Tetragrammaton

Square: King 7 fire
 Queen 7 water
 Knight 7 Air
 Knave 7 Earth

The whole system of Tarot is based on the universal principle or Law. This is called the TETRAGRAMMATON, IT acts on the 3 planes and is based on the following principles:

Principle ① a manifestation must have an active principle. (①, yod 7). The element is POSITIVE, DYNAMIC, ACTIVE.

Principle ② This is the base that it acts upon. (② He 7). The element is PASSIVE, NEGATIVE, MATERIAL.

Principle ③ This is the reflection, result of ① + ②. (③ Vau 7, ③) The element is NEUTRAL.

Principle ④ This is the 3 first principles combined, it is the second He 7, ACTIVE, and forms the beginning of the next triangle. The first 3 principles form what is called the FIRST FAMILY, or ABSOLUTE.

In the astral this is seen as:

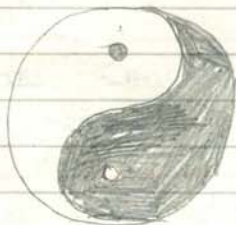

①		②		③		④
Impulse	+	Surroundings	=	Emotion	}	Experience
7 yod		7 he		7 Vau		7 he (2nd)

7 levels: Personality & Individuality

The personality is male or female. It lasts for only one incarnation. Everyone has to experience male & female incarnations, learning the lessons of each polarity so that the balance of the individuality can become fully developed. ~~This is expressed by the Yin-Yang symbol.~~

The individuality is bi-sexual, it lasts throughout incarnations and its male/female essences are perfectly balanced.

This concept is perfectly expressed by the Yin-Yang Symbol.

Yang: white, fertilising, positive, male. Contains the seed of its opposite.

Yin: black, formative, receptive, female. Contains the seed of its opposite.

In incarnations a male is positive on the physical and mental planes and negative on the spiritual and astral.

A female is positive on the spiritual and astral, and negative on the mental and physical.
