the shining Ones.
May her name, Queen Nefertiri, be given to her in the great house and may she remember her name in the house of fire on the night of counting the years and the telling of the number

Heaven hath power over the seasons, and the Magikal Word hath with wands painted to thought form.

" Hail thee, Shining Ones,
May thee cause the attributes of this Thought Form, Nethfertiri,
to be as we now say:-

" Let Her have the strength of a Lion,
And the justice of Thoth in His temple.
Let Her be kind and good to those who enter this dwelling whom we favour, so that when called they feel her aura as a beautiful Queen. May she send these people good fortune.
Let Her be felt as a strong protector and as a witch, by those whose intent is bad. May they feel her strength and protecting force about us.
Let Her judge wisely.
Let Her favour well.
Let Her protect strongly.

" May Her form be perceived by those in this dwelling when called.
Her form of beauty to those who are good in our eyes,
Her form of strength to those who wish malice to us.
Let Her form be as depicted, with a robe of white, a shining headdress, and in her hands may she conjure the form of any appropriate Wiccan tool necessary for her purpose.
Hail Shinning Ones, Grant that this be so.
Hail RA, OSIRIS, ISIS, HORUS - Gods of Ancient Egypt."

7. On Calling Our Thought Form

" Hail, Shinning Ones.
Hail, to you the Gods, the Lords of Above and Below, of the Living and of the Dead.
Cause Nethfertiri, born of Dale and Debbie, to come at our call.
Our call shall be: ' Nethfertiri, on guard'... (5 times)
Let her come like a drover after his herd,
Like a mother after her children.
Nethfertiri, On Guard."

8. The Summons

and over this her house, and over the work of Nethfertiri, and guard her from every evil thing that may come, for always. Let

Deb ISIS IS FAINT ON THE WATER,
ISIS RISES ON THE WATER
HER TEARS FALL ON THE WATER

3) NIGHT OF THE CLOUDS RITUAL

STAND FACING ALTAR, PYRAMIDON★

a) Egyptology

- " I am the Sphinx.
I am the woman buried in sand up to her chin.
I am waiting for an archaeologist to unearth me,
To dig out my neck and my nipples,
Bare my claws and solve my riddle.
No-one has solved my riddle since Oedipus.
- " I face the pyramids which rise like angular breasts
From the dry body of Egypt.
My fertile river is flowing down below -
A lovely lower kingdom.
Every woman should have a delta with such rich silt - Brown as the buttocks of Nubian Queens.
- " O friend, why have you come to Egypt?
Aton and Yahweh are still feuding,
Moses is leading his people and speaking of guilt,
The voice out of the volcano will not be still.
- " A religion of death, a woman buried alive.
For thousands of years the sand drifted over my head.
My sex was a desert, my hair more porous than punice,
And nobody sucked my lips to make me tell.
- Handah ♡ " The pyramid breasts, though huge, will never sag.
In the centre of each one, a king lies buried.
In the centre of each one a darkened chamber...
A tunnel, dead men's bones, malignant gold."

b) Encounter with Isis - Crowley

Kneel at ALTAR

- " My life was born on the dark stream of death
Down whirling aeons, linked abysses, columns
Built of eternal time. And lo! The light
Shed from Her shoulders whom I dimly saw;
Crowned with twelve stars and horned as the moon;
Clothed with a sun to which the sun of earth
Were tinsel; and the moon was at Her feet -
A moon whose brilliance breaks the sword of song
Into a million fragments; so transcends
Music, that starlight sandalled majesty!
Then - shall I contemplate the face of Her?"

contd..

☾=150's Talle ward.

Stand e) Isis Declaration - Crowley with wand raised.

" Isis am I, and from my life are fed
All showers and suns, all moons that wax and wane,
All stars and streams, the living and the dead,
The mystery of pleasure and pain.
I am the Mother! I am the sparkling sea!
I am the earth and it's fertility!
Life, death, love, hatred, light, darkness, return to Me -
To Me! "

f) Isis Lament - Solomon's Song

walk around Room

face altar

" Night after night upon my bed
I have sought my true love:
I have sought him but not found him,
I have called him but he has not answered.
I said, ' I will rise and go the rounds of the city,
through the streets and the squares,
seeking my true love.'
I sought him but I did not find him,
I called him but he did not answer.
The watchmen going the rounds of the city, met me and I asked, ' have you seen my true love?' "

g) Osiris - Slain and Risen - Crowley

☾ Osiris pos. at altar

" Then I fell away
Into some old mysterious abyss
Rolling between the heights of starry space;
Flaming above, beyond the Tomb of Time,
Blending the darkness into the profound
Chasms of matter - so I fell away
Through many strange eternities of Space,
Limitless fields of Time. I knew in me
That I must fall into the ground and die;
Dwell in the deep a-many years, at last
To rise again - Osiris slain and risen!
I am the Resurrection and the Life!
The work is finished and the Night rolled back!
I am the Rising Sun of Life and Light!
The Glory of the shining ~~MAN~~ of the Dawn!
I am Osiris! I, the Lord of Life, triumphant over Death. "
