

INDIAN RITUALS

2.

OPENING RITUAL

Invoke watchers:

Point athame to East. Draw IPE invoking:

' Glory be to Vayu, god of Air, who dwells in the wind, who remembers this world. Lend your power to she who adores thee. I do Summon, stir and call you up to witness this rite and guard this circle!'

Athame to south, Draw IPE invoking:

' Glory be to Agni, god of fire, who dwells in the flame, who remembers this world. Lend your power to she who adores thee. I do summon, stir and call you up to witness this rite and guard this circle!'

Athame to west, Draw IPE invoking:

' Glory be to Indra, god of water, who dwells in the sea, who remembers this world. Lend your power to she who adores thee. I do summon, stir and call you up to witness this rite, and guard this circle!'

Athame to north, Draw IPE invoking:

' Glory be to Ura, goddess of the Earth, who dwells in the snowcapped mountain, who remembers this world. Lend your power to she who adores thee. I do Summon, stir and call you up to witness this rite and guard this circle!'