantly, relieving me of pain, discomfort, or ill effects.

A woman came to our lectures in New York City, who had severe migraine headaches that had persisted for many years. She had seen every known type of doctor, including chiropractors and herb specialists, but had no positive result. During one of my lectures she was in severe pain, and thought she might have to leave the hall. Then, when I went into the meditation, which was a form of mental programming, for the subconscious mind, this woman's headache suddenly left her. When she came back the next week she told me triumphantly that she had not had one single recurrence of her migraine headache in that time. Now, months later, this woman is the most cheerful, happy, and healthy person you could imagine. Some deep-rooted cause of her headaches had been forever dispelled by Telecosmic Power!

5. If you are troubled by the belief in age and are limiting yourself in your life's perfect functioning, because you think you are old, you can help rejuvenate yourself remarkably by using the key words, I Rejuvenate, with the following Telecosmograms:

I Rejuvenate: My body is subject to a higher spiritual law than the passage of man-made time. I now function under the working of a cosmic timeclock that sets my spiritual age by standards of spirit rather than body.

As spring comes eternally to the earth after the barrenness of winter, so too the soul knows only the spring-time of eternal life and never feels the chilling blasts of winter. I am now rejuvenated and reinvigorated by the flow of cosmic life energy, which bathes my cells in the alkalinity of youth and life and perpetual energy.

Whenever you feel fatigue, due to what we call old-age, retire for a few moments into the inner self, and say the key words I Rejuvenate seven times, and this will in turn trigger the energy-giving Telecosmogram for youth and vitality.

A woman who was in her late seventies came into our work, and told me she lived in a home for retired citizens, most of whom were in their seventies and eighties. She was extremely depressed as she saw the decrepitude which most of these people showed and it affected her. She thought of nothing but dying.

I gave this woman a completely new programming subconsciously, making her realize that it was natural to grow old, but that it was not natural to be decrepit. I urged her daughter to take her out of the home for retired people and let her assume a useful function in her life, taking care of her three young grandchildren. This woman kept using the I Rejuvenate Telecosmograms, while actively engaged helping rear her daughter's three beautiful children. She suddenly blossomed with new youth and energy, doing the cooking, housecleaning, and baby sitting with greater zest for living than ever before!

YOU AND YOURSELF—THE COSMIC TEAM
PLAYING THE PERFECT GAME OF LIFE

15

You are a part of a Cosmic Team that is joined together for a lifetime, playing to win in the game of life.

You can achieve the high goal that you want to attain, you can have perfect living, vital good health, riches beyond your wildest dreams, love happiness, friends, and social reciprocity—yes, all these things can be yours if you play fair and square with your Cosmic Teammate—your subconscious mind.

However, the tendency to cheat on yourself, and to fool this cosmic twin, is very strong within your conscious mind.

Your higher self wants you to be rich and prosperous. It is playing for high stakes in the game of life. Your conscious mind, the other half of this cosmic team, tells you that you were born poor, that it is difficult, if not impossible, for you ever to be rich, and that you must dwell in mediocre circumstances all your life.

Your other half is hopeful that you will want to reach great heights, to be famous, to create great works, to win recognition in life, to be honored, and have fame and fortune.

But your conscious half of this cosmic team tells your higher mind that you are untalented, little more than a moron, that others may be geniuses, but you were born to lose out in the game of life, remaining in a position that is lowly and unrewarding.

Your higher self urges you to make the effort; it says:

Rise, aspire, achieve the great goals of life. I will help you become an actor, a singer, an artist, a writer, an inventor, a composer, a great merchant, or industrialist. I know the techniques to use, I can inspire you to the heights.

But your shrinking violet of a conscious self, replies:

I am afraid I'll fail. I do not have a college education; I am self-conscious and inferior. I must beg for the crumbs from the festive board of life and look on at the passing parade of successful people from the sidelines of life.

Which side of this cosmic team are you really on? You know that you want successful living, all the good things of life. Then move over from the losing side of the game to the winning side!

USE TELECOSMIC POWER TO BLEND YOUR TWO MINDS TOGETHER

Use the key words I Blend with the following Telecosmograms:

I Blend: I now recognize my cosmic twin, my subconscious mind, and realize that we are playing the perfect game of life together. I now blend with my cosmic other half in a joyous merger, where we unite our forces for an identical purpose: to win in the exciting game of life.

A man who was constantly on the losing side of the game of life recently came into our work. He was 44 and married with three grown children, but he told me he could hardly make ends meet with rising costs of living. He was in a job he disliked, as a waiter in a big, busy restaurant. He worked hard but saw no future ahead for himself and his family.

This man's entire aura was a negative one. He had to be put on a very rigid Telecosmic program to change his mental programming from one of losing to one of winning.

I asked him what he would like to do, and he told me he had always wanted to own a small family-type bar in his neighborhood, which was predominantly Irish, his own nationality. He said, "I like people; they like me. I think I could make a success in that type of business, but where would I ever get the money to open such a bar?"

I then told him to use the key words I Succeed, with the following Telecosmograms to help him program his subconscious mind to ideas that would soon bring him success.

I Succeed: I know that every person has a unique personality, and a definite gift that he can use to bring success. I now program my higher mind with the thought that I can and will succeed in my chosen work. I desire a small family-type bar in my neighborhood, where I can meet people who are compatible and who will patronize my bar and bring me success.

Then I gave him the Telecosmograph to project to his subconscious mind every night: see your name over the door of the bar. Visualize where you would like to have it; see its interior, the decor, the arrangements of the bar stools, the tables, the kitchen, the cash register ringing up sales. See yourself back of the bar smiling at your customers, winning them over. Project the picture of the new home you and your family will have, see the furnishings in the apartment, the money in the bank, the car you want to drive.

This man began to change perceptibly from that moment on. He was at last joining with his subconscious twin to bring him success. He did not worry or wonder where his big chance would come from, but he faced each day's work confident that, somehow, his subconscious twin was working out the big, overall plan for their mutual success.

Within three weeks, a man came into his restaurant and he waited on him, courteously, efficiently, smiling pleasantly. The man was a representative of a big manufacturing concern, located in New Jersey. In chatting with him, he learned that this man was planning to retire in another year and wanted to locate in some small business in New York, which would give him something to do with his leisure time.

The man paid his check, leaving a generous tip, and the waiter forgot about him. The next day the same man returned, and said to the waiter, "I'd like to give you my card.

If you hear of any small business, I might be interested in it."

It was only then that the waiter remembered his dream—to own a small family-style bar. Perhaps the stranger would want to buy such a business with him and be his partner! The moment his subconscious sent through this thought, he knew that this could be it! He telephoned the man the next day and told him he wanted to see him with a business proposition. In the meantime, he looked around his neighborhood for likely locations and found one he thought would be suitable for a bar. He had his appointment with the business man and found that he was vitally interested in his proposition.

The upshot of it was that this man backed him in the bar, making him an equal partner, and giving the waiter a chance to pay back his share of the partnership out of his profits over a period of time. They opened the bar and it became an instant success. With the two men bringing their friends and acquaintances there, and with their courtesy and personal interest the customers kept coming back until the place was packed every day and night.

To work better with your cosmic twin and achieve a greater degree of unity, you can use short, subconscious motivators that will trigger subconscious reactions that are favorable for releasing Telecosmic Power for your every need in life.

Here are some that I have given to our class students and which have worked for them.

These short Telecosmograms should be said at least seven times whenever you wish to invoke their power. Your subconscious mind will soon be trained to instantly release the reaction that you have programmed for the specific key words you use.

1. Key Words: "I Create"

To inspire your mind with creative ideas. This subconscious motivator can be used by writers, artists, inventors, composers, actors, singers, public speakers, and even by businessmen to give them better ideas for increasing their income. Telecosmograms:

tiful, and profitable. I now tap the cosmic storehouse of riches and discover the great ideas that have inspired geniuses of the past.

2. Key Words: "I Banish"
